MINUTES,

ETC.

The One Hundred and Twenty-second General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met, according to appointment, in Atlantic City, New Jersey, in the Music Hall of the Steel Pier, on Thursday, May 19, 1910, at 11 o'clock A.M., and was opened with a sermon by the Moderator, Rev. James M. Barkley, D.D., from the following texts:—Mal. iii, 10: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse;" Acts i, 14: "These all continued with one accord in prayer;" Acts iv, 33: "With great power gave the apostles witness."

After the sermon, the Assembly was constituted with prayer.

The Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements reported, recommending a recess until 3 o'clock P.M.; that the hours of meeting be 9 A.M. to 12.30 P.M., and 2.30 to 5.30 P.M., the hour for the popular meetings to be 8 P.M., and that the first half-hour of the morning sessions be assigned to devotional services. The Report was adopted.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May, 19, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

Upon the Report of the Permanent Committee on Commissions, the following Ministers and Elders were recognized as duly appointed Commissioners, and their names were entered upon the Rev. Charles Little, D.D., of the Presbytery of Muncie, was elected Moderator, and the election was made unanimous.

On the nomination of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, the following were chosen as Temporary Clerks: Rev. George R. Edmundson, D.D., of the Presbytery of Denver; Rev. Harris G. Rice, of the Presbytery of Des Moines; Rev. W. Chalmers Gunn, of the Presbytery of Seattle; and Rev. W. J. King, D.D., of the Presbytery of Bell.

The presentation of a gavel to the Moderator was made the order for to-morrow, at 10 o'clock A.M.

The Report of the Committee on Evangelistic Work was made the order for to-morrow, at 3 o'clock P.M.

The Docket as printed in the Manual was made the Docket of the Assembly.

The Clerks were authorized to print the Roll.

The Committee of Arrangements, through its Chairman, Rev. Newton W. Cadwell, D.D., presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

It affords your Committee of Arrangements the greatest pleasure to welcome the One Hundred and Twenty-second General Assembly, the highest judicatory of our beloved Church, to this City-by-the-Sea.

This is sometimes called "The City of Hotels." When we invited this Assembly, the question of accommodation never entered into our calculations. Although this is considered a large Assembly, yet, as this is not our busy season, there are now vacant in this city possibly over 20,000 rooms. If any of you are dissatisfied with your assignments, please notify the Hospitality Bureau.

Some of you have been told that no good hotel can succeed without a bar, but it is a fact that most of our 700 hotels have no "café." They are mostly conducted by godly, true men, some of them Quakers, who stand true for civic righteousness and good government and the preservation of the Christian Sabbath.

Aside from exceptional accommodations, your Committee has, for the exclusive use of the Assembly, the Sun Parlor, next to Music Hall, in which will be found telephone, telegraph, writing-room and post-office.

The next large Auditorium will be used as a splendid hall of exhibits by the Boards of Education and Publication, and also the Home and Foreign Missionary Boards. Probably no exhibit heretofore attempted at any General Assembly will compare with the magnificent display of these great Boards of our Church.

Stereopticon pictures of the work of the Home and Foreign Boards will be shown each evening, in the Exhibit Hall, for half an hour immediately after the conclusion of each evening session of the Assembly.

Casino Hall, over the front entrance to the Pier, with its two parlors, can be used for six or eight committee rooms, and some of the large hotels have also offered the free use of their many parlors for a similar purpose.

Your Committee would call your attention to the Assembly Handbook, wherein you will find much useful information, not only concerning the time and place of meetings, but also other matters of interest. It can be had in the Sun Parlor.

We take pleasure in announcing that there are with us about thirty-five foreign missionaries, now at home on furlough, representing China, Japan, Korea, India, Siam and Persia, and about fifteen missionaries from remote sections of the home field.

Opportunity will be given later to see, face to face, these noble pioneers who stand upon our firing line.

We also announce that the Acousticon Company have installed in this Auditorium a number of their instruments, in about the centre of the building, and all those people, commissioners or visitors, who are not deaf, but a little hard of hearing, can have the use of said instruments free of charge.

The freedom of Heinz Pier, also of the Million Dollar Pier, is extended to all Commissioners and visitors that show their Assembly card or button. The Inlet Captains also extend the courtesy of their fine and safe yachts.

The local Atlantic City press is trying to cover all Assembly proceedings. Copies for ten days for 10 cents, to any address in the United States.

The following recommendation of services, additional to the Standing Orders, are submitted for approval:

First, That on Saturday evening, May 21, a reception be given to the Assembly, to noted guests, and to missionaries on furlough from the home and foreign fields.

That for the Sabbath, May 22, the following services be appointed:

At 10.45 A.M., a sermon by the Moderator in the Music Hall, on the Steel Pier.

At 3 P.M., a popular meeting in the interest of Missions in the Sunday-school, to be held in St. Paul's M. E. Church.

At 3.30 P.M., a mass meeting in the interests of Church and Labor, on the Million Dollar Pier, to be addressed by Rev. Charles Stelzle, the Hon. William S. Bennet, and the Hon. Charles F. Nagel, Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

At 7.45 P.M., a popular meeting to be held in the interest of Sabbath Observance, in Olivet Presbyterian Church.

At 7.45 P.M., a joint meeting of the College Board and the Board of Education, in Music Hall, on the Steel Pier.

At 9.00 P.M., an Evangelistic Service, led by Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., and Mr. Charles Alexander, on the Million Dollar Pier.

Your Committee of Arrangements also recommends: That the Lord's Supper be observed in Music Hall, at 8 P.M. to-night, in accordance with the Standing Order of the Assembly; the retiring Moderator, Rev. James M. Barkley, D.D., of the Presbytery of Detroit, to preside; Rev. Robert S. Inglis, D.D., of Newark, N. J., to administer the Bread; and the Rev. William H. Foulkes, D.D., of Portland, Ore., to administer the Cup. Also that the following Elders be appointed to aid in the administration of the Bread and of the Cup: Hon. Victor H. Lane, of the Presbytery of Detroit; C. Wilbur Sanford, of the Presbytery of Newark; E. W. Blackburn, M.D., of the Presbytery of Fort Smith; L. W. Gunby, of the Presbytery of New Castle; Hon. Newton W. Thompson, of the Presbytery of Los Angeles; Z. B. McClure, of the Presbytery of Gunnison; Prof. Wesley A. Challacombe, of the Presbytery of Alton; Joel E. Williamson, Esq., of the Presbytery of Indiana; Prof. H. A. Mitchell, of the Presbytery of Ft. Dodge; Prof. E. H. S. Bailey, of the Presbytery of Topeka; Peter Caldwell, of the Presbytery of Louisville; Prof. J. T. Ewing, of the Presbytery of Saginaw; William D. Edson, Esq., of the Presbytery of Duluth; Charles A. Young,of the Presbytery of Kansas City; John M. Wylie, of the Presbytery of Helena; H. E. Maxwell, Esq., of the Presbytery of Omaha; A. Judd Northrup, Esq., of the Presbytery of Syracuse; William T. Warner, of the Presbytery of Cincinnati; John H. Dingee, of the Presbytery of Chester; I. Layton Register, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; L. O. Maynard, of the Presbytery of Milwaukee; Jay W. Sutton, of the Presbytery of Lake Superior; Hon. J. C. Sheppard, of the Presbytery of Iron Mountain; Hon. John S. Jessup, of the Presbytery of West Jersey; James M. Stevenson, of the Presbytery of Denver; J. Cleveland Cady, of the Presbytery of New York; J. M. Lee, of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh; Frank R. McColl, of the Presbytery of Boston; Oliver R. Williamson, of the Presbytery of Chicago, and Charles T. Thompson, Esq., of the Presbytery of Minneapolis.

Finally, Brethren, in extending to you our heartiest welcome to what is often called "The Playground of the Nation," we earnestly pray that God's Holy Spirit may be poured out in abundance upon you all and upon the proceedings of this Assembly, and that your presence here may also bring a great blessing to this "City-by-the-Sea."

Respectfully submitted,

N. W. Cadwell, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 19, 8.15 o'clock P.M.

The Lord's Supper was celebrated, in accordance with the arrangements previously made.

FRIDAY, May 20, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, who were duly enrolled: Ministers—S. G. McCluney, of the Presbytery of Sedalia; James M. McJunkin, D.D., of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh; Thomas S. Johnson, of the Presbytery of Milwaukee; Alexander W. Johnstone, Ph.D., of the Presbytery of Petoskey; Rowland S. Dawson, of the Presbytery of Newark; Ruling Elders—H. E. St. Clair, of the Presbytery of Oklahoma; Seth McCulloch, Esq., of the Presbytery of Dayton; F. William Schafer, of the Presbytery of Monroe; H. L. Bretch, of the Presbytery of Hobart; Owen L. Smith, of the Presbytery of St. Joseph; George Tennant, of the Presbytery of Minot; George Miller, of the Presbytery of Muskogee; James H. Carr, of the Presbytery of Birmingham; Prof. T. P. Mallard, of the Presbytery of Austin; W. R. Phipps, of the Presbytery of Sedalia; Winfield Smouse, of the Presbytery of Iowa City; Arthur M. Peck, of the Presbytery of Albany; George A. Craker, of the Presbytery of Petoskey, and J. W. Rogers, of the Presbytery of Pueblo.

The Moderator announced the appointment of Ruling Elder Charles T. Thompson, of the Presbytery of Minneapolis, asVice-Moderator.

The Moderator announced the Chairmen of the Standing Committees.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to convey, by telegraph, to Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., of Brooklyn, New York City, the greetings of the Assembly, upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of his pastorate.

Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., Rev. William T. Thompson, D.D., and Rev. Charles A. Stoddard, D.D., aged members of the Assembly, were invited to occupy seats upon the platform.

Rev. Newton W. Cadwell, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, in an appropriate address, presented a gavel to the Moderator, who made a fitting response.

The General Rules for Judicatories and the Additional Rules found in the Manual were adopted as the Rules of the Assembly.

The Chairmen of Special Committees whose Reports were in print, were authorized to refrain from reading the preliminary matter in said Reports, and to read only the recommendations presented.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to send messages of fraternal greetings to other ecclesiastical bodies now in session.

The Stated Clerk laid upon the table of the Assembly the following documents:

(1) The Reports of the Boards and the Permanent Committees.

(2) The Reports of the Special Committees, in printed form and bound together, the volume being commonly spoken of as the "Blue Book."

(3) The Overtures from the Presbyteries to the General Assembly, in printed form.

(4) The Manual of the Assembly, for 1910.

The Reports of the Boards were referred to the proper Standing Committees, and the other documents were ordered to be distributed to the Commissioners, it being understood that the Reports of the Special Committees would be formally presented by the several Chairmen.

The Stated Clerk called for any Overtures or other papers from the Presbyteries, which might be in the house, and also submitted the Reports of the Theological Seminaries, which were referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The following Orders of the Day were fixed:

This afternoon, at 4.30, the Report of the Executive Commission, and also at 10 A.M. to-morrow.

Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance, Saturday, 11 A.M.

Report of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, third Order, Saturday.

Report of the Committee on Representation, Monday, 11.30 A.M.

Report of the Committee on Religious Education, Monday, 2.30 P.M.

It was ordered that the morning session of Saturday be extended to 1 o'clock.

The Special Committee on the Assembly Herald, through its Chairman, Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., presented its Report, which was approved, and ordered to be printed in the Minutes. It is as follows:

The Committee in charge of The Assembly Herald respectfully presents its annual report for the year ending December 31, 1909.

We are very glad to state that while the deficit is larger for 1909 than it was in 1908, yet it is not as great as we feared it might be.

The financial statement appended shows the total receipts to have been $27,687.21 and the expenditures $32,763.50, leaving a deficit for the year of $5,076.29. This amount has been apportioned among the various Boards.

The subscription list also while smaller by 2,203 names might reasonably have shown a greater falling off, for all classes of magazines found 1909 extremely bad from a subscription standpoint. At the present writing a part of this loss has been made up and the subscription list is only 1,268 less than it was a year ago.

What The Assembly Herald needs, and what it must have for a greater success along subscription lines, is the coöperation of the pastors everywhere. Those in whose churches no lists have been secured have been written repeatedly and many pay no attention to the letters. Others, from comparatively large churches, send but very small lists.

At the ridiculously low figure at which The Assembly Herald is published, its circulation could be doubled with a little systematic effort on the part of pastors. Those who support The Assembly Herald and use it in their churches are strong in its praises and find it of great use in the diffusion of knowledge of the work carried on by our Boards and in consequent zeal.

There are quite a number of our friends and those who do not support The Assembly Herald who urge improvement in the matter of the contributed articles, their arrangement, printing, etc. We are sure that all of these must recognize the fact that we are doing the best we can with the means at our disposal and that for twenty-five (25) cents a year (in Clubs) a most astonishing amount of up-to-date, high-class material is provided. It costs more than forty (40) cents a year per copy to publish The Assembly Herald, but the Boards prefer to keep the price at twenty-five (25) cents, as at present, and meet whatever deficit there may be at the close of the year.

During the year the several Boards have used space as follows: Home, 210 pages; Foreign, 184; S. S. Work, 37; Erection, 30; Relief, 30; Freedmen, 27; Education, 38; College, 31; Temperance, 12.

We take the occasion to express our warmest thanks to the many friends who have so earnestly worked on behalf of The Assembly Herald during the past year and to the pastors and sessions who have responded to our appeals for subscription lists.

Respectfully submitted,

A. W. Halsey,
John Dixon,
William H. Scott.

The Special Committee on Marriage and Divorce, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and the Committee was, at its request, discharged. The Report is as follows:

Your Special Committee on Marriage and Divorce respectfully submits the following Report:

At a meeting held in New York, Wednesday, April 13, 1910, the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce resolved to adjourn sine die, and appointed a Committee to prepare a statement to be submitted to the Churches united in the Inter-Church Conference, giving an account of the services of the Conference, and the considerations which persuaded the members that their special work was done, and that the important subject to which the Conference had given attention for the past seven years might be safely committed henceforth to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The Federal Council, which held its first meeting in Philadelphia, in December, 1908, is composed of officially appointed representatives from thirty-three denominations, comprising 100,000 ministers and 16,000,000 members.

It meets every fourth year, and in the interim between meetings its activities are in charge of an Executive Committee of sixty members, which meets annually in regular session. The Council has appointed a Special Committee on the Family Life, which includes more in its objects than the topics entrusted to and considered by the Inter-Church Conference. The Chairman of our Inter-Church Conference, the Right Reverend William Crosswell Doane, D.D., Bishop of Albany, is the Chairman of this Committee of the Council, and several of the members of the Inter-Church Conference, representing different Churches, are members of the Committee.

We believe that the Federal Council will prove to be a permanent and influential organization, and that the serious questions which have occupied the attention of the Inter-Church Conference will have still more effective consideration by its Committee on the Family Life.

It is hoped and believed that the Churches which have acted in the Conference will be still more closely united in the Federal Council, in the determined purpose to do everything possible to promote the purity and to ensure the preservation of the family.

Before the discharge of your Committee, if it shall be your pleasure to approve of the transfer of its work to the Federal Council, it seems fitting to give a brief account of the origin and work of the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce.

A communication was received by the General Assembly, meeting in New York in 1902, from the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, asking for the appointment, by the Assembly, of a Special Committee to confer with the representatives of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and with the representatives of such other Churches as might consent to confer, regarding matters pertaining to divorce and re-marriage. A deep and general interest in these vital questions brought into conference the representatives of fourteen Churches, together with representatives of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches.

In 1905, the Inter-Church Conference was held in the city of Washington, and at the request of the Conference, President Roosevelt secured the passage of an act of Congress which resulted in the obtaining of full statistics regarding marriage and divorce from 1887 to 1906. The publication is in two quarto volumes, and its contents are of deep interest. Alarming facts have been revealed in it which should deepen the conviction, and increase the zeal and watchfulness, of those who love their country, and seek its prosperity, and of those who regard the teachings of Jesus Christ as authoritative, and pray for the coming of His Kingdom.

All the actions and recommendations of the Inter-Church Conference, with the resolutions adopted by our General Assembly, will be found in the Assembly's Minutes from 1903–1909.

Although we still deplore the scandal, and sin, and sorrow resulting from the legal laxity that makes divorce and speedy re-marriage possible, and likewise regret that the efforts to resist and lessen the evils which threaten the permanence and purity of the family life, the stability of the State, and the very life and power of the Church, have not been largely successful, yet the united efforts of the Inter-Church Conference, of national and State officials and organizations, of the Bar Association of the United States, and of the National Divorce Congress, encourage us to believe that considerable progress has been made, and encourage us to hope that reforms will yet be accomplished which will wipe out much of the dishonor and disgrace that makes Christian America conspicuous, in permitting a laxity as to divorce that is our shame.

The States are so jealous of their rights, that we are not encouraged to hope for the enactment of Federal marriage and divorce laws, but we are encouraged to hope that, in the near future, we may obtain a uniformity of State laws, that will greatly lessen the evils that now exist.

The divorce laws enacted by many States, it is clear, entirely disregard the sacredness of marriage, and serious complications are occasioned by the contradictory legislation that prevails in different parts of our country. A decision of the Supreme Court of the United States has brought to the attention of citizens the deplorable conditions that exist, and some of the serious consequences of such conflicting legislation. But, without the united influence of those who profess to reverence the laws of God, and the morality taught by Jesus Christ, it will be impossible to secure such legislation as will enact righteous laws regarding marriage and divorce. It will require time and patience, and persistent effort, to correct the terrible wrongs that are being inflicted by unrighteous legislation. The evils that we deplore will continue and increase, until an awakened public opinion shall demand, of those who make and execute our laws, the protection of the family and the punishment of those who disregard its sacredness.

We cannot hope to influence public opinion, or secure stricter divorce laws in the State, until the standards of our Churches are in conformity with the teachings of Christ, and until the conduct of ministers and members of the Churches is in conformity with the standards of the Churches to which they have sworn allegiance.

Civil authority is not sufficient sanction for ministers and members of the Church of Christ. Unless the discipline of the Church will prevent its ministers from putting the seal of the Church upon unholy alliances, and will prevent its members from making such unholy alliances, it will be useless to expect the State to regard our protests, or to listen to our appeals for reform. Those who desire to make marriage contracts are anxious to have the sanction of the Church. It is in the power of ministers to prevent, in a large measure, the miseries of hasty and questionable marriages. Magistrates may be found who will give the sanction of the State with indifference, but the caution of ministers will, at least, save the Church from scandal. We cannot expect the Gospel to prevail as the power of God unto salvation, if those entrusted with the proclamation of its righteous laws and principles fail to impress men and women with the sanctity of the Church, and its condemnation of alliances that disregard the commands of Christ. Higher standards, and stricter judgment in the Churches, will compel better legislation. The Church finds faithful allies in the Bar Association and in the Divorce Congress. Both of these organizations have already accomplished much, and they give promise of advancing this reform by persistent effort.

The Supreme Court of the United States, and likewise the Courts of several States, are, by their decisions, calling a halt upon lax and ruinous legislation, and are filling with fear those who are recklessly disregarding family obligations and risking the dishonor and disinheritance of their children, by defying the laws of the States in which they have claimed residence, and by seeking release from their marriage bonds in other States, whose lax legislation offers greater license.

The membership of the Committee has undergone changes during our years of service. The Rev. Dr. W. J. McCaughan closed his work as a member of the Committee upon his return to Ireland. Rev. J. W. McIlvain, D.D., of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. S. B. Harbison, of Pittsburgh, Pa., served faithfully as members of our Committee until their removal by death.

In closing this Report your Committee desires to remind the General Assembly of action previously taken, and to recommend that all previous action shall be confirmed by this Assembly.

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

1. That this General Assembly hereby approves of the discontinuance of the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce.

2. That this General Assembly closes the services of this Special Committee, with the assurance that the important matters heretofore entrusted to the Committee will find faithful consideration by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

3. That the special Committee on Divorce and Re-marriage is hereby discharged from further service.

4. That the previous actions of the General Assembly are hereby reaffirmed as follows:

The Assembly of 1903:

"1. This General Assembly favors every lawful endeavor to correct the evils of lax legislation regarding the subjects of Divorce and Re-marriage, and to secure such uniformity of legislation thereon as may best promote the purity of society.

"2. This General Assembly hereby enjoins all ministers under its care and authority, to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the cases of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds, and for causes, recognized as Scriptural in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Assembly of 1904:

"1. The General Assembly again enjoins all ministers, under its care and authority, to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the cases of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as Scriptural in the Standards of our Church.

"3. The Stated Clerk is hereby instructed to call the special attention of Presbyteries to the action of the General Assembly regarding the marriage of divorced persons, and to request the Presbyteries to exercise such needful oversight and discipline as may be required to secure the enforcement of existing laws and obedience to the injunctions of the General Assembly.

"5. Recognizing the comity which should exist between Churches represented in the Inter-Church Conference, acknowledging, as they do, the law of Christ alone as supreme, we advise each minister under the authority of this Assembly to refuse to unite in marriage any member of any such Church, whose marriage is known to such minister to be prohibited by the laws of the Church in which such person holds membership, unless such minister believes that in the peculiar circumstances of a given case, his refusal would do injustice to an innocent person who has been divorced for Scriptural reasons."

The Assembly of 1905:

"1. This Assembly repeats the action taken (in 1904) and enjoins its Presbyteries, its ministers, elders and members to adhere strictly to our standards regarding Marriage, Divorce and Re-marriage.

"2. Ministers should refuse to marry divorced persons except the innocent party in a case where the divorce has been granted on Scriptural grounds, nor then until assured that a period of one year has elapsed from the date of the decision allowing the divorce."

The Assembly of 1906:

"This General Assembly hereby reaffirms the deliverances upon Divorce and Re-marriage after divorce, adopted by previous General Assemblies."

The Assembly of 1907:

"2. This General Assembly hereby reaffirms the deliverances of former Assemblies regarding Divorce and Re-marriage.

"3. That Presbyteries are hereby enjoined to enforce the standards of our Church, to hold to strict account all ministers under their care, and to urge all ministers to regard the comity that should refrain from giving the sanction of our Church to members of another Church whose marriage is in violation of the laws of the Church whose communion they have chosen."

The Assemblies of 1908 and 1909:

"The General Assembly hereby reaffirms all deliverances upon Divorce and Re-marriage after divorce, adopted by previous General Assemblies."

Respectfully submitted,

Ministers:	Ruling Elders:
Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Chairman,	John E. Parsons,
S. J. Niccolls, D.D.,	John W. Foster,
Paul F. Sutphen, D.D.	William M. Lanning.

The Report of the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce was presented by Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Secretary of the Conference, and was approved, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The following fraternal message was reported to the Assembly:

Atlantic City, N. J., May 20, 1910.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., Lewisburg, West Virginia:

The General Assembly in session at Atlantic City, N. J., sends most fraternal greetings. We are brethren.

Charles Little, Moderator;
William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

Rev. John Fox, D.D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of that Society. The following resolution was then adopted:

The General Assembly repeats with renewed earnestness the recommendations of former Assemblies concerning the American Bible Society as the ally and assistant of all our Mission Boards, and a pioneer of evangelization at home and abroad. Its service is obviously essential to the success of all our home and foreign missionary undertakings. The Assembly especially thanks all the benevolent individuals who have provided the Society with the sum of one million dollars as a perpetual endowment.

The Permanent Judicial Commission, through its Secretary, Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., presented a Report, which was referred to the Judicial Committee.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 20, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Special Committee on Work on the Continent of Europe, through its Chairman, Rev. Loyal Y. Graham, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman and the Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Special Committee on Work on the Continent of Europe would report that in accordance with the recommendations of the Assembly of 1909, it has given careful attention to the important interests in its care. The fields during the year in which it has sought to render service are as follows:

1. Frankfort, Germany.—Services were maintained throughout the year at Frankfort-on-the-Main, Rev. J. McIntosh Eckard being the minister in charge.

The services were held in the Hotel Imperial every Sabbath. Members of the American Colony, and tourists, expressed their gratification at hearing the Gospel preached in their own language while they were in a foreign land. There is great necessity for these services, because Americans do not care to go to the German or English Episcopal churches. A Sunday-school is held for the children, so that they may receive religious instruction. At present there is no church building, but nearly $2,000 has been collected for that purpose. Those who of their substance would like to assist in this enterprise should feel that by so doing they are helping a good cause. While the American Colony is not large, approximating nearly 100 persons, including children, it is true that a majority attend church. During the year 1909, three infants were baptized and one new member was received. During the present year the Rev. John A. MacSporran is occupying the field. The colony contributes $900 toward the support of the minister and the Committee adds to this $300.

Wiesbaden.—In Wiesbaden, a mission was conducted during part of March and all of April. Through the courtesy of the burgomaster, a fine room in the Town Hall was placed at the disposal of the Scotch and the American churches. May and June were the months selected by the Committee of the United Free Church of Scotland as the time for sending their ministers to this community, so by joining forces, services were held during the spring season in this famous resort. If by arrangements with our friends in Great Britain a pastor could be secured to take charge of the other season (autumn), a still better work could be done. The gifts of Americans at home are asked for this interesting work. Prospective tourists should be told about the arrangements of the Anglo-American churches on the Continent and urged to attend them while abroad. In this way the good work could be extended and many could be helped who are not now reached.

Nauheim.—Last summer services were held for several Sabbaths at Nauheim, a great resort for Americans. Rev. Carl Montanus, one of our ministers now residing in Germany, had charge of the work, and without remuneration preached the Gospel to all who would give him a hearing. He reports that there is an open door for services such as the Presbyterian Church can give. The English Episcopal Church does not appeal to those who have been accustomed to plain non-liturgical services, and if your Committee had funds to maintain a Presbyterian service, many would be attracted to it during the season. As it is, Mr. Montanus has promised to take charge of the work there during the season of 1910, and depend upon what your Committee can send him for support. He writes concerning the state of religion in Germany: "Everywhere the churches are empty, the Lord's day desecrated, and a fearful worldliness prevails among nominal Christians. The whole atmosphere is charged with the spirit of anti-Christ. Socialism is rife and of the rankest kind. The stage is presenting French plays to crowded houses. The literature is so contaminated that much of it would not be allowed to be transmitted through the mails in the United States of America. Yet it is a matter for thanksgiving that there is a hunger for undefiled religion among the humbler classes. Little groups are forming in many places for prayer and for the reading of God's Word, and, although it means separation from friends, these German believers have the true spirit and are alive to the truth. A splendid corps of workers, men of deep spirituality and consecration, are employed by the Gemeindschaft-bewegung, some notable evangelists being among the number. These are signs of promise that cheer amidst the surrounding apathy and apostasy."

Munich.—Your Committee hopes to be able to hold some services in this city during July and August. It is expected that great numbers of Americans will make this the objective point in attending the Passion Play at Oberammergau. Munich will be thronged with tourists going and coming from this play, and we believe that services should be conducted for their benefit. The Rev. Herbert Manchester, D.D., of East Boston, one of our Committee, sailed for Europe on April 19, and will endeavor to secure a suitable place to hold the services. We must depend upon American ministers sojourning in Munich for voluntary aid in maintaining these services, as we have not sufficient funds to sustain a resident minister. Your Committee will be thankful to ministers who contemplate going abroad if they will send their addresses to Rev. Dr. W. H. Roberts, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, and intimate what time they will be in Munich.

Carlsbad.—Two years ago services were held for two Sabbaths at this resort, and it was decided to hold some services during July and August of the present year. Great numbers of Americans visit this celebrated watering place during the season, and there is reason to believe that a goodly number will attend if it is known that such services are to be held. The great difficulty we have is lack of sufficient funds to support a resident minister, and we will be compelled here also to depend upon brethren traveling in Europe who can render gratuitous service.

The Latin Quarter, Paris, France.—The year 1910 marks the fifteenth anniversary of this work among students in the French capital. It was begun by Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., when a lengthy exchange of pulpits with Dr. Thurber gave him the opportunity of looking into the social and religious needs of the Latin Quarter. The Rev. Ernest W. Shurtleff, D.D., is in charge of the work, and has been since the departure of Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, in December, 1905. The work has constantly grown, and the usefulness of the Students' Minister and his devoted wife has extended and deepened with the passing years. The place of meeting is still the Académie Vitti, 49 Boulevard Montparnasse. The atelier seats about 300, and every Sunday evening finds it crowded to the doors. Dr. Shurtleff presents the Gospel to the students in the simplest and direct terms, and there are increasing evidences that the good seed is not falling on barren soil. The pastor and his wife reside at 6, Place Denfert, Rochereau, and at their apartment students are always welcome, and especially invited one afternoon every week. All the time, energy and heart of the minister are consecrated to the service of the students. He visits the sick, encourages the despondent, counsels and restores the erring, lifts up the fallen, assists the indigent, sends home the stranded, buries the dead, and nowhere could there be found more grateful appreciation of all that is done by the minister, or a readier response to the message that he brings.

The cost of sustaining the work is about $3,800 a year. More than $1,200 of this amount is raised in Paris; the remainder in America. There are no collections in the churches; all the money coming through private subscriptions. But we need a larger constituency, and the acting treasurer will be grateful for any gifts for this cause, that must commend itself to the heart of all who know the real Latin Quarter. It is hoped that some day there may be money for a Students' Headquarters, a most necessary accessory. Moneys should be sent for this cause to Rev. Sylvester W. Beach, Princeton, N. J.

Oxford, England.—To illustrate the situation as to the increasing need of spiritual care by the American churches for Americans in Europe, brief reference is made to the conditions at Oxford University, England.

It is of general public interest that the Presbyterian Church of England is undertaking spiritual work in that University, on behalf of the many Presbyterians who pursue their studies in that institution. The Rev. Donald Mattheson, a graduate of Cambridge University and for more than twenty years the minister of a London church, has been appointed as Presbyterian chaplain at Oxford. Some of the best students from Universities of Scotland, Ireland and Wales find their way to this University, and about one-fourth of the "Rhodes Scholars" are members of American or Colonial Presbyterian churches. It is interesting to know that one student that entered Oxford University as a Presbyterian, Cosmo Gordon Lang, son of a famous minister of the Church of Scotland, is now the Archbishop of York in the Church of England. The Presbyterians of England are not numerous, and in this admirable work, which they have begun, they ask and should receive the sympathy and support of the Presbyterian churches throughout the world. The English Presbyterian Church also has an organized church in Cambridge, England, and a vigorous society giving attention to the welfare of the students in Cambridge University. In addition it has at Cambridge an institution known as Westminster College, with a full faculty of five professors, the principal being the Rev. John Skinner, D.D. What has been done in Cambridge, so far as church life is concerned, should be also accomplished at Oxford.

Presbyterian Alliance.—The work of this Committee has been approved by the World Alliance of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches. The Western Section of the Alliance, meeting at Chicago, Ill., February 8–10, adopted the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That this Western (American) Section of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, hereby endorses the efforts made by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Reformed Churches in America, to hold religious services on the continent of Europe, for the benefit of American tourists and residents, and recommends this work to all the churches for contributions."

A similar resolution was adopted by the Ninth General Council of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches meeting in June, 1909, in New York. Many of the members of this World Council were from Great Britain and Europe, and understood the necessity for such services on the continent.

We believe that if the Presbyterian Churches in America would inform themselves on this subject, they would decide that it has a strong claim upon their benevolence and will be the means of spreading evangelical religion on the continent of Europe. We ask especially that individuals of wealth will come to the help of the Committee in this good work.

Your Committee cannot continue this work unless a more liberal response is made to its appeals for funds. There should be placed at its disposal at least $3,000 per annum, in addition to the sums contributed for work in Paris, France. The amount given during the past year, was utterly inadequate for the supply of the barest needs of the situation. The Treasurer of the Committee is Dr. George W. Bailey, North American Building, Philadelphia, Pa. It is hoped that gifts to this highly important and spiritually valuable work will be largely increased during the present year.

We recommend the following Resolutions for adoption by the General Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the Committee be continued and constituted as follows: Ministers—L. Y. Graham, D.D., J. Gray Bolton, D.D., Chauncey T. Edwards, D.D., William H. Roberts, D.D., Albert N. Keigwin, D.D., W. L. McEwan, D.D., William H. Oxtoby, D.D., Herbert A. Manchester, D.D., Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Sylvester W. Beach and Charles Wood, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Hon. William P. Potter, John E. Parsons, Esq., Ralph E. Harbison, George W. Bailey, M.D., and Charles S. Holt.

Resolved, 2. That this cause be recommended for gifts to our churches throughout the country and to benevolent individuals.

In behalf of the Committee,

LOYAL YOUNG GRAHAM, D.D., Chairman.

On the Moderator's invitation, Mr. John Willis Baer took the Chair, and the Report of the Committee on Evangelistic Work was presented by Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Recording Secretary of the Committee. A supplementary Report was also presented. After addresses by Rev. H. N. Faulconer and Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., the Reports were adopted, and are as follows:

Throughout another year the Committee has endeavored to carry out the instructions of the General Assembly in seeking to promote the spirit of evangelism in the Church. We express our gratitude to the Head of the Church for His continued blessings upon the work undertaken, and to the pastors and officers of the Church for their sympathetic interest and coöperation. The Committee has sought to make it clear to pastors and others that evangelism is a spirit and not a method.

The amount expended in the prosecution of the work from May 1, 1909, to April 30, 1910, was $45,332.00.

The amount expended was contributed as follows: By 100 individuals, $38,942.00; free-will offerings, $1,847.00; from 31 churches in response to an appeal for special contributions, $677.00; from the sale of song books, etc., $3,866.00.

The following regular lines of work have been pursued throughout the last year.

Simultaneous Evangelistic Campaigns.—Previous to the return of Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander from their Australian and Oriental tour, the evangelists who ordinarily are associated with them in the simultaneous services were engaged in holding meetings in different parts of the country, and the Secretary-Treasurer gave his time to the making of these engagements and to the correspondence and preparation for the campaigns which were conducted after January 1, 1910.

The first extensive simultaneous campaign for the year was conducted in the State of Maine; the first series including Portland and other important cities in the western part of the State and the second series including Bangor and towns in Eastern Maine. No other State Campaign under our direction has been so extended in its scope or so profound in its interest, and the testimony of resident pastors and leading Christian workers is that the results have been permanent and far-reaching.

Following the campaign in Maine, services were held in Dayton and Columbus, Ohio.

On March 30, Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander and others of their immediate party sailed for Cardiff, Wales, to conduct a mission for one month.

Two new factors have been brought into the simultaneous plans this year and they have added greatly to the acceptability and efficiency of the movement. The first of these makes it a principle not to interfere with the regular midweek or Sunday evening service of the churches in the cities where campaigns are being conducted; thus emphasizing one of the main principles of the movement—that is, to make it a means of assisting pastors and magnifying the importance of the church and its regular work. The second factor is the plan to use not only accredited and successful evangelists, but also evangelistic pastors wherever possible. This plan has had the endorsement not only of the Committee, but the approval of prominent pastors of all denominations.

It is expected that if work is carried on next year the present plans will be continued, but that in addition to the simultaneous campaigns, to be conducted throughout by Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander and their associates, there will be an opportunity to prove in several cities the value of a new plan, namely, to organize the city for a simultaneous campaign and to have the meetings conducted for several weeks by evangelistic pastors, to be followed by a week or ten days of meetings in a large central auditorium, to be conducted by Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander. This plan has also been endorsed by leading pastors of the different denominations in various parts of the United States.

Conferences.—The number of conferences in the larger cities this year has not been so great as was planned, owing to a lack of time and the difficulty of securing satisfactory speakers, but there has been an increased interest in the plan of giving time at the regular meetings of Presbyteries and Synods to the consideration of evangelistic methods and work. Through the coöperation of synodical officers the work has been presented at practically all the Synods, and in many Presbyteries special evangelistic conferences have been held at some time during the year. Grateful mention is made of the cordial coöperation on the part of presbyterial and synodical officers.

In connection with this meeting of the Assembly and by vote of the Committee, evangelistic conferences have been held on May 17 and 18, considering the general theme of "Pastoral Evangelism," with addresses and conferences on phases of this theme.

Mention should be made of the conference feature of the Welcome Tour in connection with the return of the Chapman-Alexander party from their Australian and Oriental Mission. Their visits to Minneapolis, Chicago, Warsaw, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York, Brooklyn, Springfield and Boston were not only occasions for large gatherings giving expressions of welcome, but also the means for gathering pastors and church officers in practical conferences. In connection with the Welcome Meeting in Chicago, the Moody Bible Institute conducted a three days' Midwinter Conference for Christian Workers.

South and Southwest.—Dr. Joseph P. Calhoun has continued to give direction to evangelistic effort in the South and Southwest, and he has done this in addition to his pastorate in the First Presbyterian Church in Maryville, Tenn., through arrangements with that church and the coöperation of the Board of Home Missions. Wherever Dr. Calhoun has labored, he has done so to the great profit of pastors and churches and he has attended numerous assemblies, conferences and Synods, presenting the general work of the Committee, pastoral evangelism and kindred subjects. In connection with a camp meeting at Bloomington Springs, Tenn., two services were held each day. The meetings were largely attended by mountaineers. Many were convicted of sin and professed conversion. At the close of these services the organization of a Presbyterian church already begun was completed with a membership of about forty and put under the care of a Sunday-school missionary.

In February a series of meetings continuing two weeks was held in Maryville College and High School. One hundred and eighteen made professions of faith; most of them boys and young men. A number of these are now candidates for the Gospel ministry.

Dr. Calhoun has had able assistance in the person of Rev. W. B. Holmes, of Lebanon, Tenn., who has devoted his time since July 1, 1909, to the weaker churches of the Synod of Tennessee. His work has been missionary as well as evangelistic; sometimes he has had to go from house to house to encourage the little flock that was pastorless and without a church building. He has also assisted a number of churches to initiate plans for building. The testimony of Dr. Calhoun and other brethren is that the work of Mr. Holmes has been of great value, and there is a desire to have the work continued.

In addition, the evangelistic movement in the South and Southwest has received impetus and support through the coöperation of Dr. B. P. Fullerton, a member of the Committee, and the Field Secretary for that region for the Board of Home Missions, and through the increased number of evangelistic pastors supported by the Board of Home Missions.

On June 1, 1910, Dr. Calhoun will resign in order to become the Secretary of the Interdenominational Evangelistic Committee of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The Committee hopes to continue evangelistic work in the South and Southwest in some form.

Educational Institutions.—From June 1, 1909, to January 1, 1910, Rev. James Beveridge Lee, D.D., has labored as our representative in the colleges, universities and theological seminaries. The Committee is in receipt of letters testifying to the value of the services rendered by Dr. Lee.

In his final report to the Committee, Dr. Lee gives an exhaustive review of the work which he conducted throughout nearly four years. During this term of service, it has been quite impossible to gather up and to report results, but Dr. Lee's work covered visits to denominational colleges, theological seminaries, State universities, presbyterial, synodical and special conferences in all parts of the United States. The work was an earnest attempt to stimulate the religious life of the student bodies in the colleges and universities. This has been done by means of private conferences with students, public meetings in chapels and special religious services arranged by the college authorities, and in some cases these services extended throughout an entire week. For the most part there has been cordial and sympathetic coöperation on the part of college authorities, and more serious consideration by students of the problems which confront them.

On January 1, 1910, Dr. Lee gave up this special work in order to become associate pastor of St. Paul Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

The following action was taken by the Committee.

"The Evangelistic Committee hereby expresses and records its sense of the valuable service that has been rendered by the Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, D.D., in his capacity as Special Secretary for work among students from which, upon his own motion, he asks to be allowed to retire, January 1, 1910.

"Dr. Lee has done splendid work in a sphere in which, as a representative of the Church, he was somewhat of a pioneer, and his labors have been useful, not only upon undergraduate students, but also in demonstrating to the Church at large that the University would furnish a field, both important and promising, which, however effectively it has been cared for by interdenominational agencies, should have the best wisdom and efforts of some organized agency of our Presbyterian Church.

"We assure Dr. Lee that, both for his work's sake and his own, he retires with the fraternal and affectionate confidence of every member of this Committee."

A plan of possible coöperation in the furtherance of the evangelistic spirit and the deepening of the spiritual life among Presbyterian young people has been suggested to the Board of Education. A favorable response has been received.

Literature.—The Committee has continued the publication of the Evangelistic Bulletin and has also issued the following leaflets of which large quantities have been sent to pastors for free distribution: Present Day Evangelism—Passion for Souls—Twenty Reasons Why Revivals are Desirable—A Call to Prayer—Prayer and Revival—More Purpose in Prayer—A Workable Plan—Two Workable Plans—Soul Saving—Soul Winning—Drawing the Net—Getting an Audience—The King's Business—Hints for the Inquiry Room—Training the Young—For What

Are We Converted?—Address to Young Converts—The Sunday Evening Service—Church Day—Children and the Church—An Old Fashioned Home—What is it to be a Christian?—Six to One—One by One Method—A Day of Blessing—The Church a Spiritual Force—A Financial Plan—Decision Day in the Sunday School—Decision Day Suggestions—The Test of Time—Organizing a Church for Personal Work—A Personal Letter—The Next Day After—The Pocket Testament League—How One Pastor Conducts an Evangelistic Service—A Challenge to the Church—An Appeal to Laymen—A World Wide Opportunity in Missions—The General Assembly's Committee, Its Work and Field—Am I Willing to be a Secret Christian?— The Gift of God—A Plain Talk with Myself—Can you Pray?— A Message to Men—Helps for Those Beginning the Christian Life—White Harvest Fields—Rural Evangelism—Presbyterial Evangelism—Some Suggestions for a Campaign of Personal Work—The Pastor's Council—The Church at Work—The Privilege and Opportunity of Church Officers.

Lumber Camp Work.—Rev. J. O. Buswell, who was in charge of the work among the men in the forests and mines, found it necessary to resign as superintendent, but the investigations made by him show the importance of the work, the appreciation of it by the men themselves, and the readiness of lumber firms to assist in its promotion. The Committee has also given assistance to special work in some mining camps in Colorado.

Rural Evangelism.—In the last report to the Assembly, brief mention was made of a simultaneous county campaign (rural) which has been conducted under its direction in Tippecanoe County, Indiana. The Assembly approved of the plan and instructed the Committee to continue it so far as possible and called the attention of Presbyteries to it. A conference on the subject was held at Winona Lake, Ind., August 4, 1909, which was attended by about twenty representatives from the Middle Western States. Following this, the Committee assisted a number of these Middle Western Synods in the promotion of the rural evangelistic work in several counties in each State. This was done so far as the finances of the Committee would permit and the work has been carried on with success in a number of counties. It is impossible to give detailed figures covering all portions of the work undertaken, but the letters received from evangelists and pastors indicate that pastors have been encouraged, churches revived, many isolated homes visited and family altars erected, worldliness has been rebuked; the unity of Christians in the one great work of the Church has been emphasized, and hundreds of men and women have found great joy and a new purpose in accepting Christ as their personal Saviour. It is the conviction of the Committee that the matter of "Rural Evangelistic Effort" is one of the greatest opportunities and needs before the Church at this time and the attention of Presbyterial officers and committees is called to the plan which has been followed by the Committee.

CHESTER PLAN.—Several years ago brief mention was made of the plan followed by the Laymen's Evangelistic Association of the Chester, Pa., Presbytery. This work has gone on for more than four years with increasing enthusiasm and success and has been the means of reaching thousands of unchurched people and of assisting many weak and discouraged churches.

Although there are other Presbyteries which have adopted the plan of employing evangelists, we believe the Chester Plan to be unique in that the salary of the evangelist and the necessary expenses of the work are provided by a committee of laymen who underwrite all the expenses, and who give the time of the evangelist to the disposal of the regular Evangelistic Committee of the Presbytery.

The Chester Plan of Presbyterial Evangelistic effort, so called because of its adoption and successful operation by the Presbytery of Chester, includes the following:

1. The employment of an evangelist by the Presbytery to work within the bounds of the Presbytery, or of the Presbyteries coöperating.

2. An Evangelistic Committee appointed by and reporting to the Presbytery with the entire charge of the assignments of the evangelist and the general oversight of the work.

3. A Laymen's Evangelistic Association, separately organized by laymen underwriting the expenses of the movement, receiving the free-will offerings of the churches and from its own treasury paying the salary of the evangelist and the expenses of the campaign.

4. Assignments for definite periods, made only on application by sessions and the evangelist in fulfilling his appointments working under the direction of the session interested. The only exception to this rule is evangelistic endeavor in new fields or tent work under the direction of the Evangelistic Committee.

5. Uniform supplies provided by the Evangelistic Committee and all local expenses, including traveling expenses and entertainment of the evangelist, borne by the local church independently of the free-will offering from the laymen's treasury.

An outgrowth of this plan is the conduct of evangelistic services, by laymen, for five weeks, from May 1 to June 5. Evangelistic services are to be held in chapels and branches of the different churches of the Presbytery, usually in strictly rural districts and small villages, and the services are to be conducted chiefly by laymen under the supervision of the evangelist and pastors of the churches of which the chapels or rural congregations are a charge.

The Committee believes that such a plan as this could be carried into effect in very many of the Presbyteries in various parts of the Church and the success of the Chester Plan be duplicated. The plan should be adopted with the expectation of prosecution through a series of years. The knowledge of conditions gained by the evangelist during a first visit and the mutual confidence of evangelist and pastors are valuable assets for a second visit. Experience is gained also as to methods and means suited to peculiar conditions in the Presbytery. The Committee expects to publish a leaflet giving fuller information concerning the work of the past four years in the Chester Presbytery and giving details and suggestions for carrying out this plan.

During the last year the Committee has sent to presbyterial officers and evangelistic committees a leaflet of suggestions and also a letter in which it was suggested that it might be possible to secure the aid of pastors in near-by cities to conduct evangelistic services in weak or vacant churches. This plan has been followed in a number of cases with gratifying results.

Foreign Tour.—On March 26, 1909, Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman and Mr. Charles M. Alexander and other members of their party sailed from Vancouver, B. C., to carry out the plan which had been adopted by the Committee for conducting an evangelistic campaign in Australia. This campaign continued through four months and was followed by a conference tour in Manilla, China, Korea and Japan.

The following statement concerning the tour is made by Rev. Ford C. Ottman, D.D., a member of the party.

Our party left Vancouver on the 26th of March, and arrived back there on the 26th day of November, so that we were absent from the country exactly eight months. En route to Australia we called at Honolulu, and at Suva in the Fiji Islands, and at both these places held services. We were in Australia 118 days. Of these, eighteen were consumed in traveling, during which we journeyed by land and sea 6,399 miles. The other hundred days were given up to continuous religious services. A conservative estimate has placed the entire number of services conducted by the different members of the party at not less than one thousand, an average of ten for each day. We visited Melbourne, Sydney, Brisbane, Adelaide, Ballarat and Bendigo. The greatest religious enthusiasm was manifested in all these cities. For several months prior to our arrival there had been many meetings for prayer held throughout the entire continent of Australia in view of our coming, and God most graciously heard and answered these prayers of His believing people. There was a singular unanimity on the part of all the Australian churches. Every evangelical denomination coöperated most heartily, and where in some instances there was a primal objection on the part of some ministers these objections were waived when the spirit and power of the movement were understood; and ministers, church officers and church workers generally gave to the movement their heartiest approval and support.

All classes of people were reached in these meetings, but it is, of course, impossible to estimate the total results of such a series of meetings. We were told by those who were in a position to know that the entire Commonwealth had received a tremendous impulse toward a better civic, social, and commercial righteousness. The friendly attitude of the churches toward the movement was shown in their unanimous request to have us return to Australia within a period of three years. The United churches of Tasmania and New Zealand were also joined in this invitation. We had hoped to visit Tasmania and New Zealand, but were prevented carrying out this intention because of the program arranged for the Orient.

We sailed from Sydney on the 11th of August. On the 13th we held a farewell service at Brisbane, and en route to Hong Kong we held services at Townsville, Thursday Island, and Manilla, the ports at which our steamer called. We were unable to give as much time to Manilla as we had hoped, but Mr. and Mrs. Asher rendered most acceptable service there a month in advance of our arrival.

In China we visited Hong Kong, Canton, Shanghai, Nanking, Hankow, Peking, Tientsin and Cheefu. In Korea we visited Seoul, Song Do, and Pyeng Yang. In Japan we visited Kobe, Oseka, Kyoto, Nikko, Tokio and Yokohama. The services held in these countries were practically of the same character. In the treaty ports we held regular evangelistic services for the English speaking residents, inspirational meetings for the missionaries, and occasionally held services for the natives through an interpreter. In places where there was no large European contingent our efforts were largely confined to the missionaries, the native pastors and helpers, and the foreign population.

We have reason to believe that good results followed our evangelistic meetings, and the missionaries bore witness to the value of the inspirational meetings held with them. Our work among the natives through an interpreter was singularly blessed of God, and many were led to an acceptance of Christ in these meetings. In every place we were profoundly convinced that the hour has come for a world-wide simultaneous evangelistic work.

World Evangelistic Work.—It is believed that a world-wide evangelistic campaign is possible, and the recommendations here presented to the Assembly are made after prayerful consideration of the subject. The report made by the Corresponding Secretary to the Committee after his journey of 36,000 miles, and his visit to five continents, is cheering in the extreme. The tidings given directly from the foreign field, the stories of lives transfigured, and of entire communities changed by the preaching of the Gospel, lead us to believe that the time has come for a world-wide movement.

The interest which is in evidence in our own country in the simultaneous campaigns; the work on the frontier and the notable instances of individual personal efforts being put forth for Christ; the successful and inspiring work of the Board of Foreign Missions, and the stimulating influence of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, give us added reasons for believing that the day has come when we may begin to gather our harvest from the great field, which is the world, the sowing for this harvest having been done by martyrs who are now in the presence of God, and by faithful missionaries and ministers, whose efforts God has blessed so abundantly. A world-wide movement is not possible in a single year, but the work will grow with the passing years, and have we not a right to expect that in due time our hopes of a great campaign, such as is proposed, may be realized? It is undoubtedly true that the work must begin with a single denomination, and it has already begun there and has received the endorsement of the Alliance of Reformed Churches. But it is the hope of the Committee that ultimately the campaign may include all branches of the Church, and call into active service all who love our common Lord.

In its report last year the Committee said: "It is the firm conviction of the Committee that God has opened up the way, not only for interdenominational coöperation in evangelistic work at home, but also for international coöperation in such work among the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world." This conviction has been deepened by the experience of the past year and by the leadings of Providence in this very direction. Coupled with the blessing of God upon the work in Australia and the Orient, and the action of the Presbyterian Churches in Australasia in appointing members of an Inter-Presbyterian Committee and in renewing the invitation to Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander to return to Australasia, there has been the heartiest interest and coöperation on the part of other branches of the Presbyterian Church in this country.

The following is a resumé of the progress along this line within the last year.

(a) Following the action of the General Assembly in 1909, the Evangelistic Committee appointed its representatives on the World-wide Committee at a meeting held in New York City, June 16, 1909, and named as the Committee, Mr. John H. Converse, with H. C. Minton, D.D., John F. Carson, D.D., A. E. Keigwin, D.D., and Robert F. Coyle, D.D.

(b) The matter of the world-wide movement was presented to the Ninth Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, at their meeting in New York City, June 15–25, 1909, and this body "considered the action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. officially submitted to it, and took action authorizing its executive commission to appoint a Committee of Coöperation in Evangelistic Work to consist of ten or more (five or more from each section) who shall consider all proposals made to it for evangelistic work in any country; shall make such arrangements as may appear proper in each case, and shall have power to act thereon at its own discretion."

The Chairman of the Evangelistic Committee of the Western Section of the Alliance is the Rev. David J. Burrell, D.D., who is also President of the Alliance, and the Secretary, the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D.

(c) At a meeting of the Evangelistic Committee held January 4, 1910, it was decided to send representatives to England and the European Continent to present the matter of the world-wide movement to Presbyterian bodies, and the Committee named as its representatives Dr. W. H. Roberts, Dr. H. C. Minton, and Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman.

(d) Immediately after the meeting of the General Assembly in 1909, the Corresponding Secretary of the Evangelistic Committee conducted correspondence with officials of the Canadian Presbyterian Church, the United Presbyterian Church, and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., and these bodies have appointed their representatives for membership on this World-wide Committee, and have manifested great interest in the plan.

(e) A meeting of the World-wide Committee was held in Chicago in February, 1910, at the time of the meeting of the Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Presbyterian Alliance, and the whole matter was called to the attention of the Western Section, which took the action embodied in the report which follows:

Plan for World Work.

"Whereas, The Constitution of this Alliance includes among its objects, 'all subjects directly connected with the work of evangelization, such as the relation of the Christian Church to the evangelization of the world;' and,

"Whereas, Among the powers of the Council appears the power 'to entertain and consider topics which may be brought before it by any Church represented in the Council;' and,

"WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., transmitted to the Ninth General Council of this Alliance, meeting at New York City, in June, 1909, a proposal for the world-wide evangelistic movement under Presbyterian auspices; and,

"WHEREAS, The said Council acted favorably upon such proposal and appointed a Committee of Coöperation in Evangelistic Work, which shall consider all proposals made for evangelistic work in any country; shall make such arrangements as shall appear proper in each case, and shall have power to act thereupon in its own discretion, provided there shall be no expense to the constituent Churches of the Council;' and,

"WHEREAS, There is a need for prompt action in this important matter,

"THEREFORE, the Committee on Coöperation in Evangelistic Work of the Western or American Section of the Alliance recommends to the Western Section the adoption of the following resolutions:

"1. That a Committee of Management of this Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System be and is hereby appointed, to secure the coöperation of all who love our Divine Lord, in a world-wide movement of evangelism, and that the Committee shall be known as the Committee of Coöperation in Evangelism.

"2. That the Chairman of this Committee of Management be Mr. John H. Converse, LL.D.; its General Director, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., and its Secretary, Rev. Parley E. Zartmann, D.D., with such other officers as the Committee may select.

"3. That each of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System be requested to appoint coöperation committees on Evangelistic Work, such action having already been taken by the General Assemblies of the Australian and Canadian Churches, he Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the United Presbyterian Church.

"4. That the membership of the Committee of Management shall be constituted of the Chairman and at least two additional representatives from each coöperating Church or denominational committee. In the case of Churches whose supreme judicatories are unable to act at present, the Western Section shall appoint representatives through its Chairman. It is directed that the Committee on Evangelistic Work of this Alliance also appoint each three representatives to be constituent members of this Committee of Management.

"5. That all details as to the methods in carrying out the campaign shall be left to the Committee hereby appointed, with the understanding that a report is to be made at the successive annual meetings of the supreme judicatories of each Church represented, and also to the Executive Commission of the Alliance.

"6. That the supreme governing or advisory bodies of other Evangelical and Protestant Churches throughout the world be requested to coöperate in the movement.

"7. That all the expenses in connection with the work of this Executive Committee shall be met by voluntary contributions.

"8. That the representatives of this Section be appointed to present to the Churches of Great Britain and the European Continent the subject of World-wide Evangelism as referred to in this Report, and that Drs. Good, Minton, and Burrell be appointed by the Section as three of such representatives, and that other representatives may be named by the Chairman of the Section.

"9. That this action be transmitted to the Committee on Evangelistic Work of the Eastern Section.

"The above action was adopted with the understanding that the Committee on Evangelistic Work of the Eastern Section would be earnestly requested to concur therein, and if the way be clear, to appoint an Associate Chairman and an Associate Secretary, with a view to the speedy organization of its part of the work, the details of methods, etc., to be left to conference between the officers and members of the full Committee of Management."

In seeking to acquaint the British and other European Churches with the World-wide Movement, Dr. Chapman has presented the matter to the Presbyterian Church in England; Dr. Henry C. Minton has been appointed by the Committee to present the matter before the Assemblies of Scotland, Ireland, the Synod of England and to other representatives on the Continent; Dr. William H. Roberts has been appointed by the Committee to speak on the Movement before the World's Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in June, 1910; and by appointment of the Western Section of the Alliance, Drs. James I. Good, of the Reformed Church in the United States, and David James Burrell, of the Reformed Church in America, will present the cause in connection with their visits to Europe this summer. Dr. Minton also was named by the Alliance as one of its representatives.

Special Fields of the Work.—The Committee has been able to respond favorably to but a few of the very many requests for evangelistic work which have come from various parts of the Church.

It is hoped that a larger work may be done with the coöperation of the Board of Home Missions in some of the Middle Western Synods where no especial assistance has been given for a number of years.

Pocket Testament League.—No part of the general work of the Committee has met with heartier response or approval than that of the Pocket Testament League, which is an effort to promote the habit of daily Bible reading and of carrying a portion of God's Word with one. This work has been carried on, not only from the office of the Committee, but bankers, lawyers, doctors, Sunday-school superintendents, secretaries of Young Men's Christian Associations, missionary secretaries, and other Christian leaders have taken up the work and have enlisted thousands of people as members of the League. There is no organization, and only the following simple pledge:

"I hereby accept membership in the Pocket Testament League by making it the rule of my life to read at least one chapter in the Bible each day, and to carry a Testament or Bible with me wherever I go."

The Committee considers it a privilege to promote the systematic and habitual reading of God's Word, for a closed Bible and an open faith never go hand in hand.

In addition to the work which has been done in this country, while the Chapman-Alexander party was on its evangelistic and conference tour Mrs. Charles M. Alexander, Mr. George T. B. Davis, Mr. Ralph C. Norton, and other members of the party devoted much time to the work of the League and more than 25,000 members were secured.

The following resolutions are offered and their adoption is recommended:

1. That a Committee consisting of twelve ministers and twelve elders be appointed by the Moderator, to carry on the work as heretofore, with such changes in the plans as may seem wise. The expenses of the members in attendance upon regular meetings of the Committee shall be paid by the General Assembly.

2. (a) That the endorsement of the World-wide Evangelistic Movement by the General Assembly in 1909 be and is hereby cordially reaffirmed.

(b) That the Assembly hereby expresses its deep gratification at the action of the Ninth Council of the World Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System in appointing a Committee on Evangelistic Work, and heartily approves the plan adopted by the Western or American Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance as contained in its report.

(c) That the Evangelistic Committee be authorized and instructed to confer and coöperate with all similar committees throughout the world in accordance with the plan of the Alliance, and that its appointment of representatives to other Churches be approved.

(d) That a World-wide circle of prayer for the accomplishment of this great world purpose be formed, and that the arrangements therefor be referred to the Evangelistic Committee to consult with similar committees of other Churches.

3. That the Assembly expresses its high appreciation of the action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Churches of Australia, also of the General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (South), and the United Presbyterian Church of N. A., in appointing Committees to coöperate with the Evangelistic Committee of this Church, in this world-wide movement.

4. That the Assembly recognizes in this opportunity of world-wide work a renewed obligation upon our own Church to be active and efficient in soul-winning, and that all the home churches be urged to make this year memorable through an advance along all spiritual lines.

5. That the Evangelistic Committee be instructed to labor in close harmony and fellowship with all the Boards of our Church, especially the Boards of Foreign Missions and Home Missions.

6. That the Committee be instructed to continue its work in stimulating pastors, elders and other church workers to soul-winning, taking special note of those churches which, during the past year, have received few or no members on confession of faith; and for the accomplishment of this purpose the Committee is authorized to arrange for and hold conferences with pastors, churches, Presbyteries and Synods.

7. That the Committee be authorized to survey the field of evangelistic literature, and to issue a list of helpful publications, coöperating therein with the Board of Publication; meanwhile continuing to provide literature for current use.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN H. CONVERSE, Chairman.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT.

The Executive Committee of the Evangelistic Committee met at the call of the Assistant Secretary, at Philadelphia, Pa., on Thursday, May 5, 1910, at 1 P.M., in view of the death of the Chairman, Mr. John H. Converse.

The Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts presided by request. It was decided that the Report of the Committee should be presented to the Assembly as it was, as it had been prepared under Mr. Converse's direction, and had his signature attached.

The Committee further adopted a request to the General Assembly that one-half hour be given on Friday morning, May 20, after the presentation of the Report of the Committee, for a memorial service to Mr. Converse.

The following Memorial Minute was adopted, and directed to be presented to the Assembly:

MEMORIAL MINUTE.

The Evangelistic Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., deeply bowed before God with grief and yet with patient submission to the divine will, places on record the following Minute as to the life and services of the Chairman, John H. Converse, LL.D., who died at Rosemont, Pa., May 3, 1910.

Mr. Converse was a son of the manse, his father being the Rev. John Kendrick Converse. He early manifested much interest in religious work, and as God prospered him in business, became distinguished for his benevolent interest in every good cause. He was the friend especially of education, missions and evangelism. The beginnings of his public service, in connection with evangelistic work, was in the city of Philadelphia. At a meeting of the Presbyterian Social Union of the city in April, 1899, Mr. Dwight L. Moody presented to that influential body of laymen the subject of city evangelization, and plead that the Presbyterians of Philadelphia would take up the work. The plea was effective, and evangelistic work was at once begun, and was prospered greatly of God. The success of evangelism in Philadelphia prompted an effort for work in larger fields. The General Assembly met in St. Louis, Mo., in 1900, Mr. Converse being Vice-Moderator. At that Assembly the Forward Movement for the Twentieth Century was initiated, and when the Assembly met in Philadelphia in 1901 a resolution was adopted appointing a Committee on Evangelistic Work, of which Mr. Converse was named as Chairman.

To this work Mr. Converse gave his heart, carried responsibility for it with him everywhere, and devoted to it largely of his time, abilities and means. The movement spread from city to city, was taken up by other than Presbyterian Churches, and at the time of Mr. Converse's death plans had been made for a world evangelistic movement, to include not only non-Christian but also Christian lands. Mr. Converse realized to the full the obligation of Christians for the whole world for which Christ died, and also realized that if the world was to be won for Christ the Churches of Christ in Christian lands must be aroused to the work of salvation both at home and abroad. His was, in a remarkable degree, that love for man as man which is the keynote of the Christian religion.

Mr. Converse associated with himself, in the fall of 1901, the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., as the General Secretary of the Evangelistic Committee. In Dr. Chapman's absence, we venture to speak for him as well as for the Committee, and bear unanimous testimony that the great work which has been accomplished in connection with evangelism during the past nine years in the United States, Canada, and Australia, would have been impossible without the self-denying and Catholic spirit and the great generosity of the Chairman. The Presbyterian Church and the Christian Church in general owe to Mr. Converse a debt of lasting gratitude. His loss will be deeply felt. In the city of Philadelphia, the churches and the community, without respect to denominational or other lines, united in a tribute to him of regard and esteem, rejoicing together in the purity and generosity of his nature, and declaring that his life was an inspiration and a blessing, and his death an occasion for universal grief. It is not too much to say that Mr. Converse was one of the representative Christian laymen of America, and as such was honored throughout the world. Our sorrow is alleviated by the fact that we have the assurance that, while we mourn over our loss, he has received the reward of the faithful worker, that crown of righteousness which God alone can bestow, and the welcome divine plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

This supplementary Report is respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

PARLEY E. ZARTMANN, Assistant Secretary.

In accordance with the Report as adopted, a memorial service was held, in which Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., spoke of Mr. John H. Converse as a business man; Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., spoke of him as a soul-winner; Rev. Cleland B. McAfee spoke of him as a friend; and Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., led the Assembly in prayer.

The Executive Commission, through its Chairman, Rev. James M. Barkley, D.D., presented its Report, and after the adoption of Sections A and B the consideration of the same was postponed until to-morrow morning.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to print in the newspapers the list of Standing Committees, which is as follows:

To the Standing Committee on Publication and S. S. Work:

Overture No. 65, from the Presbytery of Seattle, requesting the creation of a Training School for Sabbath-school Workers.

Two resolutions were submitted, which were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance, through its Chairman, Mr. James Yereance, presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by Rev. T. Albert Moore, D.D., Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of the Dominion of Canada, and Rev. G. W. Grannis, D.D., Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, was adopted. It is as follows:

"The Sabbath is the golden clasp which binds together the volume of the week."—Longfellow.

To lead all the people of this land thus to appreciate the truth, to coöperate with all Lord's Day Alliances and Sabbath Associations, and in our Annual Reports briefly to review the progress of the cause of Sabbath Observance throughout the country and thus furnish material for reflection and pastors' sermons on the subject, "Lest we forget" the God-given heritage of our favored land, are the aims of your Committee.

At Home.

Rest Day.—The progress made during the past year in creating the uniform demand for a weekly rest day has been more marked than ever before.

The United States Government has required the heads of its Departments to reduce to a minimum the work required on the Sabbath. The Postmaster General, in his last Annual Report, says "It is also the policy of the Department not to require any more work on Sundays than is absolutely necessary to prevent congestion of mails. There is considerable variation in different offices, however, and the Department is endeavoring to bring about uniformity in this regard and also to devise a plan whereby a day of rest may be given those employes who are compelled to work all day on Sunday." The National Associations of Postal Clerks and the Letter Carriers, at their meeting at St. Paul (representing 25,000 constituents), were in hearty accord with the efforts being made to secure the weekly rest day.

The Navy Department has directed commanders to inspect their vessels on week days, rather than on Sundays, as has been the custom heretofore. The Secretary also agrees to issue an order that the enlisted men of the navy shall in every port conform to the law of the State in which they are, and respect the usages of the order-loving and law-abiding people of the neighborhood.

Two months ago there was held in New York on a Sabbath afternoon a meeting under the auspices of "The Day of Rest Conference," which is composed of fifteen or more Sabbath and Moral Reform Societies and leading men in labor organizations. The Labor Unions in the several boroughs omitted their weekly meeting that afternoon and sent delegations to the conference. Addresses were made by clergymen, by a prominent Hebrew merchant and by Mr. John Mitchell, the great labor leader—all in the line of the demand for a weekly rest day.

Yielding to such demands over the country, we note that the United States Steel Company have within a few weeks stopped the running of all Sunday trains carrying material for their mills, thus relieving 30,000 men of their accustomed Sunday work. All mills of the Carnegie Steel Company and the National Tube Company at Pittsburgh, the International Paper Company at Franklin, N. H., and many other industrial establishments of the country have also stopped Sunday work.

[illegible] the following startling figures are furnished your Com[illegible] to the Sunday work still carried on in the City of New [illegible] where employes are compelled to work seven days in the week, in 3,726 restaurants, 290 hotels, 1,905 drug stores, 712 florists, 2,550 cigar stores and stands, 1,600 news stands, 2,000 delicatessen stores, 1,726 confectioners, 2,500 bakers, 100 automobile garages, 1,037 livery stables—aggregating 300,000 employes, in that city alone, who lose their day of rest.

Well did the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America unanimously adopt, among other specific principles for which it asserts the Church must stand:

1. The gradual and reasonable reduction of the hours of labor to the lowest practical point, and that degree of leisure for all which is a condition of the highest human life.

2. A release from employment one day in seven.

3. A living wage as a minimum in every industry, and the highest wage that each industry can afford.

With the broadening of the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, the national organization, with its auxiliaries and affiliated organizations in the various States, we see marked encouragement in the constant warfare in behalf of the Lord's Day.

These organizations are now in the New England States, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Colorado, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Arkansas and Mississippi.

The enemies of the Sabbath are still Sunday newspapers, Sunday saloons, Sunday baseball and other sports and amusements, Sunday rehearsals, Sunday railroad trains, Sunday travel and Sunday social festivities.

Glancing at conditions in our own country, we find that in New Jersey, the State in the bounds of which we are gathered at this Assembly, and whose honored Governor is to preside and speak at the popular meeting on Sunday evening, under the auspices of this Committee, in the interest of the Sabbath, fifteen counties out of twenty-one have opposed Sunday baseball, while the remaining six counties, which contain the large cities, favor such. During the past two years there has been great agitation, on the part of so called "liberals," for more liberal Sunday laws. This demand has come mainly from the coast summer resort cities.

Under the auspices of the State and County Lord's Day Alliances, scores of meetings have been held over the State in the interest of Sabbath Observance, and never, perhaps, in the history of the State, has public interest for Sabbath law and rest been so aroused.

Atlantic City.—This beautiful city by the sea, that extended so cordial an invitation and accorded so hearty a welcome to this Assembly, has within the past year been obliged to battle most heroically against the lawless forces, with their continuous violation of excise laws and their effort to secure, as a new source of gain, the Sunday baseball. Multitudes in this city have regretted the open violation of the liquor laws, but the proposition to conduct Sunday baseball was the unifying influence that brought out the allies of good government. A temporary injunction has stayed the Sunday baseball here. The Lord's Day Alliance of Atlantic County have made a grand fight, and all honor to them and to the good citizenship and the leading beach front hotels of the city that are with them in the struggle.

New England.—With the arrival of the Mayflower, our Pilgrim fathers strictly observed the Sabbath, for rest and worship. For over 250 years, the "New England Sabbath" was a joy and delight. With the immense development of factories, employing largely foreign labor, and the abandonment of many of its farms by natives and the incoming of foreigners to take possession of them, the Sabbath of the Pilgrim fathers has largely degenerated, and but for the Lord's Day League of New England, which has heroically battled against liberal Sunday bills before the several Legislatures, the condition would have been much worse than exists to-day.

New York has had its annual crop of Anti-Sabbath laws, some of which have already been killed, and none of which at this writing are likely to become laws, thanks to the vigilance of the State's Christian Governor.

Pennsylvania has one of the best Sunday laws to be found on the statute books of any State. Each session of the Legislature, of late years, has had before it bills to repeal this law and to legalize Sunday baseball. Thanks to the Lord's Day Alliance of the State, with its auxiliaries in half the counties of the State, such efforts have not prevailed. Recently a new $1,000,000 trolley line was given free right of way to run from New Castle to Sharon, on the agreed condition that no cars should be run on Sunday.

Maryland.—A bill to revise the Sunday law has been defeated, notwithstanding the combination of some ninety-one German societies and liberal leagues to secure such revision.

Washington, D. C., has made a vigorous crusade against Sunday moving picture shows and other desecrations, with the result not determined at this writing.

Wisconsin has passed a Sunday barber shop closing bill. A creature of the breweries, who operated one of the leading shops in Milwaukee, refused obedience. He was arrested. The lower courts sustained the bill. On appeal, the Supreme Court upheld the people's right to express their will in legislative enactment, in one of the strongest defences of Sunday closing legislation ever given.

Canada.—The Sabbath is probably better observed in Canada than anywhere else, owing to the Lord's Day Act, established a few years ago. Sunday newspapers—their publication, importation, delivery and sale—are prohibited. The Sunday theatre is there unknown. The Sunday excursion for pleasure is almost unknown. Sunday games of sport have disappeared. During the past year an increased number of railway employes, as well as many toilers in other branches of transportation and in many industries, have been given their Sunday rest.

Abroad.

Briefly looking abroad, we note

England.—The Imperial Lord's Day Alliance has been formed, and the entire metropolitan police force in London now have one day's rest in seven.

France.—In 1906 the French National Assembly, by a vote of 575 to 1, legally restored Sunday as a day of rest, and now has the strictest Sunday laws of any nation except Canada.

Portugal, once so great, and now unimportant. It has not respected the Sabbath.

Germany.—Frankfort-on-the-Main has completely closed its shops and offices for Sunday; other cities are following the lead, and a new Lord's Day Defense Society has been organized in the empire.

Italy.—In October, 1908, there went into effect a Lord's Day act, enforcing a weekly rest day for employes of industrial and commercial concerns.

Spain has recently enacted a Sabbath law.

Russia and other nations are considering more advanced legislation on this subject.

Foreign Mission Fields.—It is gratifying to note that the converts in our Foreign Mission stations throughout the world show more careful observance of the Lord's Day than is generally manifested in our own Christian land. A pointed illustration occurred the past year. The Japanese Commercial Commission toured our country. Their visit to Spokane, Washington, included a Sunday. The Chamber of Commerce there, in their program of entertainment, arranged for that day an excursion up the Spokane Valley, where large irrigation projects are being established and then to entertain them at an elaborate dinner at a summer hotel. The ladies of the party were to be entertained at a formal social function in one of the wealthy homes of the city. In the evening a theatre party had been arranged for all. The distinguished guests courteously declined to follow out the prearranged programme, because of their respect for America's Lord's Day. Many attended church services. At the close of divine service in one church, Commissioners thanked the minister for his words of commendation of their course in observing the Sabbath, and one of them added, "I am an Elder in the Congregational Church at home, and want to be true to my convictions while abroad." May their example stimulate our Christian people, both at home or abroad, to do likewise.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the authority of the Christian Sabbath is found in the law of God, and is confirmed by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly expresses its strong conviction that the sacred character of the Sabbath must be carefully and strenuously maintained, and to this end enjoins all ministers, officers, and members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to exercise special care and faithfulness, and discourage holding funerals on that day.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly reiterates its strong and emphatic disapproval of all secular uses of the day, all games and sports, in civic life as also in army and navy, all unnecessary traveling and all excursions, and urges upon all employers of labor and captains of industry to recognize the need of the laboring man for his weekly rest day, and thereby insure his greater efficiency and happiness, and the greater prosperity of both capital and labor.

Resolved, 4. That we most respectfully call the attention of all public officials to the potent influence of their position, pro or con, on all moral questions, and the necessity of greater care on their part, proportioned to the exalted nature of the office which they occupy, that they may strengthen rather than weaken, by their influence, public and private observance of the Lord's Day.

Resolved, 5. The General Assembly urges on all families not to buy anything on the Sabbath, to plan for their servants on the Sabbath, and to help them fulfill their religious duties, and to pay laborers so that they may have Saturday afternoon to make provision for the Sabbath.

Resolved, 6. That this Assembly heartily endorses the plan of the Saturday half holiday, and recognizes it as tending to the better observance of the Sabbath.

Resolved, 7. That the General Assembly hereby reiterates its emphatic condemnation of the Sunday newspaper, and urges the members of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America to refuse to subscribe for it or read it or advertise in it.

Resolved, 8. That the General Assembly respectfully requests the faculties of colleges and seminaries, if the way be clear, to omit recitations on Monday mornings, so as to leave the Sabbath free from the felt necessity of some of the students to prepare their lessons on that day.

Resolved, 9. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Presbytery, to coöperate with similar Committees of other denominations within its bounds in aiding the work of local Sabbath associations; and where such organizations do not exist, to promote the formation of such associations in connection with the State or national organizations, the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance.

Resolved, 10. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Synod, of which the Chairman of each Presbytery's Committee on Sabbath Observance shall be at least a corresponding member, and that the Synod's Committee shall coöperate with the State Sabbath Associations.

Resolved, 11. That we most heartily commend and warmly endorse the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, national organizations, in their efforts to preserve in its purity the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, 12. That we earnestly recommend that the first week in April, embracing the first and second Sundays, be observed as a Week of Prayer for the preservation of the Lord's Day, in its quiet, rest and worship; and that each pastor of our communion preach a sermon, in the month of April next, or at some more convenient time, on the subject of the Sabbath, and that at that time an offering be made for the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States (which is the association organized by the coöperation of the General Assembly in 1888, and which represents the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in this department of Christian work); or, in lieu of an offering, we recommend that the Alliance be placed upon the list of benevolences of the churches, contributions to be sent to James Marshall Stuart, Treasurer, 203 Broadway, New York City, and that the Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued, without, as usual, any expense to the Assembly, with such changes in the Committee as may be deemed desirable for its greater efficiency.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES YEREANCE, Chairman;

F. C. MONFORT,	WILLIS G. CRAIG,

In accordance with the Rule of the General Assembly (see Manual, p. 14), it is the duty of the Assembly to appoint a Committee, or Committees, of Canvass.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

In accordance with the rule of the Assembly, the Moderator appointed the following Committee of Canvass: Ministers—Edward Mack, D.D., A. L. Latham. Ph.D., S. C. Palmer, D.D.; Elders—I. Layton Register and John S. Nollen.

The subject of the fitting celebration of the Centennial of the organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was referred to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, through its Chairman, Rev. Alexander B. Morey, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. W. W. Heberton, Treasurer of the Board, was amended and adopted, with the exception of Resolution 9, which was referred to the Executive Commission. It is as follows:

The Committee on Ministerial Relief has received the Fifty-fifth Annual Report of the Board, and submits the following facts for your consideration and adoption: The Report of this year's relief work is the dawn of a new day; it opens up a brighter declining day for our disabled and dying fellow-workers. This cause has passed beyond mere sentiment into the region of a true practical loyalty to our Divine Master and to our beloved Church.

There is an increase all along the line. To report of what has been done is simply an example in addition. The addition to the Current Fund is not large for such a commanding cause, but it is a growing addition, showing an increasing interest in what must be done and that now more of our people are beginning to realize the constantly increasing magnitude of the work. There were 193 more churches giving this year than last, and these have added their names to the list of those that are mindful of the self-sacrificing servants of the Church, swelling the number of contributing churches to 5,551, but leaving 4,489 asleep in the harvest field and giving nothing at all. Somebody must wake them up from this long sleep.

The additions to the Endowment Fund have been over $85,000, making the Permanent Fund of the Board over $2,000,000. The Directors of the Board are about to make a special effort to increase this fund by $4,000,000; and, with the constantly increasing demand upon the Board and the increasing cost of living, with no corresponding increase in the salaries of ministers, it is absolutely necessary that this large increase should be made and that this Board should be encouraged to put forth heroic efforts to meet these pressing demands. All honor to the large-hearted men and women that have of their large and small means given so liberally to this fund; but the main stay of the Board must be the constant flow of funds from the churches into this treasury. It is good to know that in some churches the ladies are coming more to realize the magnitude and sacredness of the work of the Board and are beginning to organize relief guilds and other societies for assisting the Board in its sacred ministry; and also that the several Brotherhoods of the Church are so earnestly taking hold of this benevolence. The Brotherhood has within it the power to supply all the funds, in a few years, to make up the needed amount. Who knows but that the Brotherhood has come to the Kingdom for such a time as this? The addition to the names on the roll has been 130, making 1,143 families under the care of the Board, the largest number the Board has ever had upon the roll. There have been 228 ministers on the Roll of Honor during the past year, the largest number the Board has ever reported. The average age of these men was over seventy-seven years. Twenty-five of this number were added during the year just closed, and twenty-three of them died.

The Merriam Home, at Newton, N. J., and the Thornton Home, near Evansville, Ind., provide comfortable resting places for a number of our ministers and their families. These veterans are worthy of more than a passing thought at this hour and the mere prayer that God would keep them and feed them. Having food and raiment, they have been content to work on until health failed, or old age incapacitated them, or by force of circumstances they were set aside. They are worthy of the best support our great and rich Church can give them, for they have contributed largely to its influence and splendor.

We regret to learn of the illness of Dr. Agnew, the faithful, efficient, great-hearted Corresponding Secretary, and that he has been unable to be present at this Assembly, but rejoice that he is now recovering his health and hopes soon to resume his work. May God spare his life long among us.

The Committee is glad to note that the Board is alive to the fact that a "special effort should be made to increase its Permanent Fund, as well as its Current Fund." With this end in view, a Forward Movement should be made in the near future. This may require the adoption of new methods on the part of the Board, and possibly some addition to its present working force. Appeals from the pulpit and from the platform are of value, and so, too, are letters to pastors and people, begging them to remember this worthy cause. But your Committee are persuaded that personal appeals to the rich and influential members of churches and congregations, by men of influence and tact, would in a short time add largely to both the Endowment and Current Funds of this Board.

The Committee make the following recommendations:

1. That the Minutes of the Board of Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. be approved.

2. That the General Assembly reaffirm, with the greatest possible emphasis, that the money distributed by the Board to our aged and infirm ministers, their widows and orphans, is not charity, but a just and honorable recognition of their service to the Church, the debt which can never be fully liquidated.

3. That the Assembly rejoices in the prosperity of the work, and heartily commends the faithful and efficient administration of its funds by its officers and directors.

4. That all ministers and churches are strongly urged to take all proper steps to enlist their people in the campaign to enlarge the Endowment Fund of the Board, so as to enable the directors the sooner to reach the point where they can pay $500 to the ministers and $300 to the widows on the Roll.

5. Inasmuch as the Board has requested this General Assembly to authorize it to increase the amount to which the honorably retired ministers on the Roll are entitled, under the action of 1889, from $300 to $350 per annum; we recommend that the request be granted.

6. That the Overture from several of the Presbyteries, asking for a wide movement in the whole Church, to raise an Endowment Fund of at least $6,000,000 to add to the permanent funds of the Board, be approved, so that the annuities paid to the rightful claimants for relief and support may be largely increased.

7. That the Overtures from several Presbyteries, asking that the General Assembly take some action which will lead to the unifying of all the interests of the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, or to the consolidation of the same, be answered, that in view of the action of this Assembly in referring the whole question of the consolidation of the Boards and other agencies of the Church to the Executive Commission, no action be taken.

8. We recommend that Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., Rev. William J. Darby, D.D., A. Charles Barclay, Esq., and H. S. P. Nichols, Esq., whose term of office as directors expires with this Assembly, be reëlected for the term of three years, and that J. Herbert Jefferis be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Francis Olcott Allen. And that we nominate for election to the former Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Relief, Rev. William F. Padgett, Robert F. Smith, Esq., and Francis D. Munday, Esq., to serve for a term of three years.

9. That the members of the Board be increased, if the way be clear, to eighteen.

10. That each Presbytery in whose bounds there are non-contributing churches be required to report the reasons to the General Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

A. B. Morey, Chairman.

The Electing Sections were ordered to meet at the opening of this afternoon's session, to choose members of the Nominating Committee for the Executive Commission.

The question of the eligibility of members of the Executive Commission whose terms expire, though not having served a full term, was referred to the Nominating Committee.

A Memorial from the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia was presented, and, after an address by Rev. Edward Yates Hill, D.D., pastor of said church, the following was adopted:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of 1907 appointed a Committee to secure an endowment for the First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, to the amount of $200,000, which action was endorsed, and the Committee reappointed to continue its work, by the Assembly of 1908; furthermore, the Assembly of 1909, after adopting strong resolutions setting forth the reasons for this endowment and urging its completion by liberal gifts, committed further efforts to the pastor and officers of the First Church; and

WHEREAS, This endowment, through the diligence of those to whom the raising of it was committed, has now been increased to $149,000, of which $50,000 is pledged upon the condition that the whole amount of $200,000 be raised; therefore,

Resolved, That this Assembly expresses its gratification at this encouraging report, and reaffirms with emphasis the resolution of the last Assembly. Attention is again called to the fact that the First Church of Philadelphia, organized 212 years ago, is the mother church of our denomination in this country, and its permanence should be assured. During the colonial period it was the organizing centre and rallying place of Presbyterian activities. In 1706 the first Presbytery held its first meeting in the edifice of the congregation, and in it also met the first General Synod in 1717. The General Assembly has been oftener the guest of this church than of any other in America. This honored and historic church stands to-day at a most important and strategic point in the downtown section of one of our largest cities, where there is a vast opportunity to continue its great service for Christ. Only an adequate endowment will insure the perpetuity and effectiveness of this church. This Assembly urges generous contributions, that the $50,000 now conditionally pledged may be obtained and the full needed endowment provided.

The Report of the Executive Commission was made the order for 4.30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Special Committee on Representation, through its Chairman, Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., presented its Report. A minority Report was presented by Rev. Theodore D. Marsh, D.D., a member of the Committee. Pending the consideration of a motion to adopt the majority Report, the subject was postponed until 11.30 o'clock to-morrow.

The Judicial Committee, through its Chairman, Rev. Ethelbert

D. Warfield, D.D., presented the following Report, which was adopted;

Your Judicial Committee respectfully reports on Judicial Case No. 1, being the case entitled, "New York Presbytery Case," complaints and appeal of Rev. Henry B. Elliot and others to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the several papers served on the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, on May 13, 1910. This Judicial Committee finds, upon examination of the papers, there is, prima facie, a case made out that should be determined by the General Assembly, and this Judicial Committee recommends that the General Assembly transmit it to the Permanent Judicial Commission for hearing and decision, without prejudice to either party.

Your Committee would also report the following nominations, to fill vacancies on the Judicial Commission: Ministers—W. H. Landon, D.D., of the Synod of California; W. K. Spencer, D.D., of the Synod of Michigan, and Jesse C. Bruce, D.D., of the Synod of Pennsylvania; Elders—Charles T. Thompson, of the Synod of Minnesota, and Hon. F. Y. Hamilton, of the Synod of Illinois.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHELBERT D. WARFIELD, Chairman.

There being no nominees from the floor, the foregoing nominees of the Committee were elected and the election was declared by the Moderator.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee, having considered some of the Papers and Overtures referred to it by this Assembly, respectfully reports as follows:

Overture No. 59, relating to the erection of a Bohemian Presbytery: In view of the reference to this matter in the Report of the Executive Commission (Blue Book, pp. 160, 161), and of the fact that the general subject is before the Committee on Church Polity, we recommend that the Overture be referred to the Committee on Polity.

Overture Nos. 64 and 69, relating to amendments of the statistical columns: In view of the fact that this general subject has been by the Assembly referred to the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work, we recommend that these Overtures be referred to that Committee.

Overtures Nos. 71 and 72, from the Presbyteries of Nashville and Sedalia, relating to the expenses of litigation in the Church Union Cases. We recommend the following action:

WHEREAS, By virtue of the Union and Reunion of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Reunited Church has become possessed of property rights and succeeds to the denominational trusts therefrom arising; and,

WHEREAS, In protection thereof, litigation has been or may become necessary, and the expense of such litigation as may be authorized by our Church is a proper charge on the funds of the General Assembly, to the extent that the rights of the Assembly or of the Reunited Church are involved:

Resolved, 1. That the litigation authorized by the Executive Commission, by virtue of its power to act in the name of the Assembly in cases of emergency, be approved, and the acts, in that regard, of such Executive Commission or of the Committee on Legal Matters connected with the Reunion, as reported to this Assembly, be and the same hereby are endorsed and ratified.

Resolved, 2. That it be referred to the Executive Commission, with power to ascertain and determine what share the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. ought to bear in the expenses already incurred and still unpaid in the Church Union suits, and also to audit and order paid the legal expenses of the litigation already authorized by said Commission or, at their direction, by said Committee on Legal Matters, or which they may hereafter so authorize.

Resolved, 3. That such share of past expense so determined, and such expenses so to be audited, be paid from the balance, if any, of the Assembly's funds available. Provided, always, that if direct appropriation shall be made to the Committee on Legal Matters connected with the Reunion, such payments be made first out of such appropriation.

Overture No. 83, from the Presbytery of Grande Ronde, requesting the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions to combine their Prayer Calendars. We recommend the following answer: That inasmuch as this is a detail of administration peculiarly within the discretion of the respective Boards, this Assembly take no action except to direct the Stated Clerk to send a copy of such Overture to the Boards concerned, for their consideration.

Overture No. 70. This Overture recites that certain publications "are carrying in their current issues advertising matters of a nature possible to mislead the public and misrepresent in matters of public health." Your Committee calls attention to the fact that the Overture makes no specification that would identify the matter complained of; that the Overture is informal, partly type-written, partly in ink, and partly with pencil inter-lineations. Your Committee believes that matters upon which the General Assembly is to be asked to deliberate, should be in appropriate form and should call the Assembly's attention to definite matters. We accordingly recommend that no action is advisable.

Paper 354. This paper was referred to the Committee by this Assembly, being a resolution as to the rights of members of the Executive Commission to the floor of the Assembly. We recommend the following action:

Resolved, That, in view of the nature of the duties of the members of the Executive Commission, and of the special and direct character of the information regarding the work of the Church at large that it is expected they will have, they are entitled to the floor at meetings of the Assembly, during their terms of office, to speak on matters connected with or arising out of the Annual Report of such Commission, but shall have no right to vote unless they be also Commissioners.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

A Report from the Board of Home Missions, and another from the Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection, on matters connected with the relief of certain churches, were referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 23, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Electing Sections made their Reports, from which Reports the Nominating Committee of the Executive Commission was made up, and was reported by the Stated Clerk. The number of the Electing Section precedes the name of each member. The list is as follows:

Chairman, The Moderator, Rev. Charles Little, D.D.

1. Hon. A. Judd Northrup,
2. Rev. Frank B. Carlton,
3. Mr. Robert Wallace,
4. Rev. James Scott Young,
5. Mr. Albert L. Gardner,
6. Rev. Peter H. Brooks, D.D.,
7. Mr. J. Henry Spicer,
8. Rev. A. E. Linn,
9. Mr. W. J. Huske,
10. Rev. F. J. Anderson,
11. Hon. D. H. Lane,
12. Rev. R. B. Irwin,
13. Mr. O. R. Williamson,
14. Rev. H. C. Swearingen, D.D.,
15. Mr. Samuel P. Davidson,
16. Rev. S. D. McFadden, D.D.,
17. Mr. J. W. Stimpson,
18. Rev. Stanley D. Jewell,
19. Mr. W. E. Ward,
20. Rev. John F. Fender,
21. Mr. C. N. Wanacott,
22. Rev. W. B. Gantz.

The Special Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion, through its Chairman, Rev. William H. Roberts D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. The first resolution of the Report was adopted, and the second was referred to the Executive Commission. The Report as adopted is as follows:

The Committee on Legal Matters connected with Reunion respectfully presents the following Report to the General Assembly of 1910.

By action of the General Assembly, at its last meeting, this Committee was continued, "with instructions to discharge the same functions as heretofore, so far as occasion may require." During the year, therefore, there has been a pursuance of the same policy as in the past, with little variation in the character of the duties calling for the Committee's attention.

Judge John M. Gaut, of Nashville, Tenn., was continued as General Counsel for the Committee, and he is deserving of highest commendation for the able, faithful, and efficient manner in which he has discharged his duties. The Rev. J. M. Hubbert has also continued to serve as the Committee's Secretary and Agent. There has been no change in the Committee's membership.

As heretofore, for reasons of economy, it has been thought wise not to hold meetings of the General Committee, but to have its business transacted by an Executive Committee, whose members reside in Philadelphia. Where necessary, there have been correspondence and active coöperation between the Executive Committee and Synodical Committees on Legal Matters.

Within the past year, the Supreme Courts of California, Indiana, and Illinois have delivered opinions maintaining the validity of the union. So far, the courts of highest resort in six States have rendered decisions in favor of the union and decreeing property in litigation to those adhering to the Reunited Church. These States are California, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, and Texas. In Missouri and Tennessee the Supreme Courts have delivered adverse opinions.

Under the decision of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, a Chancery Court in that State has awarded possession of the property of the Nashville Publishing House to those opposed to the Reunion; and a suit for this property, pending in the Federal District Court at Nashville, Tenn., having been dismissed for want of jurisdiction, appeal has been taken to the United States Supreme Court.

In November last, the Assembly's Executive Commission took action authorizing and empowering the Assembly's Legal Committee, or, in case of its inability to act, the Assembly's Trustees, "to retain Counsel, in the State of Missouri, to appear for and protect the rights of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in and to any property formerly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and now vested in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, by virtue of the Reunion of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

In connection with this action, the Executive Commission also authorized the Assembly's Committee on Legal Matters "to appoint such coöperating committees or agencies as may be necessary, in caring for these interests in Missouri; and in pursuance of this object your Committee on Legal Matters deemed it expedient to appoint, and did appoint, an "Advisory Committee" within the bounds of the Synod of Missouri.

The aforesaid "Advisory Committee" in Missouri, acting by authority of and in coöperation with the Assembly's Committee on Legal Matters, engaged Counsel and directed the same to proceed in the matter of caring for said interests in Missouri.

The result was, that Counsel filed a bill in equity, in the Federal Circuit Court, for the Western Division of the Western District of Missouri. This bill covers all the property of the Reunited Church, in Missouri, that is now menaced by reason of claims being set up under the adverse decision rendered by the Supreme Court of Missouri, except the property of Missouri Valley College, at Marshall, Mo., which has also been menaced. Protection for Missouri Valley College is now being sought by Counsel, through an injunction suit brought in the Federal Court, at Kansas City, Mo., by representatives of the Synod of Kansas, one of the controlling Synods, in interest, of said institution.

We submit for the Assembly's consideration and recommendation:

1. That the Committee be continued, with the same powers as heretofore.

2. That, in view of the obligations already incurred by this Committee, and the need of funds successfully to carry on and perform the work entrusted to it, an appropriation of $5,000 be made to this Committee, to be paid out of any unappropriated moneys in the Contingent Fund of the Assembly. (Referred.)

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Editions of the Constitution, etc., presented a Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committee on Editions of the Constitution, etc., respectfully report that the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work has issued, under the editorship of this Committee, an edition of the Constitution, which is accurate and complete, to date. The Board of Publication has also issued the Confession of Faith in German and will take up, this coming year, with the Committee, as already authorized to do, the subject of printing a German edition of the Administrative Standards, i.e., the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship.

The Committee would further report that a new edition of the Digest will be issued in a short time, combining the Supplement with the text of the previous edition, and including all necessary additions.

The work of preparing for the reprinting of the Minutes of the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly, so far as necessary, is still under consideration, awaiting developments. This Report is made for the Committees on the Editions of the Constitution, the Digest and the Reprinting of the Minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Roberts,
William B. Noble.

The Standing Committee on Education, through its Chairman, Rev. H. C. Swearingen, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and Rev. Richard C. Hughes, D.D., Secretary of University Work, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee on Education begs to report as follows:

"Like priest like people," expresses a truth in which is the warrant for the existence and the work of the Board of Education. An able, broad-minded, and devoted ministry will make an aggressive and efficient Church, loyal to God and to its divine mission. The relations between the Church and its ministry, however, are reciprocal. A Church filled with the right spirit will produce the right type of ministers. The Board of Education, therefore, construes its duties as requiring it to awaken in the Church a wholesome sentiment in reference to the dignity and importance of the Gospel ministry; to lay upon the consciences of young men, even those still in youth, the claims of this holy office, and then to render every assistance possible in training those who, having been nurtured in the bosom of the Church and having heard the call of God's Spirit, offer themselves to the service of their Master and of their fellow-men, through the ministry.

In accordance with this conception of its duty, the Board does far more than collect and distribute money for scholarship aid to candidates. It has adopted various methods calculated to reach students in our colleges and universities, and even children in the Sunday-schools. It believes that the voice of God should be heard, among the many voices which speak to these young people during the impressionable age.

Your Committee is gratified to learn that, during the past year, the Secretaries of the Board visited six academies, twenty-two colleges, twenty-four State universities, and nine theological seminaries, for the purpose of presenting to students the necessity for Christian leadership, and especially the opportunities for service in the Christian ministry. The Board has established a card catalogue system through which it carries on personal correspondence with available young men whose names have been furnished by pastors and members of college faculties, with a view to laying upon these young hearts God's appeal with reference to the preaching of the Gospel.

The Board has not confined its efforts to students alone. It has carried its campaign of education into the Synods and Presbyteries and congregations, in the hope of arousing the pastors in their pulpits, and parents in the pews, to a realization of their responsibilities in reference to manning the Church with the right kind of leaders, and of stimulating them to earnest prayer and effort, that an adequate number of men of worthy character and deep consecration may present themselves before God, ready to obey His call.

Surely it will cheer our hearts and awaken devout thanksgiving to God to learn that, as a result of these wise and sustained efforts of the Board, through its Secretaries, the tide, in reference to ministerial supply, seems to have turned. For the first time in five years, the Board reports an increase of new men. Two hundred and thirty-seven new applications came to the Board's table last year, an increase of eighteen over the year previous. The total gain in candidates under the care of the Board is forty-three.

While zealous that there should be a sufficient number of men offering themselves for the work of the ministry, the Board has not been indifferent with respect to their quality. It insists upon its standard of scholarship, and reserves the right, which it has exercised in a few instances, to decline to furnish scholarship aid to such as, judged by the reports from the schools which they attend, give no promise of ever attaining to reasonable scholastic standards.

The charter of the Board provides that "it shall, in coöperation with ecclesiastical courts, do whatever may be proper and necessary to develop an active interest in education throughout the Church." It has sufficient constitutional warrant to undertake any work of this character that may be committed to it by the General Assembly, and, during the past few years, the Church has materially increased the Board's responsibilities. It has entered into advisory relations, which are close and cordial, with the Seminaries at Dubuque (Iowa) and Bloomfield (New Jersey), which are training men for work among foreigners in this country. Every one who is alive to present conditions knows how imperative it is that the immigrants, that have sought our shores for the purpose of making their homes here, and that must be assimilated as integral elements in our population and brought into full sympathy with our civic and moral ideals, which have a distinctively religious caste, should be led, in the development of their Christian life and in the definition of their moral standards, by men who, while of their own blood and able to understand their point of view, nevertheless have been trained in this country, under influences that make them thoroughly American and give them full sympathy with our American Protestantism.

It is estimated that approximately 16,000 students from Presbyterian homes are pursuing their studies in State schools of higher learning. Their claims upon the nurture of the Church are imperative, and the Church, in the discharge of its obligations in reference to them, has followed them with its counsel and sympathy, seeking to hold them in allegiance to the faith to which they were born, and to prevent, so far as possible, the decline in religious experience and Christian activity which is liable to come, under the conditions in which they find themselves placed, and that, too, at an age when their habits are forming. This work, also, the General Assembly has committed to the Board of Education, and the thoroughness and zeal with which it has prosecuted its task are revealed in the statement of plans and results contained in its Annual Report.

Lay workers are becoming more and more a necessity, under the conditions created by the readjustments of Christian activities and the application of Christian effort to the problems of our times. The Training Schools for such Lay Workers, which have been established already under Presbyterian auspices, require some central agency that would unify these efforts and be a safe custodian for funds that may be given in their behalf. The Assembly had laid this duty upon the Board of Education, and that duty it is discharging with commendable faithfulness.

It was a delicate task that was committed to the Board, when it was required to give special attention to the training of ministerial candidates living in the South and the Southwest, a majority of whom come from the homes of those who formerly were connected with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. It is a matter of sincere congratulation that the fears which were entertained by both parties to the Union have not been realized, and that, under the tactful management of the Board, especially of its Assistant Secretary, to whom this department of work was in large measure committed, there has been the heartiest and readiest response to the demands of the situation. The spirit manifested by Presbyteries in that region cannot be commended too highly. The Board, in its efforts to maintain its standards, has met with no embarrassment whatever from this quarter, and the sky that once was thought to be threatening is now clear.

The Board closed the year without debt. In order to do this, however, it was obliged to draw upon its reserves to an extent which cannot be repeated often. The income from churches, Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies was larger than for any corresponding period in the past eighteen years, which, taken together with the increase in ministerial candidates, indicates that the Church is at last awakening to the importance of this work. However, it must not be forgotten that enlarged tasks entail enlarged expense. The churches gave to the Board, last year, $20,000 less than the Board paid for scholarship aid to candidates, and, in addition to meeting this deficit, it was obliged to carry on other forms of work already mentioned. This cannot continue. Not only should the Board receive from churches an amount equal to that which is appropriated for student aid, but an amount in excess of this sum, in order that it may, when necessary, increase its grants for the purpose of relieving the colleges from the necessity of offering free tuition, and may carry forward effectively other branches of work committed to it.

Your Committee would recommend:

1. That the Assembly congratulate the Board on the success of its endeavors, as shown in the increase of candidates for the ministry, and that it be directed to prosecute with vigor this the primary work for which it was created.

2. That the General Assembly commend the Board for its action in establishing relations with theological seminaries that make a specialty of training men for work among foreigners, and that it be directed to adopt such further measures for the promotion of the same cause as shall be agreed upon between the Board and the authorities of these institutions.

3. That the Board continue to aid in promoting the interest of our Presbyterian Training Schools for Lay Workers, and that, in harmony with previous recommendations of the General Assembly, the Board of Education be commended to such schools and to contributors to their work, as a proper agency to receive and disburse funds as designated.

4. That the Board be instructed, in consultation with the body created by the General Assembly for the purpose of administering theological education in the South and Southwest, to perfect measures looking to the care and training of students coming from that region.

5. That, in pursuance of one of the articles in the terms of Reunion, the Board be instructed to exercise a fostering care in respect to the training of ministers in the Colored Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and that, for this purpose, the Board be authorized to permit the Assistant Secretary to give to the prosecution of such work so much of his time as the Board may deem necessary, and to solicit funds for this specific object, the same to be appropriated by the Board.

6. That the action of the Board in carrying out the recommendations of the General Assembly in reference to work among students in State schools of higher learning, be approved, and that it be authorized to continue this work, within the limits of the instructions contained in the deliverances of former Assemblies, and always in coöperation with the Synods concerned.

7. That, in reference to the question raised by the Board as to "whether the time is not approaching when the General Assembly should authorize the Board to adjust its appropriations, within the bounds of self-supporting Synods, to the receipts from the churches of these Synods, whenever the financial condition of the Board requires such adjustment," the answer of the Assembly be, that it does not deem it expedient for the Board to adopt any rule that will not have uniform application in every section of the Church; but that, in view of the situation presented, all our churches be urged to meet, to the last penny, the amount allotted, in the Budget, to the Board of Education, and that those Synods known as self-supporting Synods be reminded of the desirability of attaining, when at all possible, to the standard of self-support with reference to the work of the Board of Education.

8. That the aid to be granted to students from this Board and from funds held by institutions in which students may be studying, shall be $200 as heretofore, but that this rule shall not operate to prevent such other institutions from granting additional aid to students under special need arising from sickness and other exceptional causes.

9. That the Board be authorized to elect to its membership some one to fill out the unexpired term of Charles P. Turner, M.D., deceased, subject to the confirmation of the next Assembly.

10. That the Revs. Henry Collin Minton, D.D., LL.D., J. Sparhawk Jones, D.D., Edward Yates Hill, D.D., and that Messrs. George H. Stuart, Jr., A. A. Shumway and Charles T. Evans be re-elected as members of the Board, for the Class of 1910–13.

11. That the Board be authorized, in its discretion, to increase its membership by six, making a Board of twenty-four instead of eighteen.

12. That the Report of the Treasurer of the Board, having been duly audited by a certified public accountant, and the Minutes of the Board, be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

H. C. Swearingen, Chairman.

The Report of the Executive Commission was taken up, and its consideration completed by the adoption of the Budget for 1910–11. The Report, as amended and adopted, is as follows:

The Executive Commission respectfully submits to the General Assembly its Second Annual Report.

A. Membership, Meetings, Etc.

As clearing a way to a review of its work, it may be fitting for the Commission to invite brief attention to itself.

1. The membership of the Commission has had changes. Ruling Elders Edwin M. Bulkley, Esq., and Hon. John M. Gaut resigned, the former for reasons of health, and the latter because of other pressing Church interests.

To fill the vacancies thus created, Hon. William M. Lanning was elected in place of Mr. Bulkley, and Hon. L. P. Padgett, M.C., in place of Judge Gaut. But Judge Lanning was constrained to decline the election. And the place has been left vacant that the Assembly might fill it.

The members whose term expire with the present Assembly are: Ministers—Rev. S. M. Templeton, D.D., and Rev. Robert Watson, D.D.; Elders—Messrs. John L. Severance, Thomas A. Hall and L. P. Padgett.

2. Embodied in rules of procedure framed for its guidance, within the instructions of the Assembly, the Commission had made provision for a series of Committees to whom certain phases of its work have been given for closer consideration. This has had the double advantage of special work upon special subjects and of economy, both of time and of expense, to the Commission.

3. The meetings of the Commission have been at Denver, Colo., May 28; Spring Lake, N. J., August 24–26; New York, N. Y., November 15–18, 1909; Philadelphia, Pa., March 22–24, and at Atlantic City, N. J., May 18, 1910. Besides there have been many meetings of our Committees investigating matters intrusted to us, collating and digesting facts in given cases and preparing business for the larger body.

B. Synodical Visitation.

With a view to further enlisting the sympathy of the Synods with the Assembly's Budget and Commission Plans, efforts were made to have every Synod, save that of the Philippines, visited by a representative of this Commission. As far as possible the representatives were members of this body, and the appointees fulfilled their mission to the profit of all concerned, as is evidenced by the fact that of our thirty-six Synods, twenty-three have organized Commissions; others have Committees on Systematic Beneficence, and all are interested in the Budget Plan.

C. Cases of Emergency.

Certain cases of emergency have demanded and received attention from the Commission.

1. One of these arose over the interpretation to be given to Resolutions 19 and 20 of the Report of the Committee on Administrative Agencies, adopted by the last General Assembly (Minutes, 1909, p. 238). And the case is a happy illustration in our judgment of one of the practical uses to which the Commission may be devoted in the interim between Assemblies.

The case, with the disposition made of it, is indicated in the following action of the Commission:

The Executive Commission, in session at Spring Lake, N. J., August 24 and 25, 1909, heard the representatives of a conference of the Secretaries of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, and Publication and Sabbath School Work, held in New York City, June 25, 1909, to discuss the question of the proper interpretation of the action of the General Assembly as set forth in Resolutions Nos. 19 and 20 of the Report of the Committee on Administrative Agencies (Minutes, 1909, p. 238), which the said conference desired the Commission to interpret.

The question propounded by them was fully and clearly set forth in the following quotation in a paper submitted by one of the parties to the conference, as follows:

"During the discussion one of the ladies present asked for a ruling on the inquiry 'Does the term "Young People" include auxiliary societies distinctly organized by the Women's Boards of Home and Foreign Missions for a specific purpose, such as Bands, Young Women's Societies, Westminster Guilds, etc., or are such organizations excluded from the classes it is meant to describe?' The import of the question apparently is this: Shall workers among young people in the Women's Boards be considered as among those asked by the last General Assembly to coöperate in unifying the Church's agencies for dealing with her Young People's Societies and shall the unifying agency which the Assembly desires eventually to secure have jurisdiction over the societies promoted by and auxiliary to the Women's Boards, such as Missions Bands, Westminster Guilds, etc.?"

The Executive Commission is quite clear that its answer to this question should be an affirmative one. It was the fact that so many different agencies within our own Church, as well as other agencies from outside, were engaged in efforts to organize and instruct the young people of our churches that led to the effort to unify these efforts as far as they are subject to the jurisdiction of the General Assembly, and among these agencies specified in a report to the General Assembly are mentioned those of "the Women's Board of Home and Foreign Missions" and of "other Boards and Synodical Sustentation Committees." It was with reference to all these different agencies that the General Assembly enacted Resolution 19, which is as follows:

"Resolved, 19. That the Assembly unify its educational work among the children and youth by committing it for general supervision to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, to which the Assembly has already committed it in part, and that it is hereby so committed."

In addition to this affirmation the Executive Commission deems it proper to declare that it was not the intention of the Assembly in assigning "supervision" of all this educational work to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work to authorize its controlling the operations or changing organizations now carried on under the direction of other Boards, but that the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, through its Department of Young People's Work, should take cognizance of all educational work among our young people, present to the Assembly in its Annual Report a general view of that work, and promote effective coöperation in these various agencies with a view to securing the highest degree of harmony possible.

Furthermore, while the action of the Assembly leaves all its existing agencies to carry on their work as they have been doing, it does in clear terms lay upon them all the duty of such coöperation as may reduce the evils that have been complained of and to seek by conference with one another methods that shall simplify and coördinate these forms of education and the training of our young people, so that a true unification may be ultimately attained.

2. Another case of emergency was the fruit of the property rights struggle between the Unionists and Anti-Unionists of the ormer Cumberland Church.

By the decision of the Courts in Tennessee our brethren there suffered wholesale eviction from the churches and manses which they had built by their sacrifice. At their call, the Chairman of the Commission visited the field; and at the August meeting reported his observations to the Commission. Instant sympathy was evoked and the following action was had:

"The Executive Commission having carefully considered the situation within the bounds of the Synod of Tennessee, urges the Boards of Church Erection and Home Missions to use every effort possible to secure the sum of $100,000 recommended by the General Assembly for the assistance of our churches in that Synod, and expresses the hope, in view of the deep and pressing needs, that the generosity of the Church at large may lead to gifts additional to that amount. The Commission further proffers its services to the Boards in this matter, so far as lies in its power, and authorizes the Chairman and Secretary to confer with them on the subject, and to take any further steps that may appear to be necessary in order to give practical effect to the fraternal sympathy of the Church to the Tennessee brethren."

Immediately one member of the Commission presented the Chairman $1,000 for this cause. And since that meeting the advocacy of this call for help has been urged through the press, on the platform and in the pulpit. The response has not been commensurate to the crying need. Up to and including March 31 the contributions from the Church totaled but $23,419.34, whereas it should have been, to meet the need, at least five times that total. The Board of Church Erection is to be most warmly commended for its efforts to meet this emergency.

Another call came to the Commission during its November session in New York, and was from the distressed Church in Missouri, against whose property interests the decision of the Supreme Court of that State had recently been pronounced. The situation was acute, the time short, wherefore it was,

"Resolved, 1. That the Executive Commission of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, having been constitutionally appointed and empowered by the said General Assembly 'to consider between the annual meetings of the General Assembly cases of serious embarrassment or emergency concerning the benevolent, missionary or other work of the Church, and to provide practical methods of relief,' hereby authorizes and empowers William H. Roberts, D.D., Ira Landrith, D.D., James E. Clarke, D.D., Hon. Foster V. Brown, S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., Bernard Gilpin, Esq., and Rudolph M. Shick, Esq., constituting the Special Committee of the General Assembly on Legal Matters connected with the Reunion, or in case of any inability of said Committee to act, then Mr. John H. Converse, President, and the other members of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or both bodies, to retain counsel in the State of Missouri to appear for and protect the rights of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in and to any property formerly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and now vested in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America by virtue of the Reunion and Union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

"Resolved, 2. That the Executive Commission authorizes the Committee on Legal Matters to appoint such coöperating Committees or agents as may be necessary.

"In view of the short time within which one step must be taken, November 24, it has seemed to us that no more time should be allowed to pass without definite action being taken. We also believe that our interests will be duly considered by either one or both of the Committees we name above."

Suit has since been instituted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Western Division of the Western District of Missouri in the name of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of our Church, to secure the rights of the property to its owners.

D. Change of the Ecclesiastical Year.

Under the powers granted to it "to recommend to the General Assembly such action concerning the needs or work of the Church as the Commission may deem wise" (Minutes, 1909, 4(g), p. 85), this Commission now recommends:

1. That with reference to Reports to the General Assembly, the ecclesiastical year be changed to conform to the calendar year. This to apply to all the Boards, except the business department of the Board of Publication, and to Synods, Presbyteries and churches.

2. That this change take effect January 1, 1912.

Although under the action creating the Assembly's Executive Commission, it is provided that "the fiscal year of each of our Boards shall be left to the Commission, with power to act after consultation with the parties concerned" (Minutes, 1908, p. 157), still the Commission prefers, in a matter touching so many interests, to defer decision to the Assembly. Therefore, "after consultation with the parties concerned," the Commission makes the above recommendations as to changing the ecclesiastical year. And this it does for the following reasons:

1. It would give the session of each church plenty of time to secure reports from all the societies and agencies in that church, to thoroughly prepare and digest them, and submit them to a congregational meeting and then send them to the properly designated parties in the Presbytery.

2. The Committees of Presbytery would be assured that all reports could reach them by a certain date, and would then bring in not a partial but a complete report to the Presbytery of the whole work of the church in that Presbytery during the past year.

3. The Stated Clerk of each Presbytery would be able to send to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, complete reports in plenty of time to get them printed before the Assembly meets, and thus we could have the latter half of the volume of the Minutes to place before the Assembly, whereas, now, we do not get them until July, in consequence of which they are of use for Assembly purposes only to the next Assembly.

4. The Boards would gain greatly by this change in the time which they would have to prepare their reports, and the better opportunity afforded them to do their work without undue pressure.

5. The Executive Commission would then have ample time to do its work and bring a perfected report practically free from errors to the Assembly; as it is at present it is impossible to handle all the statistics accurately.

6. It would give plenty of time after the Assembly had taken action on the budget, to send out the reports to the Presbyteries, and Presbyteries to the churches, so that before the year began every church throughout our bounds would know how much it ought to secure for the year. As the year is now, it is impossible for the churches to know definitely the amount they are expected to raise until after the year is at least one-fourth past. Further, when the budget does reach the churches in June, it is almost impossible to call a meeting of the session and get anything done until after the holidays.

It is but fair to say "the parties concerned" are not unanimous in agreement to this change. The arguments pro and con, as summarized by the Commission's Committee on Miscellaneous Business, which had this special subject under review, are herewith subjoined. They are as follows:

Your Committee has communicated with the Committee on Temperance, and each of the Boards, and received communications from all except the Board of Education, and with two exceptions, they all agreed, some with considerable enthusiasm, to the change of the ecclesiastical year, making it coterminous with the calendar year.

Some, while ready to fall in with the change if made, see objections that might be urged against it.

The Board of Relief feels (1) that it would be a hardship to many Presbyteries in the Rocky Mountain Regions to require them to make a report in December, and (2) that the custom of the churches reporting in the spring would make it difficult to secure from them reports earlier in the year. Provided the year ended December 31, this report would not have to be sent to the Stated Clerk before the end of January, and in a region where there are difficulties because of snow, a Presbytery could meet generally with more comfort during January than in April. As regards this second objection, if a Presbytery asks the churches to report in January, for the year ending December 31, this could be done easier at a Presbytery meeting at the end of January, or the 1st of February, than as now in the middle of April. And we feel sure that every church and Presbytery, once this system was adopted, would be delighted with the change.

The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work have also two objections: (1) that December is to them, because of their large business connections, the busiest month in the year; (2) that they take stock in January and do not receive a report of this until the end of February.

Closing the year December 31 does not mean that the books should be absolutely closed and the inventory completed on that date, but that the report when made was as of that date, December 31. This is the common practice amongst business concerns, even although taking of stock is subsequent to that date.

The Board of Foreign Missions have one objection, viz., that practically all the missions abroad hold their annual meeting in the fall, and make the estimate for the coming year's appropriation, and that these estimates could not reach them and be put into proper shape by December 31. This is not a difficulty, for should the year end December 31, then on the 1st of January the appropriations passed by the General Assembly the preceding May would go into effect, and during the next month or six weeks the Board would prepare its estimate for the following year in proper shape to be given to the Executive Commission and then presented to the Assembly in May, such appropriations taking effect the following January. This would mean that the missions abroad, meeting in the fall of the year, would prepare their requisitions, not for the coming calendar year, but for the calendar year following. Your Committee has no desire to minimize these objections of the various Boards, nor do we desire to press this matter unduly, but we believe that making the ecclesiastical year coterminous with the calendar year would eventually result in great benefit to the whole Church.

E. Matters of Reference.

The former Assembly honored this Commission by referring to it numerous matters for investigation and report or settlement. We venture to suggest that hereafter this honor be conferred with caution for the reasons:

That the Assembly's authority being paramount and final, its decisions are more satisfactory than those of any agent;

That decisions are enhanced in the esteem of all when promptly rendered rather than deferred; and

That an over-plus of references on minor matters might easily cause a congestion that would, in the limited time at the Commission's command, be injurious to weightier matters.

On such references from the last Assembly we have the honor to report:

I. Committee on Systematic Beneficence.—That the Executive Commission has taken over, agreeably to the instructions of the last Assembly (Minutes, 1909, p. 237), all the books, papers, documents, and functions of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence; and that Committee has been discontinued.

II. Presbyterial and Synodical Home Mission Contributions.—That the reporting of Home Missionary contributions directed in Resolution 11 of the Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions of the last Assembly (Minutes, 1909, p. 61), and also recommended in Resolution 6 of the Report of the Standing Committee on Synodical Home Missions (Minutes, 1909, p. 173) raises questions of some difficulty. The Boards are required to close their books on March 31, absolutely. The Home Board, in order to consolidate and combine all the figures for its Report, must needs have the reports from Presbyteries by April 10. And such Stated Clerks as have replied to the request of the Treasurer of the Home Mission Board for these early reports, almost uniformly have replied that such information could not be furnished at such date. If the data in such reports are for different periods, some ending with the Synodical year in October and some with the Board's year March 31, they lose their value. A deeper difficulty is in the fact that some churches will not report the amounts spent in local missionary work. We report the fact without recommendation.

III. Bohemian Work.—That as to "the matter of providing for a Superintendent who shall have charge of the mission work among the Bohemians and other foreign-speaking peoples of the West, as requested by the Synod of Iowa," and as to the erection of a Bohemian Presbytery, both of which were committed to this body by the former Assembly, we recommend:

*1. That the Assembly constitute from the members of the Advisory Council, and from the representatives of such Synods as are involved, a Commission for the supervision of the missionary work among the Bohemians and other foreign-speaking peoples in the United States, and that special consideration be given and aggressive methods adopted of overtaking this rapidly increasing population, particularly among the foreign-speaking peoples of the Western States, and,

†2. That the Board of Home Missions, in coöperation with the representatives of the Synods mentioned, shall appoint a Superintendent, who, under its direction, shall have charge of this missionary work among foreign-speaking peoples (not including the Germans); and that the Board of Home Missions shall provide for his expenses. It shall be the duty of this Superintendent to seek to secure greater efficiency in existing congregations, promote an active evangelism among the churches, occupy new fields of work and establish fraternal relations among churches which adopt our doctrine and polity, but are independent of ecclesiastical control, looking toward organic union.

* Referred to Committee on Church Polity.
† Referred to Advisory Council when appointed.

*3. That as to the erection of a Bohemian Presbytery, there is no constitutional objection to such an organization. But while recognizing the many possible advantages to the Bohemians of a Presbytery, the Commission recommends that such an organization be deferred, until the Superintendent shall have tested the want for it, when, if it be found real, application for such Presbytery may be made to a future Assembly.

IV. Consolidation of the Boards, etc.—That the change of the name of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work; the legal status of the Boards; and the harmonizing of the work of Boards, all of which were committed to our consideration by the last Assembly, have been subjects of considerable investigation and that they are all essentially involved in the question of the consolidation of the Boards. As to this latter subject, upon which the mind of the Church has been so much exercised of late, the Commission begs leave to report that:

"The General Assembly meeting at Denver, May 29, 1909, passed the following preamble and resolution, being recommendation No. 17 in the Report of the Committee on Administrative Agencies, appearing on p. 237 of the Assembly's Minutes for 1909, and which reads as follows:

"WHEREAS, Various Overtures, in large numbers and from different parts of the Church, have been presented to the General Assembly, asking for the consolidation of some of our Boards and missionary agencies, and,

"WHEREAS, The Executive Commission has been instructed that, 'if the time shall come when, in its judgment, any existing agency should be discontinued, or merged into another agency, or when a new agency should be created to meet the ends now in view, to wit, the harmonious and efficient conduct of the benevolent work of our Church, it shall be its duty so to report to the General Assembly with its recommendations; and,

"WHEREAS, It is the opinion of many that there should be a consolidation or rearrangement of some of our Boards as soon as the legal difficulties can be removed; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Executive Commission be instructed to consider and formulate a plan for the consolidation or rearrangement of such Boards as they may deem advisable, and to report the same to the next General Assembly."

*Referred to Committee on Church Polity.

Acting under these definite instructions from the Assembly, the Executive Commission appointed a Sub-Committee to take under consideration the necessity or advisability of the consolidation or rearranging of any of the Boards of the Church. This Committee began the study of its great problem very early after the adjournment of the General Assembly, but its work has been greatly handicapped by the very serious accident which befell its Chairman, Mr. Thomas A. Hall, for to him was delegated certain phases that required legal counsel which he was instructed to secure. Mr. Hall was severely injured in an accident about the 1st of November last and since that time has been an invalid and unable to give any attention to this matter. On this account your Committee has not been able to give as much consideration to this subject as it otherwise would have done. After personal visitation and conference with all the Boards and other agencies, your Committee shares the opinion, as expressed in the resolution passed last May by the General Assembly, that the time has arrived when there should be a consolidation or rearrangement of our Boards for the purpose of simplifying and unifying our administrative agencies. Much to our regret, on account of the unforeseen interruptions in the work and the many obstacles to contend with, both legal and otherwise—none of which we believe are insurmountable—the past year has not given sufficient time for your Committee to prepare a complete plan for such consolidation or rearrangement. We are ready, however, to recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Boards of Home Missions, Church Erection, and Freedmen, if the way be clear, should be either consolidated, merged or so rearranged that their general direction and supervision may be brought under one general control, and that further time be given to the Executive Commission in order to determine, with the advice of expert counsel, what form such proposed rearrangement or consolidation shall take; and also the rearrangement or consolidation of any other Boards or agencies of the Church, if the same should be found to be feasible, and, when so determined, to report the same to the General Assembly.

V. Plan of Home Missions.—That the Commission has taken into careful consideration the matter committed to it by the following resolution of the Assembly:

"Resolved, That the Executive Commission be directed, in such conference with the Advisory Council as both bodies may think desirable, to take into consideration the whole cause of Home Missions in all its relations and bearings, and to report to the next General Assembly some plan by which greater simplicity, efficiency and unity may be secured."

After a conference with the Advisory Council on Church Extension and a reference of the results of that conference to its own Home Mission Committee for detailed consideration, the Commission finds that the present necessity for the consideration of Home Mission interests is due to a healthy and normal development that is now taking place in this department. We are constrained to notice the following facts:

1. For a long time there has been a belief, deepening into experience, that the supervision of Home Missions at close range is more effective than administration at long range.

2. This belief and the laudable desire to relieve the Church at large of supporting local missions, has stimulated Synods and Presbyteries to the effort to achieve self-support for the work within their own bounds.

3. As rapidly as they could raise the money for such self-support these bodies have naturally aspired to become self-administrative, and, as a matter of fact, many of them have attained to that standard. And by just so much have the administrative functions of the Home Board been diminished and its importance in that respect lessened.

4. These movements toward self-support and self-administration are not at all likely to reverse themselves: the evolution will not go backward. The belief in the effectiveness of close-range administration, the stronger appeal which their own home field makes to contributors, and the positive encouragement which the Home Board, notwithstanding the limiting of its own powers by this process, gives to these movements, insure that they will go forward to a much larger degree.

5. In this process of practical development in Home Mission policy there are discernible certain features of a most encouraging nature.

(1) It is not loss of function, and the consequent destruction of the Home Board that has been going forward. but, through the administrative work of the Synods and Presbyteries, the gradual emancipation of that Board from the details of caring for the individual churches at long range, and its gradual emergence into a Nationalized Organism of our Church for such close, practical, and statesmanlike study of the great Home Mission problems, and the prosecution of such practicable work for their solution, as belongs to the Church at large rather than to the local church in any particular community.

(2) The entente of the whole situation, as between the Boards and the Synods, has shown vast improvement. In the first place, the Synods were intent upon getting all they could from the Board. Next, sometimes in more or less of resentment at not getting all that they needed, they resolved to raise their own revenue for this work. And in this they have vastly increased the sum total of contributions to Home Missions. Further, any feeling of irritation that may have existed has gradually been giving place to one of cordial coöperation as between the Board and the self-supporting Synods. For this, both parties are to be most warmly commended. Especially do we recognize the wise discretion of the Board in dealing with a very delicate and difficult situation so as to encourage a movement that seemed to weaken its own functions. And now the Synods that are self-supporting are going much further, and, in addition to bearing the burden of their own work, are carrying considerable excess of funds over into the general treasury of the Home Board. This is altogether admirable and encouraging.

6. The details of this larger mission of the Home Board as a Nationalized Agency will define themselves more clearly, and more insistently claim attention, as the general field is approached. In the present outlook we find in the foreground such problems as those of

The Church and Labor;

The Church and Immigration;

The Church and exceptional classes and populations; and

The Church in a hand-to-hand effort to make an accurate survey of the great cities and strategic points in our country, and so to throw itself into coöperation with the local Home Mission forces as securely to establish great centres of evangelizing and assimilative agencies that will dominate the vast and varied populations of these great centres. For example, why should not the Board be free to fling itself into New York or Chicago with their polyglot populations, to study thoroughly, in connection with the local Church Extension Committees, the entire situation; and, if it seems wise, put for a single year, say, $100,000 into that work, and so give the cause of righteousness there the financial and physical equipment, at least, for mastering the situation. And then or simultaneously it might move on to do the same thing in other great centres. This, in the merest outline, suggests the great possibilities of the functions that may remain to the Home Board, when, possibly, every Synod shall have reached the point of self-support. The process is thus seen to be, not a process of destruction, but of evolution upward into higher and broader activity.

Facing these facts and tendencies of the times, your Executive Commission recommends:

I. That for the present "the Plan for the Unification of Home Missions, as finally adopted by the Advisory Council of Church Extension, in conjunction with the Home Board," at their session in New York, November 16–18, 1909, be approved as a preliminary basis for further development. The plan is as follows:

Plan for the Unification of Home Missions.

1. The constitution of the Board and its functions, as defined in its charter, shall remain unchanged.

2. The self-supporting Synods shall continue their work according to the respective plans that have been approved by experience, or that may be agreed upon in the future.

Between the Board and the Advisory Council of Church Extension there shall be vital relations as follows:

1. The Council shall meet with the Board of Home Missions at such time and place as may be mutually agreeable to the Council and the Boards represented in the Council, to consider all matters relating to the general policy of the Home Mission enterprise, such as territory and departments to receive emphasis, the methods of field administration, etc. The Council may not only offer individual suggestions, but it shall have the right officially to advise the Board in any manner which in its judgment calls for such action.

2. The Council shall report annually to the General Assembly. The General Assembly's Standing Committee on Home Missions shall be charged to report on Home Missions work in all its phases, however conducted, noting specially, under a distinct head, the work of the Synods and Presbyteries conducting their own home mission work, making use of information furnished on the subject by the Chairman of the Advisory Council of Church Extension. Receipts and expenditures of all Home Mission funds shall be incorporated in the report of the Treasurer of the Home Mission Board, with the understanding that funds contributed by self-administrative Synods and Presbyteries for their own work be so designated. The names of all home missionaries shall be printed in the Annual Report of the Board, and the names of all churches reaching self-support shall be included in the "Roll of Honor" published in the Report.

3. The Advisory Council and the Board shall coöperate in the endeavor to make effective the Home Mission apportionment, which has been determined in each and every Synod. And to that end in each Synod the member there representing the Council shall be specially charged with the duty of endeavoring to bring the Synod up to its full measure of responsibility in this regard.

4. The Board by its literature and its personal representatives shall give all possible aid to all Synods, whether self-supporting or not, in assisting to solve either the financial or missionary problem of the Synod. It shall be the duty of the Board to render to all Synods such aid as may be in its power, especially in evangelistic work, work among foreigners, or in cities, or in mining or lumbering camps, or in any phase of missionary service for which Providence may open the way.

5. To the end that the unity which we seek may find fullest expression, the Board and Advisory Council will, so far as practicable, combine in the issue of missionary literature and will from time to time engage together in missionary campaigns for bringing the entire work more clearly and forcibly to the attention of the Church and country. In cases where the Synod and Board may so determine, the effort shall be combined in raising one Home Mission budget, to be divided for the support of the several branches of the work as the Synod and Board shall agree.

6. The Board and Advisory Council, at the annual meeting, shall appoint such Committees for joint council or action as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the above agreement.

II. That all the Synods, with the coöperation of the Home Board, be encouraged and directed to advance as rapidly as is consistent with efficiency, to self-support, and self-administration of Home Mission work, within their bounds.

III. That the Home Board, as it has already begun to do, in the given cases of Labor and Immigration, be directed to proceed to the study of these larger problems with a view to putting itself, as rapidly as it is relieved from Synodical work, into the great centres and important movements of population for extraordinary effort in the solution of their pressing problems. And in furtherance of this end, the Board is authorized to go into these territories for the ascertaining of facts, for the exploitation of those facts with a view to the arousing of communities and securing support for its great enterprise. Provided, however, that this whole process shall have due regard to the methods and plans of the local Presbyterial authority. And moneys given in such cases, and spent upon the local community in the general programme of the Board, shall be credited to those churches and communities from which they are derived.

IV. That over such Synods as are, or may become, self-supporting and self-administrative, the Home Board, in accordance with such particular provisions as may be agreed upon by the Board and the Advisory Council, shall still exercise such supervision as shall tend to promote the keeping of the work in each Synod up to the standardized excellence of the work throughout the entire country.

V. That for the encouragement and advancement of the plan of self-support, the following grades of Synods, as regards methods of Home Mission administration only, shall be made, viz.:

1. Any Synod assuming fully to support the work in its own field, may, in accordance with that natural law that has emerged in the course of administration, become self-administrative of its Mission work, subject only to such supervision of the Home Board as is provided in recommendation IV.

2. Any Synod providing for the support of its own work up to at least one-half the cost of such work, may, upon such terms as are agreed upon by it and the Home Board, become a co-administrative Synod, joining with the Board in the direction of the work, and, if the Board agrees, may itself apportion the Board's Synodical grant to its own Presbyteries, and such Synods as have attained to these conditions may become self-administrative Synods, on the conditions named in 1.

Provided, however, that all such Synods as are or shall become self-supporting may, for the present, if they so elect, leave the administrative affairs of their field in the hands of the Home Board.

3. Such Synods as are yet unable to undertake self-support shall remain under the fostering care and administration of the Home Board, which shall, however, give earnest heed to the recommendations of the Home Mission Committees in these Synods.

VI. When Synods or Presbyteries cannot, or do not, meet manifest needs for Home Mission efforts, the Home Mission Board, after reasonable urging of such efforts, may, as representing the highest court of the Church, enter into such places and, according to its wisdom, institute necessary work.

VII. There shall be a relation of fullest reciprocity between the several Synods and the Home Board, wherein the former, whether self-supporting or not, may avail themselves of such assistance as the Board is able to give for educational, inspirational or other purposes in connection with their Home Mission work and wherein also the Board shall equally have access to whatever available information and coöperation it may desire at the hands of Synods.

VIII. That self-supporting Synods increasing in wealth to the point of self-support be earnestly encouraged to enlarge their contributions to the general work of the Home Board, to the end that that Board may be equipped financially to enter upon the larger enterprises that have been indicated above.

IX. That these recommendations, being more in the nature of a tentative indication of a policy to be pursued than a detailed plan of work, be considered by the Assembly with a view of entering, at the earliest possible date, into the preparation of such details of plans as are here foreshadowed.

F. The Budget.

The eminent function of the Commission has been to put into as effective operation as possible the Budget Plan of Finance adopted by the General Assembly in 1909.

Although every expedient that would facilitate the introduction of the plan, which foresight could suggest, had been adopted by the Commission of last year, the new machinery did not at once move in smoothed bearings. Slight frictions developed. But most of these rapidly yielded to reasonable treatment. Such as still exist are but indications of interest in the improvement of methods.

There was delay in getting the plan before the Church. Before the Budget, and the methods and the plans prescribed for its realization, got out of the Assembly, two months of the fiscal year had elapsed. A series of brief delays, for which no one could be justly blamed, hindered the sending out of the schedules till the summer had well begun. Then certain differences of detail called for correction by the Commission, whose members were by that time widely scattered. Not till August were these corrections effected. And by the time the schedules reached the churches nearly one-half the fiscal year had passed. Then new difficulties developed. Many did not understand the plan; and from Synod to Synod, and from Presbytery to Presbytery, went members of the Commission, explaining the plan and encouraging its adoption and accomplishment. Some, already well advanced in the grace of giving, ridiculed the small advance of five (5) per cent. asked by the Plan. A good omen! Some of the Boards, conceiving that "loyalty to the Budget" meant a cessation of the former methods of raising money, waited for the busy members of the Commission to start a new campaign to fill the treasuries. Others, ignoring the lack of funds to do it, demanded that the Commission send a financial expert to the door of every church to get the Budget into action.

All this was confusing, but inspiring. It indicated interest. The Commission, unwilling to exercise functions not clearly granted to it by the Assembly, declined to employ agents for whose salaries no provision had been made, and bade the Boards continue the policy of presenting their several causes to the Church. They were, however, reminded of the requirement of the Assembly to avoid every appearance of competitive exploitation; and they were advised to give emphasis to the Assembly's Budget Plan, which regarded the cause of each Board as but one of several, which were all to have support.

Coming to the details of Budget Administration, we report on

1. The Weekly Bulletin.

At the time of the meeting of the General Assembly at Denver, last May, your Committee were of the opinion that the Post Office Department would accord the same privileges to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, for the presentation of its benevolent work, as had been accorded by law to various benevolent societies and organizations, in the presentation of their work, namely, the issue of a periodical without requiring a regular paid subscription list and without advertisements. Steps were taken, therefore, with the approval of the General Assembly, for the issue of the Weekly Bulletin in the interest of the benevolent work of the Church. Application was made to the Post Office Department for its entry as second-class matter, on the supposition that it would be accepted under the act above referred to, but the Post Office Department ruled that said act was of the nature of class legislation, and that the benevolent work of the Presbyterian Church did not come under its provisions, and, further, that it would require definite action on the part of Congress to enlarge the provisions of the act so as to include the benevolent work of religious organizations, before the benefits of the act could be accorded to the Executive Commission. Your Commission, after the receipt of this adverse decision, immediately took steps toward getting a list of subscribers for the Weekly Bulletin, so as to conform to the rule of entry of regular periodicals as second-class matter with a regular paid subscription list, which, after some delay, was secured at the beginning of the calendar year, so that the Weekly Bulletin is now being sent out at the rate of one cent per pound.

It was a part of the original plan in the issue of the Weekly Bulletin that it should not only be a medium of direct communication between the General Assembly's Executive Commission and Synodical and Presbyterial Executive Commissions, but that it should also be a medium of furnishing to the Church valuable material on the general subject of Systematic Beneficence. In addition to these purposes, it was arranged to publish in the Bulletin the weekly acknowledgment of all contributions sent to the Boards of the Church, such acknowledgments to be of the nature of receipts from the Boards for such remittances. It was supposed that such public acknowledgment of contributions would relieve the Board from sending separate receipts to the treasurers of the contributing churches. But it was found, after a few weeks of the publication of such acknowledgments, that such publications were not considered as a satisfactory substitute on the part of the Treasurers of the Boards for sending their own receipts, and also that the method was not entirely satisfactory to some of the treasurers of the contributing churches. The Executive Commission, therefore, directed that the Boards of the Church should continue to send out receipts as before.

With this action of the Executive Commission, the Budget Committee did not consider it necessary to duplicate the work being done by the Treasurers of the Boards. But the reports of the contributions to the various Boards have been received daily from all the Treasurers, have been put in type as they have been received, and proofs sent from day to day to the Treasurers for final correction. Immediately upon receiving back from the Boards their approval of proofs, the acknowledgments have been arranged by Presbyteries, and from time to time printer's proofs have been sent to the various Presbyterial Committees of each Board, to Presbyterial Commissions, and, whenever requested, to the congregations within the bounds of Presbyteries. We believe these proofs of receipts valuable material to be sent from time to time to the congregations.

Our total expenses for issuing the Weekly Bulletin, postage, type-setting, printer's proofs and clerical work, up to March 31, have been a little less than $3,000.

2. Correspondence with Presbyterial Commissions.

During the year the Budget Committee has been in direct communication with the Presbyterial Commissions of the Church. As the result of an extended correspondence, your Committee are pleased to report the general readiness on the part of the various Presbyterial Commissions and Committees to coöperate to the best of their ability with the Executive Commission in carrying the Budget Scheme to a successful issue. This year, as might be expected, many letters have been received asking for explanations with reference to various phases of the Budget Scheme, as well as inquiries as to what contributions were included in the printer's proofs and what were omitted. Sometimes the printer's proofs were criticised as being in error, when, for example, contributions made last April to the Foreign Board were not found in the proofs. The writers seemed to forget that the April contributions to the Foreign Board were included in the 1909 receipts. Other inquiries had to do with the absence of the report of contributions made to the Women's Societies, the Bible Society, the Tract Society, and for Synodical and Presbyterial support. In reply to all these inquiries it was answered that the printer's proofs contained only reports of contributions received directly by the Boards of the Church.

3. Rates of Apportionment.

Our correspondence with the various Presbyterial Commissions has shown that a flat rate of apportionment to all the Presbyteries is not entirely satisfactory. The flat rate does not recognize the inequalities of ability and disposition among the Presbyteries. In making a new apportionment these inequalities should be reckoned with. There are some Presbyteries whose ability to contribute to the Boards of the Church is gradually growing less; there are other Presbyteries where for years a systematic work of canvassing for all the Boards of the Church has been undertaken regularly in all the congregations within their bounds. There are still other Presbyteries where little or no systematic work has been done to develop the giving of the membership of the congregations within their bounds, and where the contributions to the Boards of the Church have been correspondingly small. There are still other Presbyteries, the wealth of whose churches has been steadily and rapidly increasing, and where any ordinary apportionment, based on the ability of the Church as a whole, would be distressingly inadequate to represent what such Presbyteries should contribute. It seems, therefore, almost necessary that, in making new apportionments, regard should be had to these inequalities. And we know of no way to adjust the apportionments to these inequalities without direct correspondence with the various Presbyterial Commissions, asking for their coöperation in determining the basis of the apportionment for each Presbytery. This coöperation on the part of each Presbyterial Commission in forming its own Budget will increase its sense of responsibility to coöperate with the Assembly's Executive Commission in securing the highest possible success in systematizing the raising of the finances of the Church.

4. A New Need.

Out of all this confusion of thought, this display alike of ignorance and of indifference, on the one hand, and, on the other, of eager enthusiasm and interest in financial improvement, there came to the Commission the demonstration of a new need. It was the need of something that should underlie and promote the operation of the Budget. It was the need of a policy that would plow deep enough to subsoil the whole ground of the financial field in our Church. It was the need of a policy of agitation, education, information and inspiration, that would carry a quickened realization of financial responsibility to every one of our congregations, no matter how small or remote. So insistent and impressive did this need seem that plans proposing to put this policy into practice were prepared. These plans contemplated a series of conferences under the coöperative direction of the Presbyterial and Synodical Commissions, wherein the men of the Church would be brought face to face with the financial problem as related both to the support of the local church and to the benevolences. The nearer objective of these conferences was to aid the Budget. The remoter and persistent objective was, and is, so to turn the light of intelligent experience on antiquated business methods in the management of local churches, that the Christian manhood in such parishes should be moved to repudiate such out-worn methods and substitute for them up-to-date methods. It was and is, so to carry this agitation of financial methods, obligations and problems, into every congregation, that the careless, the indifferent and the mean-spirited may be fairly forced, by an aroused Christian sentiment, to share, by their gifts, with their brethren the joy of promoting the advance of the Kingdom of God in all the earth.

The plans embodying these aims were sent to every member of the Commission and to the Moderators of several Synods; and their judgment thereupon invoked. The response was instant, and the judgment was all one way. It ranged from simple endorsement to hearty and enthusiastic approval. The advice from the members of the Commission was that its Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Budget should at once inaugurate these conferences. Accordingly a meeting of the Committee with the Chairman of the Commission was held at Auburn, N. Y., December 29, 1909. By invitation, Rev. A. F. McGarrah, Financial Specialist of the Home Mission Board, met with the Committee. Within a very few hours two things had been done.

First: A letter had gone to each Board, urging them, with their facilities, to do all in their power to press the Budget upon the Church; and acquainting them with our plan for doing the same thing through these conferences.

Second: The plans were adopted and started on the way to every Presbyterial and Synodical Commission.

It being understood that Mr. McGarrah's services might be secured to direct these conferences, the Home Board was asked to allow him to serve the Commission in this capacity. This the Board generously did without cost to the Commission, for which our thanks have been expressed to them. Mr. McGarrah entered at once upon this work in coöperation with the Budget Committee. His work was interrupted by sickness; but literature on the conferences, in particular, and, in general, on the subject in hand, had been prepared and put through the press. Conferences were arranged and held in many places. And best of all, expressions of increasing interest have been evoked from every side. Secular papers took up the subject in their daily issues; and laymen from other Churches expressed their sympathetic interest in this movement in our Church. We are of the opinion, induced by these observations and expressions, that the Church at large, and our own in particular, was never so ready as now for a great forward movement in Church finances. Laymen like it because it proposes to touch chronic weaknesses in local church management as well as to aid all benevolent and missionary enterprises, and because it means the lifting of the level of Church finance everywhere. We believe that our Church would miss a noble opportunity to do an incalculable service for the Kingdom of God, if it failed to promote the work in this respect that waits to be done. If it be accomplished, the Budget will easily take care of itself. With the time and the means at our hands, we have scarcely touched thus far the fringes of this great and important matter. We trust that the Church will see and seize the present opportunity; that we shall grip the situation with the virile strength of an aroused Christian manhood, and not relax till the financial level of our Church shall have been fixed at high tide.

We, therefore, respectfully recommend that the Assembly adopt the following Resolutions:

1. That the Assembly heartily approves the policy, inaugurated by the Executive Commission during the past year, of endeavoring to enlist the entire force of our Presbyterian manhood for the financial improvement of our Church both as to means and methods.

2. That the Assembly endorses the plan of the Commission for carrying this campaign into every church by means of the Men's Conferences on Finance, to be held under the supervision of the various grades of Executive Commissions.

3. That the Assembly hereby authorizes its Executive Commission to effect such organization of its forces and to employ such salaried agents as will enable it to perfect and prosecute its plans with the utmost vigor, in coöperation with the Commissions of Synods and Presbyteries.

4. That to meet the necessary expenses of the Commission in carrying out the details of its plans the Assembly appropriates the sum of $10,000.

5. That to meet this appropriation there be added to the apportionment for the year the sum of three-fourths of a cent per member, for the Contingent Fund, from which the appropriation shall be paid.

6. That the Boards and Permanent Committees be authorized to pay to the Stated Clerk for the use of the Executive Commission such proportion of the expenses of the Commission as may be incurred in the reporting of the funds received by the various Boards and Permanent Committees, and for the printing and distribution of literature in the interests of systematic beneficence, said amount not to exceed $3,000.

7. That Synods and Presbyteries not having as yet organized Executive Commissions, are earnestly urged to do so, that there may be a coördinate and closely articulated organization running through the whole Church for the prosecution of this work.

8. That the Assembly hereby enjoins all Synodical Commissions (or such Committees as are invested with financial functions), to take steps at the earliest practicable moment for holding conferences of men on the subject of Church Finance in every Presbytery, and to do whatever else their judgment dictates for enlisting men in this move for financial betterment. They shall strive to unify these conferences by working with and through the Presbyterial Commissions.

9. That Presbyterial Commissions (or such Committees as are invested with financial functions), are enjoined to coöperate earnestly with the Synodical Commissions in the effort to arrange and conduct conferences. Let the ideal be, to carry the influence of this financial movement into every church, whether by its representatives attending some central conference, or by the Commissions of Presbyteries inaugurating a series of visitations in individual churches with a view to their financial (and hence spiritual) quickening.

10. That with a view to a better adjustment of the Budget to the ability and circumstances of each Presbytery, it is directed that each Presbyterial Commission shall, at the annual spring meeting of Presbytery (unless there be an earlier or more convenient season), report to the Presbytery a tentative Budget, in bulk, for the benevolences of the Presbytery for the fiscal year next ensuing. The Presbytery shall review the proposed Budget; and after such action thereupon as may be necessary, the Stated Clerk of Presbytery shall forward the Budget to the Secretary of the Assembly's Executive Commission. With these suggestive Presbyterial Budgets, and the estimates by the Boards of their needs for the ensuing year before them, the Assembly's Executive Commission shall frame the Budget and report it, ready for allotment to the Presbyteries, to the General Assembly for its approval.

11. That when the Executive Commissions or Committees on Systematic Beneficence, of Presbyteries or Synods, have so far anticipated the above provision as to have sent in their suggestive allotments for the current year, the Assembly's Executive Commission be empowered to substitute such suggested allotments for those made on the basis of the General Budget.

Budget for 1910–11.

It remains for the Commission to submit to this Assembly the Budget proposed for the current year ending March 31, 1911.

As the apportionment, each year, is based in part on the gifts of the churches in the years preceding, we have given careful study to these facts, and the results of such study are seen in the Report of the Commission's Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence and Budget (which for convenience in printing has been made an Appendix to this Report). As the apportionment is further conditioned on the needs of the several Boards, we have had careful heed also to that aspect of the case.

As a result of our correspondence with the Boards of the Church and the Permanent Committee on Temperance, as to their financial needs for the coming year, ending March 31, 1911, we find that the aggregate amount desired properly to carry on the work which the Boards and Committee feel ought to be done, will require an increase of $800,000 over the past year's income, or a total amount of $4,750,000.

The Committee is convinced that if the $800,000 could be obtained it could be used in the interests of the missionary and benevolent work of the Church to great advantage. There seems to be no question that the needs of the work of the Church are growing more rapidly than the liberality of the Church. We have no means of judging of the future liberality of the Church except by the experience of the past. In 1906 the total income of the Boards of the Church and the Temperance Committee was $3,315,707. The income of 1907 showed an increase over the previous year by $194,956. The income of 1908 showed a further gain over the previous year of $303,079. 1910 shows a still further gain over the previous year by $198,622, or a total gain in five years of $818,000. This gain of $818,000 in five years, is the greatest gain that has been made in the history of the Church, during a like period of time.

Your Committee cannot see any adequate reasons why it should expect that in a single year the Church should not only hold this $818,000 of increase in the past five years, but make on top of it a still further increase of $800,000.

The average gain of the past five years on the total income of the Church has been $160,000 a year. Half of this increase has been in miscellaneous sources of income, and the other half in the offerings of the churches and organizations within the bounds of the Church. The total aggregate gain in five years in church offerings has been $416,886. The average for five years has been about $83,000. During the past year the net gain has been but $51,881.34.

Last year your Committee apportioned to thirty Presbyteries, having a total membership of 463,000, the sum of $841,000 for all the Boards of the Church and the Committee on Temperance, but the total contributions for the year of these Presbyteries were $790,000, showing a shrinkage between the apportionment and the amount actually received of $51,000. We apportioned a $40,000 increase, and they fell behind the contributions of the year previous by $11,000. These Presbyteries include the largest cities of our Church.

Giving the great needs of our missionary and benevolent work the benefit of our hopes, and trusting in the increased activity of all of the Executive Commissions of Synods and Presbyteries, and the active and united coöperation of all the Boards of the Church, your Committee is disposed to recommend to the General Assembly an increase of $142,000 over the income of last year, to be raised by the churches and organizations within the bounds of the Church.

This will make the total Budget for the year 1910–11 from churches and organizations, $2,528,554, an increase for six years, over the Budget of 1906, of $559,132.

This increase of $142,000 for the year is not distributed in equal percentage of advance to all the Boards. In the total Budget for Home Missions last year your Commission included the debt of the Women's Home Boards, and in that of the Foreign Board and of Sabbath School Work, their debts in addition to a 5 per cent. advance. This year for these Boards we recommend a Budget that shall be 5 per cent. in advance of the contributions made to these same Boards, through churches, and organizations within the bounds of the churches, during the previous year. For the other Boards of the Church and the Committee on Temperance an advance of 10 per cent. is recommended.

With these preliminary statements made, the Commission brings to the Assembly the following recommendations:

I. That the General Assembly authorize the appropriation to the uses of the following Boards and Permanent Agencies, the amounts of money set opposite their names respectively, as these amounts may be secured from churches and their several organizations:

Home Missions	$703,167 48
Foreign Missions	1,166,382 07
Education	64,457 43
S. S. Work	154,518 46
Church Erection	78,612 09
Ministerial Relief	123,597 83
Freedmen	159,679 17
College Board	60,371 17
Temperance	17,768 15
	$2,528,553 85

II. That the General Assembly approves of the apportionments of these several sums among the Presbyteries, as set forth in detail in the Appendix to this Report; and that they be sent immediately to the Presbyteries as the minimum apportionment for each said Presbytery for the year 1910–11.*

III. That with a view to giving the churches the earliest possible information, that will enable them to enter immediately upon the work of realizing the new Budget, and without invading the prerogatives of the Executive Commissions of Synods and Presbyteries, the Assembly's Commission be directed to send to each of our churches these allotments, and such other information as the Commission may deem pertinent, together with a letter from the Moderator of this Assembly.

In behalf of the Executive Commission,

JAMES M. BARKLEY,
Moderator and Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 23, 8 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interests of Freedmen, and addresses were delivered by Rev. A. U. Frierson, D.D., Rev. John L. Phelps, Rev. W. B. Stitt, Rev. J. T. Crawford and Rev. H. L. McCrory, D.D.

TUESDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioner, who was duly enrolled: Elder—W. W. Wolf, of the Presbytery of Boulder.

In the absence of the Chairman, the Stated Clerk presented the Report of the Special Committee on an Intermediate Catechism, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on an Intermediate Catechism respectfully reports to the General Assembly, meeting at Atlantic City, N. J., May 19, 1910, as follows:

The Committee was appointed by virtue of action taken by the Assembly of 1908, and recorded in the Minutes, p. 223. The record reads:

"Overtures Nos. 65 to 77, from the Presbyteries of Bellefontaine, Bloomington, Cayuga, Columbus, Dayton, Detroit, La Crosse, Maumee, Monroe, Muncie, Oakland, Princeton, and Sedalia, asking the appointment of a Committee to consider the question of preparing an 'Intermediate Catechism.'

"It is recommended that a Committee be appointed, consisting of six ministers and three elders, to consider the preparation of a Catechism covering the system of faith and practice held by this Church and taught in the Holy Scriptures, to be used for home instruction and in the Sabbath-schools. It shall be simpler in language than the Shorter Catechism, and shall not be one of the standards of the Church. If the Committee find the way clear, it shall prepare a draft of the Catechism, and, before beginning the work and during its progress, shall confer with the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. The Committee shall report the Catechism to the next General Assembly, and the expenses of editing and printing the same shall be borne by the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work."

The General Committee organized, at a meeting in Philadelphia, October 6, 1908, and decided to appoint a Sub-Committee that should prepare material for the consideration of the General Committee. This Sub-Committee held two prolonged meetings during the year 1908–1909.

The General Committee consulted with the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and the following understanding was reached with that Board:

That the General Committee seek the active coöperation of the Board in the matter of the form and substance of the Intermediate Catechism, and invite the Board to be represented at the conferences of the Committee in such manner as to the Board may seem proper.

At the conclusion of the year the Committee found that the work entrusted to them was of such delicacy and difficulty that they asked the General Assembly, meeting in Denver, Colorado, May 20, 1909, to continue the Committee for another year.

During the present year the Sub-Committee has had repeated meetings. At these meetings the Committee gave the most studious attention to the labor in hand. As the result, the Sub-Committee in due time prepared a draft of a Catechism, which was submitted for approval to the General Committee, and by that Committee was examined word by word and phrase by phrase. The outcome of this examination was, a new form of the draft, made upon the basis of the criticisms expressed by the General Committee and by the representatives of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. This new form of the draft was critically examined by the General Committee and further improvement of it is now being attempted.

The longer the time and the larger the labor spent upon the effort to make such a Catechism as seems to be needed, the more the Committee is impressed with the responsibility and the difficulty of the task entrusted to it. Much advance has, however, been made. The Committee is convinced that in a comparatively brief period it can complete its work. The Committee respectfully requests the General Assembly to continue the Committee for another year.

The Report of the Advisory Council on Church Extension was made the Order for Wednesday at 12 o'clock, noon.

A Resolution on the persecution of the Jews in Russia was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The newly chosen Chairman of the Evangelistic Committee, Mr. Charles L. Huston, was introduced, and he addressed the Assembly.

All of our churches were requested to set apart the second Sunday in October of this year, or a Sunday near that time, for the consideration of the work of evangelism, with special reference to the life and work of Mr. John H. Converse, and with a view to an advance in evangelistic work.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, through its Chairman, Mr. Homer L. Castle, presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, by Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D.D., and others, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee begs leave to submit the following Report:

The Board of Missions for Freedmen deals with a distinct class, which, by the evident decree of God, is unique and separate; and yet a class so indissolubly associated with our country's life, both moral and political, that their salvation is an absolute necessity, if for no higher reason, on the principle of self-preservation.

This Board seeks to reach a people that, while politically enfranchised, are still wofully handicapped by the drag of centuries of unthinking dependency upon a dominant race. The effort of the Board is not to seek to unclass this people, but to make them useful in their own class and to bring them to know and realize that they are the sons of God, and that it is their inheritance to be like Him as He is.

How nearly they have realized this ambition, is shown by reference to the Report of the Board, where we learn that this true mission work raised and spent in its own behalf, last year, $135,482.13, which is twice the amount given to this cause from the white churches, and slightly more than equals all the money given for this object aside from individual sources, legacies and invested funds.

The success of the work is also evidenced by "an examination of the list, which will show that 34 churches this year are supporting their own Gospel ordinances, all of them having formerly been nourished and strengthened with help from the Board. There are also a number of other churches receiving now only nominal support, which, it is hoped, will soon, perhaps this coming year, be added to the roll of self-supporting churches."

But perhaps the crowning evidence of the success of this work is found in the fact that, with 257 ministers, there were added to the Church, last year, 1,673 members on examination, which is substantially a 10 per cent. increase. Without exact data at hand, we venture to affirm that this will equal the average of accessions, per minister, in our white churches.

The scope of this work is found in the combination of development of mind to think correctly, body to work diligently, a soul to love supremely, until in the end these brothers in ebony shall be presented faultless before God and the Father.

In the prosecution of the work, the Board sustained, in whole or in part, 68 schools, containing 14,377 pupils. They are using 506 workers, in the 401 churches, which have a membership upward of 25,000, and 382 Sabbath-schools, where there are enrolled 22,249 pupils.

For the support of this work, the Board had at its disposal, last year, $207,799.43, which doubtless prompted the opening paragraph of the Board's Report, which was as follows:

"By a continuance of the policy of discouraging any expansion which has not been carefully studied, and restraining the desires of our workers for enlargement or extensions which promise great usefulness but also create much expense, we have been able to close the fiscal year without any outstanding financial obligations." Your Committee, while commending the Board for its care in living within its means, yet views the situation, where they confess that they have to turn their backs upon the evident call of God because of the delinquencies of the general Church, as a matter of great lament and real humiliation.

The discouraging note, in the Board's Report of its work, is found in the fact that only, 4,721 of our churches, a decrease from last year of 54, supported this Board by congregational offerings, and from only 5,673 of our churches did help come in any way or to any extent.

This report is no place for exhortation, but we cannot refrain from calling your attention to the fact that this Board deals alone with a race comprising 10 per cent. of our population, so situated and located as to affect in a degree far surpassing that percentage, the weal or woe of Christian America. It is not only our duty, by inheritance, to lift this people to a higher plane, morally and spiritually, but the true Christianizing of this race will go far toward the solution of many of the problems facing us in this country, both social and political. We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen be approved, with commendation.

2. That a more careful and sympathetic study, by our churches, be made of the idea of the application of the Gospel as a solution of the entire negro race problem.

3. That a serious endeavor, by our churches, be made to equip this Board financially, so that it will be less restricted in its work.

4. That this Assembly advises the Board to continue the aid given to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, as in former years.

5. That the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Mr. George B. Logan, Rev. D. R. Breed, D.D., James C. Gray, Esq., be reëlected as members of this Board for the ensuing term of three years.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. CASTLE, Chairman.

The subject of Metrical Psalms, brought before the Assembly in a communication, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Order of the Day, the Report on Representation, was taken up, and the Majority and Minority Reports were both laid on the table. The Assembly expressed its appreciation of the services of the Committee, and the Committee was discharged.

Elder Charles T. Thompson was permitted to withdraw his name from the list of nominees for the Permanent Judicial Commission.

The Special Committee on Religious Education, through its Chairman, Rev. George B. Stewart, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Pending its consideration, it was placed on the Docket.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

On the recommendation of the Committee on Leave of Absence, leave of absence was granted Elder H. D. Cobb, of the Presbytery of Jersey City.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully submits the following additional Report on matters referred to it by this Assembly.

Overture No. 67, from the Presbytery of West Jersey, requesting the Assembly to answer the following question: "Is it required by the law or usage of the Presbyterian Church that persons that have been admitted to full orders in the Roman Catholic Church should be re-ordained upon entering the ministry of the Presbyterian Church?" We recommend the following answer: That the decision of this question be left to the judgment of each Presbytery, guided by the principles governing the subject of the ordination of ministers and of the reception of ministers from other denominations, as laid down in the standards of our Church.

Paper No. 356, being resolutions referred to this Committee dealing with the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight, and containing greetings to the Presbyterian Brotherhoods as introduced at the close of the Report on Presbyterian Brotherhood. We recommend the adoption of the resolutions, and that they first appear on the Minutes of the Assembly at the close of the said Report.

Paper No. 361, being a resolution relating to a memorial service in honor of John S. Kennedy. Your Committee recommends, that this Assembly set apart one-half hour on Thursday, at 12 o'clock, noon, for a service in honor of this princely benefactor to the work of our Boards; that the Moderator preside at this service, and that two addresses of ten minutes each be delivered, one by Dr. A. W. Halsey on the personal religious life of Mr. Kennedy, and the other by Dr. Charles L. Thompson on Mr. Kennedy's relation to the general work of the Church.

Paper No. 362, being a personal appeal of the pastor of a church that the Board of Church Erection was unable to aid. We recommend that it be referred to the Standing Committee on Church Erection.

Paper No. 365, being the Report to this Assembly of the Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection, upon the Tennessee Special Fund, stating that of the $100,000 which the last Assembly urged the Church to provide for the purpose of assisting the Presbyterians in Tennessee, only $23,337 was raised, and emphasizing the need of raising the full amount. It is recommended that this Report be spread upon the Minutes, and that this Assembly reiterate the action of last year, and urge upon the churches the importance of some response to this particular appeal.

Paper No. 357, being the Report of the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. It is recommended that it be approved by the Assembly, and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The following papers we recommend to be transmitted to the Committee on Correspondence.

Paper No. 358, a communication from the National Liberal Immigration League.

Paper No. 359, a Memorial from the Evangelical Christian Committee of Russia.

Paper No. 360, a Memorial from the Evangelical Theological Seminary of Geneva, Switzerland.

Paper No. 363, a letter from Miss Ellen M. Stone.

Paper No. 364, consisting of expressions of desire on the part of eleven ministers, and the petitions of thirteen churches, to be transferred to a Bohemian Presbytery, the same to be erected. It is recommended that these be referred to the Committee on Polity.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The Report of the Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection, referred to in the preceding Report of the Bills and Overtures Committee, in the matter of the relief of the churches in Tennessee, is as follows:

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, pronouncing the union of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church invalid, and thus depriving the former Cumberland churches of their property, the last Assembly took the following action (Minutes, p. 82):

"Resolved, That the Assembly hereby authorizes and directs the Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection immediately to take such steps as may be necessary, through a special representative or otherwise, to provide a special fund, which in the judgment of this Assembly should not be less than $100,000, for the purpose of assisting the Presbyterians of Tennessee in building new churches, in the place of those taken from them by reason of the legal decision in that State, this fund to be distributed under the joint direction of the Executive Commission of the Synod of Tennessee and representatives of the Boards; and the Board of Church Erection, in making grants or loans to aid in rebuilding these churches, is hereby permitted, at its discretion, to waive the rule in regard to the proportionate amount of aid to be extended."

In obedience to this mandate, the two Boards named appointed a representative Committee to bring this matter before the churches, and the Committee so appointed used every effort within its power, by special personal representatives, by circular letters, and by appeals through the religious press, to secure from the churches an adequate sum to reach the necessities of these evicted churches.

The result, however, was not so successful as the Assembly and the Committee had hoped. As a matter of fact, at the close of the fiscal year the amount received, including interest, was only $23,337.84; whereas a careful canvass of the Synod by its Executive Commission showed that there were at least fifty-eight churches that would be obliged to provide new buildings, at an expense of not less than $300,000. Of these, forty-eight would certainly need aid from the special fund to an amount not less than $76,000, with more or less probability that the remaining ten or more would need similar aid to the extent of $24,000.

It is evident, therefore, that this important matter of aiding our evicted brethren in Tennessee should be still kept before our churches and every effort made to increase the special fund.

The Board of Church Erection, in view of the appealing need, has expressed to the Synodical Commission of Tennessee its readiness and its intention to supplement this special fund to such extent as may be necessary to provide these evicted churches with houses of worship, with the understanding, however, that it cannot, in view of other claims upon it, do so until its income is increased by the revenue from the bequest from the estate of the late John S. Kennedy, of which it has received notice. It is also understood that in the meantime the Board of Home Missions, which is equally interested, will extend such temporary aid as may enable the churches to provide, by borrowing elsewhere, for the immediate emergency.

For the Board of Home Missions.
CHARLES L. THOMPSON, Secretary.
For the Board of Church Erection,
E. N. WHITE, Secretary.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report on the general subject of the Blairsville Overture:

The Assembly referred to this Committee Overtures 85 to 212. Papers 213–348 and Overtures 349–353 inclusive, relating to the office of the Stated Clerk and his functions as Treasurer.

We have given to this matter careful consideration. We have conferred with the Stated Clerk, and with representatives of the Blairsville Overture. We have read the printed Report of the Advisory Committee, and have reviewed the history of the fiscal affairs of the Assembly since the year (1884) when the office of Treasurer was discontinued by the Assembly of that year.

There is thus no such office at present; but from time to time the duties and functions of a Treasurer, as well as other duties, (e.g., Digest, 1907, p. 271), have been laid upon the Stated Clerk and by him discharged with fidelity and diligence. We quote, in this matter, from the language of Overture No. 350 on the subject, from the Presbytery of Oakland:

"We emphatically express our high appreciation of the services of Dr. Roberts, the present incumbent of the joint offices of Stated Clerk and Treasurer of the General Assembly; services unparalleled in the history of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., for efficiency in a position of responsibility, and discharged with painstaking and scrupulous care.

"The obligations of the two offices are too great to be laid as a heavy burden on any one man. We acknowledge with gratification the cheerful and ready compliance of Dr. Roberts in any request made upon him for his experienced services. It is a cause of thankfulness to have such a man upon whom to call."

The permanent funds in the hands of the corporation, "Trustees of the General Assembly, etc.," are funds from time to time coming into their hands, and in respect to the use of which they are specially instructed by will, trust-deed, or direction in writing from the General Assembly. The moneys received and handled by the Stated Clerk are, on the contrary, ecclesiastical moneys, which are, in any one year, really presbyterial moneys up to the adjournment of the Assembly, and the unexpended residue of which thereupon goes into the Assembly's Contingent Fund, from which the Clerical and Administration and Committee expenses are to be defrayed, under resolutions of the Assembly from time to time adopted. The Presbyteries forward the amount of their several "apportionments" to the Stated Clerk, and from the total so contributed the Hospitality and Mileage Committees of the Assembly control the disbursement of the accounts of the Assembly in its place of meeting and of its Commissioners.

We believe that the method of presenting, auditing, vouching and paying these expenses that is now in operation is satisfactory and efficient.

We believe that the Stated Clerk, as an ecclesiastical officer, should be in relation, and intimate relation, to the presbyterial apportionments, and to their disbursement for the Assembly meetings. We see, however, no reason why he should be burdened with the custody of the funds, ad interim of such meetings.

We do not see the permanent value of the Advisory Committee to the Stated Clerk; but we do see the value and, as it seems to us, the need of a Permanent Finance Committee, and of a responsible depository of the balances of the Assembly's funds in hand upon adjournment. We recommend accordingly:

Resolved, I. That five elders, residing within 100 miles of the office of the Stated Clerk, for the time being, be appointed by this Assembly, and annually thereafter, to constitute the Permanent Finance Committee of the General Assembly. They shall be eligible to reappointment by any Assembly, but if vacancy occur during a given year, the Moderator may fill the vacancy until the next Assembly. He may also appoint a temporary member to act during the disability of any member. This Committee shall meet statedly, and three shall constitute a quorum and shall perform the following duties:

(a) They shall designate (and may, if necessary, change the designation), one or more banks or trust companies as depository or depositories of the Assembly's funds received from the Presbyteries, the accounts to be in the name of the General Assembly.

(b) They shall appropriate these moneys—first, as directed by the Assembly, and, second, as may from time to time be necessary to defray the expenses of any committee, agency, officer or employé of the Assembly.

(c) They shall, in consultation with the Stated Clerk, devise and put in operation a proper system of warrants or vouchers that shall show, by appropriate legends thereupon (to be vouched by signatures or counter-signatures), as follows:

(1) The character of the expenditure—to be vouched by the Stated Clerk's signature.

(2) The amount of the expenditure—to be vouched by the counter-signature of a member of the Finance Committee thereto, from time to time designated by resolution filed with the depository bank or trust company.

(3) The fact of the expenditures—by the endorsed signature of the Payee.

(d) The Finance Committee may authorize the payment of the expenses of Special Committees of the Assembly, within the limits fixed by the Assembly, in lump, upon warrants of the Stated Clerk, countersigned by the Chairman of such Committee presiding at a particular meeting.

(e) This Finance Committee shall cause to be kept, in the office of the Stated Clerk, books of account which shall be balanced and sent with the vouchers to the General Assembly annually, and shall be referred, as of course, the second day of meeting, to the Standing Committee on Finance, for examination, audit, and report. And the several receipts from the Presbyteries as audited shall be published as a part of the account in the Minutes.

(f) The Stated Clerk shall each year deposit the amounts, when and as received from the Presbyteries, in a special account in the name of the Assembly, in the depository bank or trust company, to be known as the Mileage Account. The expenses of each Assembly and of its Commissioners shall be paid therefrom as at present, except that the moneys shall be drawn from this special account upon warrant signed by the Stated Clerk and also by the Chairman of the Assembly's Standing Committee on Mileage.

At the close of each Assembly, the balance of such special account shall be drawn by warrant signed by the Chairman of the Mileage Committee, by the Stated Clerk, and by the Chairman of the Standing Committee on Finance, and be forthwith deposited in the general account and become a part of the Assembly's General Fund.

Resolved, II. That the Executive Commission be authorized to adjust the details of this plan, if necessary, during the coming year of its first operation.

Resolved, III. That this plan go into operation October 1, 1910.

If this plan be adopted by this Assembly, we recommend that the Assembly direct the Executive Commission to present to this Assembly suitable nominations to this Assembly for this first Permanent Finance Committee, and that all Commissioners desiring to suggest names be directed to submit them to the Chairman of the Commission.

Resolved, IV, That the Advisory Committee to the Stated Clerk be discontinued, on and after October 1, 1910, and they are hereby requested to turn over their books and records to the Permanent Finance Committee of the General Assembly, on or before said date.

Resolved, V. That the Permanent Finance Committee be directed to report to the Assembly all rules and arrangements pertaining to the operation of this plan, and that the same be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The Advisory Committee of the Stated Clerk presented its Report, which was approved, except as to the subject of the Treasurer, already acted upon, and the Committee was commended for its fidelity. The Report is as follows:

The Advisory Committee of the Stated Clerk respectfully presents to the General Assembly its second Report as follows:

The Committee, having been continued by the General Assembly of 1909 with the same powers as given to it by the Assembly of 1908 (see Minutes, 1908, p. 184), consists of Ruling Elders—Dr. George W. Bailey, S. Spencer Chapman and William M. Longstreth; Ministers—William H. Oxtoby, D.D., and Joseph W. Cochran, D.D.

In performing its duties the Committee has audited and approved the accounts of the Stated Clerk for the year ending March 31, 1910, as was done at the close of the fiscal year ending April 30, 1909. The account was also audited by Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants of Philadelphia, and the endorsement of the said accountants as well as the Auditing Committee of this Committee, is attached to said accounts.

The receipts were $119,743.35; the expenditures $110,679.75, and the balance on hand March 31, 1910, $9,063.60. Of the disbursements of $110,679.75, the Stated Clerk paid out $54,582.24 upon the vouchers and under the direction of the Mileage Committee of the General Assembly held at Denver; he also paid out $18,116.75 on the warrants and for the account of the Hospitality Committee of the same Assembly.

All checks in excess of one hundred dollars drawn by the Stated Clerk, in performance of his duties as Treasurer, have been countersigned by the Chairman of this Committee, or by one of the members thereof duly authorized to act in his absence.

The Committee has held a number of meetings, at which the matters presented by the Stated Clerk were considered and acted upon.

At a meeting held on September 29, 1909, the Stated Clerk submitted to the Committee an Overture and communication from the Presbytery of Blairsville, in which communication the statements presented were so inaccurate as to cause the Committee to feel that, in justice to the Church, correction was required. Accordingly in October, 1909, the Committee addressed a circular letter to the various Presbyteries, a copy of which is hereto attached.

At a recent meeting of the Committee the Stated Clerk requested its advice with reference to the proposed severance of the duties of Treasurer from the office of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. To this request the Committee replied:

"There being no principle involved in the proposition that the duties of Treasurer should be separated from the office of the Stated Clerk, and having declared that you have no special desire to retain the duties imposed upon you as Treasurer, the Committee, whilst adhering to its judgment as expressed in its Report to the last General Assembly, that the interests of the Church are best served by the present arrangement; nevertheless in view of the fact that many friends of the Church urge such a separation, our advice is that the matter be again presented to the General Assembly with the suggestion that the duties of the Treasurer heretofore performed by you should be performed by a trust company."

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. BAILEY, Chairman,
S. SPENCER CHAPMAN,
WILLIAM M. LONGSTRETH,
WILLIAM H. OXTOBY,
JOSEPH W. COCHRAN.

Philadelphia, May 6, 1910.

The Standing Committee on the College Board, through its Chairman, Rev. Warren H. Landon, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Secretary, Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., by Rev. H. C. Swearingen, D.D., and by College Presidents Wilson, Black, Moffatt, Carrier and Baer, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Colleges would respectfully submit the following Report:

The Field.—The Twenty-seventh Annual Report of this Board has been placed in our hands. We have been impressed, as we have examined it, with the magnitude of the field covered by the work of this Board and the sixty-six institutions under its care. Of these, fifty-seven are of college grade, and nine are academies or preparatory schools. They are located in thirty-one different States of the Union. It would be difficult to find any large centre of Presbyterian population where our Church has not planted, and is not endeavoring to maintain, a school for higher Christian education. Instruction was given in these schools, last year, to 18,366 students, of whom 6,868 were in college classes.

Definition of a Presbyterian College.—As there is apparently a doubt in the minds of some, in these days of changing charters and methods of control, as to what constitutes a Presbyterian college, it may be well to call attention to the definition of such a college, as found in the Constitution of the Board, as revised by the Assembly of 1909:

"A Presbyterian college is one which either is: (1) 'Organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or (2) required by its charter to have at least two-thirds of its Board of Control members of said Church, or (3) actually under Presbyterian approval at the time of receiving assistance.'"

The Assembly declares all of these are Presbyterian colleges and the Board coöperates with them. The Board, in its Report, adds that our Presbyterian colleges are not and never have been sectarian. Some of them are denominational only in the sense that the Presbyterian denomination is back of them in securing students and financial assistance, and in encouraging the cultivation of Christian character and preparation for Christian service in all the walks of life.

With reference to the colleges that have changed their charters, the Board says it "sees no immediate danger of their losing their Christian character, or of their being less loyal to the standard of education and of positive Christian influence expected by the Church. The Board desires to coöperate with and render all possible assistance to such colleges, and expects their loyal and hearty coöperation with the Board in carrying out the educational policy of the Church." This view of the Presbyterian college has approved itself to those who are large givers to our college work.

The Work of the Presbyterian College.—The emphatic word in describing the work of our colleges is Christian. They are endeavoring to give a broad, liberal, up-to-date education, but their aim, above all else, is to give, through the teaching of the Bible and through the personal influence of positively Christian teachers, a Christian education. We have learned, with gratification, of the emphasis laid by the Board on the requirement for Bible study, and of its insistence upon unqualified Christian character on the part of all teachers connected with the institutions assisted by the Board or with which the Board coöperates.

The question is sometimes asked, Is the denominational college holding its own in these days when State universities and other secular universities are offering great inducements and rapidly multiplying the number of their students? The answer is an emphatic, Yes. They are more than holding their own. Their equipment is steadily improving and their students also are on the increase.

If colleges are to be judged by their fruits (and what better way is there to judge them?)the Church owes a debt of gratitude to its denominational colleges. This is the principal source of supply for our ministry. Five of our colleges in the West have given nearly one-half of their young men to the ministry. This is almost entirely our dependence for missionaries, as these colleges still continue to furnish 92 per cent. of all our college graduate home and foreign missionaries. However much our denominational colleges may be criticized in some quarters, they provide the main sinews of war in our great campaign for Christ.

Officers of the Board.—Several important changes have been made in the officers of the Board since the last meeting of the General Assembly. John H. MacCracken, Ph.D., of the New York University, was elected President, June 8, 1909, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D. On February 1, 1910, the Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., was elected Secretary, this office having been vacant since the death of the Rev. James Stuart Dickson, D.D., April 1, 1909.

Dr. MacCracken comes to the office of President after considerable experience with college work, having been for six years a member of the Board, and previous to that President of Westminster College, Missouri.

Dr. Mackenzie has recently entered upon his duties as Secretary, bringing to them a ripe experience in the work of the Church. A large part of his ministry has been spent upon the Pacific Coast, where he came to know well the demands of the great West for higher Christian education. For some years he was engaged in the preparation of young men for the ministry. For five years he has been President of The College Board, and during these years has been influential in shaping its present policy.

He has accepted the position as Secretary at the urgent request of the Board and of a large number of college presidents. The Church is to be congratulated that Dr. Mackenzie has consented to serve it in this capacity at this very important period in the Board's history.

The Work of the Board.—The Board is endeavoring to make effective the recommendation of the Assembly of two years ago with reference to a deed of gift between donors and the college, in all cases where the gifts exceed $1,000. The two express conditions upon which the college receives such gifts are: (1) That the Bible shall be systematically taught to every regularly enrolled student attending such institution, as a part of the regular curriculum required for graduation; (2) that the college, after the date of the execution of the deed of gift, shall engage and retain upon its teaching staff only professors for whose positive Christian influence the president can vouch; and that upon failure thereof the gift shall forthwith revert and be paid by the college to The College Board and become a part of its General Fund.

We are glad to report that this plan has already commended itself to many of our colleges and donors.

The Board also announces its hearty adoption of the policy recommended by the Assembly with reference to withdrawing assistance from academies, except such as are preparatory departments of colleges, owing to the difficulty of effectively maintaining academies, with the resources at the command of the Board.

The Committee notes with interest and approval that the Board proposes so to arrange the work of the office that the Secretary can visit during the year all the institutions not recently visited. The intimate knowledge thus gained upon the field will greatly aid the Board in its decisions, and increase its efficiency.

Finances.—Contributions have been received during the year from 4,274 churches, a larger number, for one year, than ever before in the history of the Board. Over against this, however, must be placed the much less satisfactory statement that only 180 Sunday-schools and 27 Young People's Societies have remembered the Board by sending offerings.

The total amount of receipts for the year, from offerings to the Board and to institutions and from legacies, was $1,358,801, which, though less than in some former years, was an increase of more than $215,000 over the preceding year.

It is worthy of note that the cost of administration was only a little more than 2 per cent. of the total amount of gifts which the Board was a direct agent in securing. It was much less than 2 per cent. of the total received through the year for Christian education.

One of the most notable bequests of the year, or of any year, was that of Mr. John S. Kennedy, of New York, namely, one-sixty-fourth part of his residuary estate. It is conservatively estimated that it will yield the Board, in due time, $750,000. Five colleges under the Board were specifically remembered in Mr. Kennedy's will, to the amount of $1,150,000. His gifts to our college work, therefore, will aggregate, when paid, nearly, if not quite, $2,000,000. The Assembly may well join with the Board in grateful acknowledgment to Mrs. Kennedy for this very generous remembrance.

ENLARGEMENT.—Great things have already been accomplished by this Board and our colleges. But they are not satisfied. They wish to undertake larger things. The College Conference has resolved to ask the Church for a larger financial support for its colleges. They make an appeal for $15,000,000, to be raised within five years, at the rate of $3,000,000 per year. Your Committee heartily approves the proposition. This is a day of large enterprises. We should look upon our college work as a large enterprise. We should entertain high ideals for our colleges. The Christian college should have as perfect an equipment as secular institutions. Additional equipment will multiply students in colleges where Christian influences are potent. This may seem like a large undertaking, but we have the ability and the machinery with which to accomplish it. We have a well-organized Board and over fifty energetic college presidents. The responsibility of securing this large amount will rest on them. They will undertake it. They are eager to undertake it. Nearly $1,500,000 is already raised annually. They are only asking us to recommend that they double their efforts and raise $3,000,000 annually. There should be no hesitancy on the part of the Assembly. This work ought to be as dear to the whole Church as to the officers of The College Board and the presidents of our colleges.

RECOMMENDATIONS.—We submit the following recommendations:

1. That the Minutes of the Board, which have been examined and found in order, be approved.
2. That the Board be commended for its careful, prudent administration of its great trust.
3. That the financial report of the Board, duly audited by a public accountant, be approved.
4. That pastors be urged to call the attention of their young people in Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies to the work of this Board, endeavoring to secure their interest and their gifts, on the ground that young people should be interested in the equipment of young people for the service of the Church.

5. That the Church undertake to raise in the next five years, at the rate of $3,000,000 annually, the sum of $15,000,000 for the additional equipment and endowment of our colleges, under the direction of The College Board and the agencies of the individual colleges.

6. That until the above fund is raised, the churches be asked to increase materially their contributions to The College Board for the current expenses of these colleges.

7. That the following members of the Board, the Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., Rev. John Timothy Stone, D.D., Mr. Frederick W. Garvin, Mr. Elisha H. Perkins, Hon. James A. Beaver, LL.D., Mr. James S. Hubbard, Mr. Edward O. Emerson, and John P. Munn, M.D., whose term of office expires, be reëlected for a term of three years; that the Rev. John R. Mackay, Ph.D., be elected to fill the place of the Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., resigned; the Rev. John B. Laird, D.D., to fill the place of the Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., resigned; the Rev. Minot C. Morgan to fill the place of the Rev. James M. Ludlow, D.D., resigned; and Prof. J. C. Egbert to fill the unexpired term of Dr. John H. Finley, resigned.

In behalf of the Committee,

WARREN H. LANDON. Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Temperance, through its Chairman, Rev. Joseph L. Weaver, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Addresses were made by Rev. Charles Scanlon, D.D., and Mr. H. J. Laughbaum. Pending the consideration of the Report, the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Report was placed on the Docket.

A communication from the Woman's Board of Missions was referred to the Executive Commission.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24, 8 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interest of Home Missions, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., Mrs. Frederick S. Bennett, President of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, Rev. James E. Clarke, D.D., Rev. W. S. Holt, D.D., and Rev. Francis E. Higgins.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Ministerial Relief presented a supplemental Report, which was adopted, and made Resolution No. 10 of the main Report (see p. 66).

A resolution on Church Erection, adopted by the Assembly of 1909, as to creating a mutual fire insurance company for churches, was referred to the Executive Commission, to report to the next Assembly.

The Nominating Committee for the Executive Commission made its Report, and opportunity was given for nominations from the floor. The Assembly fixed 9.45 o'clock A.M. to-morrow as the time of election.

The Report of the Temperance Committee was continued until interrupted by the Order of the Day.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. George Alexander, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Chairman, Mr. J. Ernest McAfee, Associate Secretary of the Board, Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., and Rev. Edward Marsden, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions begs leave to report that it has studied with profound interest and thankfulness the One Hundred and Eighth Annual Report of the Board of Home Missions. It ventures to express the hope that this comprehensive and orderly review of a work which, year by year, grows more complex and far-reaching, may, in some form, be widely circulated throughout the Church, in order to expand the horizon of our people and exalt their conception of its vastness and promise.

The financial showing of the past year, and the financial needs for the year to come, have been so fully considered, in connection with the Report of the Executive Commission, that it seems unnecessary to do more than note the gratifying increase of $16,707.13, in receipts from the churches, but at the same time to call attention to the fact that, by reason of the enlarged work of the Board and the falling off in Legacies, it has been compelled, for two years in succession, to draw upon its reserve funds to meet current expenses.

The second item in the Report, which marks an era in the history of this and other Boards, namely, the unparalleled bequests of the late Mr. John Stewart Kennedy, will claim your attention in connection with the Report of a Special Committee.

The work of Home Missions, as understood a generation ago, has been prosecuted with undiminished vigor and success in every part of our land, even into the logging camps and cattle ranches of the great West. The devoted band of Home Missionaries, who are enduring hardness for the Cross of Christ, should be enabled to feel how closely they are held to the heart of the Church, and how gratefully the Church treasures the memory of those that have been faithful, even unto death.

But the work committed to this Board has expanded in a way that is almost bewildering. It is prosecuted among peoples most diverse in origin and speech and character. The Gospel of Christ has been carried, in succession, to Mormons and Mexicans, and to the Indians of Alaska and of the plains.

Within the past ten years, the Greater Antilles have been included in the field that this Board seeks to cultivate. The distinction between Home Missions and Foreign Missions is almost obliterated when we reflect that the Foreign Mission Board is doing Home Mission work in the Philippines, while the Home Mission Board is doing Foreign Mission work in Cuba.

The 10 stations, 82 out-stations, and 2,500 church members in Porto Rico; the 15 churches, 1,350 church members, and 2,623 Sabbath-school pupils in Cuba, indicate how cordially our missionaries have been welcomed, and how fruitful have been their labors. It would not be surprising if, in the near future, more of Latin America should be added to that vast domain to which this Board is called to minister.

But there are other and newer departments of the Board's work that perhaps merit even greater emphasis. "New occasions teach new duties." The Board has not only shown keen appreciation of the trend of events, but also of those more subtile movements by which the whole social order is being slowly readjusted.

Through the Home Missions Council the Home Board has responded to the great yearning for a wider Christian fellowship and for coöperation with other communions.

Through the Advisory Council it has sought to feel the pulse of our whole Presbyterian Church and to permit every part of the Church to influence its policies.

By a system of field secretaries and pastor-evangelists it has endeavored to secure a more compact organization, and in some sections at least has greatly increased its efficiency.

In a tentative way, it has begun to attack the urgent problem of the country church.

By its special representative, the Rev. A. F. McGarrah, it has been helping many churches to discover and adopt a more orderly and effective system of finance.

Its Department of Church and Labor has been bridging the great gulf that had opened between the men of the Church and the men of toil. The Outlook recently testified, that "It has revolutionized the attitude of the trades' unions toward the Church."

Through its Department of Immigration it is making a definite and organized effort to evangelize the motley population pouring into our country at the rate of a million a year, and to fit them for Christian citizenship.

It may fairly be said that, in most of these departments of Christian endeavor, our Church, through its Home Board, is blazing the way for the Protestant Churches of America, and performing a patriotic service which cannot be measured. The Assembly should recognize and commend the Christian statesmanship that has planned and directed this great enterprise.

A large share of the success that has attended the work of our Board during the past year, should be credited to the faithful women that have given to it extended time and thought and labor, and who have contributed the magnificent sum of $602,000 for evangelization and education. This, however, includes considerable sums raised for school buildings, as well as $33,000 to cancel the debt of the previous year. This splendid showing is a tribute to their fine organization and unfailing devotion. Their work is again commended to the attention and interest of the entire Church.

The Young People's Department shows steady advance. This is noticeable along the line of mission study classes and Westminster Guilds, as well as in the large amount of literature distributed, and the large contributions, the latter aggregating more than $109,000.

Your Committee presents the following recommendations:

1. It is recommended that a petition from the Presbytery of Lincoln, with regard to the shepherding of Colored Presbyterians that have migrated to Northern Cities, be referred to the Board of Home Missions for consideration.

2. Overtures Nos. 1 to 28, referred to this Committee, have received careful consideration. They are all of like import, namely, that the Assembly instruct the Board to continue to support Synodical Missionaries in the Synods that desire such appointments. In view of the fact that the "New Plan," approved by the Assembly of 1907 and modified by the Assembly of 1909, is still in process of development, and in the confident hope that the Board will arrive at a satisfactory understanding with the Synods and Presbyteries concerned, we recommend that no action be taken.

3. Your Committee has also considered Overture No. 58, from the Presbytery of Southern Arizona, relating to the independent management of work among Mexicans. Having ascertained from the records of the Board that it is not proposed to deal with Mexican or Indian work in any method different from that followed in other work, and that the Overture is based upon a misapprehension of facts, we recommend that no action be taken.

4. Your Committee, having examined the Minutes of the Board of Home Missions, for the year ending March 31, 1910, recommends that they be approved.

5. The Board, having called the attention of the Assembly to the need of unifying and limiting the appeals (of the several Boards) to the Sabbath-schools, has recommended that each Board now seeking special gifts from the Sabbath-schools, be limited to a single appeal each year. (This item was not adopted, but was referred, by vote of the Assembly, to the Assembly's Executive Commission.)

6. It is recommended that the Assembly reaffirm the percentages of undesignated gifts by the churches to the various causes of benevolence.

7. Referring to the action of the last General Assembly regarding work among Seamen and Soldiers, it is recommended that the Home Board be authorized, through the Home Missions Council, to approach other leading denominations with reference to the possibility of unifying our common interests and influence in the matter of chaplaincies in the army and navy.

8. It is recommended that the election of the Rev. William Adams Brown, D.D., Mr. Theodore W. Morris, and the Hon. William S. Bennet, to fill vacancies in the membership of the Board be confirmed.

9. That the following persons, whose period of service expires with the meeting of this Assembly, be reëlected, for the term of three years, viz.: Ministers—Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., Joseph Dunn Burrell, D.D., Albert Edwin Keigwin, D.D., Edgar Whitaker Work, D.D.; Laymen—Walter M. Aikman, William H. Corbin, Robert C. Ogden, Henry W. Jessup, Fleming H. Revell.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE ALEXANDER, Chairman.

The Advisory Council on Church Extension, through its Chairman, Rev. William T. Jaquess, D.D., presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Advisory Council on Church Extension respectfully reports to the General Assembly that its first meeting was held in the Presbyterian Building, New York City, on November 17, 1909, the session lasting through three days. The following Synods were represented: Arkansas, Baltimore, California, Colorado, East Tennessee, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. Also two representatives from the Board of Church Erection, two from the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and three from the Board of Home Missions, as provided for in the act establishing the Council. After temporary organization, three Committees were created—on Docket; Revision and Adjustment; Resolutions. Two conferences were held, as directed, with the Assembly's Executive Commission, and a plan for the unification of Home Missions was discussed. The following topics were discussed and acted upon during the remaining sessions: Plans for synodical organization and administration,—in self-supporting Synods, in Synods ready for self-support, in dependent Synods; Reports of Synods to the Assembly; the administration of mission work among foreign-speaking populations; recommendations from the Boards; Home Mission literature; and other miscellaneous items of business.

As a result of these discussions, it was decided that the self-supporting Synods should continue their work according to the respective plans that have been approved by experience, subject to any change that may appear wise in the future. This decision is justified by results realized under self-administration, these Synods having raised and expended for Home Missions within their bounds during the year $411,219, and employed 1,100 missionaries, 73 of whom are men of foreign speech. The average appropriation, including the salaries of superintendents, being but $327.16. In addition, $442,535 was contributed through the Home Board by these Synods. Experience has proved that the most satisfactory administration and the best results are realized when the authority is nearest the need. Self-administration is a powerful stimulus to increased giving. It was decided, however, that permanency demanded that any Synod moving toward self-support should seek to contribute as much money as such Synod received for the work of evangelization, and also to contribute directly to the Board for the general work, and that the term "self-support" should not be applied to any Synod falling short of this goal. A much-discussed question was that of printing the names of home missionaries in the Annual Report of the Board, it being held by some that such publicity lessened the respect entertained for a class of self-sacrificing and thoroughly consecrated men. The Council deplored even the possibility of such sentiments existing, and holds that as large a measure of heroism is manifested by those laboring in the Home Mission fields as in the Foreign, and that the roll of such is a roll of honor. Also that if such a roll is to be printed, the names of missionaries in self-supporting Synods should be included.

The Council is impressed by the increasing importance of the work among people of foreign speech, and urges the formation of voluntary associations of religious workers for carrying on such work. There are now 104 German Presbyterian Churches in the self-administrating Synods; 68 Italian churches and missions, with a membership of 3,218. Last year they received 722 new members; 30 Hungarian, or Magyar, churches and missions, having more than 2,500 members; there are considerably more than 30 Bohemian Presbyterian Churches and Missions, and these report in the Assembly Minutes of 1909, showing an aggregate membership of over 2,000; 15 Slovak, Ruthenian and Bulgarian churches and missions; 6 Holland or Dutch churches, reporting 800 members, and as many more French churches. There are also churches and missions for Armenians, Syrians and Greeks. The Board of Publication is doing a splendid work in providing a high grade of magazines and other literature for circulation among these people, while the Board of Church Erection is assisting in providing them with church buildings.

The question of consolidating the Boards, having to do with the extension of our denomination, being an important one at the present time, the Council is able to report that if such consolidation is of necessity deferred to the future, the meeting of the representatives of these Boards with the synodical representatives in the Church Extension Council presents possibilities of large results along the lines making for unification. While a union of interests is not always practicable, yet in the centres of population such union is often possible and profitable, and the Boards are one in their desire to perfect and conserve the interests of Presbyterianism in so doing. In this direction Dr. E. N. White presented the interests of the Church Erection Board and invited representatives of the Council to attend its meetings. It was voted to submit to the Assembly the advisability of authorizing the Board of Church Erection to establish, in conjunction with Presbyteries, a Church Extension Fund for securing lots and erecting churches beyond what is generally given or loaned by the Board for this purpose, the administration of such funds to be invested in the Presbytery, and the vested interests in the Board. The members of the Council were instructed to remind their Synods of their obligations to this Board and of the sacred nature of the trust funds administered by it; also of the necessity for a careful consideration of the prospects for permanency and success of all churches aided, as well as their ability to meet future obligations promptly. Dr. Alexander Henry, of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, presented a paper, which was adopted, setting forth that in city Presbyteries and well-established fields, where little pioneer work is to be done, the office of pastor-evangelist and Sunday-school missionary can be, and should be, united. But in widely extended fields, demanding a large amount of pioneer work, if it is deemed best to undertake the united office, an effort should be made to assign each work to the most appropriate season of the year. It was thought wise, however, to leave the final decision of these questions to the judgment of the Presbyteries to whom all the conditions are known. It was decided to urge the Theological Seminaries to act upon the suggestion of the last Assembly, by providing training schools for Sunday-school workers. It was also recommended that a "Year Book" on Home Missions be published by the Home Mission agencies throughout the Church, the Board of Home Missions acting as the central agency to collect materials and publish and distribute the same.

The Council completed its organization by electing the following officers: President, Rev. W. T. Jaquess, D.D.; Vice-President, Rev. M. D. Edwards, D.D.; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. J. E. McAfee. The President appointed the following Committees:

1. Committee on Methods of Synodical and Presbyterial Organization: Rev. W. T. Jaquess, D.D., Rev. M. D. Edwards, D.D., Mr. J. E. McAfee.

2. Committee on Boards Connected with the Council: Rev. E. B. Newcomb, D.D., Rev. Thomas D. Logan, D.D., Rev. John B. Hill, D.D.

3. Committee on Mission Work among Foreign-speaking People: Rev. Samuel McLanahan, D.D., Rev. W. P. White, D.D., Mr. George P. Conard.

4. Committee on Docket and Programme: Rev. W. B. Noble, D.D., Rev. J. M. Wilson, D.D., Rev. Malcolm H. MacLeod.

It was decided to ask the Assembly to direct that in the future the expenses of the Council be borne in the following proportion: By the Assembly, one-third; by the Board of Home Missions, one-third; by the Boards of Church Erection and Publication and Sabbath-school Work, each one-sixth. The Council also recommended to the Synods that as far as possible the continuity of the Council be preserved. Also that the President of the Council should go before the General Assembly in person and present the Report ordered by the last Assembly. The Council, for its future guidance, decided to recognize three classes of Synods as follows: (1) Synods which are self-supporting and self-administrative; (2) Synods which pay into the treasury of the Board as much, or more than they receive from the Board, but whose missionary work is administered by the Board; (3) Synods which do not pay into the treasury of the Board as much as they receive for their evangelistic work and which are therefore not self-supporting. The Synods of the third class shall have the privilege, on agreement of the Presbyteries, to revise the estimates of the Presbyteries before such estimates go to the Board, such Synods being urged to organize their synodical work in such a way as may seem best to them to secure the greatest possible efficiency and to press on to an early and complete self-support. The Council is profoundly interested in the development of the whole movement toward self-support, and deeply anxious to further it, realizing that each must work towards self-support according to its circumstances and needs. The Council therefore suggests the appointment of a strong synodical Committee which shall work for the education and inspiration of all the churches looking toward larger gifts, and for a closer supervision of the work. To this end the Executive Committee of the Council was instructed to draw up statements of plans of Synodical organization suggested by the plans now in effect in various Synods, such material to be available for the help of those who may desire it. The Council, before adjourning, adopted the following:

Plan for the Unification of Home Missions.

1. The constitution of the Board and its functions, as defined in its charter, shall remain unchanged.

2. The self-supporting Synods shall continue their work according to the respective plans that have been approved by experience, or that may be agreed upon in the future.

Between the Board and the Advisory Council of Church Extension there shall be vital relations as follows:

1. The Council shall meet with the Board of Home Missions at such time and place as may be mutually agreeable to the Council and the Boards represented in the Council, to consider all matters relating to the general policy of the Home Mission enterprise, such as territory and departments to receive emphasis; the methods of fields, administration, etc. The Council may not only offer individual suggestions, but it shall have the right officially to advise the Board in any manner which in its judgment calls for such action.

2. The Council shall report annually to the General Assembly. The General Assembly's Standing Committee on Home Missions shall be charged to report on Home Mission work in all its phases, however conducted, noting specially, under a distinct head, the work of the Synods and Presbyteries conducting their own Home Mission work, making use of information furnished on the subject by the Chairman of the Advisory Council of Church Extension. Receipts and expenditures of all Home Mission funds shall be incorporated in the report of the Treasurer of the Home Mission Board, with the understanding that funds contributed by self-administrative Synods and Presbyteries for their own work be so designated. The names of all home missionaries shall be printed in the Annual Report of the Board, and the names of all churches reaching self-support shall be included in the "roll of honor" published in the Report.

3. The Advisory Council and the Board shall coöperate in the endeavor to make effective the Home Mission apportionment which has been determined in each and every Synod. And to that end in each Synod the member there representing the Council shall be specially charged with the duty of endeavoring to bring the Synod up to its full measure of responsibility in this regard.

4. The Board by its literature and its personal representatives shall give all possible aid to all Synods, whether self-supporting or not, in assisting to solve either the financial or missionary problems of the Synod. It shall be the duty of the Board to render to all Synods such aid as may be in its power, especially in evangelistic work, work among foreigners, or in cities, or in mining or lumbering camps, or in any phase of missionary service for which Providence may open the way.

5. To the end that the unity we seek may find fullest expression, the Board and Advisory Council will, so far as practicable, combine in the issuing of missionary literature, and will from time to time engage together in missionary campaigns for bringing the entire work more clearly and forcibly to the attention of the Church and country. In cases where the Synod and Board may so determine, the effort shall be combined in the raising of one Home Mission budget, to be divided for the support of the several branches of the work as the Synod and Board shall agree.

6. The Board and Advisory Council, at the annual meeting, shall appoint such committees for joint council or action as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the above agreement.

Recommendations.

The Council recommends the following Resolutions for the adoption of the General Assembly:

1. That the plan of organization of the Council, its election of officers, and the Committees appointed by it, be approved.

2. That the plan for the unification of Home Mission interests, adopted by the Council, be approved.

3. That the expenses of the Council be borne in these proportions: By the General Assembly, one-third; by the Board of Home Missions, one-third; by the Boards of Church Erection and Publication and Sabbath-school Work, each one-sixth.

4. That all self-administrative Presbyteries be instructed to report to and through the Synod when the Synod is self-administrative.

5. That the Executive Commission include in the Annual Budget presented to the Assembly such Home Mission funds as the several Presbyteries and Synods apportion to their respective churches; the Board of Home Missions securing the information which shall enable the Commission to carry out this measure.

6. That the amounts of money given by local organizations for Church Extension be incorporated in the reports of the Board, reports of said amounts to be furnished by said local organizations and printed in the Appendix to the Report of the Board.

7. That the Assembly instruct the Presbyteries to exercise great deliberation and special care in the ordination and reception of ministers for people of foreign speech, as to character, ability, and their knowledge of, and loyalty to, the standards of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

8. That the Assembly take steps, through the proper Board or Committee, to provide training for lay workers among such people.

In behalf of the Council,

WILLIAM T. JAQUESS, Chairman.

The following recommendation of the foregoing Report was referred to the Standing Committee on Church Erection:

That the Assembly authorize the Board of Church Erection to establish, in conjunction with Presbyteries, a Church Extension Fund for securing lots and erecting church buildings, beyond the amount generally given or loaned by the Board for this purpose, the administration of such funds to be invested in the Presbytery, and the vested interests in the Board.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to pay the necessary expenses of the Chairman of the Advisory Council in his attendance upon the Assembly to present his Report.

Rev. Judson L. Swift, D.D., Secretary of the American Tract Society, addressed the Assembly, and the following was adopted:

The Assembly recognizes the indispensable service of the Tract Society in mission work throughout the Orient, it having been untiring in its effort to create Christian literature in the vernacular, thereby multiplying many times the power of the missionary, and heartily congratulates the Society upon its ability to resume its foreign cash appropriations.

In view, therefore, of the unprecedented call for the printed page in the mission fields of the world:

Resolved, That the Assembly renews its former recommendations with fresh emphasis, and urges that the American Tract Society be included in the benevolences of its churches and individuals, and that this may be more readily and effectively accomplished, believing that the Tract Society's work is essential to the preaching of the Gospel to the whole creation.

Hon. Simon Wolf, former United States Minister to Egypt, expressed, in behalf of the Jews of the United States, gratitude for the resolution on the subject of the persecutions in Russia introduced into the Assembly yesterday.

A paper on the white-slave traffic was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures makes the following Report on various matters referred to it by this Assembly.

Overture No. 85, from the Presbytery of Portland. With reference to that part of the Overture dealing with the subject of the more prompt publication of the Minutes, we recommend its reference to the Executive Commission, with power. The rest of the Overture having been already acted upon, no further action is necessary.

Overtures Nos. 78 to 82 inclusive, relating to Reduced Representation. We recommend that, in view of action already had by this Assembly, no further action be taken.

Overtures Nos. 49 and 84, suggesting an amendment to the Form of Government so as to provide for a triennial or biennial Assembly. We recommend that they be answered in the negative.

Overture No. 61, relating to Vacancy and Supply. We recommend that it be referred to the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work.

Papers Nos. 366 and 367, reporting the completion of a metrical version of psalms, and the Presbyterial adoption thereof by the Presbyteries of the United Presbyterian Church. We report that we have heard Dr. Steele, a member of the Assembly's Special Committee discharged last year, who is still the Secretary of the Joint Committee of American and Canadian Churches, as well as Dr. McNaugher, of the United Presbyterian Church, and we recommend that these papers and the whole matter therein contained be referred to the Executive Commission, to confer with the Chairman of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, and the representative of the Board of Publication, and report to this Assembly.

Paper No. 368, being a paper from the Chicago Presbytery relating to the Blairsville Overture. We recommend that no action be taken.

Paper No. 369, being a resolution referred to this Committee by the Assembly. We recommend the adoption of the following statement: In the name of humanity, and in the name of Him who pitied the persecuted, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. hereby protests generally against the wrongs inflicted upon the Jewish people of Russia, which are an offence to the conscience of Christendom; and also protests in particular against the recent edict commanding the expulsion of the Jews from their homes in Kieff. At the same time, the Assembly expresses its Christian sympathy with the suffering race from which, according to the flesh, came the Christ, their Saviour and ours.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully reports, of its own motion (under its powers, by Rule of the Assembly, p. 59, Manual, 1910), the following Resolution, and we recommend that it be adopted, and that Dr. Palmer, a member of the Committee, be heard for five minutes, as a part of this Report.

"Inquiry having been made in some of our Presbyteries, as to how those formerly identified with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and who have until now refrained from affiliating with the Reunited Church, may become so affiliated; this General Assembly, for the guidance of all interested Synods and Presbyteries, in a spirit of love for all sincerely desiring to conform with our Lord's Great High Priestly Prayer (John 17: 21), and in harmony with deliverances of former General Assemblies (Moore's Digest, pp. 213, 214), makes the following deliverance, viz.:

Whenever any minister or congregation, having been thus formerly identified, and having hitherto refrained from affiliating with the Reunited Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., shall express a desire to be recognized as identified with said Reunited Church, and as affiliating with any Synod or Presbytery, all that is necessary shall be that such minister be present and report to the Stated Clerk, and such congregation, by their elder representative, be present, at any regular meeting of Synod or Presbytery within whose bounds such minister or congregation may be located, and answer to their names when its roll is called; provided they were in good standing in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at the time of the Reunion in 1906, and that they have maintained a Christian character since.

We desire to reaffirm, that we cherish only feelings of brotherly kindness toward all those who were affected by the Reunion and were expected to affiliate with the same.

We further affirm, that all those who shall now, or at any time in the future, loyally coöperate with us, will be accorded all the brotherly kindness, respect and consideration shown toward any minister or congregation of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work, through its Chairman, Rev. James E. Clarke, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by the Secretary of the Board, Rev. Alexander Henry, D.D., was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work respectfully presents the following Report:

It is gratifying to the whole Church that, along with other agencies, the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work continues to manifest prosperity and to enlarge the sphere of its activities.

Originally organized as the Board of Publication, its chief duty being the publication of religious literature, in 1887 it was charged with responsibility for the Sunday-school work of the Church and rechristened as the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. Whatever the Assembly of 1887 may have had in mind as to how the work should be done, it evidently had a clear vision of what should be done by some agency, and it specifically committed to this Board "the work of organizing, fostering and strengthening Sunday-schools." It is worth while to note the words used when the Board was reorganized and given its present name and form. It was directed not only to organize Sunday-schools, but also to foster them; and not only to organize and foster them, but also to strengthen the schools which had been brought into being by the missionaries of the Board and kept alive by their fostering care. This may be called the "Great Charter" of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and the Board will never overstep the boundaries of this Charter until Presbyterian Sabbath-schools, thoroughly equipped for effective work, and manned by officers and teachers trained to impart religious instruction and using the most approved methods for the development of Christian character, are to be found in every community where there is any need of religious education.

It is interesting to note how the work of the Board has developed and how the emphasis has changed during the years. In the beginning, the motive that inspired the Sunday-school missionary work appears to have been that such activities would contribute more than any other kind of effort toward the growth and expansion of the Church. The Assembly of 1887 said: "The Sabbath-school is demanding the attention of all religious denominations as never before. The Church that enlists the children will be the growing Church, the aggressive Church, the Church of all the people." With this thought in mind, the Sunday-school work was committed to this Board and it was made a missionary agency. It is still a missionary agency, and must be and should be, just as every Sunday-school teacher must always be a missionary. This is one feature of the Board's Charter. It was instructed to organize Sunday-schools and has done so, and nothing is more natural or more encouraging than that churches grow out of these schools. During the past year a total of 148 missionaries, including superintendents, have labored within the bounds of 150 Presbyteries, and, as a result of their labors, 608 new Sabbath-schools were organized and 200 schools were revived, making a total of 808 schools, with a membership of 27,843. During the same period, 100 new churches were organized as the natural development of mission Sunday-schools, which were planted by and have had the fostering care of the missionaries of this Board, and during the whole period of twenty-three years a total of 1,902 churches have come into existence as the result of this missionary activity, the catholicity of the work being evidenced by the fact that 578 of these churches are connected with other denominations. All of this is reason for thanksgiving, and the Church may well congratulate the Board upon its splendid showing.

As time passed, however, and as the Church studied the problem of so unifying all of its work as to secure, the greatest efficiency, with the least possible duplication of effort, it has become increasingly evident that, though the organization of churches must always be an incidental and a gratifying result, the primary duty of this Board is not to lay the foundations of future Presbyterian churches—that work has been committed to the Board of Home Missions. The supreme duty laid upon the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, is the Christian nurture of the children and youth of the United States and such strengthening of Sunday-schools as shall make them what they ought to be—the great centres for that religious education that has been banished from our day-schools and that is so generally neglected even in our Christian homes. After two years of careful consideration, the General Assembly of 1909 adopted the recommendation of the Committee on Administrative Agencies, as follows:

"1. That the Assembly unify its educational work among the children and youth by committing it for general supervision to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.

"2. That the said Board shall have and is hereby given the supervision of all the Sunday-school work of the Church, shall promote the efficiency of existing schools, and shall organize new Sunday-schools in the interest of the nurture of the young."

The Assembly also recommended that the Board enlarge and extend this educational feature as rapidly as funds admit, and that it should appoint Sunday-school experts as educational superintendents. The adoption of these resolutions laid upon this Board the responsibility for conducting its future work in the interest of the youth and for the promotion of Christian education.

It may be said, therefore, that the Board has now entered upon a third distinct period of its highly successful career. It still publishes Christian literature, as in the beginning; it still organizes and fosters Sunday-schools "in the interest of the nurture of the young;" but it has now entered upon a period when it is to lay large emphasis upon the task of so strengthening the Sunday-schools and allied educational agencies of the Church that they shall be efficient factors in solving the serious problem that the Church is facing: How shall we provide adequate and thorough religious education for our children and youth?

It is no easy task that the Board has undertaken. To promote the efficiency of 12,000 Sunday-schools, more than 2,500 being mission schools; so to develop them that they shall be really schools, effective centres for religious education, requires time and a large force of trained workers, and it should be said, in passing, that the Church must not be impatient if the desired results are not secured in a day or a decade.

In considering the means of promoting the efficiency of existing schools the attention of the Board was naturally turned at once to its force of more than 125 Sunday-school missionaries. Here were men who, for years, had been engaged in the work of organizing new schools; would it not be possible to give an educational character to their work, and add to the duty of organizing new schools the duty of improving existing schools?

The Board determined to undertake it. As a step in this direction, it was decided to create the office of Educational Superintendent of Sunday-school Missions, and elect to this office the most competent Sunday-school expert that could be found in the Presbyterian Church.

This was done, and the Rev. E. Morris Ferguson, a well-known leader among the Sunday-school workers of the United States, became Educational Superintendent. On December 1, 1909, he entered upon his duties. In company with the Secretary of the Board, he attended the annual conferences of the Sunday-school missionaries, and explained to them his plans for guiding and promoting their educational work.

The missionaries received these plans with enthusiasm, and have already begun to put them into practice. This, of course, is but a beginning, but it is a most auspicious beginning, and a step that promises to be of great and increasing service to the Sunday-school work of the Church.

It cannot be expected that the men that have given a large portion of their lives to pioneer work can be transformed at once into Sunday-school experts, in the sense in which that term is ordinarily used; nor is it desirable that they should, for there are still thousands of communities where the work of promoting the efficiency of existing schools must be very elemental in character. For much of this work the Sunday-school missionaries are already well equipped, and with due attention to the subject, under the guidance of the Educational Superintendent, and with more time devoted to this phase of their work, these men of practical experience, who are in close touch with the people of the rural districts, can accomplish much toward bringing the numerous small schools to a higher state of efficiency. As there are at present about twenty mission schools to each missionary, it will be seen that the task of improving the mission schools alone affords a field well worth cultivating. Besides, the Sunday-school missionaries are, or with proper training soon will be, prepared to render valuable assistance to thousands of other schools that lack both facilities for betterment and the knowledge how to secure them.

There are other thousands of schools, however, blessed with pastors and superintendents that are as well prepared as the average missionary, which, nevertheless, have need of assistance and encouragement in perfecting their methods and realizing their ideals. There is good reason, therefore, why, without curtailing its force of missionaries, the Board should appoint additional educational superintendents as soon as its funds will permit.

The aim should be, more and better Sunday-schools in all parts of the country, and, more than this, all churches so organized and equipped that, for the youth and adults as well as the children, they shall be the effective centres of religious education. Yet all of this is to be sought, not as an end in itself, but as a means to the supreme end that the boys and girls of to-day may be the strong, pure, efficient, Christian citizens of to-morrow.

Meanwhile the Board has continued the work of its Young People's Department with good effect. The design of this department is to aid the young people in the development of Christian character and Christian activity, and there is good reason to conclude that it has been of valuable service, not only directly, but as an assistant to pastors that need help in this important phase of church life. Unfortunately, Rev. W. L. Gelston, Superintendent of this department, has been ill during a large portion of the year. We rejoice to know that he is improving in health and will soon be able to resume the full duties of his office. Rev. W. R. Hall has been elected as assistant to Mr. Gelston, and with two active leaders in this department we may expect efficient service in the year ahead.

The specific work of Teacher-Training is intimately associated with the new movement for increasing the efficiency of our Sunday-schools, and should have no less attention than in the past, but rather more.

As indicated in the Report of the Board, the year just past was one of marked success in the Business Department, the volume of business having been larger than in any previous year, and the profits amounting to $37,701,097, two-thirds of which will be used for the work of the Missionary Department. We commend the management for the energy and efficiency that have produced results so gratifying, and again urge upon our people that they patronize the Board and its depositories, both because of the high character of the publications and because the profits from sales become an evangelizing force. We note that Mr. F. M. Braselmann has become Business Superintendent, a position for which he is well fitted by his long experience and proved capacity. In this connection, we note with sorrow the death of Mr. John H. Converse, who was for many years Chairman of the Business Committee and one of the most valuable members of the Board.

The Minutes of the Board and its Committees have been examined by your Committee, and their approval is recommended. We especially commend the Board for promptly establishing a depository at Nashville, when, because of a Court decision, the Publishing House there had to be turned over to those Cumberland Presbyterians that opposed union. While under the control of your Board, that Publishing House had been run as a separate business, pending litigation, and its loss would have seriously embarrassed the Church in that section had it not been for the prompt action of the Board in establishing a new depository.

It is a pleasure to learn that the contributions to the missionary work show a substantial increase, and that Children's Day and Rally Day were more widely observed than heretofore. The excellence of the programmes now prepared for these occasions should commend them to all pastors and Sunday-school workers, and the general observance of these special days should be encouraged as of interest to the children and promotive of the Christian spirit and the cause of missions. We suggest that these programmes might well contain a larger number of familiar hymns, set to simpler music, for the sake of the great majority of our smaller schools.

We propose the following recommendations:

1. That the Board be commended for the progress it has made in organizing its work for promoting the efficiency of existing Sunday-schools, and that it be advised to extend and perfect this organization.

2. That the selection of Rev. E. Morris Ferguson as Educational Superintendent be approved, and that the Board be encouraged to employ other Educational Superintendents, who should be Sunday-school experts.

3. That the plan of employing Sunday-school missionaries in educational work, at least in its simpler forms, be approved, and that these missionaries be urged to prepare themselves thoroughly for this phase of their work.

4. That in employing new missionaries the Board should select, if possible, men that have had some training for educational work.

5. That along with its educational work the Board should stimulate evangelistical activity in the Sunday-schools, to the end that the pupils may be led to a definite decision for Christ.

6. That the Board be congratulated on the success of its work among foreigners, and that this work should be extended as rapidly as possible.

7. That the Board be congratulated on the encouraging reduction of the debt on the Witherspoon Building, and that the Annuity Bond plan be again commended to the Church.

8. That Summer Conferences for Young People should be continued and increased in number, and pastors should encourage their young people to attend.

9. That where the way be clear, Presbyteries should hold Sunday-school institutes in connection with at least one of their meetings each year, and that similar institutes should be held in connection with the meetings of Synods.

10. That Children's Day and Rally Day should be observed by all schools, and liberal offerings made for the purposes indicated, and that churches be advised to observe the first Sunday in February as Young People's Day.

11. That the Board be urged to extend its missionary and educational activities as widely as possible in the Southwest, where there are large areas in which practically no Sunday-school work is being done and where there is insistent demand for help in developing numerous small schools.

12. It being evident that the change in method and organization in Sunday-school work renders the present housing facilities of our churches inappropriate and inadequate, it is suggested that the Board determine upon floor plans for the proper housing of schools of various enrollment, from the five-class school to the six-department school, and, in conjunction with the Board of Church Erection, give such plans the widest possible publicity.

13. As definite religious instruction can be adequately secured only in a graded system and by a special training of teachers, we suggest to the Board the propriety of classifying Sunday-schools into two classes, those possessing such an organization and those without it.

14. That the Board's action with reference to the use of the Authorized and Revised Versions as the text of its Lesson Helps be approved.

15. That the Assembly confirm the election of President C. A. Herrick, to fill the vacancy in the Board caused by the death of the late John H. Watt.

16. The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire next month: Ministers—*Charles A. Dickey, D.D., LL.D., Robert M. Patterson, D.D., LL.D., Louis F. Benson, D.D., W. Beatty Jennings, D.D., J. M. Johnston; Elders—Robert H. Hinckley, William H. Scott, Franklin L. Sheppard, I. H. Goodnight. The terms of office of Rev. J. M. Johnston, Mr. W. T. Hardison and Mr. L. M. Rice, members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Publication, also expire. We recommend that all of these gentlemen be reëlected to succeed themselves.

17. There has been referred to your Committee an Overture from the Presbytery of Seattle, asking for the establishment of Training Schools for Sabbath-school Workers, preferably in connection with Theological Seminaries. We recommend that the Board of Publication confer with the Board of Education on this subject, and suggest to the next Assembly a plan by which this desirable end may be obtained.

In behalf of the Committee,

The Committee on Mileage presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Mileage Committee, in considering the expenses of the Assembly ad interim, desires to state that it understands that the Assembly has voted that the expenses of the Executive Commission, during the year, be all paid out of the ¾ cent per capita appropriation, which was duly voted, and in addition from the $3,000 to be furnished by the Boards. On this understanding the Mileage Committee asks that the payment of mileage bills be authorized to begin, not earlier than 1.30 P.M. Thursday.

J. M. McKay, Chairman.

Rev. Arthur H. Ewing, D.D., Fraternal Delegate from the Presbyterian Church of India, being unable to remain in the Assembly longer, was heard, and addressed the Assembly. The Moderator responded to his greetings.

The Standing Committee on Synodical Home Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. J. I. Blackburn, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Synodical Home Missions begs leave to report as follows:

There is no greater cause than that represented by our great Home Mission work, which has for its object the evangelization and the Christian preservation of this land in which we live. That there should be more than one department in this great work should not be considered strange, all looking to the same great end.

By Synodical Home Missions we mean the work done within the bounds of each Synod, and particularly by Synods supporting their own work. Your Committee has been impressed with the wisdom of this work. The Advisory Council's Report, which the Assembly has adopted, states it well in these words: "Experience has found that the most satisfactory administration and the best results are realized when the authority is nearest the need. Self-administration is a powerful stimulation to increased giving." Local interests and needs command the attention and interest of the people living in their respective communities.

Your Committee has been impressed, not only with the greatness of the work to be done, but also with what is being done by our self-supporting Synods. They cover the territory in our country occupied by our foreign-speaking people, and to which the greatest number of our immigrants go. We have now twelve self-supporting Synods: New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Baltimore, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Kansas.

Owing to the fact that this Committee's duty has been, or is intended to be, merged into the great Home Mission work and in future years the Home Mission Board is to report on "all phases of the work," only a very meagre report of the work has been put into our hands this year, only two of the reports of self-supporting Synods being handed to us, viz., New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Last year the tabulated report of the self-supporting Synods was as follows:

Synods.	Receipts.	Expenditures.
Baltimore	$ 5,247 56	$ 9,687 51
Illinois	45,148 20	34,960 34
Indiana	15,839 35	16,372 82
Iowa	16,615 93	15,545 39
Kansas	12,219 65	11,592 44
Kentucky	2,828 64	2,562 08
Michigan	14,140 45	15,146 97
New York	26,746 86	26,686 74
New Jersey	23,842 50	22,337 30
Ohio	47,330 32	45,534 11
Pennsylvania	144,934 25	145,867 51
Wisconsin	13,390 33	13,537 72
	$368,284 04	$359,830 93

Outside of the expense of administration, these Synods expended on their fields $347,074. We have every reason to believe that if your Committee had the Report of these same Synods in its hands, it would show an equal footing this year and very likely a considerable increase.

The two Synods whose reports have been handed to us, show a considerable increase over last year. The Synod of New Jersey reports $27,340.50 expended in their Synod this last year, and the Synod of Pennsylvania reports a total of $183,835, a very considerable increase. New Jersey says in its report, speaking of the work they are doing: "New phases of work have constantly presented themselves and have been successfully dealt with. This is the more remarkable when we remember the polyglot population among whom we have recently been called to labor in many parts of the State. Aid is now given for the founding or teaching of the Gospel not only in English, but in German, Italian, Hungarian, Ruthenian, Syrian, and Armenian. Religious work by Presbyterians in some other tongue than English is carried on at more than fifty points in the State." The report from Pennsylvania has the following summary of their work: "Ministers and missionaries employed, 204; churches and missions aided, 282; additions to membership, 3,178; communicant membership, 23,843; total expended in Home Missions within the Synods, $183,835."

Your Committee quotes further from the Pennsylvania report, to show what they are doing for their enfeebled country churches.

"For a quarter of a century our industrial centres have been drawing heavily upon the population of our rural communities, as the young blood and energy of the country have been flowing into the veins of the city. The cities have been enriched, while the country is impoverished. The problem of the country church has been a pressing one in Pennsylvania. The support of these weakened churches has been felt to be a sacred obligation laid upon the Synod. The average membership of 159 churches aided last year from Synod's fund was 65, mostly country churches. These are fruitful fields, the average gain in membership last year being 12.7 per cent., while the average for the Synod was 6.5 per cent." The report says further: "The pastors of most of these churches are pinching along on salaries of $800 and less, trying to maintain homes of Christian culture and refinement. In one Presbytery alone are 14 ministers, college bred, highly trained, doing efficient service, living on less than $800 a year. These facts so stirred the last Synod that it directed its Committee on Home Missions to take steps at once to pay every pastor under its care a salary of not less than $800, and a manse, or its equivalent."

Your Committee feels that it is important that the Assembly should know something of the work these self-supporting Synods are doing. Are we all aware that the self-supporting Synods represent 53 per cent. of our churches, 75 per cent. of our members, and, last year, 81 per cent. of the contributors for Home Missions in the entire Church?

We are convinced that there would not be a less showing this year, if we had the data from which to report. Here your Committee would add that since writing our report, reports from the following self-supporting Synods have been handed us; Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, New York, Illinois, and Ohio, confirming the statement we have made of increasing work's being done this year. The Synod of Indiana reports an advance of nearly $2,000 over the previous year; Iowa reports an increase of $642.30; Kansas reports $4,112.30 more than last year; Michigan sums up its work as follows: "Churches receiving aid, 82; churches reaching self-support, 11; members added on profession, 210; new Sabbath-schools organized, 15; Home Mission churches built, 3, the value of the same, $30,000; debt cancelled, $2,300; churches enlarged and repaired, 16; raised for Home Missions, $15,843." The report from the Synod of New York states that the past year has been one of continued blessing and privilege. All the demands made upon the Synod's Committee have been promptly and adequately met. Illinois sums up its work as follows: "133 churches, besides missions and preaching stations, were aided; 3 new mission stations organized; 11 churches reached self-support; 99 ordained ministers and 22 other ministers employed; 1,294 additions to our aided churches on profession of faith; total membership in aided churches, 10,004; Sabbath-school membership, 14,267. Missions for foreign-speaking population were maintained among Bohemians, Bulgarians, Chinese, Hungarians, Italians, Jews, Persians, and Slavs." Ohio closes the report by saying: "We show, with the other self-supporting Synods, the sense of increasing responsibility, both in the saving of our own commonwealth, and in the evangelization of our common country."

Your Committee think it will be a mistake not to give our self-supporting Synods full credit for the work they are doing. Four things should be kept well in mind as to this work the self-supporting Synods are doing.

1. That they are doing a work that the great Home Board is not in a position to do so well.

2. That in doing this work they are relieving the Board of a very great burden.

3. That while they are doing a great and needed work in the respective Synods, they are large contributors for the Board for work to be done in other parts of the great Home field.

4. That the ultimate goal in Synods and Presbyteries, as well as in individual churches, should be that of self-support.

Your Committee would offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the self-supporting Synods be earnestly commended for the work they have done and are doing.

Resolved, 2. That they be urged to continue their work, according to their respective plans that have been approved by experience or may be agreed upon in the future.

Resolved, 3. That the goal for all our Synods should be that of self-support.

Resolved, 4. That all self-supporting Synods be urged to send in complete and detailed reports to the Home Board, and that the Home Board be asked to make a full report of the same to the next General Assembly, giving both facts and figures as to the work done by the self-supporting Synods.

Resolved, 5. That a place and part be given to the self-supporting Synods, on the program of Home Missions, with a speaker to represent this cause before the Assembly at the popular meeting.

In behalf of the Committee on Synodical Home Missions,
Respectfully submitted,
J. I. Blackburn, Chairman.

In accordance with action previously taken, the Standing Committee on Synodical Home Missions was announced as discontinued.

The consideration of the Report of the Temperance Committee was continued. An additional resolution was referred to the Committee.

The Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union presented the portion of its Report dealing with "Relations with the United Presbyterian Church," which was adopted. (See full Report on another page.)

The Report on Religious Education was taken up, amended, and adopted. It is as follows:

The Special Committee on Religious Education, appointed by the General Assembly of 1908, and continued by the General Assembly of 1909, respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Assembly of 1908 instructed the Committee "to consider further the subject of religious education in the particular church and preparatory schools, to prosecute the development and preparation of courses of instruction along the lines indicated in this Report," which was the Report presented by this Committee to that Assembly.

Pursuant to this instruction we have diligently considered the matters intrusted to us in three meetings of the whole Committee and several meetings of sub-Committees, and have carried on a somewhat extensive correspondence.

I. Preparatory Schools.

A Questionnaire was sent to about 125 Preparatory and Secondary Schools, and more or less complete replies were received from 77 of them. About 60 schools give formal religious instruction, which is either wholly or almost wholly instruction in the Bible. In 48 this instruction is comprised in courses more or less perfectly organized.

The courses vary greatly in the material used, but there is general unanimity in covering the historical books of the Old Testament, the Gospels and Acts, while some undertake to cover the whole Bible.

There is no generally acceptable text-book, and the widest variety in the text-books used prevails. The major portion require the student to take the Bible work in whole or in part, while in those schools where the work is elective from 10 to 50 per cent. of the students take it. The time allotted to it is usually one hour per week for each class. About half of those reporting allow credit for the Bible work. About the same percentage also says that the work is done by specialists, by which some, however, evidently mean one of the regular staff of teachers who, in addition to other teaching, has exclusive charge of this subject. In the other schools the work is distributed among the teachers.

Thirty-four report the results satisfactory; 21, fair, and others, varying degrees of unsatisfactoriness. The difficulties mentioned most frequently are unprepared teachers, lack of suitable text-books, and defective previous instruction of pupils.

Practically all say that there is room for a carefully organized course in religious instruction, although some express the opinion that the courses should be adapted to individual schools rather than a uniform course for all schools.

Your Committee finds it difficult to draw anything but the most general conclusions from the information derived from these schools, but these general conclusions are quite obvious and are as follows:

1. That formal religious instruction in our preparatory and secondary schools is lacking in system, definiteness, and resultfulness. It is a part of the school curriculum which has not yet been developed, and is still inchoate. The school-masters, as a body, have not addressed themselves in any serious way to the matter of giving their pupils systematic and comprehensive instruction in the Bible and religious knowledge. Reasons for such a careful effort to solve this problem are so many and so obvious that there is no need to set them forth at this time. Your Committee expresses the hope that the school-masters in their conferences and as individuals will, at an early day, organize a curriculum of religious instruction, suitable for Preparatory Schools, and other schools of the secondary rank for boys and girls.

2. As the Church cannot be indifferent to the religious instruction of the youth of the country in these important schools, it must take seriously its duty to coöperate in it in all proper ways. It may be that our Church through this Committee can render assistance to these schools in formulating a curriculum of religious instruction and in the preparation of suitable text-books. The Assembly and the Committee ought to welcome such opportunity, and the Committee ought to be empowered to aid in the solution of this problem of adequate religious instruction in the Preparatory Schools and in the preparation of suitable text-books for this purpose.

II. Agencies of Religious Instruction.

Your Committee found that, in the field of the particular church, its work had to do with two distinct phases of religious instruction; namely, the agencies for carrying forward this religious instruction and the material to be used in imparting it.

The agencies are many and various. While some churches are highly organized and others are quite without organizations, yet it may be said that within the limits of our Presbyterian churches there are the following Educational Agencies: (1) the Home; (2) the Church Services; (3) the Sunday-school; (4) Junior Societies, Mission Bands, and other organizations among children; (5) Boys' Brigades and other organizations among boys; (6) King's Daughters and other organizations among girls; (7) Christian Endeavor and other organizations among young people; (8) Mission Study Classes and other organizations for reading and study; (9) Missionary Societies and other organizations among women; (10) Brotherhoods and other organizations among men; (11) Lecture Courses; (12) the Sunday-school and Parish Libraries; (13) Organizations for Social Life and Social Service.

While this list of agencies would suggest a full and thorough organization of our churches for educational work, yet familiarity with the fields covered by these agencies justifies the conclusion that, even in the best organized churches, many subjects are neglected or inadequately treated.

The inadequacy and inefficiency of the existing agencies are conspicuous. These defects are due in large measure to the fact that there has been little or no effort by pastors and sessions to coördinate and unify the various educational agencies of the Church. Each agency has been allowed to do its work in its own way, or not to do it at all, without reference to the whole field or to the other agencies. The overlapping and the vacant spaces are a natural and inevitable result.

The necessity for the coördination of these agencies has found expression in sporadic and partial attempts to bring two or more of them into mutually helpful relations. The Cradle Roll and the Home Department of the Sunday-school are in reality an unannounced attempt on the part of the Church at coördination of two of its educational agencies. The same remark may be made respecting the various devices for promoting regular attendance of Sunday-school scholars on the church services, which are in fact somewhat unconscious efforts to bring these two educational agencies of the Church into correlation. The success, which has attended these ventures in unifying different agencies, justifies the belief that a well-devised scheme to bring all of them into a consistent system is practicable and would produce many beneficent results. It is not necessary to enumerate these results, as they will be suggested by other parts of this Report, but there is one that we wish here to call attention to.

An earnest effort by the Assembly, representing the whole Church, and by the pastors and sessions, representing the particular church, to coördinate the educational activities of the Church would result in an emphasis upon the educational function of the Church. This function, which it was the glory of our Church in time past to discharge in a preëminent degree and to the conspicuous advantage of the Church, has not in recent years received that attention which its importance warrants. It has been allowed to fall into other hands or to be quite neglected.

There is great need for just such emphasis upon the educational work of the church and the pastor as would be secured by its systematizing and standardizing as herein advocated. The difficulties in the way of any effort along these lines are neither few nor small, but they must not deter the Church from undertaking a task which by every consideration is one of pressing and vital importance.

As the result of its long and careful study of the problem your Committee ventures to think that these difficulties may be overcome in any church, and that this Report indicates the most feasible plan for accomplishing this much-to-be-desired end.

The School of the Church.

It is highly desirable that the unity of all these diverse educational agencies should be made conspicuously evident. Their diversity is now so evident that the greatest difficulty is experienced in bringing to view their essential unity as educational forces. This unity must be brought to view and be kept in view. A term which will express this unity would help to accomplish this result. We suggest as an appropriate name, The School of the Church. We used it in our Report last year and it met with favor. As the church at present has only one school, so-called, it may be thought that by this name we designate what is variously called "Sunday-school," "Bible-school," "Sabbath-school." But this School of the Church is not the Sunday-school. The Sunday-school is a part of it, possibly the most important part, but it is not the whole of it. There are other parts. All of the educational agencies of the particular church are integral parts of the School of the Church.

If this term, or some similar term, could come into general use for the designation of all agencies that are engaged in the religious instruction of the youth in the particular church, there would come with such use a progressive sense of the unity of those agencies and a growing desire to translate that unity of essence into unity of fact.

The Pastor.

The pastor is the key to the whole educational work of the church, as he is to all of its work of whatever kind. It is upon him that the church depends for its efficiency here as elsewhere. He is not one of the educational agencies. He is the educational agent, the one who directs, energizes, promotes, makes efficient all of the educational agencies. In any discussion of the teaching function of the church he must be reckoned with.

Upon him rests the responsibility for the efficiency of the work of the various educational organizations of the particular church. He is the chief educator in the church. He is the educational expert of the church. He was trained, or should have been, in his theological preparation for the discharge of his teaching office. His theological seminary failed at an important point in properly equipping him for his profession, if it did not prepare him for these high educational duties. He will fail measurably in his ministry, if he does not devote his best study and endeavor to his office as a teacher.

The views which our Church proclaims regarding the relations of truth and life, regarding the imperative duty of the Church to instruct the youth in matters religious and moral, regarding the office of the ministry as a great teaching office, all lay heavy emphasis upon this function of the pastor. The history of our Church and its present experience show the best blessings of the Spirit following the ministry of those pastors who have magnified their teaching function and have given large attention to the agencies the Church employs for instructing the youth.

Your Committee would deplore a construction of any part of this Report which would weaken the pastor's sense of his obligation and opportunity, but earnestly hope that these may be made to appear more real by reason of what is here said.

The Council of Religious Education.

The responsibility for all of the educational work in a particular church is with the pastor and session, and nothing should be done to lessen their sense of it, but rather, everything should be done to deepen it. Nevertheless, this work is of sufficient importance to justify—indeed, to require—its committal to a committee acting under their authority. If the care of the temporal affairs of the church should be entrusted to a Board of Trustees, and the care of the poor to the Deacons, surely the care of the education of the children is worthy of the same specialization.

This Committee might be called "The Council of Religious Education." This Council of Religious Education might be selected by the session on its own initiative or on nomination of a representative by each of the agencies engaged in educational work, as, for example, Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor Society, Women's and Men's organizations, or in any way deemed by the pastor and session most advisable in that congregation.

This Council of Religious Education should not be too large, probably, from three to seven would meet the needs in most congregations. The pastor should be a member, and in many cases the Chairman, of the Council. The other members should be selected with reference to their peculiar fitness to supervise, organize, direct and inspire the educational activities of the church, and their interest in this work. They should be appointed or elected for one, two, or three years, as may seem best.

The Council should have Stated Meetings, which in most cases ought to be once a month. It ought to be regularly organized for its work, and to be required to make public report annually both for the sake of its fidelity and efficiency and for the sake of the congregation's intelligent interest in its work.

This Council of Religious Education should have the oversight of all the educational work of the particular church. It should be charged with the duty of promoting in all wise ways the proper and thorough instruction of the youth in religion and morals through the various agencies adapted to the conditions existing in the congregations. It should not be dictatorial toward these agencies and it can be immensely helpful to them in furthering their own work.

The Council might, by wise suggestion and encouragement, greatly increase religious instruction in the home. One reason for the decline in family religion may possibly be that so little attention has been given by the church to promoting it. The Council could remove this cause. The Council could coördinate the Bible study of the Sunday-school and that of the Young People's Societies and Bible Classes. The Council could coördinate the missionary study of the congregation, so that opportunity would be afforded to every member of the congregation systematically to study or read in this wide field. These are offered as illustrations of its possible usefulness to the various agencies in furthering their chosen ends.

But it can do much more than this. Having the whole field of religious education within the congregation, as its sphere of operation, it can secure the systematic cultivation of the whole field and of each several part through existing agencies or by the creation of new ones. It can stimulate interest in the educational work of the church, and by its energetic devotion to its task it can bring to a high efficiency all the educational activity of its church. The extent of its influences and service will be only bounded by its wisdom and fidelity.

Director of Religious Education.

The School of the Church may well employ a large part of the time of one person, and where it is efficiently conducted it will. In many congregations there will be some man or woman with the requisite ability and leisure to serve as Director of Religious Education. In other congregations it will be possible to pay a salary to the Director. He should have, in connection with the Council, the charge and supervision of all of the educational work of the church. The Council should be his advisers and fellow-workers. Some of our leading churches are now employing specially qualified men or women who, bearing this or some other title, are directing this work.

The various adjustments of Pastor, Session, Council, and Director, must be left in each church to the application of the principles of our Form of Government, to the good sense of the persons concerned, and to the local conditions.

The magnitude of the work, when once it is seriously undertaken, will create the demand for this new office, and churches will seek for it the person best qualified for the performance of its delicate and many duties, and they will have an increasing willingness and ability to provide the necessary funds and equipment. The Director of Religious Education is a coming office in our churches, an office which will take its rank by the side of that of the Pastor and Sunday-school Superintendent.

The Home.

It will be observed that this scheme of unification of the educational agencies now existing in the church does not contemplate their elimination or consolidation, nor does it contemplate the same agencies in all of the churches. It is unification not by consolidation nor by uniformity, but by federation. It provides for all of the existing agencies maintaining their own autonomy, for the multiplication of agencies as occasion for them may arise. It provides for the supervision and occupation of the whole field by the coöperation of all the agencies. Instead of lessening the responsibility and activity of any of the agencies, it will increase these and bring each to a higher efficiency. The brevity required in this Report will not admit of a working out of the plan in regard to each of these agencies, but it is desirable to show in outline its operation in regard to some of them.

There is no more important educational agency than the Home. The decline in family religion, deplorable as it is, is not irremediable. Indeed, there are indications that there is a revival of family religion, at all events, a revival of interest in it. This is a most hopeful sign. This creates an opportunity for the Church to furnish valuable assistance to the Home in its effort to meet its religious obligation to the members of the household. There is reason to believe that many parents would welcome such assistance.

The public schools have offered their aid to the Home and it has been welcomed, and the Mothers' Associations, and Parents' Clubs, which have become a feature of public school life in many parts of the country, are the result. The responsibilities of parenthood are instinctive and well-nigh irresistible. The Church is as well qualified as the secular school for helping the Home in its task of religious training and will meet with as cordial response.

The Council could study the local conditions and give suitable suggestion and help to the homes within the parish for their religious life. There are two points at which it might be especially helpful, namely in the training of parents and in the training of the children. There are various ways for doing each of these tasks, and the Council ought to be wise in promoting the ones best suited to local conditions.

It might be wise to organize a Parents' Department of the Sunday-school, with its superintendent and other officers, or to have a Parents' Club independent of the Sunday-school, or to coöperate with the Public School Parents' Association. It is not difficult to see that the advantages of one of these methods over the others might be determined by local conditions, and the Council would be the body to study the problem and discover its best solution. At present the most depressing fact is that in the particular church no one is paying any special attention to the problem and little or nothing of a systematic kind is being done to solve it. What is everybody's business is nobody's business in this matter. It would be the business of the Council and it would be attended to.

Just as the Council would be able to help the Home through the Sunday-school, or some other church agency to train the parents, so it would help it in the training of the children. It would study the problem of the nurture of the children in the Home, and through existing agencies, such as the Cradle Roll or Home Department of the Sunday-school or some other agency, it would assist in its solution. At present this is nobody's special duty, and hence the neglect.

Thus, there are avenues for effective service to the Home by the Council in securing a federation of all the agencies that touch the Home, or might touch the Home influentially, and in guiding them to a larger efficiency.

Church Services.

Our Church has always magnified the teaching function of the Pulpit. This has too frequently been interpreted as an emphasis upon the Sermon, which has been made the pièce de resistance of the service; and the devotional parts of the service have been relegated to "opening and closing exercises," as if ministers and congregations took their exercise in the church edifice. Even so, the Sermon should have large educational value for the children and the adults and the Council could coöperate with the pastor in accomplishing this by securing the attendance of the children and in other ways.

The devotional portions of the service may have large educational value in training the children in the fitting worship of God and in cultivating in them the spirit of true worship. This pedagogical value of the Church Service is almost entirely overlooked at present, and there is a field here for the wise federation of the Home, the Sunday-school, and other agencies through the Council for securing this value to our children. It could effect the coördination of all the instruction and practice in worship of the Home, Sunday-school, Endeavor Societies, with the Public Worship in the sanctuary, to the increase of the effectiveness of all.

The Sunday-school.

The Sunday-school is the best organized part of the School of the Church, although, as is evident, it is only a part, and as such it must be federated with all the other parts. This federation is highly desirable and may best be effected, as your Committee believes, through a central agency like the Council of Religious Education.

It will be greatly to the advantage of the Sunday-school of a congregation to have consciously before it and before the congregation the fact that it is an integral part of an organized system of education within that congregation.

Its present isolation, which too often leads to an attitude of criticism or indifference on the part of those not identified with it, would be removed; and it would be bound up with all the other agencies in some one of which all the members of the congregation are severally interested, which interest would accrue to the advantage of the whole system and to each of its parts. The Sunday-school would feel the quickening power of association in a vital way with the other agencies engaged in developing the life of the youth, and would willingly coöperate with them to the end that the effectiveness of all may be brought to the highest degree of efficiency.

The Sunday-school, through this federation, would come to a larger and desired consciousness of its function as a school, a much neglected function in many places. The school-idea would have a needed emphasis. The grading of the school according to the grades which are now standardized, namely, Beginners, Primary, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior, would be more easily effected. The introduction of the International graded lessons, than which no better have thus far appeared, would certainly be accomplished. Teacher-training would receive more systematic treatment. The organization of the school for purposes of instruction would have its proper attention, and this would lead in the choice of officers and teachers, in the conduct of discipline, in the selection of the time for the meeting of the School and the length of its sessions, in the arrangement of the rooms in which it meets, and in determining all those questions of internal management on which the efficiency of the Sunday-school as a school must largely depend, and which are now too much neglected.

There is no one need of the Sunday-school more pressing than this consciousness of itself as a school, and we believe that this can be effected most surely and quickly by federating it with the other educational agencies of the Church under the unifying School of the Church and its Council of Religious Education.

There is a present tendency to increase the already heavy load of the Sunday-school, by expecting it to give instruction not only in its own distinctive sphere, but in every other sphere of religious training. It is being overloaded. The demand is made that it not only give instruction in the usual Bible Lesson, but also in supplemental Bible lessons, in missions, in Church History, Doctrine, Polity, Sociology, and other most worthy and important subjects.

It is impossible that all of these subjects can be taught in the Sunday-school. A selection must be made. Yet, as all of them ought to have a place in the Church pedagogical scheme, those selected for the Sunday-school should be best adapted to its organization, and the rest ought to be cared for by other organizations. That is to say, the whole field of educational material should be covered by the Sunday-school and the other organizations. This can only be done by some federation of them all so that the various portions of the field may be wisely apportioned to each of them. The Sunday-school ought not to be required to carry the whole load, nor ought other organizations to duplicate its work by undertaking what properly belongs to it.

The Sunday-school would gain immensely in efficiency, in the esteem of others, in its own appreciation of its work, and in many other ways by the proposed federation of it with the other educational agencies in the School of the Church working through a Council of Religious Education.

The Other Educational Agencies.

These other agencies are enumerated in the general classification above under the heading, "Agencies of Religious Instruction." It is not necessary at this time to deal with each one separately in order to show the need for unity and the advantage to each arising from its being coördinated with all the others. At present each is taking its own way through the educational field, choosing what is most to its liking, whether properly belonging to it or to some other agency, and neglecting other portions of the field, even though they afford it a legitimate sphere of activity and are quite neglected by the other agencies.

It is not difficult to see that it would be greatly to the advantage of these agencies, as well as to the whole work, for them to be affiliated. They would be able to see clearly their own domain, to have a larger sense of their obligation toward it, to devote undivided attention to it, and to bring forth better results. Delimitation of field of service is obviously of great advantage to the agency occupying it. One of the serious difficulties often met by the various organizations is that they have no specific work to do, either because they cannot "find themselves" in relation to their work, or because some other organization enters their territory. Through the proposed coördination of these organizations this difficulty can be quite removed.

The new educational subjects, such as the financial problems of the church, sociological subjects, civics, can be properly apportioned to existing organizations or assigned to new ones, so as to insure their adequate treatment and prevent overlapping or conflict of effort.

Your Committee believes that further elaboration is not necessary to make apparent the wisdom of unifying the various agencies in this flexible and serviceable scheme. Let all of the educational work of the Church be conceived under the title of "The School of the Church." Let the School of the Church be under the direction of The Council of Religious Education. Let the Council of Religious Education have as its chief executive officer, the Director of Religious Education, who shall be the pastor, or his assistant, a man or woman, who shall give the whole or a part of his time, voluntarily or for compensation, to the work of the School of the Church. The scheme is flexible so that it can be adapted to the conditions existing in any church, and is compact so that it can be vitalized with the energy and purpose of a pastor bent upon bringing to the highest efficiency the educational activities of his church.

III. The Material of Religious Instruction.

The other phase of religious instruction within the particular church, which your Committee has considered, is the material of religious instruction. All of the agencies are dealing with material, some of it more or less clearly apprehended, more or less perfectly organized, more or less obtainable in printed form. On the whole, the material is so widely scattered as not to be obtainable except through effort too laborious for the agency to make.

After making all allowance for the progress thus far made in arranging this material—for many have been at work on particular portions of the material and significant progress has been made—it yet remains to be said that the material for religious education is still unorganized, and that any pastor who undertakes to secure to his people systematic instruction would be helplessly embarrassed by the present confusion in the material. There is need, therefore, for a curriculum of religious education, and for the organization of the material to be used by teacher and pupil in the unfolding of that curriculum.

The curriculum for the School of the Church may be broadly classified under The Bible, Worship, The Church. Under these three categories can be included all those subjects of instruction pertaining to the truth to be believed, the worship to be observed, the life to be lived by disciples of Christ. While not insisting upon this classification as the one necessarily to be accepted, your Committee accepts it as, for the present, a working one.

It is not possible at this time to go into the details of the curriculum, nor into the organization of the material into suitable text-books; yet your Committee believes that these details ought to be worked out by this Committee or another, and that our Church Schools ought to be supplied with organized Courses of Study in the three departments just mentioned, and with text-books properly arranged for the development of these Courses. We venture to indicate the lines along which this work may be done, subject necessarily to modification as may be expedient when the work is actually undertaken.

The Bible.

There is now much Bible study and reading in the particular church. But it is quite lacking in system, even where there has been the most effort at system, in the Sunday-school. The material for Bible study ought to be organized, so that when the church has finished its instruction of the youth in the Bible, they will have a fair knowledge of the origin of the Bible, of its main divisions, of the general contents of the several books, of its principal teachings; also, of Biblical history, geography, biography, the life of Christ and the life of Paul.

This material can be arranged in Courses so graded as to meet the capabilities of pupils of different ages, and so coördinated as to be pursued to advantage in the Sunday-school and in the other educational agencies in the School of the Church.

A Course for daily Bible reading by the individual should form a part of the scheme of instruction.

The International Graded Lessons, begun last year, continued this year and to be completed in due time, give promise of affording a satisfactory course in the Bible for the Sunday-school. Last year it was commended by the Assembly to the churches, and the churches welcomed it with a cordiality beyond the expectation of the most hopeful. Although our Board of Publication issued a large edition of the Helps for the Graded Lessons, yet the orders quickly outran the first edition and required several editions. The reports from the schools using these lessons indicate a general and hearty satisfaction with them, especially where they have received sympathetic and intelligent treatment from those in authority. These Lessons are worthy of the approval of this Assembly and of general adoption by our Sunday-schools. There is reasonable hope that these Lessons, when completed, will furnish for some time to come a satisfactory Graded Course in the Bible for the Sunday-school.

But there ought to be instruction in the Bible outside of the Sunday-school and through other agencies, some of which may be in the closest relation to the Sunday-school, and in some cases a part of it, but not pursuing its International Graded Lessons.

Your Committee are of the opinion that there should be offered as early as possible the following Biblical Courses:

1. Biblical History, which might be treated biographically and be built up around great personages. It is probable there should be three grades, the story-telling grade, the narrative grade, and the grade which would trace the causes and effects in the great crises of that history.

2. Biblical History and Contemporary History. There should be one grade and that for advanced pupils.

3. The Bible as Literature. One grade, for advanced pupils.

4. Outline Study of the Bible. Two grades, one a short course for younger pupils, in the great divisions of the Bible and the principal contents of the Books most used, and the other a complete course in the Bible, book by book, for advanced pupils. This latter Course might be combined with the course in the Study of the Bible as Literature, and thus avoid a multiplication of courses.

5. The Life of Christ. There should be three grades: the story-telling grade, a grade for the adolescent period and mainly concerned with Jesus as a man of action and power, and a grade for advanced pupils, showing the progress of His life and its unfolding mission.

6. The Teachings of Jesus. There should be two grades: an elementary and an advanced.

7. The Life of Paul. There should be two grades: an elementary and an advanced.

8. The Teachings of Paul. There should probably be two grades: an elementary and an advanced.

These Biblical courses, which are in addition to the Graded Bible Lessons of the Sunday-school, should be coördinated with those Lessons, so that there would be no serious overlapping, and so that these Courses and Lessons would be mutually helpful.

They also could be prepared with a view to their pursuit in Sunday-schools that have a sufficiently long session for two Bible lessons, or by other agencies in the School of the Church, such as Adult Bible Classes, Young People's Societies, Boys' Brigades, King's Daughters, and Junior Societies.

There are details to be worked out and practical difficulties to be met, but there are no inherent or insurmountable difficulties. They will all yield to patient effort, and the desired result is worth the effort.

Worship.

In the judgment of your Committee an important department of the curriculum of the School of the Church is Worship.

Instruction in this department can best be given through the practice of Worship, and it should be graded to the age and capacity of the child. There are three agencies in the church which are especially qualified to give this instruction: the Home, the Church Service and the Sunday-school. These three agencies can give this instruction, each in its own way and each reënforcing the instruction of the others.

In the Home, by the maintenance of the Family Altar, by the practice of a Blessing at the table, by teaching the children to pray in their own words, in the prayers of the Bible, in the prayers of the Church, and in the hymns of petition and of praise, the worshipful spirit and habit can be cultivated. In the church, a due regard on the part of the minister and congregation to the proprieties of worship in the matter of form, words and spirit, will be immensely valuable in nurturing the children and adults in Worship. Here there should be attention to the needs of the children as well as to those of the adults, and the worship of the sanctuary should make some provision for those needs.

In the Sunday-school, from the lowest grade to the highest, there should be ample provision for the cultivation of the spirit of Worship by the worship of God in a fitting manner. Instead of having "opening and closing exercises," as many schools now have, there should be a definite period set apart at the beginning or close of the school for worship. This instruction should vary in the different grades, but should be articulated into orderly courses of training. Children in the Cradle Roll could be taught simple prayers, as, "Now I lay me down to sleep," and "The Lord's Prayer." "Beginners" could be carried forward in the learning and use of brief devotional verses of the Bible, and of a devotional hymn or two. The simplest and most flexible form of worship might be profitably employed in this grade by pervading it with the spirit of devotion.

In the Primary grade, the learning of prayers and hymns and their use by the children for the expression of their reverence can be continued. A simple service with a couple of prayers and two or three hymns, designed to occupy eight or ten minutes, would be helpful.

In the Junior grade, there should be more memory work in the learning of prayers and devotional hymns. There should be an "Order of Service" printed for use of the children, or two or three different "orders" to be used for periods of six months or a year each. The time occupied by this Service of Worship might be from ten to fifteen minutes.

In the Intermediate grade, there should be further attention to memory work in the matter of prayers, hymns, and Scripture, with a use of preceding attainments and a deepening of their impression. A printed Order of Service, that of the Senior grade, should be used, and the period assigned to Worship should be about fifteen minutes.

In the Senior grade, there should be some instruction in the matter of reverence and the ways of expressing it. The practice of Worship in this grade should be according to a printed Order of Service, which should be modeled closely after the Order used in the church service, that the former may prepare for the latter and that the unity of the two may appear. The time allowed for worship should be about fifteen minutes, and it might profitably be conducted, when convenient, in the room where the usual church service is held.

The needs of this Curriculum in Worship could probably be best met in the preparation and use of two manuals: A "Book of Worship for the Home" and a "Book of Worship for the Sunday-school."

The former should contain Scripture, hymns, and prayers for use in family prayers and in private devotions, and hints and helps to parents for cultivating a spirit of reverence toward God and a recognition of Him in the Home. The latter should contain the material for use in the various grades of the Sunday-school, properly arranged, with hints and helps to parents and teachers for its use. This latter book might, for convenience, be printed in two parts, one for the grades below the Intermediate and the other for it and the Senior grade.

Your Committee believe that attention to a systematic practice of Worship in the Home and Sunday-school, and a coördination of this with the Church Service, will be a fruitful portion of the curriculum of the School of the Church.

The Church.

There is a large amount of material of religious instruction that may be organized under the part of the curriculum called "The Church." It is diversified and has various values. Not all of it is practicable for all churches. Nevertheless, it is susceptible to classification and orderly arrangement. It should be systematized and put into suitable and available form.

Some of the Courses, which may profitably be prepared, are the following:

1. Church History. There might be three initial courses, one centering the history in the lives of great personages, one giving the progress of the life and thought of the Church in connection with the crises of the Church, and one devoted to the history of the Presbyterian Church.

2. Missions, Home and Foreign. Here is a field for several courses, such as, missionary adventure, movements, fields, and problems.

3. Presbyterian Doctrine, Polity, Institutions, Benevolences. Each of these might furnish a Course, but all should, doubtless, be for advanced pupils.

4. Sociological Subjects, Apologetics, Christian Architecture and Church Music. There is a wealth of valuable material for a Course on each of these subjects, which should be arranged for advanced pupils.

5. Preparation for the First Communion. There should be a short, simple, direct course in the doctrines of grace, meaning of the Sacraments, and duties of church members for a pastor to use in Young Communicants' classes.

It would not be impossible to arrange these several courses so that they would fit the courses in other parts of the curriculum, and thus the unity of the whole curriculum be preserved; and, at the same time, so that they can be pursued by Mission Study Classes, Young People's Societies, Brotherhoods, Teacher-training Classes, Graduate Classes in the Sunday-school, and other educational agencies in the School of the Church.

Text-books and Manuals.

The material for religious education ought to be furnished in suitable text-books and manuals. These ought to be attractively printed and bound, so far as practicable, in uniform binding, and marketed at a low price. There are many excellent books which could be easily adapted to this scheme, with the coöperation of their authors and publishers. New books in some subjects would have to be prepared. All ought to depend for their acceptance on their merits and not on any imprimatur of the Assembly or its Committee.

This Committee, or another appointed by the Assembly, should be authorized to provide text-books and manuals for the use of the School of the Church in such manner and order as it may find advisable. The Board of Publication should be authorized to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee in this matter.

IV. Organization for the Work.

The scheme for systematic instruction in the whole curriculum for religious education through the unified educational agencies of our Church, as outlined in this Report, contemplates and requires the organization of the church for its proper development and adoption by the churches. Briefly stated, the organization for this work in the judgment of your Committee should be as follows:

1. A Committee of the General Assembly, entitled, "The Committee of Religious Education."

For the present, this might be a Special Committee to be appointed by the Assembly from year to year, as the Assembly may deem proper. While your Committee recommends its continuance for the prosecution of this work, it is quite willing that the work should be entrusted to another Committee and we thus be relieved of what will be a laborious task. The Committee thus appointed ought to be authorized to consult with experts in the various parts of its work and to secure their coöperation, so far as it may deem proper.

2. A Committee of Presbytery on Religious Education.

Every Presbytery ought to have a Standing Committee on this subject, which could coöperate with the Assembly's Committee, and which could also promote the systematic education of the youth in the congregations of the Presbytery.

3. A Council of Religious Education in the Particular Church.

The desirability of each church having this Council and the sphere of its operations have been dealt with in the early portions of this Report.

In conclusion, your Committee would state that, while it may seem that we have proposed an elaborate scheme, we yet believe it is only such because the area covered by our Commission from two Assemblies is an extensive one, and we have endeavored to deal with it comprehensively. We believe that the proposals of this Report are practicable and practical.

We fully recognize the largeness of the task we have set for ourselves or for others, according to the will of the Assembly, and one requiring time to accomplish. But, we are also fully persuaded that it is not an impossible task, and that it is one to which the Church ought with courage and zeal to address itself at once.

V. Recommendations.

We offer the following recommendations for adoption by the Assembly:

1. That this Committee be continued, and be authorized to give further consideration to the subject of religious education in Preparatory Schools, with a view to coöperating with these schools so far as may be practicable, in the development of a curriculum of religious instruction and the obtaining of suitable text-books for the purpose, and to perfect and promote the plan for the unifying of the agencies for religious education, and the preparation of courses of instruction and text-books, within its discretion, as indicated in this report.

2. That the Assembly again commend the graded lessons thus far published by the International Sunday-school Association, and the Helps on the same published by our own Board of Publication and Sunday-school Work, and advise Pastors, Sessions and Sunday-schools to use them so far as practicable.

3. That Presbyteries be advised to appoint a Standing Committee on Religious Education or to assign this matter to an existing Committee; said Committee to have the supervision and direction of the work of Religious Education within the bounds of the Presbytery.

4. That the churches be advised to appoint a Council of Religious Education, with a view to a unification of their educational agencies, and the vigorous promotion of systematic religious instruction within their bounds.

5. That the Board of Publication and Sunday-school Work be and hereby is authorized to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee on Religious Education in the publishing of manuals and text-books in the interests of religious education.

In behalf of the Committee,

GEORGE B. STEWART, Chairman.

The Ministerial Sustentation Fund was made the second Order for Friday morning, Church Coöperation and Union the third, and the Committees on the Training of the Ministry and on Social Problems the fourth and the fifth.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 8 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interests of Foreign Missions, and addresses were made by Revs. J. W. McKean, Robert C. Richardson, C. R. Pitman, W. G. McClure, D. S. Hibbard, T. W. Mitchell, W. N. Blair, and Dr. Mary Eddy.

THURSDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to cast the ballot for the names presented yesterday by the Nominating Committee of the Executive Commission, and they were declared elected, as follows: Rev. Charles Little, D.D. (ex officio), of the Synod of Indiana; Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D., of the Synod of Oregon; Mr. George D. Scudder, of the Synod of Ohio; Prof. John M. Coulter, of the Synod of Illinois; Hon. J. A. Wolfe, of the Synod of Texas.

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union reports, respectfully requesting that the General Assembly assign 3.30 o'clock this afternoon for the Centennial services of the organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, brief addresses to be delivered, in connection therewith, by the Rev. William H. Black, D.D., and the Chairman of the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance was completed, and the Report, as amended, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance respectfully reports that it has examined the Minutes of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and recommends their approval. The Committee's Financial Statement has also been examined, and it is found to be correct and most encouraging; and the Twenty-ninth Annual Report affords abundant reason for thanksgiving.

The Report tells a story of great work done, at a comparatively small cost. The economy, the careful business management, the strenuous effort, and the unusually large results, call for the "well done" of every one interested in the tearing down of the strongholds of Satan and the erection of the bulwarks of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

These strenuous and successful efforts were along the lines of no-license campaigns in Missouri, Iowa, Ohio, West Virginia, Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Kentucky and Indiana, and of the missionary and educational work in Maryland, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, and California.

A Spanish worker, under the direction of the Committee, has been planting the good seed of Gospel Temperance in practically virgin soil in the Southwest.

Who can tell of the ultimate influence of the 850 meetings, in twenty-five States and Territories, held by the large-minded, large-hearted, and most efficient representatives of our Permanent Committee?

Who can estimate the harvest to be reaped from the seed sown in Synods, Presbyteries, ministerial associations, theological seminaries, universities, colleges, high schools, temperance institutes, Sunday-school conventions, Young Men's Christian Associations, Chautauquas, Churches, and Sabbath-schools?

What means the distribution of 18,000,000 pages of temperance literature throughout the United States, South Africa, Central and South America, Canada, Korea, India, England, Scotland, Ireland, Alaska, the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico, Ceylon, Mexico, East and West Indies, Russia, China and Bulgaria?

What of The Amethyst, that neatest, spiciest, and strongest among temperance papers?

What of the columns of facts in our denominational papers, and the "Bible Temperance" in our Westminster Senior Quarterly?

And when we remember that all this was accomplished at a cost of less than $24,000, are we not ready to ask, In what other department of our Church work is so little made to go so far? Do we not wonder how we were led to vote to such a Committee, doing so important and so splendid a work, the small amount of $17,000?

Where is the pastor or elder that is not ready to say, that, in view of the great importance of Temperance Reform and the efficient work of the Assembly's Committee, he will urge his congregation to turn the large part of its offerings for Temperance into the treasury of our own Committee, and will make use of the literature and lectures of the Committee, and also make an earnest effort to do his part in raising not less than $25,000 for the prosecution of this work?

It will be noticed that our Church, through its Committee, has laid the emphasis on education rather than legislation. While the latter has not been left altogether undone, the former has been regarded as the demand of the hour.

Who doubts the wisdom of such a course? Who questions the value of such work? The following are well-chosen and thoughtful words: "When law has done all that it can do, when all arguments, from the legal, economic, scientific, social, political, and industrial points of view have been exhausted, there is still a large field for and a great need of Gospel Temperance. Each succeeding generation comes into the world with much the same confidence and lack of experience as its predecessor, and needs the same safeguards, the same fundamental lessons, the same inspiration to high and holy living. Therefore the pledge, education, and appeal to the heart and to the conscience and God's Word, must not be neglected. To this more obscure but more heroic, to this less ostentatious but equally necessary work, the Church must largely give herself. Religion sustains the Republic, and religion is the most effective and permanent cure for intemperance. 'Only the Golden Rule of Christ can bring the Golden Age of man.'"

It would be well to remember that a real help in this educational work is The Amethyst, a very ably edited monthly, published at 25 cents a copy, per annum, which brings to its readers the latest news of the great Reform, in terse and interesting style. It gives short stories and articles illustrating the Temperance Reform ideas and work, and, for Temperance Sunday of each quarter, an admirable exposition and comment on the Sabbath-school lesson for that day. Your Committee believes that this wide-awake little magazine will prove a valuable addition to the reading list of our Presbyterian families.

The attention of pastors and Sunday-school superintendents is called to the importance of urging upon Sabbath-schools the advisability of having and reading The Amethyst. It should be known that the church and the Sabbath-school offerings may be counted as subscriptions to The Amethyst.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly, having heard of the feebleness and affliction of the honored Secretary of the Permanent Committee, Rev. John F. Hill, D.D., who has served so long and so well, hereby expresses sympathy, and the hope of his speedy return to health.

Resolved, 2. That we commend The Amethyst, and request pastors and elders to adopt such measures as will place it in all Presbyterian homes and Sabbath-schools.

Resolved, 3. That we reiterate our confidence in our Permanent Committee, and most heartily commend the zealous spirit, the sound wisdom, and unfailing devotion of the Secretaries, the official staff, and the members of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and greatly rejoice in the splendid results achieved by them during the last year.

Resolved, 4. That we express our approval of the grant of $1,000 by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school work for printing the literature of the Assembly's Temperance Committee, for gratuitous distribution.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly's Committee be directed to prepare a resumé of the deliverances of the General Assembly on the subject of Temperance, for gratuitous distribution among the churches, to the end that our members may be fully acquainted with the position of our Church in this matter.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly's Committee be directed to render all assistance possible, both by literature and speakers, in Missouri, Florida, Oklahoma, Oregon, and other States and communities where campaigns are being waged.

Resolved, 7. That this Assembly expresses gratification, that already eight denominations have united in the National Inter-Church Temperance Federation, for the promotion of this Reform along lines endorsed by former Assemblies, and approves of the establishment of a Bureau of Information at the National Capital, for the furtherance of this work.

Resolved, 8. That while rejoicing in the progress of Prohibition and encouraging our people to assist in such campaigns, we nevertheless believe there is urgent need for the inculcation of total abstinence principles, for the dissemination of the latest results of scientific temperance, for the uncompromising proclamation of the sin of drunkenness, as essential to ground our people in true temperance and make permanent the progress of the Temperance Reform.

Resolved, 9. That this Assembly authorizes its Temperance Committee to memorialize Congress as follows—

(1) For the passage of the Gallinger-Bennet Bill, for the District of Columbia.

(2) For the passage of the Hamilton-Owen-McGuire Bill, establishing a prohibition zone of twenty-five miles around Indian reservations.

(3) In behalf of legislation creating a Commission of Inquiry to investigate and report upon every phase of the liquor traffic.

(4) In behalf of such legislation as will adequately protect prohibition territory against inter-State shipments of liquors.

(5) Entering earnest protest against the National Government's sharing any complicity with the liquor traffic by the issuance of Federal tax receipts, and to enter protest against such rulings of the Treasury Department as tend to shield the violators of State or local liquor laws.

Resolved, 10. That this Assembly reaffirms its solemn warning against the use of intoxicating beverages, and enjoins its members from engaging in the manufacture or sale of such liquors, or renting property for such purposes, or signing applications for saloon licenses or presenting the same in Courts, or endorsing bonds of saloon-keepers, or in any other way aiding or abetting this heinous evil.

Resolved, 11. That in view of the importance of this cause, the effectiveness of our Committee's work, the need of funds for enlarging the scope of its operations, and the apparent danger of losing ground already gained in the Temperance Reform, we urge all churches to turn a reasonable portion of their temperance offerings into the treasury of the Assembly's agency, to the end that instead of the minimum of $17,768.15 proposed by the "Budget," at least double that amount shall be placed in the hands of our Committee for conducting its work; and that special appeal shall be made by the Executive Commissions for assistance from those churches that have not in the past contributed to this agency.

Resolved, 12. That, in order to facilitate the work of the Committee during those months when contributions are not sufficient to meet the demands, the Committee be authorized to borrow money, on the notes of the Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer, not to exceed a total of $6,000 at any one time.

Resolved, 13. That the following persons be reëlected to succeed themselves as members of the Permanent Committee: Ministers—T. B. Anderson, D.D., J. H. Snowden, D.D., W. L. McEwan, D.D., and Elders—S. H. Thompson, Esq., Graham C. Wells; and that Robert Gibson be elected to fill the vacant place on the Committee.

WHEREAS, A memorial has been placed in our hands, portraying conditions in Atlantic City and imploring our help, and

WHEREAS, This City-by-the-Sea is recognized as one of our national playgrounds and resorts, to which hundreds of thousands of our citizens come annually for pleasure and health, therefore Resolved, 1. That we have learned, with regret, of the open violation of the excise laws of this State, especially those regarding the Sabbath day, and of the inability of the Good Citizenship League to obtain relief from these deplorable conditions.

Resolved, 2. That we express our sympathy with the efforts made by the good citizens of this city in behalf of law and order, and respectfully request the local and State officials to use their utmost efforts to enforce all excise laws.

The Presbyterian Church must ever be the open, active, and persistent enemy of the liquor traffic in all its forms. We declare any form of license, under any name or guise, as permissive, and not destructive, and therefore un-Christian.

We solemnly admonish our people to keep themselves socially, financially, and politically "separate and apart" from the liquor traffic, and to "touch not the unclean thing," to the end that this traffic may, by organic law, be expelled from our land, and our people be saved from its despoiling influence.

On behalf of the Committee,

JOSEPH L. WEAVER, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Selby F. Vance, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., Secretary of the Board, Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., and Mr. Louis Severance, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Abstract of the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, submitted by the order of the General Assembly, commends itself to your Committee as giving a concise survey of the field, very practical for its purpose. The full Report is in type and will shortly be ready to be sent to the pastors for their use. We would suggest to the elders as well as to the pastors, that this Report will be a fruitful mine of information from which to draw material for interesting monthly concerts of missions.

The Minutes of the Board have been examined and found to be carefully kept. We commend this volume as a model of its kind, the record being type-written, and the items noted in the margin as well as classified in the index. We testify to our appreciation of the patience and fidelity of the officers and members of the Board.

During the past year the cause of Foreign Missions has met with serious loss in the death of Rev. William Rodgers Richards, D.D., a member of the Board, also of Mrs. William S. Ladd, President of the Woman's North Pacific Board of Missions, and of Mrs. Charles M. Thorpe, President of the Woman's Foreign Mission Society of the Presbyterian Church, with headquarters in Philadelphia; and of eight missionaries—Rev. Henry H. Jessup, D.D., who had given almost fifty-five years of his life to the service of Christ, in Syria; Mrs. R. G. Wilder, of India, who passed away in her eighty-ninth year, after spending nearly sixty years in missionary work; Rev. and Mrs. George Cornwell and Mrs. W. T. Locke, of China; Rev. Chase Crawford Sawtelle, and Mrs. James E. Adams and Mrs. Michael Willis Greenfield, of Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell both died of cholera, within a few days of each other, leaving a family of seven children. For these lives of consecration and service we would render thanks to the Heavenly Father.

Likewise we thank our God for the conspicuous examples of stewardship in the lives of such men as Mr. John S. Kennedy, of New York; Mr. John H. Converse, of Philadelphia; and Mr. Horace B. Silliman, of Cohoes, New York. Mr. Converse was always a liberal contributor, and in his will left $200,000 to be distributed among the Boards. Mr. Silliman, aside from liberal contributions to the general work, assisted in the erection of the Presbyterian Building in New York City. Upon this an annuity was paid. The Board is thus now enabled to support four additional missionaries. Mr. Kennedy was always a liberal contributor. The amount of his legacy far exceeds that left to any Board of any Church. It is with gratitude that your Committee can report to you that the Board is considering the plan of using a part of this sum for the better care of the missionaries, in the way of providing healthful homes for them and increasing their equipment so that they can do more effective work and make a real advance. It is the best economy so to care for the missionaries while on the field, that their years of service may be prolonged, for each year adds to a missionary's value in the work.

We would call attention to the statesmanship of the Board in sending its Secretaries to the mission stations, over which they severally have charge, that they may become acquainted at first hand with the problems of their fields. And we express our gratitude for the information that has been given us through these visits.

We congratulate the Korean Mission on the progress made in the quarter of a century of its history. We rejoice in the continuance of the revival. Here are 965 congregations, with 25,000 members and 96,000 adherents. And 800 Bible classes have been conducted, where leaders are trained, who in turn communicate what they have learned to the local Christians. More than 50,000 men and women have been in attendance. No wonder that the watch-word of the Church this year is, "A million souls for Christ in Korea."

China, too, reports in many stations wonderful movings of the Holy Spirit. In the Wei-hsien College of Shantung University, 116 students confessed Christ and decided to enter the Gospel ministry. In this revival and that at Ichow-fu the leader is a native pastor, a graduate of Shantung University. In India the revival has not only continued among the Sweepers, which in the past has attained large proportions, but has commenced among the Chamar caste, which comprises one-eighth of the total population in the territory of the North India Mission. Notable revivals are in progress in West Africa, Mexico, and other stations. The Constitutional Movement in Syria is proving helpful to the spread of the Gospel.

The wonderful increase in the number of communicants and the marvelous revivals now in progress compel the missionaries to plan for the education and training of native pastors and lay workers. In the thought of a leading missionary thinker of our day, nothing less than an educational system complete, from the Kindergarten to the Theological Seminary and Medical School, is adequate for the needs of the situation before us. We concur in this view and believe that this ideal, approached as nearly as the funds on hand and the teachers on the field allow, should be constantly before the Church. We realize that the perfect evangelization of the foreign peoples depends on a native ministry, and are persuaded that while American missionaries lead, they cannot alone complete the task. The future advancement of the Kingdom of Christ, as well as the conservation of things already gained, depends on the fruitage of this educational system. We are glad to report that the Board has laid large plans to carry this scheme into effect, in view of the legacy of Mr. John S. Kennedy, upon which it hopes to realize this year.

We notice, with great satisfaction, the steadily growing usefulness and influence of the nine missionary presses, such as the great printing establishments of the China and Syria Missions, and those of Laos, Siam, and Guatemala City. As Caxton's Press lifted England, intellectually and spiritually, so we pray that these presses may serve the Lord Christ in these other Kingdoms.

It is apparent that the educational and Sunday-school departments of our Board of Foreign Missions are meeting with increased favor throughout our communion, and are continuing to increase missionary interest and to stimulate missionary giving. Already 1,067 Mission study classes have formally reported to the Board, and the Secretaries hear of many other missionary efforts, lectures, groups and conferences. Systematic study and systematic giving are also being inculcated in many of the Sunday-schools. Both these ideas find place on the programmes of Summer Conferences, of Missionary Institutes and Normal Classes. This Committee expresses its gratification at the growth evidenced by these things.

After a series of 75 conventions, the Laymen's Missionary Movement brought its campaign to a close with a National Missionary Congress, held in Chicago, May 3–6, attended by more than 4,000 registered delegates, of all Protestant denominations, from every State in the Union. There the tide of enthusiasm rose to its flood, lifting men to planes of consecration and service unknown before. The Governor of one of the States of the Middle West arose, declaring his intention henceforth to have his own missionary on the Foreign Field. A wealthy young Eastern layman left a session of the Convention and telegraphed his mother that he would support a foreign missionary for the next five years. These and many other like effects, that could be mentioned, show that the force of that movement can easily be turned to the most splendid service, and that laymen are ready everywhere to give of their time, talents and possessions to the Lord's great cause.

To the success of this series of campaigns our Church largely contributed, as was evidenced by a gathering of the Presbyterian delegates in a denominational conference in our Fourth Church in Chicago. There our own clergy and laymen, with prayer for help, and promise of consecration, reaffirmed the Omaha standard, urged the appointment of Church missionary committees, advised canvasses reaching every member of every church, to enlist each one in systematic beneficence, on the weekly subscription basis.

Allied in spirit to this Laymen's Movement, and, in some cases and in some respects, its forerunners and teachers, are the Forward Movement of the Eastern District, the Every Member Campaign in the Synod of Illinois, a similar plan in the Synods of Kansas and Iowa. In this connection it may be noted that the experience so far gained in the Illinois Every Member Campaign shows that its exclusive plea for Foreign Missions is not depressive to the other interests of the local churches nor injurious to the claims of our other Boards. On the contrary, the report shows that in those churches where campaigns were held substantial gains were made for the other Boards.

A most striking evidence of the nearer coming of the time when the knowledge of God shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea, is the approaching gathering, in Edinburgh, of the World Missionary Conference, June 14 to 24. This meeting is being lifted before the Throne of Grace by missionary hearts in every land. The prayer of this Committee is that it may do for the world what the Laymen's Missionary Movement has done for our own beloved country.

We note with pleasure the presence, as an Advisory Member, of the Rev. Plutarco Arellano, of Mexico, and, as a corresponding delegate, of the Rev. Alvaro Reis, Moderator of the First General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Brazil. We extend, through the latter, on his return, the fraternal greetings of our Church. We congratulate the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, with headquarters in Philadelphia, and the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, commonly known as the Woman's Board of New York, on the fortieth anniversary of their organizations, the generous gifts of the women being evidenced by the fact that, in the forty years, the Philadelphia Society has contributed $5,000,000, and the New York Board $2,000,000, for the cause of world-wide evangelization.

We note with satisfaction that the receipts for the year have been such that it has been possible to apply over $42,000 to the reduction of the debt, so that now there is a net deficit of only $58,665.93, which we hope will be entirely cleared this coming year. We are also glad to call the attention of the Church to the low percentage of disbursements in the New York office, to the total sum received.

Administration expenses	3.75 per cent.
Disbursement not administrative	2.96 per cent.
Total	6.71 per cent.

We submit the following resolutions:

1. That the Minutes of the Board be approved.

2. That the financial statement of the Board, being duly verified by a firm of certified accountants, be approved.

3. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office expires with this meeting of the Assembly, be reëlected: Ministers—Eben B. Cobb, D.D.; James S. Dennis, D.D.; W. P. Stevenson, D.D.; John McDowell, D.D. Elders—John Stewart, William E. Stiger, Esq.; Alfred E. Marling, T. H. Cobbs, Esq.

4. That we once more commend the zeal, the generosity and the efficiency of the organization of the women of the Church, who, in a fiscal year of eleven months, contributed a larger sum to Foreign Missions than in any previous year of twelve months.

5. That we rejoice in the dedication of lives, and the consecration of money, to the cause of Foreign Missions, brought about by the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and that we commend the missionary policy adopted by the delegates to the National Missionary Congress, in Chicago, and urge the Presbyterian pastors and laymen to coöperate with that inter-denominational movement.

6. That we commend the Forward Movement, in the Eastern district, the Every Member Campaign in the Synod of Illinois, and the similar campaigns in the Synods of Kansas and Iowa, and rejoice in the increased offerings that these movements have brought us; that we thank Mr. H. P. Crowell for the wisdom, as well as the generosity, of his gift in financing the Illinois Campaign this past year, and for his willingness to continue the work.

7. That we urge Presbyterial Committees on Foreign Missions to secure the appointment of laymen to their bodies, in order to profit by their increasing interest in Christ's world-wide Kingdom.

8. That we commend the educational and Sunday-school work of our Board, and urge our churches, Young People's Societies, and Sabbath-schools, to coöperate with the Secretaries of these departments in their well-considered plans.

9. That, in accord with the recommendations of former Assemblies for several years, the well-established custom be continued, of requesting the Sunday-schools to make a special offering for Foreign Missions, at Christmas, and both Sunday-schools and churches for an Easter offering; that the Board be instructed to issue suitable literature in connection with these days.

10. That, inasmuch as our Church has recognized its responsibility for 100,000,000 souls in foreign lands, we reaffirm the Omaha Standard as indicating the duties of our members.

11. That in view of the growth of the native Church and the remarkable evangelistic awakening in many lands, the Board be requested to continue to give special attention to the whole question of training a native ministry and lay workers.

12. That we would again commend to the prayers of the whole Church the World Missionary Conference, to be held in the City of Edinburgh, June 14 to 24, and hereby instruct the Stated

Clerk, who is a delegate to that Conference, to convey the Christian salutations of the Assembly to the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

SELBY FRAME VANCE, Chairman.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly commends the efforts now being made by the United States Government to aid the Republic of Liberia.

The Committee on Mileage presented a Report, which was accepted. The rate of compensation for entertainment, for all parties entertained at the expense of the Assembly, was fixed at $2 per day. The question of time of operation of the rule was referred to the Committee.

A Memorial Service for Mr. John S. Kennedy was held, in which Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., led in prayer; Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., spoke of Mr. Kennedy's public life; and Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., of his character and private life.

THURSDAY, May 26, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully reports as follows:

1. We recommend that it be made a Rule of the Assembly, that miscellaneous resolutions offered by Commissioners, be not given to the Press before the Committees to whom they may be referred shall have reported thereon, in order that the Assembly may not be represented as adopting, enthusiastically or otherwise, deliverances upon which neither the Assembly nor its appropriate Committees shall have deliberated.

2. On Paper No 370, being a resolution and also communications referred to this Committee, we recommend the following:

WHEREAS, Our attention has been called to the fact that a bill, to prevent the transportation of persons between States, for immoral purposes, commonly known as the "White Slave Traffic," is now pending action in the United States Senate, be it

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly, in common with other religious organizations, heartily favors and urges the passage by the United States Senate of the "Mann Bill" (H. R. 12,315); and be it further

Resolved, 2. That as individuals the Commissioners urge this action upon the Senators from their respective States; and be it further Resolved, 3. That a copy of this resolution, duly certified by the Moderator and Stated Clerk, be sent to the Vice-President of the United States.

Your Committee reports, further, that of the 372 papers upon which it has acted, it has reported to this Assembly upon 370, and that it will present through Dr. McCauley a Special Report upon Paper No. 355, following this Report, and that it retains for the present Paper No. 66.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures would respectfully make this special report, to wit:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures would report on Paper No. 355, which was referred to us by the Assembly, being a resolution of one of the Commissioners pertaining to the shortening of the first roll call, and the insuring of the election of the Standing Committees on the first day; also upon a request from the Permanent Judicial Commission, through the Standing Judicial Committee, pertaining to the same matter, especially with reference to the Standing Committees on Bills and Overtures and on Judicial Business.

We have examined the proposals carefully, and have also gone over the whole related system of

1. The Electing Districts.
2. The Electing Sections.
3. The Election of the Moderator.
4. The Election of the Standing Committees.

This review makes clear that there is not only need for the relief requested, but also for a more logical order in the arrangement of the Rules concerned. We are prepared to present a draft of such rearrangement, embodying also our proposals for amendments, hoping it will be adopted by the Assembly. We think that it is of great importance that the elections should be effected, without fail, on the first day, and that the Chairman of each Standing Committee should be furnished by the Stated Clerk, before the close of the first day, if possible, with a list of the members of his Committee, and that, still further to expedite business, the names of the Committees on Bills and Overtures and on Judicial Business should be announced at the close of the evening session; also that the day be lengthened by beginning the morning session at 10.30 o'clock, and the afternoon session at 2.30 o'clock. We also think that more information among the Commissioners as to the Districts, Sections and Elections would promote dispatch, and to that end it would be well to print the plan in full in the Appendix of the Annual Minutes, as well as in the Assembly Manual.

Accordingly we recommend the passage of the following amendments, to wit:

Resolved, 1. That the calling of the roll by the Permanent Clerk shall, in the absence of a motion to the contrary, be dispensed with, and that only the names of absentees be called, at which time needed corrections may be made.

Resolved, 2. That Standing Order No. 5 (see Minutes of G. A., 1909, p. 448[3]) be amended by substituting, in line 5 from bottom, 9.30 o'clock for 11 o'clock.

Resolved, 3. That Standing Order No. 5 (see Minutes of G. A., 1909, p. 448[3]) be amended by striking out the words in the last line, to wit: "the same in number as the quorum of the Assembly, viz., fourteen," and substituting the words, "a majority of its members."

Resolved, 4. That Standing Order No. 1 (see Minutes of G.A. 1909, p. 448[3]) be amended by changing the words "11 o'clock" to "10.30 o'clock," and also providing that "the afternoon session shall begin at 2.30 o'clock."

Resolved, 5. That Standing Order No. 25 (see Minutes of G. A., 1909, p. 448[5]), pertaining to "speeches nominating candidates for Moderator," be made clearer by substituting for the words just quoted, these words, to wit: "Only one nominating speech, limited to ten minutes, for each candidate for Moderator shall be allowed."

Resolved, 6. That the Stated Clerk be requested to furnish to the Chairman of each Standing Committee a list of the members of his Committee, if possible, before the close of the first day, and also to announce, at or before the close of the evening session, the names of the Committees on Bills and Overtures and on Judicial Business, and also to introduce some improved method for election returns, in order to facilitate the making up of the lists of the Standing Committees as elected by the Electing Sections.

Resolved, 7. That the General Assembly does hereby approve of the rearrangement of the rules pertaining to the Electing Districts, the Electing Sections, and the Election of Moderator and of Standing Committees, as presented by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and does hereby adopt the same, and order them to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes, and in the Manual, as follows, to wit:

Rearrangement of the Rules pertaining to Electing Districts, Electing Sections, Election of Moderator, and Election of Standing Committees.

IX. Standing Orders and Rules.

Rule 1. The General Assembly shall meet, annually, on the Third Thursday of May, beginning at 10.30 A.M.; the afternoon session shall be held at 2.30 P.M.

Rule 5. The whole territory of the Church shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Districts, so arranged, by combining the smaller Synods, and dividing the larger by Presbyteries, as to make nearly equal delegations, as follows, e. g.:

District No.	Area, Synods and Presbyteries.	No. of Com'rs.
1.	In the Synod of New York; Presbyteries of Albany, Boston, Cayuga, Champlain, Eastern Persia, Hudson, North River, Syracuse, Troy and Utica	38
2.	In the Synod of New York; Presbyteries of Binghamton, Buffalo, Chemung, Chile, Columbia, Genesee, Geneva, Lyons. Niagara, Otsego, Porto Rico, Rochester, St. Lawrence, and Steuben	38
3.	In the Synod of New York; Presbyteries of Brooklyn, Long Island, Nassau, New York, North Laos, Siam, and Westchester	38
4.	In the Synod of New Jersey; Presbyteries of Corisco, Elizabeth, Havana, Jersey City, Monmouth, Morris and Orange, Newark, New Brunswick, and Newton	38
5.	In the Synod of New Jersey; Presbytery of West Jersey: in the Synod of Pennsylvania; Presbyteries of Chester and Philadelphia: and the Synod of Baltimore	38
6.	In the Synod of Pennsylvania; Presbyteries of Beaver, Blairsville, Butler, Clarion, Erie, Huntingdon, Kittanning, Lackawanna, Lehigh, and Northumberland	38
7.	In the Synod of Pennsylvania; Presbyteries of Carlisle, Philadelphia North, Redstone, Shenango, Washington, Wellsborough, Western Africa, and Westminster; and the Synod of West Virginia	38
8.	In the Synod of Pennsylvania; Presbytery of Pittsburgh: in the Synod of Ohio; Presbyteries of Athens, Bellefontaine, Chillicothe, Columbus, Steubenville, Wooster, and Zanesville	38
9.	In the Synod of Ohio; Presbyteries of Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dayton, Huron, Lima, Mahoning, Marion, Maumee, Portsmouth, and St. Clairsville: and in the Synod of Indiana; the Presbyteries of Indiana, New Albany, and White Water	38

* This total may be modified by the increase or decrease of Presbyterial representation, and the assignments of Presbyteries and Synods to the Electing Sections may be changed when expedient.

Rule 6. (a) The General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections, composed of Commissioners, so arranged as to make the Sections of nearly equal delegations. The Electing Sections shall be numbered the same as the Electing Districts.

(b) The members of each electing section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly, each commissioner shall be assigned to his seat, in advance of the meeting of the Assembly, by the local Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew, or seat, from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day.

(c) The organization of the Electing Sections shall be effected in the following manner, to wit:

Immediately before the nominating and seconding speeches for Moderator shall be made, the Stated Clerk shall announce one Commissioner in each Electing Section as the Convener thereof and the receiver of any necessary papers for the section. Under the supervision of such convener, each Electing section shall then elect a Chairman and a Secretary. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be a majority of its members.

Rule 7. (a) The roll shall be called immediately after the opening prayer, at the afternoon session of the first day, in the following manner, unless there be a motion to the contrary, to wit: only the names of absentees, as they appear on the roll of the Permanent Committee on Commissions, shall be called, at which time any needed corrections may be made.

(b) After the election of the Moderator, the Permanent Clerk shall report absentees from the first roll call. Vacancies in the Electing Sections may then be filled by the Assembly. Whenever additional members take their seats, the Stated Clerk shall add their names to the roll.

(c) No Commissioner failing to enroll shall be allowed to vote in his Electing Section.

Rule 8. The election of the Moderator shall be effected immediately after the roll-call, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) Only one speech nominating a candidate for Moderator shall be made, limited to ten minutes; and only one speech, and that not to exceed five minutes, shall be made in seconding the nomination of a candidate.

(b) Where there is only one nominee for Moderator, the election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more nominees than one, the election may be made by ballot in the following manner, to wit: After the nominations are made, the organization of the Electing Sections having been effected (see Rule 6, (c)), the Chairman of each Electing Section shall appoint two tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a blank, to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The tellers shall collect the ballots and count them under the supervision of the Chairman. The result shall be recorded by the Secretary on blanks in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereupon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

(c) When the reports of the ballots have been handed in from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator shall then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one shall have received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result and declare him to be elected.

Rule 9. The election of the Standing Committees, by the Electing Sections, shall be effected immediately after the election of the Moderator, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) The Electing Sections shall meet, at the places assigned them, for the purpose of electing the Standing Committees, toward the close of the second session of the first day; but if not at that time, then at 9.30 A.M. of the second day.

(b) The Standing Committees, except those on Mileage and Finance, shall be numbered consecutively, and shall each consist of twenty-three members, including the Chairman, with eleven ministers and eleven elders, except the Committees on Mileage and on Finance, which shall each consist of twelve elders. Eleven members of the Committees on Mileage and on Finance, and eleven ministers and eleven elders of the other Committees shall be chosen from the Electing Sections as herein provided. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be a majority of its members. Each Presbytery shall be represented on some Standing Committee.

(c) On odd-numbered years, each odd-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Mileage Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Finance Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

(d) The Stated Clerk shall furnish to each Electing Section, properly printed Election Return Blanks, for the election of the Standing Committees, which shall be filled in by the Secretary of the Electing Section, and returned forthwith to the Stated Clerk, and the Stated Clerk shall, if possible, furnish to each Chairman, before the close of the day, a list of the members of his Committee, and shall also announce, at the close of the evening session, the names of the Committees on Bills and Overtures and on Judicial Business.

(e) The Moderator shall, as soon as possible after his election, appoint an additional member of each Standing Committee, who shall be the Chairman thereof; provided, that he shall not appoint more than one member, as Chairman, from the same Electing Section, except in the cases of the Committees on Mileage and on Finance.

If the Moderator shall appoint, as a member and Chairman of any Standing Committee, any one chosen by any Electing Section as a member of that or any other Standing Committee, the appointment of the Moderator shall take precedence, and the Election Section shall choose another member to fill the vacancy on the Committee, caused by the Moderator's appointment.

Rule 10. The Stated Clerk shall give notices to the Commissioners as to their places in the Electing Sections and as to the Committeemen to be chosen. He shall also assign their places, in Electing Districts, to new Presbyteries that may be erected during the intervals of the meetings of the Assembly, and he shall attend to other details connected with the operation of the Plan.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The Executive Commission respectfully reports to the General Assembly upon papers referred to it as follows:

1. Overture No. 63, from the Presbytery of Nashville, as to the date of the preparation of apportionments for the Budget. The following action is recommended:

That the Executive Commission is unable to comply with the terms of this Overture, except in a tentative way, as the budget is not definitely authorized until approved by the General Assembly.

2. The New Metrical Version of the Psalms, prepared under the joint direction of our own Church and eight other influential Presbyterian bodies, which was referred to the Commission upon recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures. It is recommended :

1. That the action of approval of the New Metrical Version of the Psalms by the last Assembly be reaffirmed, and that we recommend to congregations desiring to use the psalms in worship the adoption of this version.

2. That when churches, ordering our Hymnal, desire this Version bound in therewith, the Board of Publication and Sunday-school Work be authorized to comply with such desire.

3. That the Stated Clerk of our Assembly be authorized and directed to transmit notice of our action in this matter to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church now sitting in Philadelphia.

In behalf of the Commission,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman and Moderator.

The question of a Memorial to Mr. Horace B. Silliman was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Judicial Committee presented a Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Judicial Committee respectfully reports the following recommendations:

1. That a rule be inserted in Chapter IX of the Book of Discipline, immediately to follow Section 76, and to be numbered 76*a*, as follows:

"No party to any appeal or complaint to any superior Judicatory shall circulate, or cause to be circulated, among members of said Judicatory, any written or printed arguments or briefs upon any matter in question, before the disposition of the question by the Judicial Committee or other body hearing the same, except by request or direction of the Committee or body charged with the consideration thereof."

The Stated Clerk was directed to send the Rule down to the Presbyteries as an Overture.

2. The following amended form of the Rule for the nomination and election of Judicial Commissions is submitted:—It shall be the duty of the Judicial Committee to report to the Assembly, on Tuesday, the fifth day, nominations to fill the vacancies on the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly, at which time other nominations may be made by the Commissioners, from which nominations the necessary number of persons shall be elected, on Thursday, the seventh day, as the first Order of the Day.

The Judicial Committee shall report, as early as possible, nominations for membership in special Judicial Commissions when necessary. The members thereof to be elected as the first Order of the following day.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHELBERT D. WARFIELD, Chairman.

Mr. Rush Taggart, nominated by the Judicial Committee, was elected to fill the vacancy in the Permanent Judicial Commission.

It was ordered that Mileage be paid to colored Commissioners, at this meeting of the Assembly, without reference to the payment of the apportionments by their Presbyteries.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection, through its Chairman, Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by Rev. Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. herewith respectfully presents its Report.

We renew and appropriate for our own the hearty acknowledgment of Divine Blessing with which the Fortieth Annual Report of this Board is begun. The splendid record of the past year calls for signal rejoicing upon the part of the whole Church. There is something so tangibly substantial, so truly lasting about the work of the Board of Church Erection, that we are sure we are upon solid ground, both ecclesiastical and financial, when we walk out upon the labors of this Church-building agency. There is little in this enterprise that allures even Christian sentiment alone. Of all our benevolent Boards, this one supremely makes its appeal upon the grounds of its business-like administration of a trust, whose record is written largely in earthly foundation stones and material superstructures.

If ours is not a Cathedral-building Church, it erects at least convenient and substantial houses for worship and work. From Alaska to Porto Rico, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the sacred fires are burning to-day upon some 9,000 altars that would never have borne upon their bosom the flame of devotion to God had not the Board of Church Erection gathered the stones from the quarry.

The mission of this Board is not of a sort that would justify a popular evening meeting of the Assembly. While there are those eloquent enough to find "sermons in stones," they turn toward more available resources and present more touching themes. In a truer sense, the work of this Board ought to be tremendously popular. It is absolutely fundamental to the continued life, growth, welfare and comfort of the whole Church. There is probably no benevolent agency to which we turn more readily in the hour of our need, and none to which we are more apt to turn a deaf ear, in the face of its appeal.

We have no desire to weary the Assembly with a needless reiteration of the excellent summary of the work done by this servant of the Church during the last fiscal year. The report of the Board merits the careful study of every loyal Presbyterian who believes in being fully informed upon the larger work of the Church. The last year has been marked by "an advance beyond all precedent," the Board reports, for which we thank God and take courage, even though it brings us into close grip with the horns of that inescapable dilemma—greater work and no greater gifts to meet it. The demands upon the Board have increased in number nearly 33 per cent. over those of a decade ago, and are nearly 45 per cent. larger in the average amount of aid asked than those of ten years ago. Then, the average grant was $600; this last year it reached $868. While it is true, in the words of the Board's report, "that so far as the permanent funds are concerned, ... the ability to meet the demands made upon them is gauged by the amount returned to the Board from previous loans," it is also true that "the general fund from which the appropriations are usually actual gifts, is for the most part dependent upon the offerings of the churches."

We rejoice with the Board that, though its books were closed ten days earlier than usual, the united contributions from churches, Sunday-schools and individuals were $2,500 larger than the year before, and beyond any for the last ten years; and that the number of contributing churches was 5,239, an advance of 92 over last year. We would be glad to believe that the new era of Laymen's activity in the first things of the Kingdom has reached even to this foundation cause, and that the work of this Board is beginning to make a more effectual appeal to the hearts, consciences and purses of the substantial business men of the Presbyterian Church.

Your Committee praises unstintedly the accurate, thorough and conscientious work of this Board. Funds are invested and administered under restrictions and conditions attached by the donors, that make the affairs of this Board far from simple. From its many bolts of golden cloth, some longer and some shorter, the Board has cut its garments honestly and well.

We call attention to the fact that the field of this agency of the Church is the rapidly developing land of opportunity. Our larger and more firmly established centres of Church life more properly constitute its force. Moving forward in unison of spirit with its great colleague, the Home Board, the Board of Church Erection builds here and there and far afield a sanctuary for the ensign of the Cross which the former Board has flung to the breeze. If it be true, as it undeniably is, that this conservative, far-seeing, far-hearing Board has responded to a multitude of calls from the greater West, it is not forgetting the relatively smaller number that have come from the Middle West and the East. This Board of yours is not building temples in the barren desert. To-day, under the heavenly touch of water, the western desert is blossoming like the rose. Cities are springing up to reflect and epitomize the life of the outlying regions. New promised lands, with valleys and hills, are being entered and explored. Sabbath-school Missions and Home Missions have gone into every such place, as men and money have been supplied. Church erection does not linger far behind. A study of the record of the past year's work of this Board will persuade every enthusiast in the work of the Board of Home Missions that this excellent agency is a faithful and generous helper and friend.

Two special items in the Board's report call for your careful consideration.

The Tennessee situation, rendered acute by the decision of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, pronouncing the union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church invalid, moved the last General Assembly of our Church to take action looking to the gathering and distributing of a fund, which, in its judgment, should be not less than $100,000, to be used, under a broad interpretation of all ordinary rules, in assisting the congregations thus dispossessed to secure houses of worship. The related and mutually involved Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection were authorized and directed to undertake this commission. In obedience to the action of the Assembly, the Board of Church Erection reports, in behalf of itself and its colleague, that a "representative committee was appointed to bring this matter before the churches, and that the committee so appointed used every effort within its power, by special personal representatives, by circular letters and by appeals through the religious press, to secure from the churches an adequate sum to reach the necessities of these evicted churches." Success, however, was only partial; just generous enough for showing that the grace of true Christian charity is "not dead, but sleepeth." Nearly $24,000 was raised. The Synod of Tennessee, through its Executive Commission, finds that fifty-eight churches will be obliged to provide new buildings at a total cost to them of not less than $300,000. The $100,000 asked is absolutely a minimum and is immediately needed, the Synod's Executive Commission maintains. The Board expresses its readiness and its intention to supplement this special fund to such extent as may be necessary; but only when its income shall have been sufficiently increased by the revenue from the bequest of the late John Stewart Kennedy. The Board is willing to borrow the necessary money, however, to complete the task, if the Assembly so orders. Meanwhile the need continues. Our brethren are homeless as to houses of public worship. Shall we be or continue to be "worse than infidels?"

The second item of note is the fact that the Board of Church Erection is one of the larger beneficiaries of the marvelous testament of that princely steward of grace and gold, John Kennedy. In addition to the several millions (it can be safely reckoned in millions) of dollars, which will soon be put at the disposal of the Board, this keen man of affairs has put the stamp of his business confidence upon the integrity, industry and far-reaching importance of this Board. Financiers of America's metropolis eagerly sought the confidence of Mr. Kennedy as an asset in their wordly enterprises. His princely gift to this Board, all unsought, is a striking bestowal of that confidence where it will be employed as an asset in an enterprise that reaches into the world to come. Mr. Kennedy's benefactions, by the law of Christian grace, will not stifle other gifts, but will surely stimulate them. The Board of Church Erection has wisely adopted a policy in keeping with its uniform record in the past, whereby it is to be guided into the investment, as an irreducible principle, of the entire Kennedy bequest in the highest grade of securities that can be bought in New York City, on terms that on their face justify Mr. Kennedy's expressed confidence in the sagacity of the Board.

In passing to the recommendations we are moved to offer for the Assembly's action, we cannot refrain from noting the increase in the cost of labor and building materials; the rapid maturing of our once frontier; the problem of the former Cumberland churches; the incoming and abiding of an ever-growing throng of foreign-speaking peoples; besides, that altered view of the function of a church building, which is making it to-day a house of work as well as a temple of worship, a place where our children and youth must be gathered and gripped for Christ, with all the allurements of a wholesome, intellectual and social, as well as religious atmosphere, and by church edifices adapted to the temper and life of the age in meeting these needs—all of these and many other unuttered considerations are now laying the work of the Board of Church Erection as a burden of loving duty and exalted privilege upon the shoulders of the church, and she, in the strength of her Lord, may well go forward valiantly bearing His yoke, which is easy, and His burden, which is light.

We respectfully offer the following recommendations:

1. That the General Assembly approve both the record of the Board, which has been examined by the Committee and found in order, and the Treasurer's report, the latter having been found correct by the Committee, the approval of a firm of certified public accountants of the City of New York being attached to the Treasurer's statements of the assets, liabilities and expenditures of the Board.

2. That the General Assembly unhesitatingly places the seal of its continued approval upon the work of this great agency of the Church and commends it most heartily to the consciences and purses of the entire Church membership for generous and increased contributions.

3. That the General Assembly expresses its gratitude to God for the magnificent gift of the late John Stewart Kennedy to this Board, recognizing not only the munificence of this unprecedented legacy, but also the gratifying expression of its donor's confidence in the work of this Board: and further, that the action of the Board in determining to invest the entire Kennedy bequest in a permanent fund, or funds, be approved.

4. That the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. be, and hereby is, authorized to borrow, in its discretion, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to complete the work of housing the evicted congregations of Tennessee, under the instruction of the last General Assembly; further, that the Board be authorized to press the claims of this fund upon the consideration of the Church in order that the minimum amount of debt may be incurred.

5. That the Overture from the Presbytery of Seattle, requesting the Board of Church Erection to establish in conjunction with Presbyteries and other organizations, a Church Extension Fund, be approved, with certain amendments, as follows:

The Board of Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A. is hereby authorized to establish, in conjunction with Presbyteries and other organizations, a Church Extension Fund for buying lots and further assisting in erecting church edifices within their own territory, beyond what is generally given or loaned by the Board, provided special funds for such purpose can be procured, the same to be repaid at the rate of 10 per cent. per year to the Trustees of the Fund; the administration of the Fund to be in the hands of the Presbyteries or other organizations, and the title of the Fund in each case to be in the Board of Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; the proportion to be raised on the field in no case being less than one-half of such special fund.

6. That a communication to this Assembly from the Rev. T. G. Williamson in behalf of the Session, members and congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church, Cape Fear Presbytery, Synod of Catawba, be referred to the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

7. That the following named persons, whose terms expire at this time, be elected to succeed themselves as members of the Board of Church Erection Fund in the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., for the ensuing term: Ministers—Samuel M. Hamilton, D.D., William A. Holliday, D.D., Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., Edward B. Surface; Elders—Frederick G. Burnham, James A. Frame, E. Francis Hyde, Isaac H. Orr, Edward C. Van Glahn. And further, that the Rev. Anson P. Atterbury, D.D., of New York City, be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. John A. Ingham, D.D., and that Elder David S. D. Jessup, of New York City, be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Elder Ira Remsen Lane.

All of which is respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Committee.

William Hiram Foulkes, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented its Report, and introduced to the Assembly the Fraternal Delegates whose names are given in the Report, who addressed the Assembly and were cordially welcomed, and responded to by the Moderator. The Report is as follows:

Your Committee on Correspondence submits the following Report:

One of the most pleasurable impressions which a Commissioner to the General Assembly carries away with him is, that ours is not a provincial Church. Not only do greetings come to us from long-established communions in other lands, but that which gladdens all hearts is the message of appreciation and affection which comes from those Churches over the world which call us Mother. This is part of the return for the work of missions which our Church has accomplished.

We are fortunate in this Assembly to have nine men who come as representatives and bring the greetings of corresponding bodies of Presbyterians. From Brazil, Italy, England, Mexico and India they come, as also from affiliated ecclesiastical bodies in the home land.

While comparisons would be out of place, still it is with special delight that we receive two of these brethren, one because of the large place which he held in the esteem of all while pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Chicago, the Rev. J. Monro Gibson, D.D., now of London, England. Of the other just a word: The Presbyterian Church in Brazil, the child of our mission enterprise, has recently organized itself into a General Assembly, and held its first meeting. The Moderator of that meeting, Rev. Alvaro Reis, was appointed as a corresponding delegate to this Assembly. In writing his credentials, the Permanent Clerk of the Brazilian Assembly says: "As a Commissioner of the Brazilian Church, Rev. Alvaro Reis will present the greetings of thousands of Presbyterians in Brazil; also the thankful recognition of the motherly care which has nurtured our Church in the land of the Southern Cross.

"As the mouth-piece of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil, we will voice to you our Macedonian cry, asking for new missionaries, the best gift that the Brazilian Church will ask from the Mother Church."

All of these men come with a message of good cheer and thankfulness and are the welcome guests of this Assembly.

The items of business which have been referred to this Committee have to do with granting sympathy and aid to others who are seeking the uplift of humanity.

1. From the National Liberal Immigration League, the object of which is "the proper regulation and better distribution of immigration." In view of the fact that persecution in Russia is driving natives of that land in large numbers to America and interfering with mission work which the Methodists and other Churches are carrying on in that land, they ask that this Assembly join with others to influence our Government to do all in its power to change the conditions in Russia, so that religious liberty may be enjoyed there as elsewhere. We would recommend that, inasmuch as the Assembly has already taken favorable action on a recommendation on the same or a like subject, reported upon by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, no further action be taken.

2. A request from the Evangelical Christian Committee of all Russia, asking for sympathy and financial assistance in the work of preaching the pure Gospel and establishing Christian schools. It seems to your Committee that, however worthy this cause may be, we ought not recommend it as one to receive the support of the Church as a whole, but leave it to individual generosity.

3. A Memorial from the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Geneva, Switzerland, setting forth the need of that school, its honorable history, running back seventy-five years, the work which it is doing, and its purposes and ideals for the future. The showing is most interesting and commends the school. The immediate object of the Memorial is to state that, as they have no endowment, they propose to secure $200,000 at once, and in the light of the facts which they present they ask that Presbyterians and others help in this effort. While not ready to present this cause for the offerings of the churches, we feel that it is worthy of the assistance of those who are inclined to assist objects of merit, and would commend it to the generosity of individuals.

4. In the matter of a request that this Assembly memorialize the Congress of the United States to complete the measure, now before it, for an appropriation to reimburse those who contributed to the fund to ransom Miss Ellen M. Stone from the hands of the brigands who held her in bondage for six months, in 1902, your Committee, while recognizing this as a case of merit, yet as it is being attended to by those most intimately interested, and is being favorably considered by Congress, there appears to be no good reason why we should do as requested, and so we recommend that no action be taken.

We would recommend that the following persons be received as Corresponding Delegates from the bodies which they represent to this Assembly, that opportunity be given for any fraternal greetings they may bring, and that they be the guests of the Assembly while in attendance: From the Waldensian Church, Prof. Alberto Clot; Presbyterian Church of Brazil, Rev. Alvaro Reis; Presbyterian Church of England, Rev. Richard Roberts,

Rev. J. Monro Gibson, D.D., Rev. J. R. Fleming; Presbyterian Church in Mexico, Rev. Plutarcho Arellano; Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, Rev. James McLeod, D.D., Reformed Church in America, Rev. J. G. Gowen; Presbyterian Church in India, Rev. Arthur H. Ewing; Reformed Church of France, Rev. Prof. Bieler; Reformed Church of Bohemia, Rev. L. B. Marek; Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Rev. E. B. Sanford, D.D.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIS E. PARSONS, Chairman.

The two Delegates coming for the first time from Bohemia and Moravia, Rev. Dr. Cleman and Rev. Frank Zilka, were cordially commended to our churches.

A Resolution on the subject of Representation in the Assembly, was referred to the Executive Commission.

The Standing Committee on Finance, through its Chairman, Mr. J. Cleveland Cady, presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Finance reports as follows:

I. Your Committee has examined the Annual Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, together with the report of their Treasurer, for the year ending March 31, 1910, which has also been examined and certified to by Messrs. Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants of Philadelphia, as being correct, and by the Finance Committee and the Committee on Accounts of the Trustees.

The items which require attention are as follows:

The Trustees, in accordance with the requirements of the Charter, respectfully report to the General Assembly the state of the accounts of the Corporation.*

The principal of the funds now in the hands of the Trustees amounts to $1,031,544.47, and the income for the year 1909–1910 was $48,611.01.

The Trustees call the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that, there being in Philadelphia no one known as a public auditor, it is impossible for them to comply with the directions of the General Assembly as to having their accounts audited by a public auditor. There are in Pennsylvania what are known as certified public accountants, who receive their certificates from the Governor of the State on the recommendation of public examiners appointed under an Act of the Legislature. It is suggested that the General Assembly so amend its instructions in this respect that the Trustees may be able to comply with them.

*See the Appendix, Section V, where the Report is printed in full.

Under Section 10 of its Charter, the Board of Trustees is limited to $50,000 as the amount of income it may annually receive. The income for the past year, as shown by the report of the Treasurer, was $48,611.02. By direction of the Board, the Solicitor has prepared an application to the Courts of the County of Philadelphia, asking that this limit be increased to the amount of $250,000, and the General Assembly is requested to approve of the application which is attached hereto, and made part of this report.

The Trustees report, with great sorrow, the death of John H. Converse, LL.D., a member of the Board since May 31, 1892, and its President since May 11, 1908. It will be necessary for the General Assembly to fill the vacancy in the Board, caused by the death of Mr. Converse. Mr. George Stevenson has been chosen his successor as President.

II. We have also examined and found correct and in due form the financial report of William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, for the year ending March 31, 1910, which report has also been examined and certified to as correct by Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified Public accountants.

III. The Annual Report of the Trustees of the General A sembly of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church also has been submitted to us.

Your Committee respectfully asks that the following resolutions be passed by this Assembly:

1. That the annual reports of the President and Treasurer of the Trustees, and of William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Stated Clerk and Treasurer of the General Assembly, be accepted and approved.

2. That the Attorney of the Trustees is hereby authorized to prepare and present the petition of the Trustees and take proceedings in the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Philadelphia, under the provisions of an Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, approved June 6, 1893, for a decree extending and defining the amount of property, real and personal, which the said Trustees shall be permitted to hold, and enlarging the charter powers of the Trustees, so that they may be enabled to hold property, real and personal, the yearly income from which may amount to $250,000 instead of $50,000, the limit of income now provided for in the Charter.

3. That the Trustees of the General Assembly be authorized to have their Treasurer's accounts examined and approved by a firm of certified public accountants instead of by a public auditor, as provided by resolution of the General Assembly of 1899, there being no such public auditor in Pennsylvania.

4. That Mr. John Milton Colton, of Philadelphia, Pa., whose name is presented by the Trustees, be elected to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, caused by the death of John H. Converse, LL.D.

5. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to expend from time to time during the ensuing year, and on and after October 1, 1910, under the direction of the Permanent Finance Committee, such sums of money as may be necessary for the ordinary expenses of maintaining and operating his office.

6. That the Stated Clerk, under the authorization of the Permanent Finance Committee, be authorized to pay the sum of $1,940 to the World-Presbyterian Alliance; $1,350 to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America; and $224 to the Council of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system.

7. That the thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered to the Trustees, together with the Stated Clerk, Dr. William H. Roberts, whose long and faithful services are gratefully appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Cleveland Cady, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 26, 8 o'clock P.M.

A Popular Meeting was held in the interest of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, and addresses were made by Mr. Charles A. Young and Rev. John D. Adam, D.D.

FRIDAY, May 27, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A Resolution offered was referred to the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief.

A communication from the Delegate of the Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence, through its Secretary, Rev. F. M. Carson, presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by the Chairman, Rev. David O. Mears, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

The aggressive spirit which has manifested itself along various lines of Church life and work in recent years has been notably prominent in the matter of increasing emphasis upon systematic and business-like methods in beneficence. The old-time absence of system and the old-time indefiniteness of goal in the shaping up of church finance has given place to much painstaking thought and careful planning in the work of interesting congregations in their contributions to other than local needs. New and wide visions of a waiting world, that must be brought within hearing of the glad tidings of great joy to all peoples, have illumined many a heart and brought a new light into many a church; a light that we hope will shine more and more unto a perfect day. The marked advance of interest on the part of our strong laymen in the stimulation of church finance so as to meet more efficiently the larger mission of the church has brought courage and inspiration to not a few pastors and to many of our churches. We have, however, made only a beginning. There remains much land to be possessed. In spite of all the emphasis laid upon the matter of systematic giving in the past few years, the fact remains, and we want you to note it well, that in the aggregate nine-tenths of the contributions to church beneficence come from one-tenth of the membership. At present there is a large percentage of our membership who are non-contributors either for the support of the local church or for general beneficence; and we believe this fact explains in part the annual deficit which must be made up by trustees or by special appeals. It is our judgment that sessions would do well to urge upon those who enter into the fellowship of any church that they recognize it as a part of their Christian worship to make their offerings regularly in definite subscriptions, however small, toward the maintenance of the work of the Church in all its varying ministries.

Listen to this testimony that comes to us from the latest reports! There are 4,500 churches, with an average membership of 50, making a total of 225,000 communicants, who gave nothing whatever to the Boards last year. Were each one of these communicants to contribute an average of 1 cent a week, we would have an addition to our present benevolences amounting to $117,000. We believe it would be a great aid in the furtherance of the benevolent purposes of the denomination if it were recognized as the part of the business of the Executive Commission to examine into the condition of these churches and to discover if possible the reasons why there are so many congregations that are not contributing to the Boards of the Church. A special effort should be made by the Executive Commission to see whether it is not possible that all these churches shall become contributors, and in case they still fail to contribute, to ascertain the reason for such failure. It may stimulate some of our pastors to know that the Assembly's Committee on Benevolence will watch closely every church in our communion and see whether it is among the contributing forces, or if it is not contributing, why not; and if it is not growing in numbers, again, why not. Indifference on the part of the ministers is looked upon as one explanation of the present failures. It is very desirable that each pastor, at the beginning of the church year, should preach on the subject of systematic beneficence, presenting the fact of the wide interest in the subject, the awakening of the Church to a forward movement along this line, and the Christian obligation to render unto the Lord according to his benefits. To this end we believe that a Committee on Benevolence should be appointed in every church to make an every-member campaign for the purpose of giving to each one the opportunity to contribute a definite sum weekly, however modest that sum may be. We have learned of a church that through weekly contributions increased its offerings $800 in one year. This is a systematic method and it avoids the loss of contribution through the absence of members on any particular Sabbath in which an offering might be taken under the old plan of occasional offerings after occasional sermons. The weekly offering toward the Boards of the Church is desirable not alone for Foreign Missions, but for all the beneficences of the Church. If this does not seem feasible in certain churches, then surely annual subscriptions may be asked toward the sum total of the local church's apportionment. Our interests in the general advance of the Church are not divided. We cannot afford to promote one part of the work at the expense of any other part. If the weekly offering, or its equivalent, is a gain in extending the work of the Kingdom abroad, it is equally a gain in extending the work of the Kingdom at home. As to the amount to be rendered, we strongly advise that it be a definite proportion of the individual's income. We believe that this will increase the joy of giving, and that giving will become a recognized part of one's religious life and worship; that the offering will be presented more and more in the spirit of the "cheerful" giver whom the Lord loveth; and that it will become an increasing proportion of one's income as the custom is faithfully sustained. The slipshod, thoughtless, hit-or-miss fashion will give place to the methodical, intelligent, definite offering which is rendered conscientiously unto the Lord as a distinct act of worship.

Before we close our report we desire to express our delight in the Laymen's Missionary Movement, which is stimulating so marked an increase of interest in preaching Christ to the world in this generation; but while we have been zealous for our witness-bearing unto the uttermost part of the earth, have we taken to heart quite as seriously the needs of our Jerusalem where we should begin our witnessing?

The vision of the world for Christ is glorious; the urgency of obedience to the great commission we delight to press in conjunction with this mighty movement. It is wise, however, brethren, to preserve the balance and proportion of things in this latter-day aggressiveness which has laid hold of our imaginations and has captured our crowds. We have attempted big things for God in this whole canvass for world-wide evangelization. We have been quickened to larger beneficence in behalf of the work abroad. Let us recognize our need of equal devotion to the work at home. We have heard from our Sky Pilot, Higgins, of the 20,000 Lumber Jacks in Minnesota, the 10,000 in Wisconsin and in Northern Michigan, and the 30,000 to 50,000 of them in each of the following States: western Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California. Until he went into the field these hundreds of thousands of American citizens were absolutely without the Gospel. Some of our village pastors will tell you that sections of country around them are practically pagan, and there are said to be 10,000 deserted country churches of all denominations in the United States. Our great cities are calling for workers and for substance wherewith to enlarge the work of the Church. A certain Settlement in Chicago remarked somewhat bitterly, when it was vainly seeking for a young man to assist in reaching the surging crowds around it, that probably he had enlisted as a missionary to Africa. Let us not pervert our vision. Let us make it clear and direct enough to embrace the foreigners within our own bounds as well as the foreigners that have not knocked at the gates of Ellis Island and are not likely to do so. The Department of Church and Labor gives you the figures for the population of the city of Newark, and tells you that out of 357,000 people, 129,000 are churchless. The map now on exhibition in this same Department reveals the complex character of that city, and it is but a fraction of the great total of foreigners that swarm through the New England and Middle States, as well as through the Central West, until one is almost dizzy in thinking how they may be reached with the Gospel. Let our benevolence be balanced enough to include the cities of New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Boston, Philadelphia and Newark, with as much enthusiasm as that which enters into our work for Oroomiah and Peking and Kyoto and Batanga and Buluwayo. We do not plead for a single backward step in the magnificent advance which the men of the Church are making for the capture of the world for Christ in this generation; only we do feel that a very strategic and important part of that world is on the North American Continent. During portions of 1907–08 more than a million emigrants went back to their old homes in Europe, Asia and the "uttermost parts." What impressions of Christian America did they carry with them? Were they impressions of the neglect or inefficiency or short-sightedness of our American Churches? Had they been reached by Protestant Christianity in the months or years wherein they had found residence under the stars and stripes?—yea, and under the banner of the Cross? We receive more foreigners than any other land in the world, and we have no country back of us as Canada has to furnish either missionaries or money to aid in the work of evangelization. Sixty per cent. of the ministers of Canada are from Great Britain. We are sending more money to India for benevolent and missionary purposes than England is, who owns and governs the country. Let us be just as well as generous. Let us catch a vision of the untouched swarms of the unchurched and the unevangelized under our own flag whose reception of the Gospel must depend in large part upon the beneficence of the Church in the home-land toward the needy souls of the home-land.

Your Committee, in consideration of the foregoing, presents the following recommendations:

1. That the Executive Commission pursue the investigation of the causes of delinquency in the 4,500 churches referred to in this report, and that the Commission bring pressure to bear upon pastors and sessions with the purpose of getting them in line with the advance movement of the denominations in the larger beneficence.

2. That for the promotion of liberality toward the larger work of our Boards, the sessions be urged to encourage subscriptions to the strong publications issued in the interests of Missions at home and abroad.

3. That the Budget system of benevolence be commended to the churches, tending toward weekly offerings where most feasible, with emphasis upon proportionate giving, and that every member be given an opportunity to share in the maintenance of the wide work which the Church at large is seeking to accomplish toward the bringing in of the Kingdom of God.

Respectfully submitted,

D. O. Mears, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk presented the Preliminary Judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission upon the complaint of Rev. Henry B. Elliott and others against the Synod of New York. John W. Dinsmore, D.D., Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission, read the said Preliminary Judgment, and on motion it was entered upon the records of the Assembly. It is as follows:

The Permanent Judicial Commission, to which was referred for hearing and adjudication the complaint of the Rev. Henry B. Elliott and others, against the Synod of New York, do hereby report that we have reviewed the case, upon the records, and have heard both complainants and respondents, each side being accorded three hours, and, after full and careful consideration, we report as follows:

The complaints are lodged against the action of the Synod of New York in sustaining the action of the Presbytery of New York, in licensing three (3) candidates to preach the Gospel and subsequently ordaining two of them to the Gospel ministry. It is alleged on the one hand that the examination of said candidates disclosed very serious disbelief or at least doubt concerning important doctrines of the Church, while on the other hand this allegation is explicitly and positively denied. It is averred in the complaints that they refused to affirm their faith in the inspiration and supreme authority of the Holy Scripture, in the Virgin birth of our Lord, in the truth of St. John's account of raising Lazarus from the dead and in the actual bodily resurrection of Christ.

The respondents deny these allegations, and affirm on the contrary that said candidates avowed their full faith in the inspiration and authority of the Holy Scriptures, and that they sincerely profess their acceptance of the Confession of Faith as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Scriptures. That in fact they do not deny the Virgin birth of our Lord, but were not prepared to affirm it with the same positiveness as for some other doctrine. That their hesitation upon the doctrine indicated an unfinished consideration of the subject rather than any positive disbelief. Such were the issues presented.

The complainants are right in attaching the greatest importance to such wide departures from the faith as they allege—departures which if allowed not only would dissolve the foundations of the Presbyterian Church, but equally would destroy historic Christianity in all the Protestant Evangelical Churches throughout the world. If the contention of the complainants in respect to such radical departures from acknowledged standards had been proven in this case, the Commission must have reversed the action of the Synod, and have censured the Presbytery, since it is indubitable that this Church stands to-day as she has stood in all her history for the inspiration, integrity and authority of the Holy Scriptures, and confesses the Virgin birth of our Lord and His actual bodily resurrection as component parts of the faith once delivered to the saints and most surely witnessed to in history. These doctrines have been confessed in the immemorial testimony of the Church, and the facts involved are the facts upon which among others Christianity rests. No one who denies them or is in serious doubt concerning them should be either licensed or ordained as a minister.

But it has not been proven that the candidates named in the complaint have in fact denied or seriously questioned these doctrines. The examinations in the Presbytery in April, 1909, were largely oral, based mainly upon a brief paper or statement of belief written by each candidate and now embodied in the record. This first examination was unsatisfactory and was not sustained by the Presbytery. About two months thereafter a second examination was had, which was wholly oral, and this examination was sustained. Just what it was in the second examination that changed the conviction of the majority of the Presbytery from not sustaining to sustaining can be inferred only, as it is not contained in the record. The record gives a list of the topics or common heads of divinity, possibly some of the questions, put to the candidates, but not their answers. The complainants contend that the answers were insufficient; the respondents that they were sufficient. Thus the issue is joined and proof is wanting, so far as the second examination is concerned.

Upon the record presented we are unable to say that the Synod erred in declining to sustain the complaint against the Presbytery.

In our judgment, however, the action of the Presbytery of New York in ordaining two of the three candidates against the strong protest of so considerable a minority of the Presbytery was unwise and not for the edification of the Church, in view of the fact that the questions under dispute were, by complaint, on their way to be reviewed by a higher judicatory.

For the reasons above set forth we adjudge that the complaints against the Synod be not sustained.

But in view of the fact that in the adjudication of this case the Permanent Judicial Commission has had brought to their attention the fact of the deep concern in the Church in regard to the induction of young men into the ministry whose views on fundamental facts of the Scriptures and our Standards are sometimes immature or unsound, therefore we deem it timely to suggest to the General Assembly that it set forth a public deliverance enjoining all Presbyteries under its jurisdiction to use great care in the examination of candidates; and that men of immature or unsettled views be placed under Presbyterial oversight until their views are matured and brought into full harmony with the Word of God as interpreted by our Standards.

The recommendation contained in the Judgment of the Commission was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, with instructions to report a deliverance.

The Permanent Judicial Commission presented a Report upon its election of officers, which was approved and is as follows:

The Permanent Judicial Commission would respectfully report to the General Assembly as follows: Under the rule adopted by the General Assembly the Permanent Judicial Commission is required to hold an election for officers on the fifth day of the meeting of the General Assembly.

Under this requirement the Commission would report that such an election has been held, and that the following officers have been elected: Moderator, Elder C. E. Cairns; Vice-Moderator, Rev. Frank O. Ballard, D.D.; Clerk, Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., said officers to serve, after the close of the present meeting of the General Assembly, until the close of the next General Assembly.

In behalf of the Commission,

A Resolution concerning Whitman the Explorer was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Report of the Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund was presented, by Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., President, and after an address by Rev. J. R. Sutherland, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was approved, and ordered printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The following resolutions were adopted in connection with said Report.

Resolved, 1. That the report of the Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund be and is hereby approved.

Resolved, 2. That this Assembly reaffirms the endorsements given by previous Assemblies to this Plan of providing for the aged and disabled servants of our Church, their widows and minor children, and the recommendations made in its behalf.

Resolved, 3. That the Stated Clerk be instructed to present the following names to the annual meeting of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, to be held on the third Tuesday in June, 1910, as the names of persons approved by this Assembly for members of the Board of Directors of said Fund, viz.: Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., Rev. John R. Sutherland, D.D., Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Mr. L. G. Fouse, Mr. Thompson McClintock, Rev. J. Ramsey Swain, D.D., Rev. John Calhoun, D.D., Mr. I. Layton Register, Mr. William H. Scott, Mr. F. M. Braselmann, Rev. Washington Laird, Ph.D., Rev. John T. Faris, Rev. George Francis Green, D.D., Justice W. P. Potter, Mr. John Y. Boyd.

A Resolution concerning the subject of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund was referred to the Executive Commission, as was also the subject of the increase of the Endowment of the Fund.

The Report of the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union was completed, and the Report was adopted by a unanimous standing vote. It is as follows:

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was continued by the General Assembly of 1909 (see Minutes, 1909, p. 77). The Committee has held but one general meeting during the year, at Philadelphia, Pa., April 7, 1910. Its work was done in part through Sub-Committees, two of which were appointed respectively from the United Presbyterian and the German Reformed Committees. During the year the membership of the Committee was decreased by the resignation of the Hon. William M. Lanning, owing to the pressure of his judicial duties. The subjects considered by the Committee during the year were:

I. Relations with the Reformed Church in the U. S.
II. Relations with the United Presbyterian Church.
III. Relations with the Welsh Presbyterian Church.
IV. The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.
V. Matters connected with the Reunion of 1906.

I. Relations with the Reformed Church in the U. S.

The Sub-Committee appointed by the Assembly's Committee for conference with the Committee of the Reformed (German) Church, consisted of the Chairman, with Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., and Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D. The Sub-Committee of the Committee of the Reformed Church was composed of the Rev. J. Spangler Kieffer, D.D., Rev. George W. Richards, D.D., and Rev. James I. Good, D.D. These Sub-Committees held three joint meetings, and went over the whole subject of the relations of the two Churches, both past and present. They prepared a Historical Statement of these relations, and also took up the preparation of a statement covering theology, worship, polity, and usages. The action taken by the Sub-Committees was approved by the General Committees of both Churches, and it was decided, in view of the fact that the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S. does not meet until May, 1911, that the only document now to be reported should be the Historical Statement. It is to be emphasized that the relations which at present exist between these two denominations are of the most cordial kind and that their agreement in all fundamentals of doctrine and government becomes more evident as negotiations continue. The Historical Statement is printed in the Appendix.

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption by the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly approves of the action of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union in the preparation of the Historical Statement of the relations of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Reformed Church in the U. S., and directs that it be printed in the Appendix, and also be given wide publication in the Religious Press, and in other ways.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee be and hereby is authorized, in its discretion, the consent of the Committee of the Reformed Church first having been obtained, to prepare and publish such other documents as will give appropriate information to the constituencies of the two Churches, as to their relations.

Resolved, 3. That the Report of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, in this matter, is hereby approved, and the whole subject of relations with the Reformed Church in the U. S. is again referred to said Committee, to report to the next General Assembly.

II. Relations with the United Presbyterian Church.

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, at its meeting in May, 1909, responded affirmatively to the proposal made to it by this Assembly and contained in the following Resolutions:

"Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly renews the proposal made by the Assemblies of 1907 and 1908, for Closer Relations with the United Presbyterian Church of North America, and authorizes the Moderator and the Stated Clerk to telegraph this desire to the General Assembly of the said Church.

"Resolved, 2. That should the United Presbyterian General Assembly continue or reappoint its Committee upon Closer Relations, the negotiations are hereby entrusted to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union. [Minutes, General Assembly, 1909, p. 80.]

The action of the United Presbyterian General Assembly reads:

"That we express our appreciation of the cordial greetings sent us by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and that we heartily accede to the request for the appointment of a Committee of Conference on Closer Relations, and we recommend that a Committee of seven be appointed. [Minutes, U. P. General Assembly, 1909, p. 349.]

It is important, in connection with the negotiations conducted with the United Presbyterian Church, to apprehend clearly that in the action taken by both General Assemblies, the words

"Closer Relations" are used in an indefinite sense. In the Report of the United Presbyterian Committee to its General Assembly of 1908, the sentence appears, "The absence of any instruction as to our duty, or the meaning of the term 'Closer Relations,' left us in doubt concerning the exact scope of the work laid upon us." The same lack of explicit directions was clearly seen by this Committee in its instructions. Both Committees were happily left free to ascertain the exact situation in each denomination, and to recommend action in harmony therewith. The idea that either Committee was instructed specifically to consider the question of organic union is contrary to the facts. It is also at variance with the language employed in the instructions connected with the original appointment of this Committee. Those instructions read in part as follows:

"Whereas, The Presbyterian Church holds Christian fellowship with all who confess and obey Jesus Christ as their divine Saviour and Lord, and acknowledges the duty of all Churches that recognize Him as the only Head of the Church Universal to work together in harmony and love for the extension of His Kingdom and the good of the world; and

"Whereas, This Assembly earnestly desires to commend and promote this Christian coöperation, and also practically to advance the cause of Church Union by confederation, and, where possible, by consolidation among the Churches of the Reformed faith, which are most nearly akin in doctrine and organization; therefore, be it

"Resolved, 1. That a Committee be appointed by the Moderator to consider the whole subject of coöperation, confederation and consolidation with other Churches.

"Resolved, 2. That this Committee be instructed to enter into correspondence with any Churches of the Reformed family with whom, in the judgment of the Committee, such correspondence would be likely to promote Closer Relations.

"Resolved, 3. That this Committee shall report to the next Assembly such plans and measures as seem to them wise, proper and profitable for the advancement of fraternal relations, for the increase of harmonious work, and, if God shall open the way, and incline the hearts of the Churches thereto, for the reunion of those who hold the same faith and order in the service of Christ. [Minutes, General Assembly, 1903, pp. 90, 91.]"

In harmony with these instructions it is proper to remind the Assembly that the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union has borne an important part in two great movements for Closer Relations; first, in securing the organization in 1908, after four years of negotiations, of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, including thirty-four (34) Evangelical Christian Churches, with 18,000,000 of communicants; and, second, in the establishment, in 1907, of the Council of the Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian System. This latter Council includes the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., the Reformed (Dutch) Church in America, the United Presbyterian Church and the (German) Reformed Church in the U. S. These Churches had, March 31, 1909, 13,758 ministers, 16,772 congregations, 2,172,002 communicants, 1,967,133 Sabbath-school scholars and teachers, and the total of their offerings to all causes during the year ending on that date was $31,987,640. The last meeting of this Council (which reports directly to the Assembly) was held in Louisville, Ky., March 15, 1910. This Committee congratulates the Assembly on the great progress made in securing "Closer Relations" between the Christian Churches of America, and between the American Churches of the Presbyterian family, with a view to practical coöperation in their work along general lines of effort.

As a result of the reasonable attitude of this Church as to "Closer Relations," your Committee entered upon its negotiations with the United Presbyterian Church, untrammeled by restrictive limitations of any kind. A Sub-Committee of four was appointed, consisting of the Chairman, with the Rev. Drs. William McKibbin, Edgar P. Hill, and J. Ross Stevenson, to consult with a Sub-Committee of the United Presbyterian Committee. The latter Sub-Committee consisted of Rev. Joseph Kyle, D.D., Chairman, with Rev. Drs. J. K. McClurkin, Pressly Thompson, and J. C. Scouller. The Sub-Committees met in joint session at the Shadyside United Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., February 22, 1910, and spent the entire day in fraternal converse and prayerful deliberation. The result of the meeting appears in the following paper which was unanimously adopted, and ordered transmitted to the respective Assemblies.

"Whereas, Several of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System, in order to evince and develop their spiritual unity and to promote closer relations and more effective administrative coöperation, have, by official action, authorized the coöperation of their different Church agencies in Foreign Missionary Work, Home Missionary Work, Work among the Colored People, Church Erection, Sabbath-schools, Publication and Education; and

"Whereas, The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the United Presbyterian Church of North America, through their official governing bodies, have taken an active part in the movement above mentioned; and,

"Whereas, There is a marked historic harmony between these two denominations in their maintenance of the great truths in which they have a common heritage, and of which they have a common custodianship; and,

"WHEREAS, There is urgent need of coöperation in the great work of evangelization in the Home and Foreign fields; therefore, be it

"Resolved, 1. As expressive of the judgment of these Committees, that there should be a closer federating of the two denominations and a more clearly defined drawing together of their church activities, in all ways consistent with a loyal adherence to their distinctive principles.

"Resolved, 2. That contiguous Presbyteries, or Presbyteries occupying the same field, of both Churches, should be authorized by the respective General Assemblies to put into effective form plans of federative work; conference with reference to any plan, to be had with the Boards or other general agencies of either Church directly related to the branch or branches of church work dealt with in a given plan.

"Resolved, 3. That we recommend to our respective Assemblies the continuance of the present Committees on Closer Relations."

The Sub-Committees at this joint meeting further adopted the following Minute as to Organic Union, which also was ordered transmitted to the respective Assemblies.

"The matter of Organic Union was considered and the following statement was adopted and ordered inserted in the Minutes, viz.:

"The Sub-Committees of Conference considered fully and frankly the subject of Organic Union, but in view of the fact that there was some uncertainty, in both Committees, as to the scope of the words, 'closer relations,' used in the resolutions of the two Assemblies, it was felt that they were not definitely authorized to suggest action thereon."

The Paper on Closer Relations for Coöperation, and the action as to Organic Union, were both carefully considered at the meeting of this Committee in Philadelphia, Pa., and as a result pertinent Resolutions as to each subject were prepared, and are submitted for adoption by the General Assembly. Resolutions one (1) to five (5), dealing with the subject of Coöperation, are as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the action of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union in connection with the preparation and publication of the paper upon Closer Relations with the United Presbyterian Church, be and hereby is approved.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly hereby adopts the action taken by the joint committees of the two sister Churches as a rule for the conduct of coöperative work of an interdenominational character, and in the following terms: That Presbyteries of this Church contiguous to or occupying the same field with Presbyteries of the United Presbyterian Church of North America are hereby authorized by the General Assembly to put into effective form plans of federative work; conference with reference to any plan to be had with the Boards or other general agencies of both Churches directly related to the branch or branches of church work dealt with in a given plan of coöperation.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly expresses its gratification at the prospect of closer relations between the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the United Presbyterian Church of North America, and intrusts the continuance of negotiations upon the subject to its Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, to report to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That the Moderator and Stated Clerk be authorized to communicate the action of this Assembly to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in session at Philadelphia, Pa., and to tender to that Assembly most fraternal greetings.

Resolved, 5. That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be directed to communicate the rule as to coöperation adopted by this Assembly to the Presbyteries of this Church, whenever he shall be notified that the same action has been taken by the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church.

The following is the Resolution as to the meaning of the words, "Closer Relations."

Resolved, 6. That by the phrase "Closer Relations," so far as this General Assembly is concerned, is to be understood any and all forms of church relations, involving coöperation, federation, or organic union, as the Providence of God may indicate. While, however, thus interpreting the phrase, we declare it is not our desire unduly to urge this interpretation upon any other Church, but are prepared to conduct negotiations for Closer Relations upon any interpretation agreeable to a sister denomination. And the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union is hereby authorized to conduct negotiations with committees of other Churches upon the basis of the above statement.

III. The Welsh Presbyterian Church.

Correspondence has been carried on with the Committee of the General Assembly of the Welsh Presbyterian Church in America, in accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly in 1908 and 1909. A full report of terms of coöperation with a view to organic union was submitted to the Welsh Presbyterian Committee in 1908, after approval by the Assembly. In view of the fact, however, that the Welsh General Assembly does not meet until September, 1910, it is recommended that the terms of 1908 be reaffirmed (see Minutes, 1908, p. 91). These terms are substantially as follows:

1. That union with the Welsh Presbyterian Church would naturally mean that the United Church would have but one General Assembly, and yet under the provisions of Chapter x, Article ii, of the Form of Government, the Welsh Synods and Presbyteries could continue within the United Church as separate judicatories.

2. That Trust Funds held by the Wisconsin Synod, or any other Synod of the Welsh Presbyterian Church, would continue to be administered for the purposes indicated in the trusts.

The Committee requests that it be authorized to continue these negotiations.

IV. The Federal Council.

Your Committee is gratified to report the approach towards completion of the full organization of the work of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. This body consists of thirty-four (34) of the Evangelical and Protestant Churches of the nation, having a total of 18,000,000 of communicants, and as adherents a majority of the population of the United States. This vast constituency needs for the conservation of its resources, both of men and means, just such an organization as the Council, and for purposes of efficient work, the country has been divided into four districts, designated as the Eastern district, Southern district, Central district and Western district. In each of these districts there is to be a Central office, and appointments of Secretaries have already been made for two of them. The Rev. John T. Thomas, Jr., is Secretary of the Western district, with headquarters at Denver, Colo. Mr. Thomas is a minister of this Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Charles E. Bacon, D.D., a Methodist pastor at Indianapolis, Ind., has been chosen as Superintendent of the Central district, with headquarters at Chicago, Ill. The appointment for the Eastern district has been tendered to the Rev. H. B. MacCauley, D.D., pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Trenton, N. J. The appointment for the Southern district will be made at as early a date as feasible.

The first annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the Council was held at Louisville, Kentucky, December 8 to 10, 1909, and two special meetings have been held, the last on April 26, 1910, in New York City. The Rev. E. B. Sanford, D.D., as General Secretary, with headquarters at the Bible House, New York City, is promoting work in the whole field. The Rev. G. Frederick Wells, of the Vermont Commission, has been appointed to assist in the general office, and is giving to the State and Local Federations in the Eastern field definite programmes of action.

The National office of the Council is a clearing-house for this great movement, prepared to aid in the organization of State and local Federations, and to bring into coöperation one with another all existing agencies. For example, the Commission on the "Church and Social Service" is developing plans of strategic relationship and power, and it is expected that there will be, within a short time, a fully equipped department of public service in this direction, which will be of great value to the churches. The Committee on Home Missions of the Council, another agency of the Council, has been in consultation with the "Home Missions Council" of the leading Protestant Churches, with the purpose of securing a National policy of comity in Home Mission fields. The prospect in this line of work is also highly encouraging.

The two movements just mentioned are but a beginning in the direction of restoring to the Christian Church its rightful relation to all general religious work. The divisions which have separated the Church in the past were not only divisive but also destructive of influence and wasteful of resources. The day of rival and warring denominations appears to be over, and the day of genuine coöperation seems to have dawned. While the Federal Council does not mean the lessening of the work of any Church, or the absorption of several denominations by some one Church, it does mean a reasonable and practical working together for human welfare and the advancement of the interests of the Kingdom of God. Organizations, some of them great in numbers and resources, now independent of the Church, yet instinct with its life, now dependent upon its membership for support, and yet seeking neither counsel nor direction from it, should hail the new conditions with gladness and enter into that larger unity, in which diversities of gifts, and differences of administrations, under the power of the Spirit of God, shall be instruments of unity and agents for coöperative work, welding the whole Church into a true brotherhood, and hastening the day when the world shall acknowledge Jesus Christ as the divine Lord and Saviour.

The Federal Council stands not only for the unification of the resources and energies of the Christian Church, but also for the unity of its purposes and work. The Church has one faith, one Lord, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in all. This real spiritual unity emphasizes God's love for the world, and His desire that all men should be saved and come unto the knowledge of the truth. It also involves the obligation upon Christians to be of one mind with God. These unities are further the basis of an appeal by the whole Church for the whole work of the whole Church. Appeals in the past have been made, as a rule, by a part of the Church for a part of its work. The spirit of the Church, under the divine guidance, is awakening in these days to the universality of its purposes and work. No better illustration of this fact can be given than the present Laymen's Missionary Movement, with its informing and inspiring power for the winning to Christ of the whole non-Christian world. What the Laymen's Movement means for Foreign Missions, the Federal Council means for all Christian work. It means unity in spirit, in plan, in appeal, in effort, for the salvation of the world for which Christ died and for the completion of whose redemption He lives and reigns. It means the daily and increasing influence in Christian thinking and work, of the ideas of one God, one Saviour, one Church, one beneficent purpose, and one crowning result.

In the preparatory work for the Federal Council this Church has had a large and influential part, and it will be remembered that the First General Council was held in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa. The Council needs for the maintenance of its work at present $20,000 per annum, and the proportionate share of this Church in that amount is not large. The Assembly is requested to authorize the payment, for this purpose, for the year ending March 31, 1911, of the sum of $1,350, being $50 for each 50,000 of the membership of the Church.

The Committee recommends the following resolutions for adoption by the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly congratulates the Federal Council upon the progress which it has made in the manifestation of the real spiritual unity of all who believe in and serve Jesus Christ, the only Divine and all-sufficient Saviour of men; and expresses the hope that its work will result in bringing together into unity of purpose and action all the divisions of the Church of the Living God.

Resolved, 2. That there be paid to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America the sum of $1,350, as the apportionment of this Church for the expenses of said Council, for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1911.

V. Matters Connected with the Reunion of 1906.

1. There are two matters connected with the reunion of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., which are submitted for action by the Assembly.

(a) Overture referred to the Committee by the Assembly.

Overture No. 40, from the Presbytery of Nashville, was referred to the Committee by the General Assembly (see Minutes, 1909, p. 41), and was an Overture for the relief of the churches of Tennessee. Inasmuch as the whole matter of the relief of these churches was referred by the Assembly to the Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection, the Committee felt that no action was necessary on its part, other than to express to the Committee appointed by the above-named Boards, the deep interest in and willingness of all our members to coöperate in their labor of love.

(b) Statement as to the relations of Church and State and Religious Liberty.

Certain recent judicial decisions connected with the Reunion of 1906 require a statement of the historical position of this Church upon the relations of Church and State and upon religious liberty.

The place of the Christian Church as a factor in the body politic known as the United States of America has always been important, and its importance has grown with the growth of the Republic. In the Colonial epoch of the American people, establishments of religion were found in a number of the Colonies, and were chiefly of the Congregational or Episcopal Churches. The only Church of the Presbyterian family which was for a time a State Church, was the Reformed Dutch Church prior to the conquest of New York by the English, in 1664. Along with the establishments of religion there were many legal restraints laid upon so-called dissenters, and while the increasing trend in all the colonies was, from year to year, toward civil and religious liberty, yet the situation became so strained that in 1766 the Synod of the Presbyterian Church and the General Association of Connecticut entered into a Plan of Union, and established a General Convention, meeting annually until 1775, one of whose purposes was, to "preserve the religious liberties of the Churches," as against the proposals made to the British Government for the appointment of Bishops for America. One of the influential causes of the American Revolution was the pressure from certain quarters for the extension of the hierarchy of the Church of England to the Colonies.

When American independence was proclaimed in 1776 the State Church was doomed, and while some of the States still favored, to a certain extent, establishments of religion, yet public opinion was so powerful that the Constitution of the United States was amended in 1791, and provided specifically that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievance." [Amendments, Article i.]

With this idea of complete liberty in religion the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has always been in accord. As early as 1729, its General Synod, when adopting the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms as the Church creed, took exception to certain statements therein, found in Chapters xx and xxiii, unanimously declaring "that they do not receive those articles in any such sense as to suppose the Civil Magistrate hath a controlling power over Synods with respect to the exercise of their ministerial authority; or power to persecute any for their religion" (Minutes, General Synod, p. 95).

In 1786 the General Synod made the following declaration: "The Presbyterian Church in America considers the Church of Christ as a spiritual society, entirely distinct from the civil government, having a right to regulate their own ecclesiastical policy, independently of the interposition of the magistrate" (Minutes, General Synod, p. 519).

These declarations, concerning the independence of the Church in matters ecclesiastical, the lack of power in the State to persecute the professors of any religion, and the right of the citizen to the full and free exercise of his voluntarily chosen religion, were given a positive form in the amendments to Chapter xxiii of the Westminster Confession adopted by the General Synod in 1788. That Chapter entitled "Of the Civil Magistrate" as amended, recognizes in Section i, that "God, the Supreme Lord and King of all the world, hath ordained civil magistrates to be under him over the people, for his own glory and the public good." Having thus acknowledged the divine origin of the State, and its responsibility to God, the Confession then proceeds to assert the Scriptural doctrine as to the limitations and duties of civil magistrates, in Section iii, in the following terms:

"Civil magistrates may not assume to themselves the administration of the Word and Sacraments; or the power of the keys of the kingdom of heaven; or, in the least, interfere in matters of faith. Yet, as nursing fathers, it is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the Church of our common Lord, without giving the preference to any denomination of Christians above the rest, in such a manner that all ecclesiastical persons whatever shall enjoy the full, free, and unquestioned liberty of discharging every part of their sacred functions, without violence or danger. And, as Jesus Christ hath appointed a regular government and discipline in his Church, no law of any commonwealth should interfere with, let, or hinder, the due exercise thereof, among the voluntary members of any denomination of Christians, according to their own profession and belief. It is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the person and good name of all their people, in such an effectual manner as that no person be suffered, either upon pretence of religion or of infidelity, to offer any indignity, violence, abuse, or injury to any other person whatsoever: and to take order, that all religious and ecclesiastical assemblies be held without molestation or disturbance."

We have here explicitly set forth the following declarations: That the State has no power over the Church in matters that are purely Churchly, and that it is the duty of the State to protect every religious denomination equally with every other, to pass no law which could interfere with full religious liberty, and to protect the person and good name of all their people, whatever their religious views. And all this is declared, not as a matter of human opinion, but as based upon the law of God. This Church stands firmly upon the doctrine that the Holy Bible, as the Word of God, is the supreme law for both Church and State, that each has its God-given limitations and duties, and that each is to keep within its own jurisdiction.

In this connection, further, it is to be noted, that the divine source and sanction of human liberty are set forth in the famous declaration as to the rights of conscience contained in Chapter xx, Section i, of the Confession of Faith, which reads, "God alone is lord of the conscience, and hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are in anything contrary to his word, or beside it, in matters of faith or worship."

Definitely the Confession declares that in matters of faith, God is the only supreme authority, and that His law as set forth in the Holy Bible is supreme over the conscience. The State, in the judgment of the Church, has no authority in religion, and the attempt of any State, or any agency of the State, to interfere in matters of faith is an encroachment on the rights of conscience.

With this general trend of thought and action on the part of the Church, the American Republic, both in legislation and judicial decision, has shown increasing sympathy since Independence. Of course, it was to be expected, after 1776, that influences would continue to be brought to bear upon the American State, more in line with the European standards lawful in the Colonies prior to that year, than with the triumphant American ideas of the proper separation of the Church from the State, and of full religious liberty. It was only by degrees that uniformity in legislation in this respect was obtained, and to-day New Hampshire still retains the word Protestant in its Constitution, and Connecticut provides for the collection of Church dues by the assessors. Some States also in their judicial decisions still cling to European precedents, and claim the right for their courts of law to determine questions of doctrine, and to control the ministerial authority of Church judicatories. It would appear that they accept as final the decisions of the House of Lords, in London, England, rather than those of the majority of American courts of justice, at their head the Supreme Court of a free people, sitting in the Capitol of this Republic.

The situation which has recently developed in connection with this matter emphasizes the need that this Church should continue to exercise its influence for the maintenance of American views as to the relations of Church and State, and as to the source, the sanction and nature of religious liberty as maintained in this Republic. The American Presbyterian Church stood historically for these ideas, as already intimated, throughout the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, and as the twentieth century opens before the Christian Churches of our country, it is time that not only this Church, but all Churches, should act together in the vindication of their inherent religious rights. These rights are interwoven into the texture of the national life; are a part of the Republic's unwritten as well as written Constitution; and are also a part of those natural rights which belong to every American citizen and every religious society, being rights reserved by the people to themselves. The use of these rights may be regulated by law, but law cannot be used for their modification or overthrow. When courts assume to impair the natural and reserved rights of American citizens, by asserting the power to declare authoritatively what is the nature of the religious belief of a Church or an individual, then every religious society and every American citizen is entitled in lawful ways to seek and secure rightful remedies. Judicial decisions which interfere with the Churches, "in the least in matters of faith," and seek to declare the character of the beliefs of religious societies or of individual Christians, are not sustained by His authority who alone is Lord of the Conscience.

It is desirable that the issue raised should be distinctly apprehended, both from the side of the State as well as of the Church.

The Supreme Court of the United States in Watson vs. Jones, 13 Wall, 679, expressed fully the American doctrine in the matter with which we deal. From the decision in this case the following quotation suffices:

"In this class of cases we think the rule of action which should govern the civil courts, founded in a broad and sound view of the relations of Church and State under our system of laws, and supported by a preponderating weight of judicial authority, is that, whenever the questions of discipline or of faith or ecclesiastical rule, custom or law, have been decided by the highest of these Church judicatories to which the matter has been carried, the legal tribunals must accept such decisions as final and as binding on them in their application to the case before them.

"We concede at the outset that the doctrine of the English courts is otherwise. In the case of the Attorney General against Pearson, cited before, the proposition is laid down by Lord Eldon and sustained by the Peers, that it is the duty of the court in such cases to inquire and decide for itself not only what was the nature and power of these Church judicatories, but what is the true standard of faith in the Church organization, and which of the contending parties before the court holds to this standard. And in the subsequent case of Craigdallie vs. Aikman, 2 Bligh, 529, the same learned judge expresses in strong terms his chagrin that the Court of Sessions of Scotland, from which the case had been appealed, had failed to find on this latter subject, so that he could rest the case on religious belief, but had declared that in this matter there was no difference between the parties.

"And we can very well understand how the Lord Chancellor of England who, in his office, is in a large sense, the head and representative of the Established Church, who controls very largely the Church patronage, and whose judicial decision may be, and not infrequently is, invoked in cases of heresy and ecclesiastical contumacy, should feel, even in dealing with a dissenting Church, but little delicacy in grappling with the most abstruse problems of theological controversy, or in construing the instruments which those Churches have adopted as their rules of government, or inquiring into their customs and usages. The dissenting Church in England is not a free Church, in the sense in which we apply the term in this country; and it was much less free in Lord Eldon's time than now. Laws then existed upon the statute book, hampering the free exercise of religious belief and worship in many most oppressive forms; and though Protestant dissenters were less burdened than Catholics and Jews, there did not exist that full, entire and practical freedom for all forms of religious belief and practice which lies at the foundation of our political principles.

"In this country the full and free right to entertain any religious belief, to practice any religious principle, and to teach any religious doctrine, which does not violate the laws of morality and property and which does not infringe personal rights, is conceded to all. The law knows no heresy, and is committed to the support of no dogma, the establishment of no sect. The right to organize voluntary religious associations, to assist in the expression and dissemination of any religious doctrine, and to create tribunals for the decision of controverted questions of faith within the association, and for the ecclesiastical government of all the individual members, congregations and officers within the general association, is unquestioned. All who unite themselves to such a body do so with an implied consent to this government, and are bound to submit to it. But it would be a vain consent, and would lead to the total subversion of such religious bodies, if any one aggrieved by one of their decisions should appeal to the secular courts, and have them reversed. It is of the essence of these religious unions, and of their right to establish tribunals for the decision of questions arising among themselves, that those decisions should be binding in all cases of ecclesiastical cognizance, subject only to such appeals as the organism itself provides for."

In the legal issue, which has been raised over these fundamental principles, the Supreme Courts of the States of California, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, and Texas have given recent decisions in line with the historical position of this Church since 1729, of the Republic since 1789, and of the Supreme Court of the United States. In opposition to this position stand to-day the Courts of Missouri and Tennessee, both of which declare the English House of Lords to be better judicial authority than the Supreme Court of their own people. The language of the Supreme Court of Tennessee in this matter is as follows:

"As to the right of a civil court to question the jurisdiction of an ecclesiastical tribunal under its own constitution and laws, where property rights are asserted in the civil court, based upon the determination of the ecclesiastical court, we are aware that Watson vs. Jones, supra, lays down a rule different from that which we have indicated as the true rule. With great respect, we feel compelled to express the opinion that that case is, on the general question, opposed to the weight of authority and of reason."

A quotation from the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the State of Indiana, in the case of Ramsey et al. vs. Hicks et al., is pertinent. It says, "The Missouri court followed the Tennessee doctrine. Both these cases strongly rely upon the case of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, etc. The constitutional separation of Church and State in this country should make the English case, if similar upon its facts, of little persuasive force as an authority in an American court."

It is clear that the weight of American legal authority maintains the sole jurisdiction of Church courts in matters of faith.

While maintaining the rights of the Churches in matters of faith and Church procedure, it is recognized that in the cases which have been decided adversely to the validity of the Reunion, the claim of right to review the action of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was based upon precedents, in which civil courts have exercised said power of review on the ground that the Church court had "plainly violated" its own law, or had been guilty of "an open and avowed defiance of the original compact." Conceding that the final decision of a supreme ecclesiastical court, which has been reached by an "open, flagrant, avowed violation" of the Constitution of a Church, might be questioned in the civil courts when determining property rights, it is maintained that the fact of such disregard of its own Constitution ought to be clearly an "open, flagrant, avowed violation," not requiring labored argument to establish its probable or inferential existence, and ought to be confined solely to matters of property. If it should be urged that the highest court of any State, in determining such questions as have been brought before the State courts above mentioned, were dealing only with fundamental questions as to rights of property, the answer would be that assuming such to be the fact, their conclusions should not be reached by giving a construction to the Constitution of a Christian Church different from and antagonistic to the construction of such Constitution by the highest judicatory of said Church, in matters pertaining exclusively to ecclesiastical procedure and Church doctrine.

It is also to be noted that certain judicial decisions are not only opposed to the doctrine of the independence of the Church within its own sphere of action, but also that they definitely attempt to determine the character of the belief of the Presbyterian Church on particular doctrines, contrary to the precedents of both history and law. One State Supreme Court has judicially asserted that the Westminster Confession of Faith teaches fatality. This is not the first time this charge has been made against the Confession. It is a charge which has been repudiated by every one of the Christian denominations holding to the Westminster Confession as a doctrinal symbol. In view of it, it is time that the Church makes clear its judgment that when courts of justice undertake to determine the nature of a Church creed, or of a doctrine contained in the creed, they go outside their jurisdiction. What the individual opinion of a judge may be is one thing; what his decision as a judge shall be is another. The latter should be according to the law and usage of the land. And we hold it to be contrary to American law and usage for any court to pass upon the character of the creed of any Church per se, or of any doctrine in that creed as certain Supreme Courts acknowledge they have done. The voice of a supreme Church court is the final authority as to the nature of the doctrine of the Church of which it is the recognized head, and its decision should be binding upon the State. The General Assembly in 1906 made the following declaration:

"This Assembly specifically declares that, since the revision of 1903, by which the Confession of Faith was amended, by change of its text, by a declaratory statement and by additions, it is no longer allowable to interpret our system of doctrine in any fatalistic sense; nor are we willing to admit that such fatalistic interpretation was ever warranted, whatever misapprehension may have existed in the mind of any person." This declaration is in accordance with the decision of the highest legal authority in this Nation, and is to be everywhere received as the last word on the charge of fatalism made against the Confession of Faith. This is the voice of wisdom as well as right. Speaking of the great Christian Churches of the country, the United States Supreme Court (Watson vs. Jones, supra) says: 'It is not to be supposed that the judges of the civil courts can be as competent in the ecclesiastical law and religious faith of all these bodies as the ablest men in each are in reference to their own. An appeal from the ecclesiastical court would be an appeal from the more learned tribunal in the law which should decide the case to one which is less so.' "

Another important question that has come to the front, is the question whether Christian Churches can unite under the provisions of American law. We hold that it is contrary to the natural rights of American citizens for religious societies under the Constitution, laws, and usages of the Republic, to be hindered or interfered with in any manner in their efforts to come together as one body in Christ Jesus. Especially is this the case with the Churches of the Presbyterian family. Their differences are not fundamental but incidental, and the adjustment of them is a matter for themselves alone. The Christian Churches should be encouraged rather than hindered in efforts to make their unity manifest, and Churches of the same family should be sustained rather than repressed in their endeavors after federal or organic union. Courts of law should not become instruments of repression, nor continue to be the representatives of ideas in connection with religious liberty alien to the American State. Several of the Supreme Courts of the States, even that of Tennessee, recognize the inherent right of Christian Churches to unite. The following extract from a recent decision of the latter is interesting, for it reads, "There must be in every Church organization an implied or inherent power of union with other Church organizations, growing out of the purpose for which all are constituted, viz., the dissemination of the Christian religion. There is no soundness in the view that Church division once made must ever continue. If there be such a thing as a universal Church, of which all the divisions are members; if there be a tendency to unity in Christendom, and if this tendency is in accord with the spirit and purpose of Christianity—then the argument [against unity] can avail but little." (Landrith vs. Hodgins, p. 14.)

In connection with this Statement, in its exhibition and maintenance of the rights of the Church, attention is drawn to the rights of the State, as set forth in Chapter xxiii of the Confession of Faith, Section iv, which in part reads, "It is the duty of people to pray for magistrates, to honor their persons, to pay them tribute and other dues, to obey their lawful demands, and to be subject to their authority for conscience sake. Infidelity or difference in religion, doth not make void the magistrates' just and legal authority, nor free the people from their due obedience to him, from which ecclesiastical persons are not exempted." This Church has always been ready to render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's. Its history is that of a body of men and women, ever obedient to just laws, slow to appeal to unusual remedies, and preferring the ways of peace and the appeals of reason. It is to be remembered, however, that this Church believes that "the requiring of an implicit faith, and an absolute and blind obedience, is to destroy liberty of conscience, and reason also." (Confession of Faith, Chapter xx, Section ii).

With all respect, therefore, to the State and its agencies, but with as great respect for the rights of conscience, and with reverence towards God, the Supreme Lord and King of all the world, the Assembly adopts the following declarations:

1. The General Assembly, with reference to the charge of fatality repeatedly made, even by a civil court, with respect to the Confession of Faith of this Church, reaffirms the declaration of the Assembly of 1906, to wit: "This Assembly specifically declares that, since the revision of 1903, by which the Confession of Faith was amended, by change of its text, by a declaratory statement and by additions, it is no longer allowable to interpret our system of doctrine in any fatalistic sense; nor are we willing to admit that such fatalistic interpretation was ever warranted, whatever misapprehension may have existed in the mind of any person."

2. The General Assembly declares that Christian Churches have an inherent right to unite, arising out of their unity in Jesus Christ, their Supreme Head, and that no law should be passed, by any State, nor can any State pass laws, impairing or hindering this right in any manner, whether finding expression in efforts for coöperation, federation or organic union.

3. The General Assembly declares that the Civil Magistrate, that is, the State, to use the language of the Confession of Faith, may not in the least "interfere in matters of faith;" and that the separation of Church and State now effected everywhere in this nation, conjoined with the full religious liberty accorded to every American citizen as his natural right, in the language of the Supreme Court of the United States, involve "that whenever questions of discipline or of faith or ecclesiastical rule, custom, or law, have been decided by the highest Church judicatories to which the matter has been carried, the legal tribunals must accept such decisions as final, and as binding on them in their application to the case before them."

4. The General Assembly directs that copies of the preceding declarations be forwarded to the supreme governing or advisory bodies of the Churches in "The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America." In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

A Supplementary Report of the same Committee was adopted, as follows:

This year being the One Hundredth Anniversary of the organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which event occurred February 4, 1810; those constituting this One Hundred and Twenty-second General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. being the successors of those who participated, on each side, in the proceedings out of which grew the separation of one hundred years ago, and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church having become reunited with the Presbyterian Church in 1906, it is deemed eminently fitting that this historic event in the progress of Presbyterianism in this country should be commemorated by this General Assembly of the Reunited Church. Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That the members of this General Assembly recognize with gratitude and thanksgiving, what we believe to have been the leadings of Divine Providence that have resulted in the coming together of the mother and daughter after a separation of ninety-six years, the regret being that all the members of the Church did not see their way clear to remain in the Union which was declared duly consummated by the General Assemblies of the two Churches, May 24, 1906.

Resolved, 2. That we give devout thanks for the remarkably effective work done by this evangelistic and aggressive denomination of Presbyterians during the formative period of the Middle West and Southwest, when were laid by our common Presbyterianism, those foundations on which we are now steadily building, and on which we hope will ultimately stand the comprehensive structure of a united American Presbyterian Church.

Resolved, 3. That in the upbuilding of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and its subsequent reunion with the mother Church, we recognize the hand of our common Lord and Master, the great Head of the Church, guiding in the equipment of His forces for a broader evangelization in the home land, and for a world-wide evangelism which it is fondly hoped will make this century glorious in the spread of the Kingdom of Christ among all nations.

Addresses commemorative of the Centennial of the Organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church were delivered by Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., and Rev. James E. Clarke, D.D.

The Committee on Finance was granted leave to make corrections in its Report, which was accordingly done.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 27, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Executive Commission, in accordance with the direction of the Assembly, nominated the following Ruling Elders, living within one hundred miles of Philadelphia, to be members of the Permanent Finance Committee of the General Assembly, to take office October 1, 1910: T. Elliott Patterson, Esq., Philadelphia; Hon. William P. Potter, Swarthmore, Pa.; Hon. William M. Lanning, Trenton, N. J.; Mr. Henry L. Davis, Germantown, Philadelphia; J. H. Jefferis, Wayne, Pa.

Prof. Arnold W. Fismer, of the Bloomfield Theological Seminary, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of that institution.

The Special Committee on the Training of the Ministry, through its Chairman, Rev. J. Ritchie Smith, D.D., presented its Report, which was amended and adopted as follows:

The Committee on the Training of the Ministry respectfully submits the following Report:

The Committee consists of: Ministers—J. Ritchie Smith, Chairman; David G. Wylie, William H. Foulkes, and Ulysses S. Greves, with Ruling Elders—Pres. Charles W. Dabney, Hon. A. Judd Northrop, Rear Admiral John C. Watson, and Pres. John S. Nollen; and the duty assigned it is "to consider the whole matter of the training of our young men for an efficient ministry; the subject to be considered in its relations to our present and urgent social need, the work of the mission field at home and abroad, and the business methods of practical church administration. The Committee shall also report upon the opportunities now offered in our Church for Bible training for lay workers, the Committee to report to the next General Assembly."

The Committee has held three meetings, and has conducted an extensive correspondence.

We count it at once a duty and a pleasure to express our appreciation of the magnificent service that the Seminaries are rendering to the Church and the Kingdom. We honor the godly and learned men who are set to teach, the directors and trustees who give unselfishly and unsparingly of their time and wisdom and strength to the work, and we rejoice in the great company of earnest and devoted young men who are there trained to preach the gospel of salvation. We should be most ungrateful if we failed to recognize the importance of the task committed to our Seminaries, and the energy and efficiency with which they fulfil their trust.

Our duty is not discharged, however, with these words of praise. The office of the critic is of high importance, and after we have said of any work, "Well done!" the question recurs, How may it be better done? To this question we must now turn.

I. The General Situation.

It it evident that there is wide-spread dissatisfaction with the methods and results of theological education. Letters were sent by the Committee to about 600 ministers, including the professors in our Seminaries, and to about 500 laymen, representing all sections of the country and all interests of the Church, submitting a list of questions bearing on the subject, and the answers, as will soon appear, give striking evidence of discontent with prevailing systems. Nor is this criticism merely captious or unintelligent. Much of it comes from those who are most intimately associated with the Seminaries.

If we would deal fairly with the subject, however, certain considerations must be borne in mind.

1. This feeling of dissatisfaction is not directed against the Seminaries alone. It is part of a general unrest that pervades the educational world. Schools, colleges, universities, Sunday-schools, are all under fire. The principles and methods of education in general are in controversy, and the Seminaries share the common fate of institutions of every grade.

2. The Seminaries are not alone to blame for defects in theological education. Lack of training in the home, the school, the college, the church, is largely responsible for them. The Seminaries would do better work if they were provided with better material.

This matter is dealt with in the Report of the Committee on Religious Education, presented to the last Assembly.

Let parents train their children in the fear and service of God. Let the Church devote its choicest young men to the ministry. Let our colleges, founded and maintained in large measure for the purpose of preparing a godly ministry, count it a sacred trust to foster the spiritual life of those committed to their care, and to order the study of those who are looking forward to the gospel ministry, with particular reference to their high calling. Let presbyteries be watchful in seeking and careful in receiving candidates, and diligent in superintending their education. Through neglect of these duties a burden is thrown upon the Seminaries that they should not be called upon to bear.

But after all due allowance is made, the fact remains that there is directed against the Seminaries a large and weighty body of criticism, which must be fairly met.

The main ground of complaint is that the education furnished is not practical; that too much attention is given to the controversies of the past, too little to the needs of the present; that theological education is scholastic, lacks inspiration, adaptation, and deals too largely with dead languages and dead subjects; that the Seminaries are ignorant of social conditions and problems, or indifferent to them; that the student learns something of books, nothing of men, nothing of the world in which he is to do his work; and the result is inefficiency in and out of the pulpit.

That there is truth in the charge cannot be denied.

The answers received from those to whom our questions were sent are full of interest and instruction. Of nearly 300 ministers who replied five find no serious defects in present Seminary training; 220 complain that it is not practical enough, men are not properly trained for the pulpit and the pastorate.

The questions and answers are given in detail. Those answers only are noted which were returned by a considerable number.

Answers by Ministers.

1. What studies of your Seminary course have you found most useful?

New Testament Exegesis, 146. Systematic Theology, 133. Church History, 119. Homiletics, 98. Old Testament Exegesis, 83. Pastoral Theology, 39. Christian Evidences and Apologetics, 31. Biblical Theology, 28. English Bible, 23.

2. In the light of your experience as a pastor, what are the chief defects in the present Seminary training?

Not practical enough, 172. Lack of training in English Bible, 52. Lack of training in preaching, 25. Lack of training for personal work, 24.

3. What changes should be made in the course of study?

Training should be more practical, 64. More English Bible, 25. Less Hebrew, 11. More elective studies, 11. None, 4.

4. Should Hebrew and Greek be in whole or in part elective studies?

Yes, 113. The large majority of this number think they should be elective in part only. No, 92. In exceptional cases only, 18.

5. Should the requirement of a Latin thesis be maintained?

Yes, 47. No, 220.

6. Should an exclusively English course be accepted for ordination?

Yes, 60. No, 81. Only in exceptional cases, 132.

7. How may students be trained in "business methods of practical church administration"?

By association with pastors and churches, 64. By professor of pastoral theology, 59. By practice, 59. By addresses by pastors, 58. By addresses by business men, 23.

8. Should the Seminary course be lengthened—

a. By requiring more hours per week?

Yes, 40. No, 181.

b. By requiring more weeks in the year?

Yes, 76. No, 146.

c. By extending the course to four years?

Yes, 79. No, 141.

9. What new studies should be introduced in the Seminary course?

Sociology, 122. Methods of church work, 64. English Bible, 45. Pedagogy and Sunday-school work, 44. Missions, 30. Psychology, 28. Evangelism, 20. Hymnology, 17. None, 11.

10. How far should students be required to engage in some form of practical church work as a part of their Seminary training?

This should form part of Seminary training, under proper restrictions, 123.

11. Have you any further suggestions to make?

There should be improvement in the professors, 21.

Answers by Laymen.

About 200 laymen responded, and their answers are significant.

1. In your experience, are our Seminaries training their students to do effective preaching?

If not, can you indicate what are the defects?

Yes, 84. No, 55.

2. Do you find that the preaching of the young ministers now coming from our Seminaries is true to the evangelical standards of the Church?

Yes, 131. No, 21.

3. What type or types of preaching do you consider most necessary and effective–expository, doctrinal, evangelistic, ethical?

Evangelistic, 110. Expository, 89. Doctrinal, 24. Ethical, 24.

4. Is the preaching of our young ministers to-day adapted to the winning of men?

Yes, 55. No, 77.

If not, why not?

The main defects alleged are that their preaching is not direct and practical enough; lack of consecration and spiritual power; lack of elocutionary training.

5. Is the minister, as he is trained to-day, alive to the opportunities and responsibilities of—

a. The work of the Sunday-school, Bible classes, Men's, and Young People's Societies?

Yes, 96. No, 53.

b. The work among those outside the church?

Yes, 52. No, 91.

c. The work among the wage-earners?

Yes, 32. No, 98.

d. The work of organizations allied to the Church, such as the Christian Associations?

Yes, 100. No, 32.

e. All the great missionary activities of the Church, home and foreign?

Yes, 110. No, 31.

6. Is the ministry being trained effectively in "business methods of practical church administration?"

Yes, 41. No, 87. Too much so, 3.

If this furnishes any indication of the mind of the Church at large, certainly the situation is far from satisfactory. Our system of theological education is not meeting the needs or satisfying the judgment of the Church.

Further Considerations.

Here again there are considerations to be borne in mind, in addition to those already mentioned, before we visit the Seminaries with too sweeping condemnation.

1. The difficulty arising from lack of uniform preparation in those who enter the Seminary, due in great measure to the prevalence of the elective system in our colleges. The training which should have been received in preparatory stages is thrown upon the Seminaries. The old fixed curriculum of the Seminary must yield to a more flexible course. A college diploma no longer uniformly represents the old classical discipline, and the Seminary must recognize the change in its own curriculum.

2. There is, again, the lack of money. Theological Seminaries differ from other educational institutions in making no charge for tuition. Most of the Seminaries are meagrely endowed, and the endowment they hold is mostly for fixed purposes, for certain chairs and courses of study. To establish new branches of study or enlarge the old is not an easy task. They may say, in answer to those who urge the introduction of new courses, "If you will kindly provide the means!"

3. It must be said that the Seminaries are not insensible to these criticisms, nor indifferent to the conditions that provoke them. The statement that "the course in the average Theological Seminary has remained the same from time immemorial," is not true of our Seminaries, nor of Seminaries in general. The criticism is belated. Whatever truth there may have been in it years ago, there is little now.

II. Changes in Seminary Curricula.

Each of our Seminaries was asked to indicate the changes that have been made in the course of study within recent years. The reports show that changes are many, and that they are uniformly in the direction of greater practical efficiency. The medieval is yielding to the modern spirit.

The list of changes is given below.

1. Princeton.

a. English Bible. b. Missions required. c. Extension work in New York and Philadelphia. Six Sundays must be spent by each student in investigation of various forms of church work, and he must make written and verbal reports. d. Extra curriculum study in methods of Christian work. e. The Fall Conference. The regular studies give place to addresses of a practical nature. f. A course in Greek for beginners. Further changes are in contemplation.

2. Auburn.

a. A new chair, Theism and Apologetics. b. Courses, required or elective, in Sociology, Sunday-school work, Religious Pedagogy, English Bible, Ecclesiology, Missions.

3. Western.

a. Comprehensive knowledge of the entire Bible, on the basis of the American Revision, with constant reference to the original tongues. b. Three new courses—(1) Social Teaching of the New Testament, (2) Christian Ethics and Sociology, (3) Missions. c. Radical changes in department of Practical Theology, to make it more thorough. Further changes are in contemplation.

4. Lane.

a. Sociology. b. Missions. c. English Bible.

5. Kentucky.

Courses in Biblical Theology of the Old and New Testaments. Other changes are in contemplation.

6. McCormick.

a. Elective courses larger and more comprehensive, covering various phases of modern life and work. b. Practical work in various kinds of city evangelization. c. English Bible.

7. San Francisco.

a. Department of English Bible, in care of the Professor of Practical Theology. b. A system of electives in all departments for students of the Middle and Senior years, requiring of them two hours a week in electives, the rest prescribed work. c. Hebrew elective after the Middle year. d. One hour a week in systematic theology for Juniors, two hours a week for Middlers, and three hours a week for Seniors, giving Biblical languages a proportionately larger place in the earlier, and smaller place in the later years. e. The Department of Practical Theology offers an elective on "The Sunday-school."

8. Dubuque.

a. Missions. b. Sunday-school Theory and Methods. c. Evangelism.

9. German Theological School of Newark, N. J.

a. Three departments—Hungarian and Italian, as well as German. b. Better course in English. c. Course in Natural Sciences. d. Course in Pedagogy and Philosophy.

10. Lincoln.

Course in Evangelism.

11. Biddle.

None have been made, but some are in contemplation.

12. Omaha.

a. Course in Christian Sociology. b. Elective courses in Religious Pedagogy and Bible-school work. c. Course in Presbyterian Home Missions. d. Elective course in Historical Home Missions. e. More time devoted to study of English Bible.

13. The Theological Seminary of the South and Southwest at Lebanon, Tenn., has been conducted during the past year by a committee appointed by the last Assembly (Minutes, p. 82). The work is at present in a transition state, and we can only express the hope that consolidation may be effected with the Kentucky Seminary at Louisville.

These are the facts. What should be done? Certainly we shall not presume to prescribe or even to propose a curriculum. That lies beyond the province of the Committee; nor is it desirable, if it were possible, that all our Seminaries should be compelled to furnish precisely the same course of instruction.

Yet there are certain general principles which should be kept steadily in view. And the mind of the Church as expressed in the action of the General Assembly cannot fail to receive the most serious attention from the governing bodies of our Seminaries, however independent they may be.

III. General Principles.

1. We are not prepared to lower the standard of ministerial education. There are exceptional classes of students, and for them provision is made:

a. In the discretionary powers of the presbytery.

b. In the Constitutional Rule regarding local evangelists, a class which has increased from 116 in 1900 to 247 in 1909. One of our Seminaries at least has a special course for them.

But in general the regular course in all our Seminaries should provide for such training in the original tongues of Scripture, and in the principles and methods of scientific exegesis, that the student shall be qualified for independent study of the Word.

Yet there are two directions in which the present requirement of the ancient languages might be modified to advantage.

a. We should no longer require the Latin exegesis. In answer to the question whether it should be retained, 47 of those to whom our questions were submitted answered "Yes," and 220 answered "No." It is true that according to the decision of the General Assembly, Minutes, 1893, p. 117, the Presbytery has power under the provisions of the Form of Government, Chap. XIV. 5, to substitute an essay or other exercise in English: but why should a rule be maintained upon the statute book which may at any time be set aside, and which in the general judgment "has become a farce?"

b. The study of Hebrew might well be made elective during part of the course.

2. The main office of the Seminary is not to train specialists, but pastors and preachers. For the specialist provision is properly made by elective and graduate courses. The curriculum of the Seminary should be prepared with primary reference to the average minister. It should seek to train the average man for the average church. Men of exceptional ability must have every opportunity to develop and train their gifts, but the greater part of the work of the Church and of the world is done by ordinary men in humble places. The training of these men for these places is the main concern of the Church in theological education.

We recognize with gratitude the progress already made, and we believe that further improvement may be sought in two directions.

a. In increased range and variety of elective courses, affording opportunity, especially in the senior year, to make special preparation for particular fields of labor at home and abroad. In some cases, especially where the Seminary is allied with a University, the student who expects to go to the foreign field might substitute the language of the country in which he is about to labor for Hebrew during his senior year.

Some of our Seminaries are already moving in the direction of greater freedom of choice.

b. In the fixed curriculum there is undoubtedly need of adjustment to modern thought and conditions. There is danger of overloading the curriculum, and if new studies are to be introduced room must be found either by extending the time devoted to study, or by giving less time to courses already provided. Two at least of our Seminaries offer an optional fourth year course. This plan we commend to the careful consideration of all our Seminaries.

3. The branches of theological discipline of primary importance are Exegesis, including the English Bible; Biblical and Systematic Theology; and Pastoral Theology, including Homiletics—the investigation, the coördination, and the application of Scripture truth. Other branches of learning, however important, are secondary.

IV. Weak Points.

From these general considerations we may proceed to note what appear to us to be the weak points in Seminary training and life. Here of course we must speak in general terms, and the criticisms apply with varying force to different Seminaries. No Seminary is beyond reach of criticism, and no Seminary is equally open to criticism at all points.

I. Lack of spiritual culture.

That this is wholly neglected is certainly not true, but it does not hold the place that its importance demands.

No ex officio grace belongs to the minister. He is not good by virtue of his order. He is exposed to the same temptations as other men, and must grow in grace by the use of the same means. Seclusion for a time is necessary, but it has its perils. It is not easy to maintain a vigorous, robust, manly Christianity in a scholastic retreat. There is danger, on the one side, of indolence, when there is no immediate and urgent necessity that compels to labor; and of mere intellectualism, on the other. The minister must be primarily a man of God. The end of theological education is not scholarship, but practical efficiency in the service of the Kingdom. No amount of learning will make a godly man or an efficient minister. Education without consecration, learning without love, is barren. "Knowledge puffeth up, love buildeth up."

One of our Seminaries has a course in Spiritual Culture. Every Seminary should seek with all earnestness to foster the spiritual life of the students, and to this end we suggest:

1. That professors cultivate more intimate personal acquaintance with the students under their care. The professor should be pastor as well as teacher, and regard himself as charged with the care of the soul as well as the training of the mind. Let professors be given pastoral charge of groups of students, and watch over their souls as they that shall give account.

2. It should be constantly kept before the students in the classroom that knowledge is not to be sought for its own sake, but as a means of spiritual culture and efficient service.

3. The professors should enlist and direct the students in various forms of Christian service. This should be an essential part of Seminary training. The choice and extent of work should not be left to the discretion of the student, but it should be assigned him in such kind and measure that, without serious interference with his studies, it may furnish the needed spiritual discipline and practical training. There are forms of truth which are thoroughly mastered only in the endeavor to apply them. We must guard most sedulously against professionalism, everything that tends to estrange men from the world in which they live. Knowledge is vitalized as it is put to service. We must train our students for our churches, and not away from them. Some of our Seminaries are doing admirable work in this direction.

The constant complaint of the low spiritual condition of the Church, which we all recognize and deplore, ought to drive us ministers and elders to ask how far we are responsible for it. And the same inquiry ought to press upon the minds and hearts of the authorities of our Seminaries.

II. Imperfect knowledge of the Bible.

There should be not only a scholarly acquaintance with Scripture truth, but intimate knowledge of its uses and applications. The student must know it in its adaptation first to his own needs, and then to the needs of others.

The exegesis of Scripture in the original is essential, but of necessity partial. If Bible study is confined to the Hebrew and the Greek, the student's acquaintance with the Bible must be fragmentary. The Bible, the whole Bible, must be studied in our mother tongue. This is absolutely essential if the man of God is to be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. It is not sufficient that the student should be acquainted, however intimately with certain portions of the Word; he should have a broad, comprehensive knowledge of the outlines of Scripture history and doctrine from Genesis to Revelation, and this is possible only through the study of the English Bible throughout the entire Seminary course.

More time should be given to the study of the Bible itself, and less to the theories of men regarding it. Certainly we are not to be ignorant of the labors of other men, but our chief concern is to hear the voice of God. The views even of the latest and ablest critics are not so important as the thought of Moses and David and Isaiah and Paul and John. The best defense and interpretation of the Bible is the Bible itself. While therefore we do not undervalue the research and thought of men, we must remember that nothing can take the place of direct and prayerful study of the Word. We catch the inspiration of the truth when we meet God face to face in His Word, when, like the disciples on the holy mount, we see Jesus only.

The Church is calling for the preaching and teaching of the Word of God in its simplicity and saving power. To the question, "What type or types of preaching do you consider most necessary and effective—expository, doctrinal, evangelistic, ethical?" 24 laymen answered, "doctrinal;" 24, "ethical;" 89, "expository;" 110, "evangelistic."

Our Seminaries are not indifferent to this need. Most of them make some provision for it, and in some cases the need is fairly met. But in general there is still large room for improvement. The course of study in the English Bible should be regarded as of primary importance, and given a place in the curriculum second to no other.

III. Ignorance of the world.

The student should know something of the conditions which he must meet when he enters upon his life-work. Much preaching is ineffective because it beats the air, deals with conditions which have ceased to exist, treats of themes which no longer engage the thoughts of men. Truth is unchanging in its essence, but endlessly varied in its forms and applications.

1. The student should know something of the Church he is to serve. He should be acquainted in considerable degree with its history, constitution, organization, policy, methods of work. The Sunday-school, for example, should receive far more attention than it usually does. This is particularly important because of the lack of home training and the exclusion of religion from the public schools. The youth of our Church and our land are receiving most of their religious training in the Sunday-school. And one of the most hopeful signs of the times is the rapid increase in the number of adult classes. The work of the Sunday-school can no longer be regarded as of inferior importance, or committed to any chance comer. It is the greatest work in which the Church is engaged, fundamental to all its activity, the very spring of its life and power, and calls for the service of trained men and women, the best that the Church can give.

There has been a great and gratifying change in the attitude of the Seminaries toward the Sunday-school in recent years. In 1908, 125 Seminaries throughout the country were asked what instruction was given upon this subject. 104 responded, and only 12 of these reported no instruction. The students of the last generation might say, "We have not so much as heard whether there be any Sunday-school." Most of our Seminaries furnish courses, required or elective, in Sunday-school work, but there are some of them which find no place for it, so far as the catalogues indicate; and in general it must be said that it does not receive the attention that it deserves.

2. He should know something of the world in which he is to play his part, the conditions, needs, temper of the age. This is quite as important as the knowledge of doctrinal controversies of which the ashes have long since grown cold.

If the answers already cited to the questions proposed by the Committee are indicative of the mind of the Church, it appears that the training of the Seminaries generally is not satisfactory in this regard. The student is not taught how to apply the knowledge he acquires to the needs of men, is not made acquainted with the problems and spirit of the age that he is called to serve. This criticism by no means applies with equal force to all of our Seminaries. Some of them recognize and are endeavoring to meet the need.

IV. Lack of voice culture and elocutionary training.

This, again, is not a matter of small concern, but is vitally related to the work of the minister. It is important not only to have a message to deliver, but to know how to deliver it. There are many men who have failed to wield the influence to which their ability entitled them, because they had never learned how to speak the truth with which mind and heart were richly stored. The voice, too, must be consecrated to God. Not every man may become a great orator, but every man may be trained to speak clearly and impressively, so that the truth shall gain and not lose in power by passing through his lips.

This is by no means neglected by our Seminaries, but greater importance should be attached to it, and more frequent practice in elocution should be required.

V. Reports of Sub-Committees.

The reports of various sub-Committees are here summarized, in so far as they suggest the recommendations that follow. They are printed in full for information in an Appendix to the Report.

a. Sub-Committee on Bible Training Schools for Lay Workers.

Greater attention should be paid to the training of men and women for the service of the Church, outside the ministry. The Bible Teachers' Training School of New York reports that the demand for lay workers far exceeds the supply. The Deaconess Home in Baltimore, last year, with six graduates, received 273 applications for deaconess workers. There is a class of men not qualified or inclined to enter the ministry who are yet competent and eager to engage in various forms of Christian service. Some of our churches have men of this kind at work, but ordinarily they have had no regular training, and have no recognized position or official standing. Let such men be thoroughly trained, set apart to the work, employed under the direction of the Session. A great work might be done by men of this class, if the Church were careful to choose, educate, and employ them. And equal care should be given to the training and employment of Christian women.

Some of our Seminaries make provision for the training of lay-workers. This is a field in which they may render rich service to the Church and the world.

A recommendation to this effect was adopted by the General Assembly of last year (Minutes, p. 164).

b. Sub-Committee on Consolidation of Seminaries.

It appears that our Seminaries in general originated in local needs or demands, and that they were placed, as they were organized, with little reference to the judgment of the Church at large. There seems to be, with perhaps a single exception, no insuperable legal obstacle in the way of consolidation. Certain gifts might be imperiled, and the question arises whether in some cases the benefits of consolidation would not warrant the sacrifice of existing trusts, if necessary. It does not appear, for example, that with modern facilities for travel three theological Seminaries of our Church should be maintained within a radius of 450 miles.

c. Sub-Committee to Inquire what is the Authority of the General Assembly over the Seminaries of our Church, particularly with Respect to their Curricula.

It appears that the degree of the Assembly's control over our Seminaries varies so widely that it is not possible, if it were desirable, for the Assembly to enjoin upon them specific courses of study. Whether the powers of the Assembly should be enlarged is a question that agitated the mind of the Church some years ago, and that we do not feel called upon to re-open.

d. Sub-Committee on Requirements for Admission to Seminaries.

The requirement of a regular college course, or its equivalent, is no longer satisfactory in view of the prevalence of the elective system. The Seminaries should make specific requirements, indicating precisely the studies that must be pursued, as is done by colleges and medical schools, and should endeavor by united action, similar to that of our schools of medicine, to throw the burden of preparatory training upon the colleges. This work can be done and ought to be done by the colleges, and the relation between college and Seminary should be close enough to secure this most desirable end. Certainly our Presbyterian colleges at least would gladly lend their aid.

VI. Recommendations.

1. The Assembly declares its judgment that the primary purpose of the Theological Seminary is not scholarship, but practical efficiency in the service of the Kingdom. If truth is in order to goodness, scholarship is in order to character and service. Education should be directed with this end in view.

2. The Assembly charges the professors of our Seminaries to exercise watchful and loving pastoral care over the young men whom they are set to teach, that the students may grow not only in knowledge but in grace and spiritual power. Systematic provision should be made for this, for instance, by dividing the students into groups, and placing each group in charge of an instructor.

3. The Assembly believes that some form of Christian service is an essential part of the training of students for the ministry, and that it should be inspired and directed by the Seminary.

Every student should be trained, for example, by theory and practice in the principles and methods of Sunday-school work.

4. In the judgment of the Assembly, the curriculum of every Seminary should include a required course of thorough training in the English Bible, so that the student shall acquire a general and comprehensive knowledge of the Word of God in all its parts. And this study should not be exegetical merely, but devotional and practical as well, that the student's own spiritual life may be nourished, and that he may be apt to teach, rightly divining the word of truth.

5. The Assembly believes that provision should be made by all our Seminaries for the study of social conditions and problems, either by a special course or as part of the work in practical theology.

6. The Assembly believes it highly expedient that the students in our Seminaries should be instructed in business methods of church administration, and in the practical activities of the Church, including the mission field at home and abroad.

7. The Assembly counsels the Seminaries to require preparation in certain specified branches of learning as the condition of entrance. And that this may be done, united action should be taken by the Seminaries to secure the coöperation of the colleges in furnishing definite and specific preparatory training for those who are looking forward to the ministry.

8. The Assembly calls attention to the need of trained Christian workers outside the ministry, and commends the careful consideration of this need to the authorities of our Seminaries. Training for all forms of Christian service should be provided by the Church, and the Seminaries may find here a rich field of usefulness, a field which some of them are already beginning to cultivate.

9. We recommend that the following overtures be sent down to the presbyteries:

A. Shall Chapter XV, Section XI, of the Form of Government be amended by adding after the first sentence the following words:

"And the presbytery shall ordinarily require the diploma of a theological seminary reporting to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

B. (Referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.)

10. The Assembly believes that the Seminaries should so arrange their curricula as to afford opportunity, especially in the senior year, for specific preparation for particular fields of labor at home and abroad.

11. Some of our Seminaries are placed within a few hours' travel of each other. In the judgment of the Assembly they should seriously consider the feasibility of consolidation, inquiring whether one strong institution may not accomplish more for the Church and the world than two or three which are relatively weak. The question should also be carefully considered whether in some cases Seminaries might not with advantage be converted into training-schools for Christian workers outside the ministry.

12. That the action of the faculties of our theological seminaries in recently holding a conference of their representatives, in harmony with the recommendation of the last General Assembly, their decision to hold such a conference annually for the consideration of matters covered by this Report, and other related questions as they may from time to time arise, be commended; and, further, that such conference be hereby duly authorized and recognized by the General Assembly, and that the Chairman of the conference be requested and instructed by this Assembly to present a Report to the next General Assembly, his necessary expenses incurred in attendance upon the sessions, of the Assembly, being hereby ordered paid from the funds of the General Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

J. Ritchie Smith, Chairman.

The Committee on the Training of the Ministry was discharged, with the thanks of the Assembly for its services.

The following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That inasmuch as Omaha Theological Seminary occupies a strategic position in the heart of the Home Mission territory, and has achieved a commendable success in the twenty years of its history, it should continue to receive increasingly the fostering care of the Church.

The Special Committee on Social Problems, through its Chairman, Rev. John McDowell, presented its Report, which was amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Social Problems would respectfully report to the General Assembly as follows:

The General Assembly of 1909 adopted a recommendation of its Committee on Bills and Overtures, which reads:

"It is recommended that the Moderator appoint a Committee of five ministers and five elders, to be called the Committee on Social Problems, whose duty it shall be to prepare, and to submit to the next Assembly, a deliverance which shall express the thought and purpose of our Church regarding the great moral questions arising out of the industrial and commercial life of the people, which deliverance shall concern itself, besides other things, with the application of the Gospel to the acquisition and use of wealth, to the relations between employer and employed, and between capital and labor, and to the existence of unnecessary poverty in a land where there is more than enough for all." (Minutes, 1909, p. 47.)

This action was taken in response to overtures from nine presbyteries, "asking for an Assembly deliverance expressive of the Church's sentiments touching moral questions relating to commercial and industrial life." Pursuant to this action, the Moderator appointed the Special Committee on Social Problems as follows: Ministers—John McDowell, Robert Hastings Nichols, Ph.D., Maitland Alexander, D.D., Robert Watson, D.D., Edgar P. Hill, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Edward T. Gilbert, Prof. Winthrop M. Daniels, Hon. William S. Bennet, M.C., Prof. Cheeseman A. Herrick, George W. Sutherland.

Present Social Conditions Requiring a Deliverance.

Your Committee is of the opinion that an authoritative declaration of the attitude of the Church upon these matters is imperative. The reasons for this opinion are these:

1. The industrial organization of society has attained, in the thought of our times, an importance which has never before attached to it. The urgent secular questions of the day are the questions of wealth and poverty, of luxury and want, of capital and labor, of peace and war. These all combine to create a strong demand for a social expression of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and this demand creates an obligation from which no Church bearing the name of Jesus Christ can consistently escape.

2. In the intellectual and social ferment over these issues, there often appears an open opposition to Christianity, involved in a materialistic philosophy which limits the scope of belief and action to the life which now is. A programme of exclusively external betterment is often declared to be synonymous with, or a sufficient substitute for, essential Christianity. Such a claim is in contradiction to the truth that "man shall not live by bread alone."

3. It is evident that the development and application of the moral and religious ideas of our time have not kept pace with industrial and commercial progress. Conscience is aroused, but perplexed, and the need exists for emphasizing in a more definite way the obligations of the different elements of society each to the others, and the interdependence of the parts of society each upon the others. The Church needs to teach with stronger conviction that men cannot live to themselves alone, and that they must not pursue their own gain in disregard of the rights and the welfare of others. With clearness and without hesitation the Church must affirm as the principle of social practice the fundamental teaching of Jesus, "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so also to them."

Your Committee recognizes that the Church has already agencies dealing with particular social problems, and to these existing agencies we give our endorsement, and for them we bespeak the prayers and the support of the Church.

Christianity in Relation to Present Social Problems.

We affirm that Christianity has largely created the present demands for social and economic justice, and for a larger realization of human rights and duties. But for the presence of Christian ideals in the world, the consciousness of such problems as are above mentioned would not exist. It is because of the leavening work of the Gospel of Jesus Christ that men discern the moral issues involved in economic relations. Our social problems, then, exist by reason of the operation of the fundamental principles of Christianity, and the Christian Church is therefore under an unmistakable obligation to contribute to their solution. The hope of the world now, as in the preceding nineteen centuries, is that, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Church may discern the truth, and the truth may have free course.

The Christian Solution of the Social Problem.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the final authority over all human life, in its social as well as in its individual aspects. We believe that righteousness can be realized in the complex conditions of modern life only through the application to all human affairs of the principles of the kingdom of God, as taught by Jesus Christ.

We believe that the Church is under imperative obligation to show how these Christian principles apply to human affairs. We believe that this teaching ought to be given by the Church definitely in relation to present practical conditions. Therefore, we hold that the time has come when the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America must speak its mind concerning particular problems now threatening society. We hold that our Church ought to declare:

1. For the acknowledgment of the obligations of wealth.

The Church declares that the getting of wealth must be in obedience to Christian ideals, and that all wealth, from whatever source acquired, must be held or administered as a trust from God for the good of fellow-man. The Church emphasizes the danger, ever imminent to the individual and to society as well, of setting material welfare above righteous life. The Church protests against undue desire for wealth, untempered pursuit of gain, and the immoderate exaltation of riches.

2. For the application of Christian principles to the conduct of industrial organizations, whether of capital or labor.

3. For a more equitable distribution of wealth.

We hold that the distribution of the products of industry ought to be made such that it can be approved by the Christian conscience.

4. For the abatement of poverty.

We realize that much poverty is due to vice, idleness or imprudence; but, on the other hand, we hold that much is due to preventable disease, uncompensated accidents, lack of proper education, and other conditions for which society is responsible, and which society ought to seek to remove. We believe that Christianity requires that adequate provision be made to relieve from want those, who through no fault of their own, but by reason of old age or incapacity, now suffer the brunt of losses incurred in the service of society as a whole.

5. For the abolition of child-labor—that is, the protection of children from exploitation in industry and trade, and from work that is dwarfing, degrading, or morally unwholesome.

6. For such regulation of the conditions of the industrial occupation of women as shall safeguard the physical and moral health of themselves, the community, and future generations.

7. For adequate protection of working people from dangerous machinery and objectionable conditions of labor, and from occupational disease.

8. For some provision by which the burden imposed by injuries and deaths from industrial accidents shall not be permitted to rest upon the injured person or his family.

9. For the release of every worker from work one day in seven.

The Church holds that in a Christian society these things should prevail: (a) One day of rest for every six days of work secured to every worker; (b) this one day of rest made to be, wherever possible, the Lord's Day; (c) the pay of every worker for six days' work made sufficient for the needs of seven days of living.

10. For such ordering of the hours and requirements of labor as to make them compatible with healthy physical, mental and moral life.

11. For the employment of the methods of conciliation and arbitration in industrial disputes.

12. For the removal of unsanitary dwellings and the relief or prevention of congestion of population, so that there may be the proper physical basis for Christian family life.

13. For the application of Christian methods in the care of dependent and incapable persons, by the adequate equipment and humane and scientific administration of public institutions concerned therewith.

14. For the development of a Christian spirit in the attitude of society toward offenders against the law.

The Church holds that a Christian society must seek the reformation of offenders, and that it must endeavor to prevent the commission of crimes by furnishing a wholesome environment, and by such education as will develop moral sense and industrial efficiency in the young.

We recommend:

1. That the General Assembly hereby urge the ministers of the Church to recognize and fulfill the obligations resting upon them as ministers of Jesus Christ, with respect to the social application of His Gospel; and that to this end it urge them—

(a) To inform themselves carefully regarding the conditions of human life in their own neighborhoods, particularly as these are affected by the conditions of industry.

(b) To acquaint their congregations with these facts.

(c) To instruct their congregations in the teachings of the Gospel regarding social service.

(d). To coöperate in every effort for the attainment of the ends for which our Church has declared itself.

2. That the General Assembly hereby request all who have charge of schools and colleges to make ample provision for instruction regarding the Christian ideal of society; and, further, that it request the governing bodies and faculties of theological seminaries to provide that the students in their care be taught the social principles of the Gospel, and trained in methods of applying these principles to the needs of the localities in which they shall be called to minister.

3. That the General Assembly hereby urge all the members of our churches to give serious study to social problems, and to avail themselves of their opportunities for social service; to bring the sense of justice and righteousness which is fundamental in Christianity to bear upon matters of everyday life, in business, in society, or wherever their influence may extend, and to create a Christian public sentiment demanding the removal of wrong wherever found.

4. That the General Assembly appoint a Bureau of Social Service, composed of ministers and elders, to serve without salary, whose duty it shall be to coöperate with similar organizations of other Churches, to study social conditions as they are related to the progress of the kingdom of God, to suggest to the Church practical ways of realizing the social ideals of the Gospel, and to report annually to the General Assembly regarding its work; and that to this Committee there be given also the duties now performed by other agencies of the Church which deal with social and moral questions, such as the Permanent Committees on Temperance and on Sabbath Observance, and the Department of Church and Labor of the Board of Home Missions, so that the whole matter of social righteousness may be treated in its entirety by one agency of the Church. This recommendation was referred to the Executive Commission to report.

5. That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be directed to print 10,000 copies of this Report in convenient form, for distribution at cost throughout the Church and generally, and that additional copies be printed as there may be demand therefor, and that the Board further the circulation of the Report in any way that it may deem feasible.

On behalf of the Committee,

JOHN MCDOWELL, Chairman.

An amendment to the General Rules for Judicatories was offered, pending the consideration of which,

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 28, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Polity, through its Chairman, Rev. Andrew C. Zenos, D.D., presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Polity begs to report to the General Assembly as follows:

Overtures Nos. 42 to 48, 50 to 57, 59, 62, 73 to 77, and 364, were referred to your Committee; upon these we submit the following recommendations for the Assembly's action:

That Overtures Nos. 42 to 48, from the Presbyteries of Binghamton, Box Butte, Hastings, Kearney, Nebraska City, Niobrara, and Omaha, asking for a change in those sections of the Form of Government which require that the Moderators of Presbyteries and Synods shall be Chairmen of their Executive Committees, be answered in the affirmative; and that two Overtures be sent down to the Presbyteries in the following terms:

(1) Shall the Form of Government, Chapter x, Section vii, be so amended as to read: "The Presbytery may appoint an Executive Commission, of which the Chairmanship, the number of members, powers, duties, and term of service shall be determined by the Presbytery."

(2) Shall the Form of Government, Chapter xi, Section iv, be so amended as to read: "The Synod may appoint an Executive Commission, of which the Chairmanship, the number of members, powers, duties, and term of service shall be determined by the Synod."

That Overture No. 50, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, proposing an amendment to Chapter x of the Form of Government so as to provide for an Absentee Roll for Ministers from Presbytery, to include the names of such ministers as have not attended meetings or reported for one year or longer be answered in the negative. In the judgment of the Committee, the proposal is unnecessary and inexpedient in view of the present duties and powers of Presbytery, and of the rights of ministers and previous actions of the General Assembly in the premises (see Minutes, 1834, p. 450 (Digest, 1907, p. 208); 1876, p. 80; 1885, p. 604 (Digest, 1907, p. 212); 1901, p. 63; 1906, p. 195 (Digest, 1907, p. 1090).

That Overture No. 51, from the Presbytery of Le Vere, asking for the amendment of the Form of Government, Chapter x, Section ix, by the insertion of the words "Or later" after the word "Sooner," the rest of the section remaining the same, be answered in the negative, on the ground that Rule No. 3 of the General Rules for Judicatories makes ample provision for the object sought by the Overture, in cases not covered by this Section of the Form of Government.

That Overture No. 52, from the Presbytery of North River, for a change in the Form of Government respecting terms of payment of pastor's salary by the congregation, be answered in the affirmative, and that the following Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries for their action:

"Shall Chapter xv, Section vi, of the Form of Government be so amended as to read: 'We hereby promise and oblige ourselves to pay to you the sum of ——— yearly, in regular weekly, monthly, or quarterly payments.'"

That Overtures Nos. 53 and 54, from the Presbyteries of New York and Rochester, respectively, asking for the modification of Section 50, of the Book of Discipline, be answered by the submission of the following Overture to the Presbyteries for their action.

Shall the Book of Discipline, Section 50, be amended to read as follows:

"50. When a communicant removes his residence from a place where he is a member, the pastor, or, in case of vacancy in the pastorate, the Clerk of the Session of the church of which he is a member, shall at once notify the pastor or Clerk of the Session of the church into the bounds of which he removes, of his new place of residence. Presbyteries including towns or cities containing two or more Presbyterian churches, shall appoint in each of these towns or cities a committee on members changing residence, the Chairman of which shall be a minister, and he shall be indicated by a sign or mark before his name on the roll of Presbytery in the Assembly Minutes, and notices of members removing to that city shall be sent to him, and he shall turn over these names to the pastor of the church nearest each removing member's place of residence. In cases of uncertainty notice shall be sent to the Stated Clerk of Presbytery.

"If the communicant shall fail to ask for a regular certificate of dismission within two years without giving sufficient reason, after correspondence by the Session his name may be placed on the roll of suspended members, with the date of the action, until he shall satisfy the Session of the propriety of his restoration. The same action may be taken, without correspondence, in the case of those absent for three years, whose residence is unknown; but in every case definite action shall be taken by the Session, and the record of it shall show that the Session has conformed with the requirements of this Section, and shall state the reasons of its action. In all cases such member shall continue subject to the jurisdiction of the Session."

The reasons for recommending this Overture are:

1. That the provisions of the second paragraph of Section 50, in the Book of Discipline, as amended in 1910, seem to trench unduly upon the rightful liberty of church members and Sessions, and therefore should be omitted.

2. That the duties of the Session to continue its oversight over absent members, and the processes to be followed, should be explicitly stated. This is not done in the Section as it stands.

3. The phraseology of the Section should conform to its place in Chapter vii of the Book of Discipline, as to the phraseology recently adopted by the General Assembly, after prolonged consideration (see Minutes, 1906, pp. 216, 217).

That Overture No. 55, from the Presbytery of Wellsborough, asking for an amendemnt in the Directory of Worship, Chapter viii, Section iii, be answered by submitting to the Presbyteries for their action the following Overture:

"Shall the Directory of Worship, Chapter viii, Section iii, be amended by omitting the words 'by pouring or sprinkling water upon his head,' after the word 'candidate,' and before the words, 'using these words.'"

That Overture No. 56, from the Synod of Montana, asking that the Assembly ratify the transactions of the meeting of said Synod which was held, for sufficient reasons, one week earlier than the appointed time, be answered in the affirmative.

That Overture No. 57, from the Presbytery of Pecos Valley, making inquiry as to who may lawfully hold the office of Clerk of Session, in the following questions:

1. "May a church Session appoint as its Clerk one outside of its membership?"

2. "May a woman hold this office?" Be answered in the following terms:

While the law covering the subject is not explicit, it is the judgment of the General Assembly that it is ordinarily inexpedient that any person except a member of the Session should serve as its Clerk.

Overture No. 59, from the Presbytery of Dubuque, together with one from the Presbytery of Minneapolis, and Overture No. 364, signed by eleven ministers and fourteen churches interested, asking that the Assembly erect a Bohemian Presbytery composed of Bohemian-speaking ministers and churches in the States of Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, under the name of Central West Bohemian Presbytery, the same to be a part of the Synod of Iowa, said Overture being in the following terms:

"WHEREAS, The Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Chapter x, Section ii, authorizes the formation of Presbyteries composed of ministers and churches of a single nationality, and

"WHEREAS, The petitioners believe it to be for the best interest of the Church, the glory of God and the upbuilding of his Kingdom among the Bohemian people, and

"WHEREAS, They also believe themselves to be capable of conducting a separate organization in the manner approved of by the Church, and

"WHEREAS, The General Assembly of 1870 declared that each several Presbytery, with the ministers and churches within its limits, be defined as to boundaries by geographical lines, or with respect to the most convenient lines of travel, now

"Therefore, the ministers and churches whose petitions are attached hereunto respectfully request the General Assembly to erect a Presbytery, composed of Bohemian-speaking ministers and churches in the States of Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, under the name of Central West (Bohemian) Presbytery, the same to be a part of the Synod of Iowa."

The following action is recommended:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly grant the petitioners' request and answer the Overture in the affirmative, and that the Presbytery of Central West (Bohemian) is hereby erected, to consist of the following ministers and churches, to wit.: Ministers—Vaclav Hlavaty, of the Presbytery of Cedar Rapids; Francis Pokorny and Joseph Bren, of the Presbytery of Minneapolis; V. Miniberger, of the Presbytery of Milwaukee; Alois Barta, Ph.D., of the Presbytery of Dubuque; Frank Junek, of the Presbytery of Southern Dakota; John Linka and Jaroslav Kucera, of the Presbytery of Sioux Falls; Joseph Krenek, of the Presbytery of Baltimore; Anton Svoboda and B. A. Filipi, of the Presbytery of Omaha. Churches—Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Racine, Wis., and Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Melnik, Wis., Presbytery of Milwaukee; Eden Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Cobb, Wis., Presbytery of Madison; Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Hopkins, Minn., Presbytery of Minneapolis; Bohemian Presbyteran Church, Cedar Rapids, Ia., Presbytery of Cedar Rapids; First Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Bon Homme County, So. Dak., and First Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Brule County, So. Dak., Presbytery of Sioux Falls; Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Wagner, So. Dak., Presbytery of Southern Dakota; New Zion Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Clarkson, Neb., Presbytery of Omaha; Bohemian Brethren Presbyterian Church, Omaha, Neb., Bohemian Presbyterian Church, So. Omaha, Neb., Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Prague, Neb., Presbytery of Omaha; Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Tabor, Minn., Presbytery of Adams; Reformed Bohemian Presbyterian Church, Saratoga, Ia., Presbytery of Dubuque. And these ministers and churches shall be set off from their respective Presbyteries and shall be erected into the said Central West (Bohemian) Presbytery, which shall convene in the Bohemian Presbyterian Church of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on Monday, the 12th day of September, 1910, at 7.30 P.M., and be opened with a sermon by Rev. V. Hlavaty, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., or, in his absence, by the oldest minister present, who shall preside until a Moderator be chosen.

2. That the new Presbytery, when erected, be referred for missionary aid to the Board of Home Missions, pending action by the Advisory Council of Church Extension.

3. That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be directed to inform the parties concerned of the action of the Assembly.

That Overture No. 62, from the Presbytery of Shenango, petitioning the Assembly to advise our churches in calling a pastor to place before the congregation but one name at a time, be answered in the negative. It is the judgment of the Committee that, while such action by congregations would be wise, it is inexpedient to adopt a fixed rule on the subject.

That Overture No. 73, from the Presbytery of Winona, asking that the church of Frank Hill be transferred from said Presbytery to the (German) Presbytery of Waukon, be answered in the affirmative.

That Overture No. 74, from the Presbytery of Troy, asking "Permission to drop from its roll, without prejudice, the name of (Rev.) Harmon H. Boone, whose location, for several years, has been unknown," be answered in the affirmative.

That in the case of Overture No. 75, from the Presbytery of Troy, asking "Permission to drop from its roll the name of Raymond C. Donnan, who, for more than a year, has ceased to perform any ministerial acts, and still persists in his decision to demit the ministry," no action be taken, on the ground that the Presbytery has power to adjudicate such cases for themselves.

That Overture No. 76, being a petition from Rev. Frederick L. Walters, of Milwaukee Presbytery, asking that his membership be transferred to the (German) Presbytery of Galena, be answered in the affirmative.

That Overture No 77, being a petition from the First German Evangelical Church of Milwaukee, asking for its transfer to the (German) Presbytery of Galena, be answered in the affirmative.

Further, the Committee reports that the petition of the Rev. S. R. Spriggs, of the Presbytery of Yukon, was placed in the hands of the Committee, asking that his membership be transferred to the Presbytery of Hudson, in the Synod of New York. The Committee recommends that, owing to the peculiar conditions in the Presbytery of Yukon, the petition be granted.

The Committee would, in addition, submit the following plan as a basis of representation in the General Assembly, to be referred by this Assembly to the Executive Commission and to be considered by the Executive Commission, together with the plans referred to it in the Report of the Special Committee on Representation, appointed by the last General Assembly, to wit.:

That Chapter xii, Section 2, be so amended as to make, as the basis of representation, not the ministerial roll of Presbytery, but the full roll, which consists of all the ministers, and one elder from each church in the Presbytery. It is believed that this amendment would bring our Form of Government into greater harmony with the fundamental principles of Presbyterianism, and at the same time contribute materially towards facilitating reduction in representation whenever such reduction may be found necessary.

In behalf of the Committee,

ANDREW C. ZENOS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, through its Chairman, Rev. Matthew J. Hyndman, D.D., presented its Report,

First, on the proposed Overture to the Presbyteries. This part of the Report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries, to which was referred the proposed changes in Form of Government, Chapter xiv, Section iv, would recommend that the following be the form in which the Overture shall be sent to the Presbyteries:

"Because it is highly reproachful to religion, and dangerous to the Church, to intrust the holy ministry to weak and ignorant men, the Presbytery shall try each candidate as to his knowledge of the Latin language, and the original languages in which the Holy Scriptures were written. They shall also examine him on the arts and sciences, the Bible in his vernacular, on theology, natural and revealed, and on ecclesiastical history, the sacraments and Church government; provided, that if the examination in theology be unsatisfactory to one-fourth of the presbyters present, they may demand a further examination, in writing, on questions proposed by them, and by the Presbytery, questions and answers to be filed by the Presbytery. In lieu of examination in Latin and in the arts and sciences, the Presbytery shall have discretion to accept his diploma of Bachelor or Master of Arts. And in order to make trial of his talents to explain and vindicate, and practically to enforce the doctrines of the Gospel, the Presbytery shall require of him:

1. A thesis in Latin or other language, on some common head in divinity.
2. A critical exercise in exegesis.
3. A lecture, or exposition of several verses of Scripture: and,
4. A popular sermon.

Respectfully submitted by the Committee,
MATTHEW J. HYNDMAN, Chairman.

Second, its General Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries would respectfully report as follows:

They have carefully examined the reports of Directors and Trustees of the different Seminaries under the care of our General Assembly.

It is a matter of congratulation to our Church that within less than a century since the foundation of our first Seminary there is a chain of institutions stretching from the Atlantic to the Pacific, some of them only a short distance apart, in which our distinctive principles are faithfully taught. This remarkable state of affairs has become possible through the early efforts of those learned and pious men, who, at much sacrifice, were willing to assume the instruction of candidates for the ministry. As their success became assured, friends who were possessed of wealth rallied to their support. Grounds were secured, lecture halls, dormitories and libraries were built, and professorships, scholarships and fellowships were founded. The existence of all these is an eloquent testimony on behalf of both ministers and lay members of the Church to their conviction that learning and piety are always to be associated in the preacher of the Gospel.

The older Seminaries prepared students for exercising their ministry among English-speaking people. But with the incoming of large numbers of Continental Europeans, it became necessary to prepare candidates speaking other than the English tongue. Thus arose the German Schools of Newark and Dubuque. But the situation is now more complicated by the diversity of languages used by our immigrant peoples. How to meet these new demands of our day and supply a ministry speaking in each vernacular is a matter of great moment. The General Assembly has laid upon our German Theological Schools the task of preparing students for work among Italians, Slavs, Bohemians, etc. While these initiatory efforts have been encouraging, it is necessary to perfect arrangements, in order that ministers equally qualified with those who speak English may be sent out to these new fellow-citizens of ours.

With the increase of activity among the members of our churches, there has arisen a new condition demanding some preparation for those who are to act as Y. M. C. A. Secretaries, city missionaries and Sabbath-school teachers. Our Seminaries have heeded the directions of the Assembly and courses for such lay workers have been established in several of them. It is an auspicious movement, that as the minister's preparation has become diversified and enriched our lay workers have been seeking and are now able to obtain instruction fitting them for more efficient coöperation in parish work.

The number of theological students has been an interesting topic for discussion for several years. From the reports presented we glean the following facts regarding the number in attendance and the number graduated at the last commencement:

Seminary.	Number in Attendance.	Graduates.
Princeton	151	46
Auburn	71	19
Western	89	19
Lane	39	7
Kentucky	58	9
McCormick	141	28
Blackburn	No report.
San Francisco	16	5
German at Dubuque	19	6
German at Newark	22	8
Lincoln University, Theological Department	62	16
Biddle University, Theological Department	13	5
Omaha	21	8
Theological Seminary of the South	24	9
Total	726	185
Total for 1909	691	157
A gain of	35	28

The Committee would make the following recommendations:

1. That the attention of the Seminaries be called to the importance of making their reports in accordance with the forms approved by the Assembly of 1909.

2. That the General Assembly approves the election of all Directors reported as properly chosen during the past year.

3. That the election or transfer of all presidents and professors reported as properly chosen during the past year be approved.

4. That the efforts being made towards harmonizing the entrance requirements of all the Seminaries for students in the regular course for the ministry be approved.

5. That the arrangements made by the German Theological Schools for training ministers for work among other foreign-speaking people be approved, and that these schools be commended to the generous support of the Church at large for increased endowments.

6. That we renew the recommendation of previous Assemblies, that Presbyteries urge upon students the duty of taking their Theological Course in Seminaries approved by the General Assembly.

7. That, until the Church be prepared to establish a Seminary in the Southwest, the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the South, appointed by the Assembly of last year, be reappointed by this Assembly; and they are advised to enter into such arrangements with some existing Seminary of our Church as will secure for the students from that section a proper training; the said Board is authorized to enlarge its membership; and the Board of Education is instructed to render all possible assistance to the said Board in consummating these arrangements. In this connection, the General Assembly would express grateful appreciation of the services and contributions made by members of this Board of Directors during the past year.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

MATTHEW J. HYNDMAN, Chairman.

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully reports as follows:

An invitation for the meeting of the Assembly of 1912, from Grand Forks, N. D., is respectfully referred to the next Assembly, as being within its sole jurisdiction.

Invitations for the Assembly of 1911 have been received from Chicago, Ill., Louisville, Ky., and Atlantic City, N. J. The invitation from Atlantic City, N. J., is supported by the First Presbyterian Church, as the representative of its sister churches and the churches of all other Protestant denominations. It is also supported by the Atlantic City Board of Trade, the Atlantic City Business League and the Atlantic City Hotel Men's Association. Accompanying the invitation, is the tender of the entire Steel Pier for the use of the Assembly in the same manner as for the present Assembly, and the pledge of sums sufficient to meet all the incidental expenses of the meeting. The Music Hall on the Steel Pier is to be at the service of the Assembly from Wednesday, May 17, until Saturday, May 27, at 6 P.M. Should the Assembly continue its sessions over until the second Monday, the new church edifice of the First Presbyterian Church will be at its disposal. The assurance is also given that abundant hotel accommodations will be provided for Commissioners at $2 per day, and that the other officers of the Assembly and the Moderator will be entertained without charge. In view of all the circumstances, the following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly of 1911 be called to meet at Atlantic City, N. J.

Resolved, 2. That the offers of accommodations, accompanying the invitation, be and hereby are cordially accepted.

Resolved, 3. That the Committee of Arrangements be constituted as follows: The Rev. Herbert N. Gesner and the other members of the session of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlantic City, together with the Stated Clerk of the Assembly; the Committee to have power to add to their number.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES LITTLE, Moderator.

The Committee on Canvass of the Votes on Overtures sent down to the Presbyteries by the Assembly of 1909, through its Chairman, Rev. Edward Mack, presented its Report, which was adopted. The Report is as follows:

On Overture No. 1, your Committee reports as follows:

The Overture reads:

Shall Chapter xi, Section 4, of the Form of Government be amended by inserting after the words "to erect new Presbyteries, and unite or divide those which were before erected," the additional words, "subject to the approval of the General Assembly." [See Minutes, 1909, p. 156.]

To this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Adams, Alaska, Albany, Amarillo, Athens, Austin, Baltimore, Beaver, Bellefontaine, Bellingham, Binghamton, Black Hills, Boisé, Boston, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Buffalo, Burrow, Cairo, Carlisle, Carthage, Catawba, Cedar Rapids, Champlain, Chattanooga, Chester, Cheyenne, Chicago, Chippewa, Cincinnati, Columbus, Corning, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Ewing, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, French Broad, Genesee, Geneva, George, Grafton, Grande Ronde, Hastings, Havana, Highland, Hodge, Houston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huntsville, Huron, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kiamichi, Kirksville, Kittanning, Knox, LaCrosse, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Muncie, Muskogee, Nebraska City, Neosho, Nevada, New Albany, Newark, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, Northumberland, Olympia, Omaha, Ottawa, Ozark, Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Peoria, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Phœnix, Pittsburgh, Portland, Porto Rico, Riverside, Rochester, Rogersville, Rushville, St. Clairsville, St. Joseph, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, Salt River, San Antonio, San Francisco, San José, Seattle, Sedalia, Shenango, Siam, Solomon, Southern Arizona, Southern Virginia, Springfield, Transylvania, Troy, Union, Utica, Waco, Washington, Washington City, Waterloo, Waukon, Wellsborough, Wenatchee, West Jersey, Westminster, Wheeling, White Water, Willamette, Winona, Wooster, Zanesville.—155.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative: Aberdeen, Alton, Ardmore, Arkansas, Atlantic, Bell, Benicia, Birmingham, Bloomington, Boulder, Butler, Cayuga, Central Dakota, Central Washington, Chillicothe, Choctaw, Cimarron, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbia-A, Columbia River, Cookeville, Council Bluffs, Dallas, Denton, Denver, El Reno, Emporia, Fairfield, Florida, Fort Smith, Freeport, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Helena, Hobart, Holston, Hope, Indiana, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iron Mountain, Jefferson, Kendall, Lackawanna, Le Vere, Lincoln, Logan, McClelland, McGee, Madison, Mattoon, Minnewaukan, Mouse River, Nashville, Nassau, New Hope, Oakland, Ogden, Oklahoma, Osborne, Otsego, Paris, Pembina, Petoskey, Princeton, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rendall, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Louis, Salt Lake, San Joaquin, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Southern Oregon, Southern Utah, Spokane, Springville-Talladega, Steubenville, Syracuse, Topeka, Tulsa, Twin Falls, Walla Walla, Westchester, White River-A, Winnebago, Yadkin.—95.

The number of Presbyteries not acting or reporting is 43.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 293, and the provision of Chapter xxiv of the Form of Government, Section 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve, in writing, of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government and Book of Discipline. A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as 155 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make the declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: "I hereby declare that Overture No. 1, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, to the Presbyteries, being an amendment of the Form of Government by the insertion of additional matter, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 1, amending Chapter xi, Section iv, of the Form of Government sent down by the Assembly of 1909, had been constitutionally adopted and was now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

On Overture No. 2, amending Chapter xii, Section 3, of the Form of Government, your Committee reports as follows:

The Overture reads:

Shall Chapter xii, Section 3 of the Form of Government be amended by striking out the word "fourteen," and inserting in its stead the words "one hundred." [See Minutes, 1909, p. 156.]

To this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Adams, Alaska, Albany, Amarillo, Ardmore, Arkansas, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Beaver, Bell, Bellefontaine, Bellingham, Benicia, Binghamton, Birmingham, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Buffalo, Burrow, Butler, Cairo, Carlisle, Carthage, Catawba, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Central Washington, Champlain, Chattanooga, Chester, Cheyenne, Chicago, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia-A., Columbia River, Columbus, Cookeville, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Denton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, El Reno, Emporia, Ewing, Fairfield, Fargo, Flint, Florida, Fort Dodge, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Geneva, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Highland, Hodge, Holston, Hope, Houston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huntsville, Huron, Indiana, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iowa City, Jefferson, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kirksville, Kittanning, Knox, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Lincoln, Logan, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, McGee, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukan, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muncie, Muskogee, Nashville, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, Nevada, New Albany, Newark, New Castle, New Hope, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, Oakland, Ogden, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Paris, Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Phœnix, Portland, Porto Rico, Portsmouth, Princeton, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rendall, Riverside, Rochester, Rock River, Rogersville, Rushville, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Joseph, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, Salt Lake, Salt River, San Antonio, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San José, Santa Barbara, Seattle, Sedalia, Shenango, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Solomon, Southern Arizona, Southern Oregon, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Springfield, Springville-Talladega, Steubenville, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Troy, Tulsa, Twin Falls, Union, Utica, Waco, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Waterloo, Waukon, Wellsborough, Wenatchee, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, Wheeling, White River -A, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville.—236.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative: Alton, Boston, Columbia, Dallas, Fort Smith, Hobart, Iron Mountain, Le Vere, Louisville, McClelland, Pittsburgh, Santa Fé.—12.

The number of Presbyteries not acting or reporting is 45.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 293, and the provision of Chapter xxiv, of the Form of Government, Section 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve in writing of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government and Book of Discipline. A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as 236 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make the declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: "I hereby declare that Overture No. 2, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, to the Presbyteries, being an amendment of the Form of Government by the insertion of additional matter, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 2, amending Chapter xii, Section 3, of the Form of Government, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, had been constitutionally adopted and was now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

On Overture No. 3, amending Section 48 of the Book of Discipline, your Committee reports as follows:

The Overture reads:

Shall Section 48 of the Book of Discipline be amended by adding to it the following:

"In cases where a communicant, still residing in the bounds of the church and not chargeable with immoral conduct, shall persistently absent himself from the ordinances of religion in the church, the Session, having made diligent effort to restore him to active fulfillment of his membership, may, after one year from the beginning of such effort, and after duly notifying him of its intention, place his name upon the roll of suspended members, without further process. If at a later time such communicant, his life in the meanwhile being free from scandal, shall resume his attendance on the ordinances of the church, the Session shall restore his name to the active roll." [See Minutes, 1909, p. 191.]

To this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Adams, Alaska, Albany, Alton, Amarillo, Ardmore, Arkansas, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Beaver, Bell, Bellefontaine, Bellingham, Benicia, Binghamton, Birmingham, Black Hills, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Buffalo, Burrow, Cairo, Carthage, Catawba, Cayuga, Central Dakota, Central Washington, Champlain, Chattanooga, Chester, Cheyenne, Chicago, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbia-A., Columbia River, Columbus, Cookeville, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Dallas, Denton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, El Reno, Emporia, Ewing, Fairfield, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Geneva, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Highland, Hobart, Hodge, Holston, Hope, Houston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huntsville, Huron, Indiana, Iowa City, Iron Mountain, Jefferson, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kittanning, Knox, LaCrosse, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Le Vere, Lima, Lincoln, Logan, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, McClelland, McGee, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukan, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muskogee, Nashville, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, Nevada, New Albany, Newark, New Castle, New Hope, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, Oakland, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Ottawa, Ozark, Paris, Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Pembina, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Phœnix, Pittsburgh, Portland, Porto Rico, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rendall, Riverside, Rochester, Rock River, Rogersville, Rushville, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Joseph, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, Salt Lake, Salt River, San Antonio, San Francisco, San Joaquin, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Seattle, Sedalia, Shenango, Siam, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Solomon, Southern Arizona, Southern Oregon, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Springfield, Springville-Talladega, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Troy, Tulsa, Union, Utica, Waco, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Waukon, Wellsboro, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, Wheeling, White River-A, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville.—229.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative:

Blairsville, Butler, Carlisle, Cedar Rapids, Corning, Florida, Indianapolis, Iowa, Lackawanna, Muncie, Ogden, Otsego, Philadelphia, Princeton, St. Clairsville, Spokane, Steubenville, Twin Falls, Waterloo, Wenatchee.—20.

The number of Presbyteries not acting or reporting is 44.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 293, and the provision of Chapter xxiv, of the Form of Government, Section 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve, in writing, of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government and Book of Discipline. A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as 229 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make the declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: "I hereby declare that Overture No. 3, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, to the Presbyteries, being an amendment of the Book of Discipline, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Book of Discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 3, amending Section 48 of the Book of Discipline, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, had been constitutionally adopted and was now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

On Overture No. 4, amending Section 49 of the Book of Discipline, your Committee reports as follows:

The Overture reads:

Shall the Book of Discipline, Section 49, be amended to read as follows:

"49. When a communicant removes his residence from a place where he is a member, the pastor, or, in case of a vacancy in the pastorate, the clerk of the Session of the church of which he is a member, shall at once notify the pastor or clerk of the Session of the church into the bounds of which he removes, of his new place of residence. Presbyteries including towns or cities containing two or more Presbyterian churches, shall appoint in each of these towns or cities a committee on members changing residence, the chairman of which shall be a minister, and he shall be indicated by a sign or mark before his name on the Roll of Presbytery in the Assembly Minutes, and notices of members removing to that city shall be sent to him, and he shall turn over these names to the pastor of the church nearest each removing member's new place of residence.

"If a communicant removing to another city or place shall neglect for twelve months, without satisfactory reasons to both Sessions, to transfer his membership to the church into whose bounds he removes, the Session of the church whose bounds he has left shall be required to transfer him; and should that Session neglect this duty, the Session of the church into whose bounds he has removed shall assume jurisdiction, giving due notice to the Session of the church from which the member has removed.

"If the Session has no knowledge of the place of residence of any member for three years, and be unable to discover the same, it may remove his name from the roll of active communicants to an absentee roll. A separate roll shall be kept of these absent members, indicating the date when each name was placed on it, and these names shall not be counted in the active membership of the Church. On the reappearance of any such absent member in the congregation, his name may be restored to the active roll, provided satisfactory reasons for his absence are given to the Session." [See Minutes, 1909, p. 193.]

In this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Abilene, Alaska, Albany, Amarillo, Arkansas, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Beaver, Bell, Bellefontaine, Bellingham, Benicia, Binghamton, Birmingham, Black Hills, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brownwood, Buffalo, Burrow, Cairo, Catawba, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Central Washington, Champlain, Chattanooga, Cheyenne, Chicago, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia-A, Columbia River, Cookeville, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Dallas, Denton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, El Reno, Emporia, Ewing, Fairfield, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Freeport, French Broad, Geneva, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Hastings, Havana, Hobart, Hodge, Holston, Hope, Houston, Hudson, Huron, Indiana, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iron Mountain, Jefferson, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kearney, Kendall, Kirksville, Knox, La Crosse, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Le Vere, Lima, Lincoln, Logan, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, McClelland, McGee, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muncie, Muskogee, Nashville, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, Nevada, New Albany, New Hope, Newton, Niobrara, Oakland, Ogden, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Ottawa, Paris, Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Pembina, Phœnix, Porto Rico, Portsmouth, Princeton, Pueblo, Red River, Rendall, Rock River, Rogersville, Rushville, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Joseph, St. Lawrence, Salt River, San Antonio, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Seattle, Sedalia, Shenango, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Solomon, Southern Arizona, Southern Oregon, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Springfield, Topeka, Troy, Tulsa, Twin Falls, Union, Waco, Wellsborough, Wenatchee, Westminster, Wheeling, White River-A, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville.—186.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative: Alton, Ardmore, Brooklyn, Butler, Carlisle, Carthage, Cayuga, Chester, Chillicothe, Columbia, Columbus, Corning, Dubuque, Duluth, Florida, Genesee, Helena, Huntingdon, Kansas City, Kiamichi, Kittanning, Lackawanna, Minneapolis, Minnewaukan, Newark, New Castle, New York, Niagara, North River, Otsego, Ozark, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Portland, Redstone, Riverside, St. Paul, Salt Lake, San Joaquin, San José, Santa Fé, Siam, Springville-Talladega, Steubenville, Syracuse, Utica, Walla Walla, Washington, Westchester, West Jersey.—53.

The following Presbyteries voted for the approval of the Overture in part, but not as a whole: Adams, Blairsville, Highland, Huntsville, Iowa City, Lake Superior, St. Louis, Transylvania, Waukon.—9.

The number of Presbyteries not acting or reporting is 45.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 293, and the provision of Chapter xxiv, of the Form of Government, Section 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve in writing of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government and Book of Discipline. A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as 186 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make the declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: "I hereby declare that Overture No. 4, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, to the Presbyteries, being an amendment of the Book of Discipline, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Book of Discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 4, amending Section 49 of the Book of Discipline, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, had been constitutionally adopted and was now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

On Overture No. 5, amending Section 125 of the Book of Discipline, your Committee reports as follows:

The Overture reads:

Shall the Book of Discipline, Section 125, be amended by striking out the last sentence, which reads—

"No person having served a full term shall be eligible for reëlection to the term next ensuing;" and inserting in its place the following:

"No person having served upon the Permanent Judicial Commission shall be eligible for reëlection or appointment until three years shall have elapsed, from the expiration of the time for which he was elected or appointed. And no person shall be eligible to membership on the Permanent Judicial Commission who is a member of any other Commission of the General Assembly." [See Minutes, 1909, p. 175.]

To this Overture the following Presbyteries have made answer in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Abilene, Adams, Alaska, Albany, Alton, Amarillo, Ardmore, Arkansas, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Beaver, Bell, Bellefontaine, Bellingham, Benicia, Binghamton, Birmingham, Blairsville, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Brownwood, Buffalo, Burrow, Butler, Cairo, Carlisle, Carthage, Catawba, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Central Washington, Champlain, Chattanooga, Chester, Cheyenne, Chicago, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia-A, Columbia River, Columbus, Cookeville, Corning, Crawfordsville, Dallas, Denton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, El Reno, Emporia, Ewing, Fairfield, Fargo, Flint, Florida, Fort Dodge, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Geneva, George, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Highland, Hobart, Hodge, Holston, Hope, Houston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huntsville, Huron, Indiana, Indianapolis, Iowa City, Iron Mountain, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kirksville, Kittanning, La Crosse, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Le Vere, Lima, Lincoln, Logan, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, McClelland, McGee, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muskogee, Nashville, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, Nevada, New Albany, Newark, New Castle, New Hope, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, Oakland, Ogden, Oklahoma. Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Paris, Parkersburg, Pecos Valley, Pembina, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Phœnix, Pittsburgh, Portland, Porto Rico, Portsmouth, Princeton, Pueblo, Red River, Rendall, Riverside, Rochester, Rock River, Rogersville, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Joseph, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, Salt Lake, Salt River, San Antonio, San Francisco, San Joaquin, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Seattle, Sedalia, Shenango, Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Solomon, Southern Arizona, Southern Oregon, Southern Utah, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Springfield, Springville-Talladega, Steubenville, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Troy, Tulsa, Twin Falls, Union, Utica, Waco, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Waterloo, Waukon, Wellsboro, West Jersey, Westminster, Wheeling, White River-A, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville.—233.

The following Presbyteries have made answer in the negative: Cleveland, Columbia, Council Bluffs, Jefferson, Knox, Lackawanna, Minnewaukan, Muncie, Redstone, Rushville, Siam, Waterloo, Wenatchee, Westchester.—14.

The following Presbyteries voted for the approval of the Overture in part, but not as a whole: Black Hills, Iowa, San José.—3.

The number of Presbyteries not acting or reporting is 43.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 293, and the provision of Chapter xxiv, of the Form of Government, Section 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries shall approve in writing of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government and Book of Discipline. A majority of the Presbyteries is 147, and inasmuch as 233 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make the declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: "I hereby declare that Overture No. 5, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, to the Presbyteries, being an amendment of the Book of Discipline, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Book of Discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 5, amending Section 125 of the Book of Discipline, sent down by the Assembly of 1909, had been constitutionally adopted and was now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

The Committee recommend that the attention of the Assembly be called to the indifference or carelessness of the Presbyteries: an average of 47 failing to answer each Overture.

On behalf of the Committee,

The Mileage Committee presented a Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Mileage respectfully presents the following report:

That they have carefully examined, vouched and audited the accounts of each Commissioner and the same have been paid by the Stated Clerk. The number of Commissioners on the roll is 841; the whole number of Presbyteries is 293; the number of advisory members is 7. The number of Presbyteries not represented is 4. There are 18 Presbyteries which are exempt; this does not include, however, the Freedmen and Indian Presbyteries that contribute to the Fund. The receipts and disbursements by the Treasurer are as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments,	Mileage Fund	$45,411 63
" "	Entertainment Fund	25,000 32
" "	Contingent Fund	19,233 56
Total receipts		$89,645 51

DISBURSEMENTS.

For Mileage Bills	$47,176 78
Balance on hand:
Entertainment Fund (balance)	23,235 17
Contingent Fund	19,233 56
Total	$89,645 51

These funds are in the hand of the Assembly's Stated Clerk. A deficiency of $1,765.15 in the Mileage Fund has been taken care of by deducting that amount from the Entertainment Fund.

Because of the increased charges for railroad transportation, and in view of the appropriation of funds by the Assembly for various purposes, there is need for an increase in the apportionment by two cents per capita.

Further, by reason of the fact that the apportionments are not payable until May 1, 1911, or thereabouts, it is recommended that the Stated Clerk be and he hereby is empowered to borrow sums sufficient to meet any financial emergency, subject to the consent and direction of the Executive Commission.

Your Committee also makes the following recommendations to the Assembly for such action as it may deem advisable:

1. That the Assembly again urge upon all Presbyteries, including those heretofore exempt, the absolute necessity of their contributing in full to the Mileage, Contingent and Entertainment Funds, and the importance of forwarding these contributions to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days prior to its next meeting.

2. That the apportionments for next year be nine (9) cents for each communicant, apportioned as follows: To the Mileage Fund, 3¾ cents; to the Entertainment Fund, 1½ cents; to the Contingent Fund, 3 cents; to the Executive Commission, ¾ of a cent.

3. That the General Assembly require Commissioners asking compensation for sleeping-car fare to attach receipts, for all sleeping-car fares paid, to their claims for Mileage.

4. That inasmuch as the returns from one Presbytery have not been officially received, the account be kept open, and the Stated Clerk be authorized, upon the receipt of its apportionment, to settle the Mileage claims of its representatives.

5. That the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer of the Assembly, be empowered at his discretion to pay Commissioners such other and further sums as he may consider justly due to them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges and other expenses incurred in returning home.

6. That the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. M. McKAY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education presented a supplemental Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

It is recommended:

1. That the Thursday immediately preceding the second Sunday of February, 1911, being the ninth day of the month, be observed by the Church as a Day of Prayer for Colleges, Universities and Theological Seminaries.

2. That in the matter of arranging for a popular meeting in the interests of the Board of Education during the meetings of the General Assembly, paragraph 3 of No. 4 of "Standing Orders and Rules," as contained in the Manual, be amended by adding after the word "Brotherhood" the following words, to wit: "and to the Board of Education."

3. That the Report of the Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be approved, and that this officer be directed to pay over all funds of the Society now in his custody into the treasury of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

In behalf of the Committee,

H. C. SWEARINGEN, Chairman.

The following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly records its appreciation of the work of the Presbyterian Historical Society, located at Philadelphia, and expresses its belief in the importance of preserving in such a depository the valuable memorials of the progress of the Reformed faith throughout the world. It urges pastors and churches to coöperate with the Society by lending or giving books, pictures, and other objects of historical value, and commends the effort to secure a large membership, for the purpose of supporting this important institution and of publishing its literary contributions in its Journal.

Elder W. W. Wolf was voted an allowance for hospitality, and the question of the payment of his mileage was referred to the Chairman of the Mileage Committee and the Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on the Presbyterian Brotherhood, through Rev. R. S. Inglis, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Presbyterian Brotherhood calls attention to the Annual Report of the Council of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, as submitted in the special reports to this Assembly by its President, Mr. Charles Holt.

We note with deep regret the death of its Secretary, Mr. Henry Rosevear, just as he was getting the work of evangelization well under way, his particular efforts being directed to the organization of presbyterial and synodical associations, and correlating them to the local units in the individual church. A successful series of meetings had previously been held on the Pacific Coast. The death of the Secretary, whose enthusiasm had had so much to do with the Coast Campaign, and gave such promise for the future, seriously interfered with the work of the Brotherhood. It would have been more seriously interfered with had it not been for the self-sacrificing labors of the present Elder, Charles S. Holt, the Vice-Moderator of the last Assembly, and Elder Charles T. Thompson, Vice-Moderator of this Assembly.

We believe that the Presbyterian Brotherhood is in the way of becoming a great power in the extension of our Church and the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

It answers the natural desire of men for fellowship, and presents to the world an ideal brotherhood. A brotherhood founded on the Fatherhood of God, through fellowship with Jesus Christ, of all, of whatever roll or color or condition who are born into this fellowship, through the regeneration of the Holy Spirit.

The high-water mark of enthusiasm amongst the members of the Presbyterian Brotherhood was reached at the Convention held in Pittsburgh, February 2, 1910. It is an inspiring sight to see the representatives of more than 40,000 Presbyterian men, meeting in convention and declaring their personal faith in God and His Son, Jesus Christ, giving the world the example of consistent Christian character, arousing enthusiasm for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ, and devoting themselves to personal evangelism, each becoming a witness to his fellow-men of faith in a Divine Saviour.

We offer the following Recommendations:

1. That the Assembly hereby records its deep sense of loss in the death of Mr. Henry Rosevear, Secretary of the Brotherhood, and offers sympathy to his relatives and friends and to the Council of the Brotherhood.

2. That churches, Presbyteries and Synods send delegates to the convention of the Brotherhood, to meet in St. Louis, February 22.

3. That sessions endeavor to organize men's societies in churches where none exist.

4. That Presbyteries and Synods appoint Standing Committees charged with the privilege of holding Presbyterial and Synodical Conventions.

5. That we approve of the National Council as the head of the entire Presbyterian Brotherhood.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT S. INGLIS, Chairman.

The Report of the Council of the Presbyterian Brotherhood was ordered inserted in the Minutes as follows:

The Council of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of America, presents its Annual Report to the General Assembly.

The record of the year is made up of mingled joy and sorrow. Its most outstanding incident is the sudden and lamented death, on September 7, 1909, of Secretary Henry E. Rosevear, who, after a year of most fruitful service as Associate Secretary, had just been designated to the full Secretaryship upon the retirement of Dr. Landrith from the office of General Secretary to that of Editorial Secretary. The removal of this patient, wise and self-effacing man from the direction of a work whose possibilities he was just beginning fully to grasp, and whose efficiency he had already done so much to promote, and to which he seemed in truth so indispensable, is one of the mysteries of Providence before which we can only bow in trustful submission and reverently feel that the Lord must have had very important work to be done elsewhere to call such a man away from His work here. Personally and officially, the Council deplores his loss with a depth and sincerity of feeling that cannot be expressed in words.

The filling of the vacancy thus created has been the chief concern of the Council during the months following Mr. Rosevear's death, but thus far we have not been guided to a man who was both suitable and available. It has seemed best to wait, even at some loss of temporary efficiency, in order to be as certain as possible of securing a leader whose work will be large and permanent.

As noted in the last Annual Report, Mr. Rosevear's thought and effort had been largely devoted to the development of local organization by synods, presbyteries, cities and other groups. In the early part of the year covered by this Report, he had worked out a careful scheme of suggested constitutions for synodical and presbyterial Brotherhoods, coördinating them with the national organization and with the local units in the churches. These models have proved valuable, and in their general lines have been followed or used as the basis of a large number of organizations completed or proposed. Many Synods are moving toward synodical organization through the help of strong committees, which, when the synodical Brotherhoods are organized, will fall into an advisory relation similar to that of the Standing Committee on Brotherhood of the General Assembly to the national organization. Synodical organization has been effected in California, Oregon and Washington, and possibly other States. The older synodical Brotherhoods of New Jersey, Oklahoma and Illinois have continued their activity through successful conventions and other forms of stimulation to the local work. The older presbyterial organizations have also gone forward successfully and a number of new ones have been formed, the latest and perhaps the most important covering the Presbytery of New York, whose first high privilege was to help in the great Laymen's Missionary Campaign.

This distribution of responsibility, incomplete as it is, has nevertheless proved invaluable in the crisis arising from the long vacant Secretaryship. Much of the impulse of Secretary Rosevear's work has gone on since his death, and his successor will find the work far less disintegrated than if it had been held more closely in the hands of the central organization.

Perhaps the chief lesson of the year has been the increased and overwhelming emphasis upon the necessity of local initiative. Many appear to have conceived the Brotherhood as an agency for supplying to the men in the churches a patent, painless method of Christian service, which would dispense with the necessity of patient thought, self-sacrificing hard work and sanctified common sense applied to the particular conditions of each particular church. Others have thought of it as an instrument for turning the whole power of the manhood of the Church to the support of some special enterprise—each man, of course, selecting his own specialty as the one that ought to be pursued. From these two classes the criticism is still heard that the Brotherhood "stands for nothing in particular." The Council has endeavored to make it plain that it conceives the Brotherhood as standing for something very particular in spirit but very diverse in its manifestations. Its function is to promote and stimulate men's loyalty to the Church and every organized activity in and through the Church for the doing of all the things that the Church ought to do. Obviously this means the greatest possible variety of activities but the same spirit; and experience has confirmed the conviction that those Brotherhoods which have studied local needs and opportunities, and have assumed responsibility accordingly, have succeeded, while those that have waited for some outside organization to tell them what to do, have pretty uniformly failed. The chief value of the national organization, it is believed, will always be the promotion of the spirit of loyal service to the Church and the transmission of help and suggestion to the more local organizations. It has lately been said that a clearing-house is a good thing, but a power-house is better; and the saying is true. There is no room to doubt that the national Brotherhood will always be not merely a clearing-house (which, nevertheless, is both useful and necessary), but a power-house, indirectly through its influence upon the more local bodies, directly through its great national conventions, and, as circumstances may seem to warrant, through its endorsement and promotion of great national and world-wide enterprises of the Church.

A most interesting feature of the year was the Brotherhood campaign on the Pacific Coast, organized by Mr. Rosevear's efforts through coöperating committees in San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Spokane. Immediately after the meeting of the General Assembly at Denver, the Moderator, Dr. Barkley, with the President, General Secretary and Associate Secretary of the Brotherhood, and representatives of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions, attended carefully prepared and enthusiastic conventions in each of the cities named, where steps were taken for the organization of synodical Brotherhoods and a mighty impulse was given to Presbyterian men's work throughout the whole region.

The statistics of the year show 850 societies directly affiliated with the national organization, reporting 42,300 members. These figures, however, are misleading because many local organizations are affiliated only with and through their presbyterial Brotherhoods. This dual relationship was one of the somewhat puzzling details to which Mr. Rosevear was giving special thought and attention, and since his death it has been impossible to make progress upon it. It is probably safe to say that the number of Brotherhoods thus indirectly affiliated would swell the total by 30 per cent.

The publication of the quarterly magazine has been continued with increasing power and usefulness. Its wider circulation would be greatly helpful both to the Council and to the Brotherhoods.

As heretofore, financial support has been chiefly provided by a small number of persons. The financial basis has been somewhat broadened, but still further local support and individual subscriptions from a larger number will be required.

The vacancy of the Secretaryship has combined with other uncontrollable causes to delay the preparations for the next National Convention, which should normally be held in November, 1910. Definite action on this question will have been taken before this Report reaches the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES S. HOLT, President.

The following Resolutions, reported by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, were adopted:

WHEREAS, Information has come to this General Assembly that our brethren in the ministry and in the churches of California are using the most earnest endeavors to prevent, as a great reproach to their beautiful State, the holding of the shameful exhibition of the proposed Jeffries-Johnson prize-fight; and

WHEREAS, Preparations are making by the exploiters of this exhibition on almost a national scale; and

WHEREAS, The General Assembly cannot but regard such an exhibition as an evil in itself, and demoralizing to the best interests of manhood throughout the land, especially among our young men, therefore

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., while sympathizing with true clean sport and athletics in moderation, does hereby utter its protest against the holding of the Jeffries-Johnson fight; and

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly does especially utter its protest to His Excellency, Hon. James M. Gillette, Governor of California, respectfully requesting him to use his influence to prevent, if possible, the holding of the fight in California; and

Resolved, 3. That we urge all our Presbyterian Brotherhoods and the men in all our churches in every State and Synod in the Union, to utter their protests to the civil authorities in their respective localities in such a way, if need be, that no foothold shall be afforded for the holding of this fight anywhere in this Christian land; and

Resolved, 4. That this General Assembly does hereby send our heartiest encouragements to our own brethren in the Presbyterian churches and also to all the brethren in the allied churches of the Inter-Church Federation of California, for the noble service they are all rendering not only in the matter of this prize-fight, but also as to many other great evils of our day, which are hostile to the best interests of Church and State; and we bid them God-speed in their united efforts, and pledge to them, so far as we control it, the assistance of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of America; and Resolved, 5. That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be authorized and directed to communicate this action to the Governor of California aforesaid.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented a supplemental Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee recommends that the General Assembly gratefully receive the expression of cordial fraternal greeting received from the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and that the Moderator of this Assembly be empowered to appoint a fraternal delegate to attend the meeting of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, U. S. A., which will meet in the city of Washington, D. C., June 7, 1911.

Also, that Rev. Joseph Brown, of Hazleton, Pa., President of the Italian Presbyterian Ministerial Union of the United States, be appointed a delegate to the Waldensian Synod of Italy to attend its meeting in September of the current year, without expense to the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIS E. PARSONS, Chairman.

The Moderator appointed Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., a Delegate to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief reported on a Paper referred to them, dealing with cases not coming under the Assembly Rules, recommending that no action be taken. The Report was adopted. Record is also made of the fact that the Overture from the Presbytery of Philadelphia North, asking the General Assembly to make an exception in the application of Rule 10 as to the appropriation of money in a case mentioned, provided the other conditions of the application were in order, was answered in the negative.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work presented a supplemental Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the action of a former Assembly, directing the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work to publish only a specific class of advertising in its Sunday-school quarterlies, be and hereby is rescinded, and that the advertising to be used therein be left to the discretion of the Board.

Resolved, 2. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to issue, under the seal of the General Assembly, and in conjunction with the Board of Publication, at a nominal cost, certificates of attendance to all Commissioners to the General Assembly who have served as such and who may desire them.

Respectfully submitted,

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be instructed to send down an inquiry to the Presbyteries, asking if the change of the close of the ecclesiastical year, from March 31 to December 31, meets with their approval.

Resolutions relating to Mileage and Estimates were referred to the Executive Commission.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence, through its Chairman, Rev. Alexander Fraser, D.D., presented its Report, which was approved and is as follows:

The following amendment to the Standing Rules for Judicatories was adopted:

Resolved, That General Rules for Judicatories, No. XVIII, be amended by inserting after the words "without debate" the following words, to wit: "But it shall not be in order for any one debating another motion to propose the motion to lay on the table or the previous question, at the close of his remarks, unless he shall obtain the floor again for that purpose." The Rule, as amended, would then read:

"XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate; but it shall not be in order for any one debating another motion to propose the motion to lay on the table or the previous question, at the close of his remarks, unless he shall obtain the floor again for that purpose. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory."

The following was adopted:

WHEREAS, The ratio for division of undesignated funds, originally adopted in 1886, has not been revised for fifteen years; and

WHEREAS, The situation at home and abroad has during that period materially changed, and the Church's interest, as indicated by its designated gifts, has been correspondingly modified; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Executive Commission be requested to consider the whole matter once more and to weigh well the question whether the time has not come to approximate the ratio as nearly as practicable to the present standard of gifts of the churches, reporting to the next General Assembly.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 28, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Stated Clerk reported upon the following matters, and the Report was adopted.

1. The Assembly authorized the Stated Clerk to take measures to secure for the Church and its agencies, in the matter of periodical publications of religious societies, the same privileges as are granted to fraternal and benevolent organizations. Through the kindness of the Hon. William P. Borland, a member of Congress from Missouri, and the Hon. William S. Bennet, a Congressman from New York, an amendment to the Postal Laws has been referred by the House of Representatives to the Committee on the Post Office, and measures have been taken properly to support the proposed amendment.

2. The Stated Clerk requests permission, if in his judgment it is wise, to omit during the present year the publication of the Supplementary Minutes, in December and February.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the General Assembly is responsible only for the expenses of its Commissioners and officers in connection with its annual meetings.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in their full quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the Minutes and Reports to the ruling elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; provided, that the ruling elders forward to the Clerk their Post Office address, and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds; also, that he be authorized to furnish the Minutes to the lay members of the Boards.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk prepare a new edition of the Manual for the use of the next Assembly.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries.

Resolved, That, as customary, all matters connected with railroad rates and arrangements for the next meeting of the Assembly be committed solely to the Stated Clerk.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the actual traveling and entertainment expenses of the members of Special Committees, appointed or continued by this General Assembly, incurred by attendance upon the regular meetings of the Committees, said expenses to be kept within as low a limit as possible; all subject to the approval of the Permanent Finance Committee, after October 1, 1910; and that he be also authorized to contract for the printing of Committee Reports to the next Assembly, and pay the bills for the same.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to contract and pay for the usual printing of the Manual of the Assembly, Lists of Commissioners, Lists of Overtures, and all blanks and papers connected with the current work of the General Assembly.

The following, presented by the Stated Clerk, was adopted:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly, in the matter of the binding and distributing of the Reports of the Boards, that the same has been attended to, in accordance with the directions of the Assembly of 1909, and that the accounts for the same have been duly audited. These accounts will be printed in the Appendix of the Minutes.

It is recommended that the following resolutions be adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly authorize the binding and distribution of 7,500 copies of the Reports of the Boards and Permanent Committees for the ecclesiastical year 1909–10. The expenses of the same to be borne by the Boards.

Resolved, That the Boards be requested to deliver the printed sheets of the Reports to the Stated Clerk on or before July 1, 1910.

The Report of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America was presented by the Stated Clerk, as Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Council, and ordered printed in the Appendix.

The Standing Committee on Narrative, through its Chairman, Rev. Stephen S. Estey, presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

We desire to call the attention of the Commissioners to the Report of the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work, found on p. 141 of the Blue Book. By the action of the last General Assembly, it was directed that this Report be the only Narrative presented to the General Assembly and that the duty of this Committee should be simply to recommend such action thereon as might be deemed needful. In harmony with this action your Committee submit the following recommendations:

1. That the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work be highly commended for the large conception of its function entertained by it, for the originality and energy shown in its collection of facts regarding the spiritual condition of the Church, and for the breadth, thoroughness, practical suggestiveness and general value of its survey of the Church's life and work.

2. That the report on Christian Life and Work be commended by the Assembly to the special consideration of our ministers and church officers and members.

3. That in place of the members of the Committee whose terms expire at this time, the following be elected: Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D., Rev. William Kirk Guthrie, D.D., and Ruling Elder William H. Scott. To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ruling Elder William T. Ellis, there be elected Ruling Elder Henry B. F. MacFarland.

4. That inasmuch as, according to the action of the General Assembly of 1908, the place, on the Committee, of Rev. Thomas H. Cleland, D.D., is vacant, he having been unable to attend the meetings of the Committee for two years, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., be elected to fill the vacancy.

5. That in view of the importance of the work of this Committee, the standing rules be so changed as to make it a Permanent Committee instead of a Special Committee, and that it be given a place on the Assembly's docket, at 2.30 P.M. of the first Friday.

6. That Section 6 of the recommendations of the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work (p. 152 of the Blue Book), be amended by inserting the words, "and publish" after the words "shall gather."

7. That the recommendations of the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work be adopted in the order printed as Recommendations 7–17 of this Report. See Appendix, p. 288.

8. That the Stated Clerk be and hereby is authorized, with the coöperation of the Permanent Committee on Finance, to pay all the necessary expenses of this Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN S. ESTEY, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully makes to the Assembly its Sixth Report as follows, to wit:

1. There was referred to us by the Assembly the question of a suitable expression by us of our regard for the noble life and services of Mr. Horace B. Silliman, one of the noblest servants of our Church. We recommend the adoption of a memorial resolution, and that a copy of the same be sent to his family.

2. There was reported to us by the Assembly the matter of an attack upon the work of Marcus Whitman and Whitman College. We recommend the adoption of the following resolution, to wit:

Forasmuch as there are certain attacks made upon the validity of the story concerning the saving of Oregon by Marcus Whitman:

Resolved, (1) That the General Assembly affirms its belief in the story of Marcus Whitman's saving Oregon, as an historic fact, as substantiated by certain documents in possession of the Historical Society, and that we recognize the place and worth of this great missionary of the Presbyterian Church, in the development of the Church and the State in the great Northwest.

Resolved, (2) That we appreciate the work of Whitman College in the great Northwest, as a fitting and substantial memorial to this pioneer patriot.

Resolved, (3) That we deprecate all sectarian appeals circulated with the intention of injuring this non-sectarian institution.

Resolved, (4) That the Stated Clerk of this General Assembly be authorized and directed to send a copy of this action to Hon. Wesley L. Jones, Senator, U. S. A., Washington, D. C.

3. Papers 375 and 376, brought to our attention by Rev. Russel Taylor, New Market, Tenn., a member of our Committee, being an appeal for evangelistic work and better Sunday-schools among the colored people. Your Committee, acting under its own powers (see Manual 1910, p. 59), recommend to the Assembly that the matter of these two appeals be referred, with power, to the Executive Commission, to be taken up by them as soon as possible.

4. Papers 377 to 381. We report particularly upon five Overtures of far-reaching importance, received by the Assembly from the Council of the Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian System, and referred to us. They are addressed to the Supreme Judicatories of the constituent Churches, upon the following matters:

(1) Coöperation and Foreign Missions. (2) Coöperative work in Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Work among the Colored People, Church Erection, Sunday-school Work, and Education. (3) Home Mission Statistics. (4) New Denominational Colleges. (5) Conference of Executive Agencies. These Overtures are evidence of the common feeling, among all the denominations, of the need of providing for an effective plan of coöperative work. We recommend that a copy of the Overtures be forwarded to the Executive Commission of this General Assembly and to the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, for the purpose of a conference by them with the various agencies carrying on these various lines of Christian work referred to in the Overtures.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The Report of the Council of the Reformed Churches and the Overtures were ordered printed in the Appendix.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a special Report, which was adopted by a rising vote, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures would respectfully make a special Report to the Assembly pertaining to Overture No. 66, from the Synod of Baltimore, respecting prevalent doubts and denials of certain statements of the Confession, and also upon the reference, by the Assembly, to the Committee, of the request of the Permanent Judicial Committee for a doctrinal deliverance.

Your Committee would hereby recommend the following doctrinal deliverance, to wit:

The Church of Jesus Christ, set to be both a witness and an exemplar of saving and sanctifying truth, has come upon times when her mission is, at once, most difficult and most necessary.

It is an age of doubt. Many elements of the faith delivered, once for all, to the saints, and embodied in the immemorial testimony of the Christian Church, are by many openly questioned and rejected. Thereby the fundamentals not only of our faith as a Church, but of evangelical Christianity, are assaulted. Laxity in matters of moral opinion has been followed by laxity in matters of moral obligation. It is an age of impatience, of no restraint. The spirit of license and lawlessness is abroad. Authority in Church and State alike is decadent because its defiance has so often been unchecked. The safeguards of society are threatened. The decline in the elements of an essential religion is followed by a groveling and growing superstition that shames alike our sanity, our faith and our civilization. It is therefore most necessary that the Church of Christ should bear unflinching witness against these errors in faith and these faults in practice, by testifying to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, as God has been pleased to reveal it unto her in His Word and by His Spirit. Actuated by that fervent charity which God has made the rule and grace of her life, she must stand sturdily for that which is at once the redemption of the individual and the redemption of society. Ours has always been a witnessing Church.

It must continue to be such, or else consent to conditions of doubt that would dissolve her foundations and equally destroy historic Christianity. Therefore, this Assembly, sitting at Atlantic City, N. J., May 28, 1910, reaffirms adherence to the historic standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as containing the system of truth taught in the Holy Scriptures:—

I. By a declaration with regard to doctrinal assent.

It is to be noted that the adopting act in 1729 recognizes the holding by a candidate of "scruples" about "articles not essential and necessary in doctrine, worship or government," but at the same time the act calls upon the candidate "to declare his sentiments to the Presbytery or Synod," and likewise calls upon the Judicatory to decide as to what is essential and necessary.

II. Accordingly the General Assembly does also make a declaration with regard to certain essential and necessary articles of faith, to wit.:

1. It is an essential doctrine of the Word of God and our Standards, that the Holy Spirit did so inspire, guide and move the writers of the Holy Scriptures as to keep them from error. Our Confession says (see Chapter i, Section 10): "The Supreme Judge, by whom all controversies of religion are to be determined, and all decrees of councils, opinions of ancient writers, doctrines of men, and private spirits, are to be examined, and in whose sentence we are to rest, can be no other but the Holy Spirit speaking in the Scriptures."

2. It is an essential doctrine of the Word of God and our Standards, that our Lord Jesus Christ was born of the Virgin Mary. The Shorter Catechism states, Question 22: "Christ, the Son of God, became man, by taking to Himself a true body and a reasonable soul, being conceived by the power of the Holy Ghost, in the womb of the Virgin Mary, and born of her, yet without sin."

3. It is an essential doctrine of the Word of God and our Standards, that Christ offered up "himself a sacrifice to satisfy divine justice, and to reconcile us to God." The Scripture saith Christ "once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened in the Spirit." (See also Shorter Catechism, Question 25.)

4. It is an essential doctrine of the Word of God and our Standards, concerning our Lord Jesus, that "on the third day he arose from the dead, with the same body in which he suffered; with which also he ascended into heaven, and there sitteth at the right hand of his Father, making intercession." (See Confession, Chapter VIII. Section 4.)

5. It is an essential doctrine of the Word of God as the supreme Standard of our faith, that the Lord Jesus showed his power and love by working mighty miracles. This working was not contrary to nature, but superior to it. "Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people" (Matthew ix. 35). These great wonders were signs of the divine power of our Lord, making changes in the order of nature. They were equally examples, to his Church, of charity and good-will toward all mankind.

These five articles of faith are essential and necessary. Others are equally so. We need not fear for God's truth as it is revealed in the Holy Scriptures and contained in our Westminster Standards. We bless God for the doctrines of His Word shining in the Standards. They stand firm like the towering beacon on the shore, casting a beam across the dark wave of this world's sin. Foolish birds and bats dart out of the night and dash themselves against the lenses of the lighthouse only to fall back senseless at its base. So heretics and sceptics have hurled themselves against the Word of God and against the Westminster Standards, only to fall back baffled and broken.

We recommend the passage of the following resolutions, to wit.:

Resolved, That, reaffirming the advice of the Adopting Act of 1729, all the Presbyteries within our bounds shall always take care not to admit any candidate for the ministry into the exercise of the sacred function, unless he declares his agreement in opinion with all the essential and necessary articles of the Confession.

Resolved, 2. That all our parents in the home and our teachers in the schools be hereby warned of the prevalence of many insidious doubts and denials of the faith, prevalent in our times, and be urged to be diligent in teaching the children the very Word of God.

Resolved, 3. That all our pastors and Presbyteries take action to have read aloud in our churches and judicatories this doctrinal declaration of the General Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Chairman.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Executive Commission be directed by this Assembly to make diligent inquiry as to whether the Presbyteries are observing the deliverance of the Assembly of 1894, p. 125, interpreting former deliverances:

"That it is the duty of students, whether receiving aid from the Board of Education or not, to consult their Presbytery before changing their church relation or the school in which they are pursuing their studies; that it is the privilege of Presbytery to direct their education, within reasonable limits, in schools approved by the General Assembly, and to prohibit their attendance at institutions of learning disapproved by the same"; also whether the deliverances of the Assembly of 1895, 1896 and 1897, on the same subject, are being observed by the Presbyteries, and to report to the next General Assembly.

The following was adopted:

WHEREAS, In response to an inquiry from the Assembly of 1909, a majority of 64 of the voting Presbyteries have declared their desire for a reduction in the membership of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, The proposals for carrying out this desire have failed to commend themselves to the judgment of this Assembly, and have been laid on the table by it; therefore,

Resolved, That the Report of the Special Committee on Representation and the whole matter of the reduction of the size of the Assembly, be referred to the Executive Commission, with instruction to inquire further what is the mind of the Church, to investigate, and, if possible, adjust the practical difficulties that have emerged, and to report to the next Assembly some proposal for carrying out the will of the Presbyteries.

The Records of the following Synods were approved, without exception: Alabama, Arkansas, Atlantic, Baltimore, California, Canadian, Catawba, Colorado, East Tennessee, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, the Philippines, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin.

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Missouri submitted a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri reports that said Minutes have been examined and found correct, and it is recommended that they be approved, with the exception that, on p. 62, there appears a Report of a meeting of the Home Mission Committee, which was not held until two weeks after the adjournment of the Synod, and said Report, therefore, was not before the Synod for its action.

The thoughtful attention of the Synod is drawn to the fact that very few Ruling Elders, as representatives from the churches, attend the meetings of the Synod.

In behalf of the Committee,

CLELAND B. MCAFEE, Chairman.

The Necrological List was read, a hymn was sung, and the Assembly was led in prayer by Rev. Samuel McLanahan, D.D.

The List was ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Standing Committees, having reported their work completed and papers returned, were discharged as follows: Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Church Polity, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication and S. S. Work, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Colleges, Correspondence, Narrative, Benevolence, Temperance, Leave of Absence, Synodical Home Missions, Presbyterian Brotherhood, Finance, and Mileage.

The Clerk was authorized, by a unanimous vote, to cast the ballot for Mr. John M. Colton as a member of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, and he was declared duly elected.

The Clerk was authorized to cast the ballot for the following as members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund, and they were declared duly elected: Ministers—Samuel M. Hamilton, D.D., William A. Holliday, D.D., Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., Edward B. Surface, Anson P. Atterbury, D.D.; Elders—Frederick G. Burnham, James A. Frame, E. Francis Hyde, Isaac H. Orr, Edward C. Van Glahn, David S. D. Jessup.

The Committee on Resolutions of Thanks, through Rev. William Barnes Lower, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The One Hundred and Twenty-second General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. hereby expresses hearty thanks to all who have contributed to the comfort and convenience of the Commissioners, and to the happy issue of the sessions of this meeting of our Church's highest Judicatory, as follows:

1. The Moderator: The General Assembly is deeply indebted to the Moderator, the Rev. Charles Little, D.D., for his wisdom and patience, and the fairness of his rulings in directing the deliberations of this body.

2. Vice-Moderator: The General Assembly also expresses its appreciation of the ability and courtesy of the Vice-Moderator, Charles T. Thompson, Esq., in conducting the affairs of the Assembly during the occasional absences of the Moderator.

3. The Clerks: The Assembly again records its high estimate of the signal ability and unfailing courtesy with which the Stated Clerk, the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., has conducted the business of this session of the Assembly; its appreciation of the services of the Rev. William B. Noble, D.D., the Permanent Clerk; and of the Assistant Clerk, the Rev. James M. Hubbert, D.D.; of the Temporary Clerks and stenographers, whose prompt and faithful services have so efficiently aided in the dispatch of business.

4. The people of Atlantic City: The Assembly is grateful to the people of this city for their hospitality and much kindness; to the local Committee of Arrangements, and the Sub-Committees, who, under the direction of their Chairman, the Rev. N. W. Cadwell, D.D., with untiring labor provided for the hospitality and convenience of the Assembly.

5. The Assembly expresses its gratitude to the pastors and officers of the Presbyterian Churches of Atlantic City, and to the congregations of other denominations, for their courtesies to the members of this Assembly; to the United States Postmaster for extending the postal service so as to meet the convenience of the members of the Assembly:

6. To the Labor Organizations for the helpful coöperation by which the great Mass Meeting on Sunday afternoon was made memorable:

7. To the Proprietors of the Steel Pier for the use of their admirable structure, and to the Atlantic City Board of Trade, the Atlantic City Business League, and the Atlantic City Hotel Men's Association for their efficient coöperation:

8. To the Atlantic City Daily Press, The Atlantic Review, the Evening Union, to the Press of the city of Philadelphia and other cities, and to the Religious Press, for their reports of the proceedings.

9. To the Guarantee Trust Company for aid and many favors.

10. To His Excellency Governor Fort, of New Jersey, for his presence, his courtesy and his inspiring address.

And to all others, whom we cannot specifically mention, but whose contributions to the comfort and well-being of the Assembly we greatly appreciate.

For all these ministries we invoke the blessing of God upon the many friends who have made possible the success of this meeting, and

We render devout thanks to Him whose favor has preserved the health and lives of His servants, the Commissioners, in their coming and going and throughout the laborious sessions of this Assembly.

Closing addresses were made by Rev. Newton Cadwell, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements; Mr. Cooper, Chairman of the Hospitality Committee, and the Moderator.

The Minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

Instead of the final roll call, by consent, the Commissioners present were allowed to hand their names to the Permanent Clerk to be checked upon the roll, and 386 were found to be present. The following were found absent without leave:

PRESBYTERIES.	MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
	III. SYNOD OF ATLANTIC.

After solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed and a vote taken for dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying: "By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at Atlantic City, New Jersey, on the third Thursday of May, 1911."

The sessions were closed with prayer and the Apostolic Benediction.

WILLIAM BROWN NOBLE, Permanent Clerk.
WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WORK.

The Special Committee on Christian Life and Work respectfully makes to the General Assembly its Fourth Annual Report. The Committee held, during the year, one meeting at Philadelphia, Pa., on March 24, 1910, which was attended by a majority of the members and consumed a whole day of careful consideration of many subjects that were presented. These subjects were committed to various Sub-Committees for more careful treatment than was possible at the time of the meeting, and these Sub-Committees made their reports in writing to a Sub-Committee on final draft, as directed by the Committee, consisting of the Secretary and Associate Secretary of the Committee, respectively.

The classification of the Committee is as follows:

Term expiring 1910: Rev. A. Edwin Keigwin, D.D.; Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D., Associate Secretary; Ruling Elder William H. Scott.

Term expiring 1911: Rev. Thomas H. Cleland, D.D.; Rev. John F. Hendy, D.D.; Ruling Elder Andrew Stevenson.

Term expiring 1912: Rev. Stephen A. Hunter, D.D.; Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., and Ruling Elder William T. Ellis.

The Assembly is requested to fill the vacancies occasioned in the Class of 1910 by the expiration of the term of service of those members, and also the vacancy occasioned in the Class of 1912 by the resignation of Ruling Elder William T. Ellis.

I. The Work of the Special Committee.—The last General Assembly continued the Committee and made several arrangements that put more emphasis upon the work entrusted to its care. It was ordered by the Assembly (See Minutes of General Assembly, 1909, pp. 255, 265) that the attention of all the Presbyteries and Synods be called to the imperative need of having a better arrangement in those judicatories for the reporting of the Narrative; that the Synods be requested to direct their respective Stated Clerks to assist this Committee in preparing the Narrative; that the Narrative prepared by the Special Committee shall hereafter be the only one presented to the Assembly, that the Assembly's Standing Committee on Narrative be expected to recommend such action thereon as may be needful; that the Narrative of the Special Committee, when approved by the Assembly, be printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes; and that a special place on the docket of the Assembly be given to the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, viz., the first Friday at 2.30 P.M. These actions taken by the Assembly had been recommended by this Committee, and indicate the deepening sense of the importance of the Narrative on the part of the Assembly and your Committee. It can be truly said by us that this duty has seemed more and more serious to your Committee, and worthy of our best efforts. The same may be said of many of the Presbyteries and Synods. Some of them have followed the suggestions made last year and have appointed more able committees and set a better place on the docket for the report. We think that the very best hour at the stated spring meeting of every Presbytery should be set aside for this report, and that the very best Committee service should be rendered on this behalf. But it will be impossible to get much improvement if the Committee be feeble or changed every year. One of the Presbyteries has already seen this and has given this duty to its Executive Commission and reports a great improvement. Others have created a Rotating Committee, so as to provide permanency and yet some change. We present recommendations on this matter.

II. MATTERS COMMITTED by the last Assembly, to wit:

(a) The matter of Vacancy and Supply was not referred, as we suggested to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, but was referred to this Committee for further consideration and report to the next Assembly. We must frankly say that this problem is so difficult and delicate, that we have not had the time, while attending to our other duties, to make the investigation needed.

The problem of unemployed ministers and vacant churches has been before the Presbyterian Church in various forms for forty years. It is not as yet solved, and the fear is expressed in some quarters that it cannot be solved. The point of difficulty lies in the relations of Presbyteries and congregations. Theoretically we are opposed to Congregationalism, practically we are in the control of the individualism which is the keynote of that system of church government. Neither congregations nor Presbyteries, as a rule, appear to favor a change in the existing conditions. If desired, the Committee will give attention to this important topic, with a view to a full study of the situation.

The following statistics will prove of value, showing, first, the large number of ministers not in the direct service of the churches, and, second, the great number of weak congregations in the denomination. The ministers not in the pastorate number 3,191 out of 8,872, and the number of congregations with fifty members and less is 4,083 out of 9,809.

(b) There was also referred to this Committee the duty of preparing for submission to the Presbyteries an Overture on the subject of Church members removing from the bounds of one Church to another, which overture should provide for suitable transfers under proper safeguards. But the Assembly, in another department, ordered to be overtured to the Presbyteries the matter of a certain paper handed in by one of its Commissioners, bearing on this subject, and for that reason your Committee felt that action by it in the same direction should be deferred. Judging by the large number of Presbyteries that have voted in the negative on the said proposal, it seems evident that further attention should be given to the matter.

(c) We have given some attention to the matter of preparing a pamphlet, at small cost, on the questions of Our Country as a Christian Nation and its Christian Education, and can report progress. We have considered this matter carefully. There is no doubt in our minds that every year this problem becomes more serious, and that we must inculcate a Christian education in the public and private school, if we are to save the nation. Christian education lies at the foundation of Christian character. How can we expect to find the rising generation pure and true, when there is little or no moral training in either home or school? How can we expect to find civic duty a habit and delight, unless we train the youthful citizen in the duties of the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule? It is our hope to present some proposal, at another time, that shall be worthy of this great subject.

(d) Blanks. The preparation of blanks for the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, together with the Statistical Report, for the congregations, Presbyteries and Synods, was referred by the last Assembly to this Committee. The form of these blanks has given us much thought. It is evident that many of the Presbyteries are not satisfied with the present form, but we have received very few definite suggestions as to its improvement. At present most of the sessions and Presbyteries content themselves with giving answers that are bare figures, without showing the gain or the loss. We spent a large part of one meeting on this single item. What we need, in order to help us in our Report to you, is an interesting summary from each church, showing us a picture of the local situation. The Presbytery feels the same need. The old way must change. The pastors, sessions and Presbyterial Committees must all earnestly unite with your Committee, if we are to be enabled to make this function an interesting and profitable exercise. There is no more important exercise than the preparation and presentation of the Narrative. There we find the conversions and the lapses, the story of the societies, the benevolences, the methods, the condition of the church at the end of the church year! If we could only learn the facts, we should know whether to thank the Lord of the Harvest or supplicate Him. No doubt we have reason to do both.

But how shall we get the facts? We have noted that certain of the Narratives contain mere figures. Some of the Narratives have evidently been prepared by a Committee of One. A number of the Committees report that they have no figures from last year and can make no comparisons and no adequate report. And others report reasons of a similar sort as to their deficient effort. It is a pleasure to report in contrast the plan of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange. The Committee says: "In January of this year Presbytery established an Executive Commission, and gave to it the duty of preparing the Narrative. The Commission appointed a Sub-Committee on the subject, which sent out the regular blanks, and also a circular letter asking for further information. The Sub-Committee prepared the Narrative from the material sent it and submitted it to the Commission, by which it was slightly amended. Then it was submitted to Presbytery. The unanimous and emphatic opinion of Presbytery was that this method of handling the Narrative marked a great advance over the previous method. Many have said that if this method be continued, the Narrative will be looked forward to as the most valuable and interesting feature of Presbytery's routine." It is needless for us to add that the Narrative submitted by this Presbytery is a model, and much more; it is an interesting story of particulars concerning the Christian life and work of the presbyterial year. Other Presbyteries show an earnest and successful effort in their Narratives, proving that our hope of a great improvement to come is not without warrant.

III. The Narratives.—Your Committee has received, up to May 5, one hundred and thirty (130) Narratives from Presbyteries, and twenty-three (23) from Synods, being a great gain in number over last year. The Sub-Committee on this part of the Report, Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D., has read these Narratives in the brief time afforded since their reception. Many of them are skillfully prepared, very interesting, and fine examples of what the Narratives ought to be and the help they might give to the Committee and the whole Church. The limitations of the Report compel us to give only a few words from each, although a summary is also added.

We give rather more space to Synodical reports this year than last, because of our desire to show the perspective of the larger area. The Committees report as follows:

ALABAMA—No report. ARKANSAS—"Few reports to judge from; evangelistic meetings with good results." ATLANTIC—No report. BALTIMORE—"Large increase of additions over last year; all benevolences increased; prayer meetings moribund." CANADIAN—No report. CALIFORNIA—"No synodical Committee on Christian Life and Work." CATAWBA—"Growth in Church membership; Women's Christian Temperance Union operating with telling effect; interdenominational institution for improving the colored people doing a good work." COLORADO—"Congregations increasing; Sunday-schools growing by leaps and bounds; Brotherhoods at a stand-still; prayer meetings poorly attended; family religion declining." EAST TENNESSEE and IDAHO—No reports. ILLINOIS—"Very little family religion; candidates for the ministry few; additions on confession not more than one for every fifteen church members; decided growth of church societies; splendid increase in benevolences; Brotherhoods growing." INDIANA—"About 80 per cent. of additions from the Sunday-school; encouragement as to midweek services; family religion not all encouraging; benevolences in hopeful condition." IOWA—"Good attendance at services, and gain in additions; men's organizations not taking strong hold; family religion indifferent; increased contributions for Home and Foreign Missions." KANSAS—No report. KENTUCKY—"Societies for women and young people doing well; fair number of additions; family religion lamentable." MICHIGAN—"Numerical growth; prayer meetings maintained with difficulty and family religion declining; young people's work at a stand-still; men's societies not general." MINNESOTA—"Sunday evening services neglected; some gains over last year in membership; family religion decaying; benevolences more encouraging." MISSOURI—No report. MONTANA—"Services well supported; increased Sunday-school enrollment; societies, except among men, vigorous; family religion not as good as formerly, and prayer meetings in only half of the churches; benevolences show increase; greatest period of settlement in the history of the State, with homestead filings at Great Falls land office averaging 100 per day." NEBRASKA—"Prayer meetings with small attendance; family worship neglected; increased contributions; advance in Sunday-school attendance." NEVADA—"While it has been said that there is no room for Christ in Nevada, the outlook is brighter now than ever, as it seems to me, after nearly eight years of observation." NEW JERSEY—"Gain of 12 per cent. in membership, but this is below increase in population; attendance about 70 per cent. at morning service and 30 per cent. at evening; Sunday-school growing and giving 90 per cent. of the accessions to church; men's societies in half the churches; no revival efforts; family religion at low ebb; prayer meetings with low pulse; all general benevolences well advanced." OHIO—"Additions on confession of faith about 2,000; Brotherhoods show no singleness of purpose or definiteness of aims, but women's organizations show usual zeal and fruitfulness; scant observance of family worship." OKLAHOMA—"Gratifying increase in number of communicants; gain of more than $22,000 in benevolences." OREGON—No report. PENNSYLVANIA—"Largest number of accessions in present century, total of 17,346, average of forty-eight every day in the year, but while whole Presbyterian Church has made gain of 30 per cent. in the last ten years, this Synod's gain in that period but 22 per cent.; abounding Sunday-school life, yet membership not keeping pace with Church's growth, now 37,000 less than number of communicants, whereas was once 18,000 greater. Universal lament over decline of family altar; and yet faithfulness in presenting children for baptism; prayer meeting attendance most discouraging; an increase in candidates which indicates a change in the current of the past few years; steady decline in per capita gifts, owing perhaps to increased cost of living." PHILIPPINES—No report. SOUTH DAKOTA—"Fewer ministers, licentiates, and candidates, but creditable gain in communicants, and services well maintained and with good attendance except at second Sabbath service; encouraging number of additions in Sunday-school; women's work well organized and the men appear to be content to do little; increase of benevolences 8½ per cent. last year." TENNESSEE—"Gain of 2,000 communicants; failure of children to attend preaching services; women's missionary organizations very successful; spiritual conditions very encouraging, considering disturbed conditions by reason of 'Union' ruptures; benevolences are fair, in view of the general situation; family religion—marked decadence." TEXAS—"Average membership of the churches considerably below 100; nevertheless a general quickening of interest in all the work of the Church; this year high tide in the offerings to the several Boards; many places have had revivals of religion, both in the cities and in the country. Generally the meetings have been union meetings." UTAH—"During the year there has been a gain in temperance and prohibition sentiment, several communities having joined the ranks of the no-license towns. The churches have been making progress during the year past in the matter of asking less from the Home Board, and one at least, the Westminster Church of Salt Lake, assumes self-support this year. The larger number of immigrants from the East coming into the State is proving helpful in leavening the mass of Mormonism." WASHINGTON—"Encouraging gain in communicants; unusual religious interest in many churches, and general situation hopeful and gratifying; nothing to cheer or encourage in family life; weekly prayer meetings on down grade; benevolences show a gain." WEST VIRGINIA—No report. WISCONSIN—No report.

Summary of Synods.—It is evident from the Synodical Summaries that there is much to encourage us in the present condition of the Church, and also enough of discouragement to warrant the most careful attention of our judicatories. The morning congregations are holding their own, but the evening meetings are neglected. The Sunday-schools are improving their various methods and are adding many members. The notable achievement of the year is the increase in benevolence reported by both Presbyteries and Synods. We infer that this is owing to the additional activities started and sustained by the Executive Commission of the General Assembly, and the coöperating Executive Commissions and Committees of Systematic Beneficence of the various Presbyteries and Synods. Increase in beneficence is one of the conditions of spiritual power. On the other hand, it is the almost universal testimony that religion in the family is declining, and that the prayer meetings are neglected. While organization is indeed necessary, and financial prosperity is gratifying, and both are reasons for thankfulness to God, we emphasize that back of all this is the need for consecration, prayer, and the power of the Holy Ghost.

IV. LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.—Another striking phenomenon of the religious life that has swept across our vision within the year is the Laymen's Missionary Movement. It has been so spectacular that none can have failed to remark its appearance. Its benefits are beyond question. It has kindled to a higher flame than ever before in modern days, the zeal for preaching the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth, and it has greatened the gifts to that Christly cause. But its by-results have been not less noteworthy. It has enlisted and developed talent for work that will be valuable on the home field, as well as to the cause abroad. It has revived the spiritual life in the churches participating in the various Conventions. It has demonstrated the value of virile methods in matters of the Kingdom of God. It has shown, in in the eyes of the whole on-looking world, that the Gospel of the Son of God is a vital, present, practical power amongst men. As is usual in such causes, our own Church was an eminent factor in this movement. And all the elements of vital Christian life inherent in the movement have, without doubt, been shared, both in their genesis and manifestation, by our beloved Church.

It is earnestly hoped that this new force will contribute of its power to all the enterprises of the Church. It is (1) a movement, carrying the whole body forward into action. It is (2) missionary, tending to develop the interest in all the missions of the Church, both Home and Foreign. It is (3) laymen. These brethren will, we hope, be the means of rousing all our brotherhoods into full action that shall be missionary, fraternal, social. It is greatly to be desired that this great movement come into organic relation with our judicatories, so as to be perpetuated and unified. These seventy-five missionary conferences, held in the principal cities of the land, are a part of the greater movement seeking to build up the complete missionary enterprise and unify all parts of the Church. We think that while we express our appreciation of this movement, we should also now provide for its unification with all the items of the Budget which the Assembly is carrying on, and which the churches are everywhere endeavoring to make a success.

Not only is there need of unification of the men's efforts for the sake of saving the integrity of the Budget and maintaining the just proportions of the whole work, but we may say, with greater emphasis, that a foreign missionary movement by laymen is a part of a much greater and more comprehensive ideal that calls for the unifying and inspiring of our laymen in behalf of our whole Church, our whole Country, the whole world.

The Roman Catholic Church has seen this clearly, and her highest prelates are bending their energies to unite the Catholic laymen's societies into one great National Federation, to be irresistible. And we on our part behold a Presbyterian Brotherhood with almost boundless capacities, but with energies not yet aroused to perform the glorious task.

V. The Family.—It is possible, in our absorption in the general interests of the Church, with their wide outlook at home and abroad, to forget that the fundamental unity in the social organization is the family. The first institution in Paradise was the family, and it is the nucleus of all other human relationships, in Society, the State, the Church. It is all important, therefore, that it should be preserved in its purity, guarded from all defilement, and fostered in every way possible. It is threatened to-day by three evils, a lack of appreciation of the sanctity of marriage, the increase of divorce, and the decline in the birth-rate. The latter, whatever its causes, needs emphasis, for the family which lacks children is incomplete in itself, fails to make good as a factor in the progress of the race, and cannot find favor with Him of whom it is said that children are the heritage of the Lord.

The evil of easy divorce also is everywhere threatening the purity of human life and true social and moral order. This subject is treated quite fully by the Committee on Marriage and Divorce, to whose Report reference is made.

The Church needs not only to guard against the evils above indicated, but also to take definite measures for the uplifting of the standards as to the sanctity of marriage, the obligations of parents, the value of the home, and the duty of the Church, thus conserving the family so as to make it a constant blessing to humanity. The Gospel having the family in view, has exalted marriage into an holy estate whose sanction is divine, makes the family life in a deep sense a sacrament, and seeks to build up within the home a life in some measure conformable to the will of the Father in Heaven.

It is with regret that we report, therefore, that the testimony is general as to the decay of family religion in some portions of the Church, and that there is serious indifference also on the part of many parents as to their duties to their children in things religious. The fear is expressed that these conditions are symptoms of failure rightly to apprehend the practical value, to State and Church, of the family and the home.

VI. The Services of the Sanctuary and Doctrinal Preaching.—We have a feeling, after reading some of the Narratives, that there is reason for calling the attention of the Church to the subject of raising in tone the ministrations of the pulpit, especially in the matter of the subjects upon which pastors shall preach. Some of the Narratives remind us that there is a resort, by some pastors, to sensational methods of advertising their pulpit topics. A use of mere catchwords of almost a slangy character, quite derogatory to the dignity of the pulpit, and also the use of other means of an equally unworthy character, that are supposed to be helpful in attracting the attention of the passer-by, and add to the attendance upon the services of the Lord's House. Some of the subjects advertised are evidently of too low a character to furnish any preacher of God's Word with a proper theme, or any attendant upon the services with a subject worth listening to. Let us emphasize the fact that when the Lord's Day comes and the services of the Lord's House begin, a great occasion has arrived, no matter what the size of the audience or the condition of the weather. That is the time for such an arrangement of services, as to programme, attitude, and subjects, as will increase the sense of reverence on the part of the worshiper and the spirit of dignity on the part of the pulpit. Ministers should often preach on great subjects, on the important doctrines of the Bible, such as the Fatherhood of God, the Mediatorship of Jesus Christ, the work of the Holy Spirit, the value and use of the Holy Scriptures, the immortality of the soul, the brotherhood of Man, the moral law, Christian charity, the judgment, and eternity. An earnest endeavor should be made to present such great themes in an interesting, personal and practical way, so as to stir the conscience, feed the mind, inspire the soul, and lead all hearers to worship God in spirit and in truth.

VII. Denominational Loyalty.—Denominations are not of our making. When we united with the Church we were compelled to choose some denomination, and wisely, as we think, chose the Presbyterian. Having made this voluntary choice, it behooves every member to be loyal to this branch of the Christian Church.

This loyalty must begin with a particular congregation. When a person says, "One church is just as good as another," or, "It does not make any difference to me which church I attend," it will usually be found that such an one is not of much help to any church.

The Presbyterian Church does its work largely through the Boards, and every member is called upon to support these noble agencies in their efforts to spread the Gospel at home and abroad; to provide for the Church an educated ministry; to maintain colleges and erect church buildings; to care for aged and disabled ministers, and to provide Sabbath-schools and literature for the children and youth of the land.

It is the privilege and duty of every member of the Presbyterian Church to support our own institutions. Mr. Moody, who was a Congregationalist, is credited with the remark that when he was looking for money, he expected 80 per cent. to come from the Presbyterians. This may be flattering to us, but not so when we consider that many of our Boards are hampered because more money is not cast into their treasuries.

Loyalty to our Church cannot only be manifested by gifts of money, but by reading and circulating the one official organ of the Church, The Assembly Herald, as well as by helping to support at least one of the distinctively Presbyterian religious papers published in our country.

A Presbyterian paper coming regularly into the home each week will have its effect in cementing the bond of union between the family and the Church.

Furthermore, the loyalty of each church is tested by its attitude towards our Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. Independent of the giving of money for the missionary operations of this Board, care should be exercised to see that our own publications are used. The Hymnal and Chapel Hymnal are admittedly first-class Hymn Books, and yet sessions will allow choir masters to select other books which are not published by us, to be used in their churches. So with the Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers. No better papers are issued, and yet some churches and Sabbath-schools are not loyal enough to use them and seem to forget that even if other papers are a trifle cheaper, two-thirds of the profits of the Board of Publication are used for missionary purposes, and the other third is the property of the Church. In other words, some are not patronizing the concern in which they are themselves, as it were, partners.

One peculiarity about denominational loyalty is, that usually those who are the most faithful to one denomination are the most liberal and active in interdenominational work.

Fidelity to the interests of the local church begets loyalty to the denomination, and loyalty to the denomination begets loyalty to the Church at large, and all because of loyalty to Jesus Christ the King and Head of the Church, to whom be all the glory.

VIII. Inter-Church Federation.—Last year we called the attention of the General Assembly to a few prominent facts regarding the greatest of all interdenominational movements, known popularly as Inter-Church Federation. We described very briefly the first meeting at Philadelphia, in 1908, of the First meeting of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America with its 400 delegates chosen by the highest judicatories of thirty-three denominational Church bodies, and we also referred to the work being definitely performed by local Inter-Church Federations in Los Angeles, Cal., New England, and Trenton, N. J. But now we must call the attention of the Assembly to the vast work to be done by the Churches Federated, and the pressing need of all the Churches providing for an effective working inter-Church agency, that will be a means toward solving the many and increasing problems which are confronting all the Churches in our day. In the field of this nation alone there is a portentous increase in the tasks before the Church and the State. The Church itself is passing through a transition period as to its own development and relations. It is not pessimistic to note the changes occurring in the resources of the Church. The Narratives show and our own observation confirms the plain facts of our general situation. The benevolences of the Church require new and ingenious appeals to bring them up to the mark set by the General Assembly's Budget, which is only 5 per cent. increase over last year. The attendance in many of our churches is not more than two-thirds of the membership, and the evening services and the prayer meetings are attended by a very few persons. The duty of soul-winning or individual work for individuals, God's own method in the New Testament times, is not accepted by many of our church members, and even our pastors seem to be looking to evangelistic campaigns as the main hope of the Church. Inside the Church there is an increasing difficulty in paying for the running expenses, because of removals from the older city churches to the suburbs, the death of the old members leaving no one to maintain the family pew, together with the wasteful indefensible over-churching of neighborhoods by the Protestant Churches, resulting in poorly paid pastors and pitiable rivalry. Outside the Church we see the evil forces of the saloon, the pool rooms, the dance-halls and various forms of Sabbath desecration and social impurity, united, aggressive and defiant. Linked with them are the evil forces causing the awful political corruption in all our great cities. The humiliating exposures lately made in New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Denver, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities, might well suggest that a day be appointed for fasting and prayer. There is indeed much to thank God for. The evident longings of the people everywhere for honest government, the uprisings of the citizens in many States against the domination of self-appointed bosses, the magnificent donations for public charities, show that God's Spirit is still with us.

We thank God for the men He has raised up to deliver us, like ancient heroes of the Book of Judges. We thank God for the incorruptible Judge Ben Lindsay, for dauntless Governor Charles E. Hughes, for the independent Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York, and, above all, for that one man, whose simple family life has been a safeguard to the home, whose devotion to the Decalogue and the Golden Rule has established a new standard of public morality, and whose appeals for world-peace have infused new hope in a coming millennium, the most illustrious American of to-day, Theodore Roosevelt.

All these new questions can not be solved by one Church alone, nor one denomination alone. There must be a combination of the Churches—a united, persistent effort to lift society, in both Church and State, or the Republic is doomed. Realizing this, the Church bodies formed the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, popularly called the Inter-Church Federation. The work of the Inter-Church Federation is the rousing of all our churches and citizens to the solving of the great religious and social problems of our day, such as the distribution of charity, the alleviation of poverty, better care for the aged than the almshouse, the reduction of the number of saloons, the cure of the awful ills of social impurity, moral education in the public school, the furnishing of lectures, good times and clean shows for the boys and girls, the young and old, without the awful temptations that now cluster around the dance hall, the pool-room and the saloon; the bringing of the Gospel message into every home, American and foreign.

We think the time has now come for all our Presbyteries and Synods to imitate the Assembly and appoint their representative Committees to join the similar Committees of other Church bodies, as a Council to supervise their respective territories, and to stimulate the churches to an advance along the whole line.

The Assembly has recommended already that our lower judicatories be requested to appoint such Committees. But something more must be done to stimulate the movement in Synod and Presbytery. We think it would be well for the Assembly to authorize this Committee to take further steps, mostly by correspondence, that will lead to the effective results above suggested. It is easy to see what might be accomplished by the Inter-Church Federation of a State, by two or three such Federations contiguous. Such directions, if given, should have in mind the taking of action without fail at all the fall meetings of the Presbyteries.

IX. The Prayer Meeting.—That there is a rising tide of interest in the mid-week service or prayer meeting is evident from the reports received this year. While very few would venture the assertion that this most important church service has reached the ideal anywhere, yet there is good reason to believe that there has been a genuine advance in interest in this service throughout the entire denomination. This should cause us to rejoice and to review hopefully the results of the past year.

Just what is responsible for the change, slight though it be and absolutely indiscernible in certain parts of the country as it probably is, would be difficult to state in a few words. Undoubtedly one of the chief causes is the added interest of the laymen and the consequent frequent gatherings of groups of men for prayer for specific objects. The Laymen's Missionary movement is a movement of prayer and loyalty to the Kingdom's interests if it is anything, and the awakening of interest in the great world problems has brought men to their knees in prayer in a most remarkable way. Men having once tested the power of prayer, having once caught a vision of results, cannot help holding a different attitude to the midweek prayer meeting. As the Brotherhoods come to find that their largest usefulness is in the line of prayer, Bible study, personal work and missionary endeavor, the prayer spirit slowly but surely will take hold of men previously absorbed in other things. Is it not natural, therefore, that, as men of strength and influence within the Church become leaders in the midweek service, advocate it publicly and privately and work for it in every possible way, fully believing in the power of prayer, an increased interest will be aroused among the rank and file of the Church?

The Committee this year has endeavored to gather a few testimonies from the strongest and most respected Presbyterian laymen throughout the land as to their belief in or the effect upon their own lives of the prayer meeting. It is hoped these may prove a stimulus to many who question whether men prominent in the affairs of the nation and in the business world are interested in prayer. It is furthermore felt that some of their concrete suggestions may prove helpful in churches where the meeting is still far from what it ought to be. These testimonies are sufficient to prove that strong manly men are personally interested in the midweek church meeting.

From Henry P. Crowell, President Quaker Oats Company, Chicago, Ill.:

"In my opinion this midweek meeting should be the very centre and heart life of the Church. People should gather because they are burdened for the souls of men, and for individual men, and they alone can find peace through prayer. They should gather because the Church has problems and the wisdom of God is to be secured through prayer; and again because the Kingdom of God is to be advanced in our day, and if we are to be used in aiding the advance we must be fully surrendered, that there may be no hindrance to the power of God working in and through us, and this surrender must come through prayer. Change the character of this meeting, and the lives of many individuals will be changed. Change the lives of many individuals and the character of the Church will be changed, and it will once again become a praying church. Change the character of the Church, and it will change the character of the world. Then men shall know the binding obligation of Matthew 22 : 37–40."

From the late John H. Converse, President Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, Pa.:

"In reply to yours of the 18th inst., I would say that I believe it is true that the midweek prayer meeting has been declining in interest and efficiency. The remedy, I think, lies in making the meeting more interesting and inspiring and to this end, more careful preparation should be made in advance for it, and subjects of practical and spiritual interest be considered, and all church members be invited to take part, special duties being allotted in advance to a certain number on each evening."

From Hon. H. B. F. MacFarland, late President Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia:

"I appreciate your invitation, and am only too glad to testify to the value of the midweek prayer meeting and to acknowledge my own personal indebtedness to it. If in any church it is not successful as a means of instruction and inspiration, it is not the fault of the prayer meeting but of the people, perhaps in some cases of the minister. If the minister and the people will go in the right spirit the meeting will be a success. Nothing can take its place. I do not see how any church can have more than a name to live if it has not a real prayer life centered in a real prayer meeting. The best methods for such a meeting are those of the New Testament."

From Charles S. Holt, of the firm of Holt, Wheeler & Sidley, Chicago. President of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of America:

"Rightly conceived, the prayer meeting is to the church what family worship is to the home. It touches the exercises of Christian devotion and fellowship with a sense of intimacy that is not easy to attain in the great services of the sanctuary. Simple, informal, even homely as the interchange of thought and feeling may be, it has the family quality; it freshens the atmosphere and sweetens the spiritual life of those who take part in it. No wonder that the vital work of the church is so largely done by those who have the prayer meeting habit, or at least the prayer meeting spirit, so that they would attend if they could. It would be hard to exaggerate my own indebtedness to this habit for spiritual quickening and refreshment during thirty-five years of Christian experience."

From President Woodrow Wilson, Princeton University:

"I do not feel really qualified to speak of the use and value of the midweek prayer meeting, because my necessary absorption in the conduct of our university chapel services has separated me in recent years from the ordinary church work. I can, therefore, only express an opinion based rather upon past experience and observation, than upon recent contact with actual conditions. My own impression is that the midweek prayer meeting could be rendered of the highest value and significance if it were used, as it used to be, as the occasion for a midweek lecture by the pastor, rather than as a mere prayer and song service in which the study of the Scriptures and comment upon them are of minor significance. I know that in my own youth nothing instructed and stimulated me more than the careful and interesting expositions of Scripture given by my father, who was my pastor, at the midweek prayer meeting, and in all my experience of the midweek prayer meeting since that time I have missed that old stimulation. The meeting was then a great instrument of religious education."

From Hon. John W. Foster, ex-Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.:

"Although there are many good Christians who do not attend the midweek prayer meeting, that meeting is a good test of the spirituality of the church and of the individual member. Not long ago a Secretary of one of the mission Boards, on a visit to Washington, sought to interest me in some pending legislation, and mentioned a Senator who would be ready to aid the measure. I asked him if he was interested in religious matters. 'Oh! yes,' he said, 'he is a prayer meeting Christian. You can count on him.'

"In my opinion there is nothing which the General Assembly and our clergy can do to better promote the spirituality and activity of our churches than to awaken new interest in the midweek prayer meeting. I am glad from personal experience to bear testimony to its usefulness in shaping Christian life and character."

From Judge Selden P. Spencer, St. Louis, Mo.:

"I want to say two things and make a confession:

"(1) The relationship between pastor and people and between fellow-members of the church, which is characteristic of the midweek service, furnishes an opportunity for mutual friendship and helpfulness that is impossible in the more formal gatherings in the church.

"(2) The greater familiarity with God—if I may so speak reverently—at the prayer meeting, where the needs of the church and of the individual and the expression of individual gratitude and the prayers for individual guidance are presented in speech and song, and in silent communion mightily, strengthens not alone the relationship between the church and the Great Shepherd of the Flock, but gives an impetus to the individual Christian life than cannot be secured in any other service.

"Let others tell how to make the prayer meetings more interesting, more helpful and better attended. I know this, that in proportion as I am absent from the weekly prayer meetings of the church my interest in and my familiarity with the life of the church and my fellowship with the members of the church, in Christian work, immediately and proportionately declines, and I fancy that my experience is an ordinary one.

"It is the duty of every Christian (so situated in life that he can attend), to regularly attend the weekly prayer meetings of his church, even though they be mighty dull. If it is, perhaps if the duty be faithfully performed, the meetings will no longer be dull to him, and may be by his attendance made helpful to others."

From Mr. H. J. Heinz, President H. J. Heinz Company, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

"It has been my personal experience, as well as observation, that the midweek prayer meeting is essential to Christian life and to the building up of Christian character. It is, as it has often been described, the spiritual barometer of the church, and its influence upon those who make a practice of attending with some degree of regularity is most helpful."

X. The Calendar Year.—The great difficulty in presenting a satisfactory narrative to the General Assembly arises from the fact that the Church year closes March 31, and there is not sufficient time to prepare a report showing accessions to the Church, and if the Church year should be changed to an earlier date the Committee could make a more complete report. The best change, in our opinion, would be to the Calendar year.

XI. Closing Summary.—In closing this Narrative, your Committee would bear testimony to the interest which the reading of the various Narratives has created in us, but with the feeling of interest there is also a feeling of responsibility and awe as we think of the conditions of things in this great country, and in our Foreign Mission fields, which God has committed to our branch of the Presbyterian Church. It is evident, as we have said, that organization is improving and becoming more simplified. Prosperity in temporal things is abounding. There is evidently an increase in the feeling of responsibility on the part of our members as to the distribution of their moneys, but when religion in the family is decreasing and when the church prayer meetings are being neglected, how shall we expect that God will be pleased to bless with His pentecostal power those who are not seeking the blessing by repentance, by fasting and by prayer? Fathers and brethren, our Master is on the throne; Jesus is King; He rules in heaven above and on the earth beneath. The mighty power that sends the strange visitor to our sky, through all its orbit of more than three billion miles, is the giver of the greater power of the pentecostal blessing of a descending Holy Ghost. We note the feeling of expectancy in the churches that something good and great is coming. There is a longing for revival, but power is promised to those who are waiting in the spirit of prayer. "Tarry ye at Jerusalem until ye be endowed with power from on high," is as appropriate to-day, as in those early days when it was the watchword to the little Christian Church, and the inspiration to their consecration, loyalty and obedience.

We submit to the Assembly the following recommendations for adoption, embodying the suggestions of the Report.

Resolved, 1. That the attention of all the Presbyteries and Synods be called to the imperative need of having a better arrangement in these judicatories for the reporting of the Narrative, and to that end the Assembly would suggest to each of them that the function of the Narrative be either added to the duties of the Executive Commission, if there be one, or if not, that there be a Standing Committee of at least three rotating members, together with the Moderator and Stated Clerk, ex officio, making five, to prepare the Narrative, and that a period of at least one hour be alloted to the Report at the close of a morning session of the judicatory, to be accompanied with exercises of praise and prayer. There might also be opportunity for brief remarks from the members of the judicatory.

Resolved, 2. That the Stated Clerks of Synods be and are hereby appointed as advisory members of the General Assembly's Special Committee on the Narrative of Christian Life and Work, and that the Synods be requested to direct the said Clerks to coöperate with the Committee in the preparation of the Narrative for the Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That the Narrative of the Special Committee, when approved by the Assembly, be printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, 4. That the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work be directed to prepare, in conference with the Home Mission agencies of the Assembly, a proposal concerning the matter of Vacancy and Supply, to be reported to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, 5. That hereafter the letters "Ev." be not appended to the name of a minister in the Statistical Reports unless by formal action of the Presbytery.

Resolved, 6. That the Stated Clerk be instructed to gather, every five years, the statistics of the congregations as to the value of church property, the amount of mortgage indebtedness, and the number and value of manses.

Resolved, 7. That we recognize with gratitude to God what has been done by the Laymen's Missionary Movement to stimulate a new interest in Foreign Missions, and we recommend that the Executive Commission of the General Assembly be authorized and directed, in conference with the leaders of the said movement and our Missionary Boards, to consider some plan by which this great new movement may be brought into unity with all the other parts of our common work, and report to the next General Assembly as to the same.

Resolved, 8. That we call the attention of all our pastors and sessions to the great evil of the use of sensational methods in connection with the ministrations of the pulpit and the services of the sanctuary, which methods are likely to lower the dignity of the pulpit and destroy the sense of reverence for the Lord's House; and we earnestly urge all our pastors to preach on great subjects; to prepare for their public ministrations with care, having their sermons saturated with the truth of God's Word, and to glorify the Master by reverential services within the Lord's House on the Lord's Day.

Resolved, 9. That it is the duty of the Church to guard and preserve the integrity and purity of the home, to proclaim insistently the sacredness of the marriage bond, and to protest against all evils threatening the integrity of the family life. Especially do we advise pastors and sessions to urge upon parents the establishment and maintenance of family worship, and the bringing up, by proper training, of their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Resolved, 10. That the attention of all our churches, Presbyteries and Synods be called to the pressing need of having the churches in each community unite with those of other denominations for the formation of Inter-Church Federations, with the purpose of expressing the fellowship of the Christian Churches in Jesus Christ as their Divine Lord and Saviour, carrying on evangelistic work, advancing the cause of charity, protecting the interests of the Sabbath, temperance, law and order, and social purity, especially among the young; building up public opinion in support of civic righteousness, and in general, securing other advances in social and religious betterment; and that when such Federations are to be organized, it be upon the lines laid down by the Inter-Church Conference on Federation, of thirty denominations, held in New York, November, 1905, and approved by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. (see Minutes of General Assembly, 1908, p. 88); and reaffirmed and promulgated by the First Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, held in Philadelphia, Pa., December, 1908, and that as an aid to such federating, especially of States, each judicatory be advised to appoint a Committee to stimulate and supervise the movement for federation within its bounds, and to confer with the other denominational bodies occupying similar territory, and that the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be directed to send a special notice of this action to each of the judicatories aforesaid before September 15 next.

Resolved, 11. That the Committee be authorized and directed to take the necessary steps to bring to the attention of all the Synods and Presbyteries, the matter of the appointment of Committees on Inter-Church Federation, as above recommended, and to make an earnest effort to effect the same during the coming year, and report upon this item and others related to the Inter-Church Federation Movement.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES M. BARKLEY, Moderator;
WM. H. ROBERTS, Secretary;
HUGH B. MacCAULEY, Associate Secretary.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

CORRESPONDENCE

I. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

The Western (American) Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Annual Report for the year 1909–10. From the Minutes of the Commission the following statements are submitted:

1. MEETING.—The Commission, during the last ecclesiastical year, has held two meetings; one in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, in New York City, on June 25, 1909; the other in the Presbyterian Assembly Hall, 328 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Ill., February 8, 1910. The first meeting was purely for the purpose of organization; the second for the transaction of business. In addition to the business sessions, the Commission was honored by a dinner given to it by the Presbyterian Social Union of Chicago, and the event was socially and otherwise a great success. The Chicago meeting was one of great interest, and the concise statements of its transactions hereinafter given will be the evidence of the increasing usefulness of the Alliance to its world-wide constituents. Great regret was felt over the absence of the Chairman of the Commission, through temporary illness, and the chair was occupied alternately, in his absence, by the Vice-Chairmen.

2. OFFICERS.—The officers for the present year are the following: Chairman, Rev. A. G. Wallace, D.D., of the United Presbyterian Church; Vice-Chairmen, Rev. T. P. Stevenson, D.D., of the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and the Hon. J. Hoge Tyler, of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.; Secretary, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; Recording Secretary, Rev. J. C. Scouller, D.D., of the United Presbyterian Church; Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard, of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

3. NECROLOGY.—The Commission has been saddened by the deaths of four brethren, who have rendered efficient service to the cause of the Alliance:

Reformed Church in America: Rev. John B. Drury, D.D., Editor of the Christian Intelligencer, who died March 21, 1909, aged seventy years; and Rev. Mancius H. Hutton, D.D., pastor of the Second Reformed Church, New Brunswick, N. J., who died December 19, 1909, aged seventy-two years.

Associate Reformed Synod of the South: Rev. James Boyce, D.D., President of Due West Female College, South Carolina, who died January 1, 1910, aged fifty years.

Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.: Rev. William R. Richards, D.D., pastor Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City, who died January 7, 1910, aged fifty-six years.

4. THE NINTH COUNCIL OF THE ALLIANCE.—In accordance with arrangements duly made, the Ninth General Council of the Alliance met in New York, June 15–25, 1909. All the sessions of the Council were held in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Fifty-fifth Street and Fifth Avenue. The attendance of delegates was fair; the date being too early in the summer for as large an attendance as would have been had it been possible to hold the Council in September. As stated last year, the three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Hudson River being appointed for September, 1909, made it inadvisable to attempt so important a meeting as that of the Council at the same time. Considering everything, the attendance upon the Council was excellent and the papers and discussions were of a high order. The opening sermon was delivered by the Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., LL.D., President of Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa., and the opening address was made by the retiring President, Rev. Principal J. Oswald Dykes, D.D., Cambridge, England, Four sessions were devoted to addresses commemorative of John Calvin—his life and influence. The proceedings of the Council have been published in an 8vo. volume of 593 pages.

The reception of two Churches of the Continent of Europe into full membership of the Alliance is reported; the Hungarian Evangelical Church of the Helvetic Confession, and the French Reformed Church Evangelical.

The hospitality of the Presbyterians of New York to the delegates of the Council was of a most generous nature, and among other social events is to be noticed the excursion on the Hudson River, on the steamer "Albany," of the Hudson River Day Line, tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Olcott.

The next meeting of the Council has been appointed for the year 1913, at Aberdeen, Scotland, at such time as the Local Committee of Arrangements may appoint.

The officers of the Alliance for the years 1909–13 are as follows: President, Rev. D. J. Burrell, D.D., of the Reformed Church in America; General Secretary, Rev. George D. Mathews, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in England; American Secretary, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; General Treasurer, Mr. William Brander, of the Presbyterian Church in England; American Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard, of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. The general office is at 25 Christ Church Avenue, Brondesbury, London, N. W., England.

5. EDUCATION.—The attention of the Alliance has been drawn in a marked way to the educational situation in the United States, and that because the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches "have always had for their characteristic note an appeal to the enlightened intelligence and reason of men and they have gained and held their place in history largely in virtue of the fact that they have stood for the intellectual appreciation and rational acceptance of the truths which constitute the body of Evangelical Christianity." A very definite, pertinent and thorough-going report on the subject was presented to the Executive Commission at the Chicago meeting by its Committee on Education. For a full abstract of this Report reference is made to the Executive Commission of this Alliance, which accompanies this document. Among other things this Report states: "An Englishman has remarked that 'Education is the religion of the American people.'" It is to be feared that, in a sense which is to be deplored, the Englishman's observation is correct. Perhaps it would be nearer the truth to say that the people are loyally devoted to education, as they conceive of it, than that they have the right conception of what education should be. It is a loss, and not a gain, if in exalting education religion is to be belittled or ignored. If education is to be the religion of this country, because it is made a substitute for religion, then the Christian Church has an important task to perform in making clear to the people that in promoting education, while dismissing religion, they have won the less and lost the infinitely greater.

The Commission submits to the supreme judicatories of the Churches the paper adopted by the ninth Council upon the vital importance of the moral and religious education of the young, with its hearty and unanimous request that action be taken in harmony therewith.

This Council, recognizing the vital importance of the moral and religious education of the young, and the vast and growing influence of the educational institutions of the State in forming the character and intellectual equipment of our youth, would put on record the following as a statement of the views of the Council:

(1) This Council recognizes the right and duty of the State to provide such educational facilities for the young as will qualify them for the intelligent and wise discharge of the duties of citizenship.

(2) That these educational facilities should provide for such moral and religious instruction as will secure the rightful use of secular learning, promote loyalty to God, and fidelity to the great ethical ideas which underlie the social, industrial and political life of Christian States.

(3) That in order to provide this moral and religious instruction in the schools of the State, it is essential that the Holy Scriptures should be made an effective part of such instruction, not for sectarian purposes, but in so far as relates to the character and government of God, and the great individual and social moralities, which the State has derived from the Scriptures, and without which the maintenance of Christian civilization would be impossible.

(4) That in the educational institutions under the care of the Church or of Christian men and women, the Scriptures should not only enter into the course of study for ethical, civic or literary purposes, but as able also to make wise unto salvation; the supreme authority in faith and morals, the final and authoritative revelation of God to man concerning the things which make for his eternal peace.

(5) That we heartily commend the efforts of the Churches to bring direct religious influence to bear upon the students in our universities and colleges, through the appointment, by the denominational Boards of Education, of student pastors and other agencies which have for their purpose the conservation of the religious faith of the students, and the making of them into a united and efficient body witnessing among their fellow-students for Christ (p. 407).

The Executive Commission's Committee on Education also discussed the question of the Theological Seminaries, in connection with which "there is just now a clamorous demand for a more or less radical modification of the traditional theological curriculum." In connection both with public education and the curriculum of the Theological Seminary the Commission adopted the following resolutions, which are respectfully submitted for your consideration:

(1) That the Churches here represented unite their forces and earnestly call upon the other evangelical Churches to coöperate with them, in seeing that our public schools are loyal to the great foundation of Christianity, and to the inculcation of the ethical teachings of the Bible which are held sound alike by all Christian people.

(2) That we suggest to the Churches here represented that they give careful attention to the intermediate school, both public and private, in which so many of their children are under influences which at their age are bound to be potent and permanent; and that by frequent visitation, by the distribution of literature, and by whatever other means may seem wise, the Christian ideals and motives shall be presented to their opening minds.

(3) That the Churches should strive, with unremitting zeal, to strengthen their own colleges and to make them as educational forces fully equal to the institutions supported by the State; for Christian parents often choose to send their children where they believe there are higher educational standards, coupled with a doubtful religious atmosphere, rather than where there is a fine evangelical spirit but indifferent educational requirements.

(4) That the Churches owe it to themselves and to their children to study conditions at the State Universities and, as speedily as possible, to take whatever steps may seem expedient and wise to throw around these schools the influences of the evangelical faith and, always in the most tactful and conciliatory spirit, to show their appreciation and desire to make the most of a hospitable attitude toward the Christian Church.

(5) That the Churches, in their supreme judicatories, consider with great care the demand that is now heard from various quarters, within the Church and without, for changes in the curriculums of their Theological Seminaries; that they recognize that while incidental modification in the way of subtraction of development may be wise in view of the exigencies of the present time, yet every time has its peculiar and pressing exigencies; and that inasmuch as these seminaries are maintained to prepare young men for the work of the Gospel ministry, and, inasmuch as that work in its broad outlook and essential features is ever the same, therefore the principium of their curriculum does not call for any revolutionary reconstruction.

6. Coöperation in Foreign Missions.—Attention is called to two great facts: first of which is the actual achievement in coöperation.

The Toronto (Canada) Council of the Alliance, in 1892, sent out a call for a Conference of the Officers of the Foreign Mission Boards of the Presbyterian family of Churches in this country and Canada. That Conference, in 1893, led to the Annual Conference of the Boards of all the Protestant denominations in these two countries. Then came the splendid practical results of the "Committee on Reference and Counsel," appointed a few years ago, by the Annual Conference, and the equally splendid results of similar Committees in Great Britain and on the Continent of Europe. So that just as the Christian Church, everywhere, has caught a vision of the entire heathen world, now in our day open to the heralds of the Gospel, and, just as the Church is rising to a sense of her high privileges and supreme duty of evangelizing the world in our generation, at this very time, in the Providence of God, an effective world-wide agency is being organized to lead the way in efficient methods of coöperation in Foreign Missions for the whole Church of Christ. The World Missionary Conference at Edinburgh, in June of this year, is the consummation of this advance for the present.

The second great fact is the movement, on the part of all the Protestant Churches of Christendom, looking to an all-comprehensive plan of coöperation in the matter of the Christian education of the youth, among all the heathen people of the world.

The Churches represented in this Commission are requested, in all practical ways, to continue to further these two great movements, and in particular to offer prayer for the success of the Edinburgh World Missionary Conference.

Another matter vitally connected with the Foreign Missions is the work being done for Europeans and Anglo-Americans in non-European foreign lands. It is a matter of congratulation that in cities like Yokohama, Manila, and Shanghai, much good is being done for these persons by pastors of churches. Much more remains to be done, for there is no agency for evil so antagonistic to missionary work as the immoral lives of many Americans and Europeans in foreign lands.

7. HOME MISSIONS.—The conditions surrounding the Churches both in the United States and Canada emphasize increasingly from year to year the opportunities given by God in His Providence for the evangelizing of the masses, both native and foreign born. Both countries wrestle with the same problems, and the Churches in both are bending their energies resolutely to the work. The following Resolutions are offered for consideration and adoption.

(1) That inasmuch as there is not a sufficient number of men to carry on the work of the ministry in the Home Mission fields of the several Churches, the Executive Commission urges upon ministers to seek out young men in their congregations with gifts and graces and, by counsel, persuade them to turn their thoughts to the ministry, and urge, also, upon parents to consecrate more earnestly their sons to the service of Christ and to pray that they may call them to serve Him in the ministry.

(2) Recognizing the fact that it will require all the resources of the various Protestant Churches, both in men and money, to give the Gospel to the multitudes coming into America if we are to make and keep the people Christians, the Executive Commission would urge upon these Churches, and more especially upon those holding the Presbyterian System, that all wasteful and injurious overlapping in Mission work, as far as possible, be ended.

(3) That this Executive Commission urges upon the attention of those Churches within the Alliance which have taken up the Layman's Missionary Movement the necessity of broadening the scope of the movement, so that it may embrace work in the Home as well as the Foreign field.

8. WORK ON THE EUROPEAN CONTINENT.—It is not possible to give much space to the situation on the European Continent, and out of many topics of great interest we submit the following:

(a) Religious Services for Tourists, etc.—The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Reformed Church in America both continue their work in the way of providing English services on the Continent of Europe for tourists and American students. This work is not supported by our Churches as it should be. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. is also seeking to aid the advancement of the work carried on in the Latin Quarter of Paris, and conducted by the Rev. Mr. Shurlett.

(b) Bohemia.—The success of the Calvin centenaries in different parts of Europe suggests that it would be well to initiate a movement to commemorate the martyrdom of John Huss by a five hundredth anniversary in 1915. The Bohemian churches have adhered loyally to Calvinism and the commemoration of their spiritual pre-reformation leader would stimulate the progress of the churches both of Bohemia and Moravia, and deepen the historic interest in them of all our churches. Two of the ministers of the Bohemian Church expect to visit this country this summer and a resolution with reference to them is submitted for adoption.

(c) Russia.—From all quarters comes the message that Russia is ready, as never before, for the Gospel. The Russian is naturally a religious person, and he is tired of the husks of ritualism. The Presbyterian Molakani are increasing both in number and in influence; have established a training school for preachers and financial support given them will bring large results.

(d) France.—In connection with the controversy which has arisen between the Roman Catholic hierarchy and the French government in the matter of disestablishment, it is important to note that Sabatier has declared that the claim that France is Roman Catholic is based on a mistake and that the total of adherents of that Church in the country is not above 4,000,000. In this connection it is a significant fact, that in the public schools of France there are 2,270,000 boys and only 409,000 in the Catholic schools. The Protestants of France are active, and all the evangelical denominations have entered into a federation. A great evangelical simultaneous mission was held in Paris in February, 1910, by all the Protestants. The evangelical situation in general is encouraging.

(e) Italy.—The Waldensian Church continues its successful missionary work in every portion of the country. The opposition of the Vatican to evangelical religion avails nothing. Educated Italy, and especially Northern Italy, is drifting out from under the Pope. Two ministers of the Waldensian Church are visiting this country at present, and a recommendation with reference to them is given below.

(f) Spain.—Spain is still in a mediæval condition. Indulgences are sold there as in Reformation times. Thus, an indulgence for theft can be bought for a small sum from a priest. A strong anticlerical feeling has arisen, which has been accentuated by the incoming of the clerical orders driven out of the Philippines and France.

(g) The losses of Roman Catholicism:—It is asserted by persons claiming to be possessed of reliable information, that comparative statistics show, in a most effective manner, the great losses suffered during the nineteenth century by the Church of Rome. There is good ground for the calculation that the Roman Catholic Church has 80,000,000 less members in the twentieth century than she might naturally have expected to number. The following table of losses is printed for information:

Latin Races.

France	25,000,000
Italy	6,000,000
Spain and Portugal	4,500,000
Spanish American	8,000,000
Total	43,500,000

English Races.

Great Britain	2,250,000
Canada	700,000
Australia	550,000
United States	14,000,000
Total	17,500,000

German Races.

Austro-Hungary	4,000,000
Switzerland	500,000
Germany	5,000,000
Belgium	2,500,000
Holland	300,000
Russia	6,500,000
Total	18,800,000

Totals.

Latin Races	43,500,000
English Races	17,500,000
German Races	18,800,000
Totals	79,800,000

As to the above statistics it is probable that in some cases there is an underestimate. Accurate information shows a probable loss in the United States for the Roman Catholic Church, not of 14,000,000, but of 20,000,000 persons. Whether we accept the above figures or not, the Roman Catholic Church is losing ground throughout the world, and the startling thing about the loss is that it stands for that movement toward indifference and infidelity, which threatens the life of Protestantism as well as of Catholicism.

(h) The World-wide Evangelistic Movement.—The Evangelistic Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in view of existing conditions, has initiated a world-wide evangelistic movement, inviting the coöperation of all Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, and intended primarily for Christian lands. This movement, referred to in another place, has special relation to Europe.

It is sincerely to be hoped that it will be supported, not only by the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, but by all the Protestant Churches, and that one result of the movement will be to commemorate in 1917, the four hundredth anniversary of the beginning of Protestantism, by a great revival of religion, which shall restore to the indifferent and unbelieving multitudes among the European nations a pure Gospel, and give them a genuine spiritual life.

9. SABBATH AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.—The prominent event in Sabbath-school circles at the present time is the Sixth Convention of the Sabbath-schools of the World, all to meet in Washington, D. C., May 19–24, 1910. The motto of the coming Convention is the Sabbath-school and the Great Commission, and the special purpose is to make all Sabbath-schools missionary agencies.

The work of organizing Bible classes up to the standard progresses in every direction. The entire number of adult Bible classes in the American Churches is not less than 3,500, and it is also to be noted that there is a large increase in the number of schools which are conducting Teacher Training Classes and presenting systematic training in Missions.

A Family Altar League has been organized, which already reports 50,000 families pledged to the maintenance of Home Worship and instruction in the Bible by the parents.

The Executive Commission declares that there is a need for a higher rating of Sabbath-schools and for the following reasons:—First, it is the only institution which can give to the nation's children a religious education; and yet, while the American nation expends every year on every pupil in its public schools from $25 to $30, the Christian Church expends for Sabbath-school education an average of $1.50 per annum. This is not an adequate support for the sole educational agency of the Church. Other reasons for a higher valuation of the Sabbath-school are: The fact that the largest portion of the additions to church membership come through the Sabbath-school; that children and youth in the Sabbath-school are trained for the service of Christ and His Church; and that the schools constitute the most popular defenders of the evangelical faith. The Sabbath-schools of America, with 1,500,000 officers and teachers and 13,500,000 scholars, have been most effective agencies for the preservation of the faith, and the extension of the Kingdom of Christ in the world.

It is recommended, in view of the great importance of the Sabbath-school, that there be established, in the Theological Seminaries of our Churches professorships of Christian Education, and also that special provision be made for placing a higher valuation and opening up the way for a larger influence for the Sabbath-school as one agency which is effective for moral and spiritual training of the masses of children and youth.

10. WORLD-WIDE EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The Ninth Council of the Alliance approved cordially of the World-wide Work proposed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and the Executive Commission at its Chicago meeting adopted the following:

WHEREAS, The Constitution of this Alliance includes among its objects, "all subjects directly connected with the work of evangelization, such as the relation of the Christian Church to the evangelization of the world;" and,

WHEREAS, Among the powers of the Council appears the power "to entertain and consider topics which may be brought before it by any Church represented in the Council;" and,

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. transmitted to the Ninth General Council of this Alliance, meeting at New York City, in June, 1909, a proposal for a world-wide evangelistic movement under Presbyterian auspices, and,

WHEREAS, Said Council acted favorably upon such proposal and appointed a Committee of Coöperation in Evangelistic Work, which "shall consider all proposals made for evangelistic work in any country, shall make such arrangements as shall appear proper in each case, and shall have power to act thereupon in its own discretion, provided there shall be no expense to the constituent Churches of the Council."

Therefore, The Committee on Coöperation in Evangelistic Work of the Western or American Section of the Alliance recommends the adoption of the following Resolutions:

1. That an Executive Committee of this Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System be and is hereby appointed to secure the coöperation of all who love our Divine Lord, in a world-wide movement of evangelism, and that the Committee shall be known as the Committee of Coöperation in Evangelism.

2. That the Chairman of this Committee be Mr. John H. Converse, LL.D.; its general director be Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., and its Secretary, Rev. Parley E. Zartmann, D.D., with such other officers as the Committee may select.

3. That the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System be requested to appoint coöperating Committees on Evangelistic Work, such action having already been taken by the General Assemblies of the Australian and Canadian Churches, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the United Presbyterian Church.

4. That the membership of the Executive Committee shall be constituted of the Chairman and two additional representatives from each coöperating denominational committee. In the case of Churches whose supreme judicatories are unable to act at present, the Western Section shall appoint representatives. It is directed that the Committee on Evangelistic Work of this Alliance also appoint representatives to be constituent members of this Executive Committee.

5. That all details as to methods in carrying out the campaign shall be left to the Executive Committee, with the understanding that a Report is to be made at the successive annual meetings of the supreme judicatories of each Church represented, and also to the Executive Committee of the Alliance.

6. That the supreme governing or advisory bodies of other Evangelical and Protestant Churches throughout the world be requested to coöperate in the movement.

7. That all the expenses in connection with the work of this Executive Committee shall be met by voluntary contributions.

8. That representatives of this Section be appointed by the Commission to present to the Churches of the European Continent the subject of world-wide evangelism as referred to in this Report, and that Drs. Good, Minton and Burrell be recommended to the Commission as three of such representatives.

It is requested that you appoint, if you have not already so done, a coöperating Committee for this great movement.

11. APPORTIONMENTS.—The following table shows the number of representatives in the General Council to which each Church in the Western Section of the Alliance is entitled, and also the amount which each Church is requested to contribute towards the expenses of the world-wide work of the Alliance, based upon the number of Council delegates:

	Representatives in Council.	Annual Payments.
Presbyterian Church in Canada	19	$1,380.00
Presbyterian Church in U. S. A.	97	1,940.00
Presbyterian Church in U. S.	19	380.00
Reformed Church in America	11	220.00
Reformed Church in U. S.	21	420.00
United Presbyterian Church	16	320.00
Reformed Presbyterian Church, Synod	2	40.00
Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod	2	40.00
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church	2	40.00
Presbyterian Church of Brazil	2	40.00
Presbyterian Church of Mexico	2	40.00

It is respectfully requested that the apportionment of your Church for the annual expenses of the Alliance be forwarded not later than October 1, 1910, to the American Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard, 1031 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The financial needs of the Alliance for the coming year will be about the same as the past year, and the portion of the expenses to be provided for by the Western Section will amount to about $4,000 for the year. It is to be remembered that the general expenses include the salary of the General Secretary, Rev. George D. Matthews, D.D., $2,500 per annum. The American Secretary continues to serve without salary, and has also served in the same manner for the past three years as Treasurer pro tem.

12. FRATERNAL DELEGATES.—The Commission has appointed delegates to carry to your venerable body fraternal greetings, and their names have been sent to the Stated Clerk in another communication.

Rejoicing in the progress which is being made along the lines of coöperative Church work and emphasizing the motto of the Alliance, "In essentials Unity, in non-essentials Liberty, in all things Charity," we are,

In behalf of the Executive Commission of the Alliance,

Yours fraternally,

A. G. WALLACE, Chairman.
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

II. REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES IN AMERICA HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The undersigned, officers of the Council of Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian System, herewith transmit to the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches the Minutes of the meeting of the Council, held at Louisville, Ky., March 15 and 16, 1910, and by direction of the Council respectfully call especial attention to the following matters contained therein.

1. That the Reformed Church in the United States, by vote of its Classis, has entered into full membership in the Council and has received the Council's cordial welcome.

2. COÖPERATIVE WORK.—The definite development, as indicated in these Minutes, of practical lines of coöperation now open to the constituent Churches, as follows:

(a) Foreign Missions.—Coöperation here by workers on the field, and by the administrative and ecclesiastical agencies at home, is not only an accomplished fact, but is also a useful pattern for attempts at coöperation in other departments of our common work. (See Supplement, Overture No. 1.)

(b) Home Missions.—Since 1908, efficient steps have been taken by the administrative agencies of not merely our own Churches, but of all the Protestant Churches of the United States. These agencies, then, need no prompting. But there is need of corresponding action on the ecclesiastical side. Suggestions as to this will be found in the report of the Executive Committee. (See Supplement, Overture No. 2.) Certain of our Churches have made, or are considering, joint agreements in this direction, into which all our constituent Churches might, in the judgment of the Council, enter with good result. The Council also respectfully asks the supreme judicatories to authorize its Home Missionary agencies to furnish Council's Committee certain desired information. (See Supplement, Overture No. 3.)

(c) Christian Education.—The wide development of interest in the study of the English Bible in the educational institutions of our country, and the influence of the new pedagogy, reaching, as it does, into our Sunday-schools, has given opportunity for the appearance everywhere of types of text-books for secular and for Church schools which do not represent, in the judgment of the Council, a sound scholarship, and are a menace to the best interests of the generation to come after us. The Council has taken such steps as it could for meeting this situation, in bringing together in conference the educational and publishing agencies of these Churches. These are in sympathy with the Council and with each other. We believe we have also the sympathy of multitudes of Christian educators. We desire also the sympathy of Christian parents and of the Churches we represent. We ask the supreme judicatories to adopt action in the line of coöperation in the establishment of educational institutions of the higher class. (See Supplement, Overture No. 4.)

(d) Work among Colored People.—The vastness of this field precludes, we find, that type of coöperation which consists in keeping out of each other's way. The actual problem is so to expand our endeavors that at last we may come into touch with each other. The Council, therefore, makes earnest appeal for larger effort on the part of those now busy in the work, and for the active participation of all our Churches in the task of reaching these 11,000,000 of needy souls.

(e) Conferences.—The Council has found the holding of Conferences of representatives of the official agencies of the constituent Churches of the Council of great value in bringing about coöperation in harmonious and practical ways. The supreme judicatories are therefore respectfully requested to grant to the Council authority to call such Conferences as opportunity may require and afford. For the action of Council, see Supplement, Overture No. 5.

3. Statistics.—Attention is drawn to the Statistics of Work among the Colored People, and to the General Statistics of the constituent Churches of the Council, printed at the end of the Minutes.

4. Overtures.—The requests of the Council, addressed to the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches for action along certain lines, are transmitted in the form of a supplement to this Report.

5. Delegates.—Attention is respectfully drawn to the fact that the Delegates representing the Churches in the Council should be duly and regularly chosen in accordance with the method approved by each Church. The number of delegates from your Church is ————.

6. Officers.—The officers for the next two years of the Council are: President, Rev. J. R. Howerton, D.D.; Vice-President, Hon. R. N. Willson, D.D.; Stated Clerk, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., and Treasurer, Rev. D. F. McGill, D.D.

7. Apportionments.—The annual apportionments for the annual expenses of the Council are given on p. 11 of the Minutes, and it is requested that the same be duly authorized. The amount requested from your venerable body is $224, for the year ending March 31, 1911.

In the unity of the faith which is in Jesus Christ our Divine Lord and Saviour, and in behalf of the Council, we are,

Yours fraternally,

(Signed) JAMES R. HOWERTON, President.
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

Supplement—Overtures.

The following Overtures from the Council to the Supreme Judicatories of the constituent Churches are submitted in separate form:

1. Overture as to Coöperation in Foreign Missions.

Your Committee ventures to express the deep satisfaction of this Council at the results already accomplished by the coöperation of our Foreign Mission Boards and our missionaries on the foreign fields, and it is earnestly recommended to our supreme judicatories that they shall encourage a continuation and a still more extended application of the policy of coöperation already inaugurated.

The recommendations of former Councils are renewed, that our supreme judicatories direct our Foreign Mission Boards to coöperate in providing for Christian work among English-speaking people in the populous seaports and capitals of non-Christian lands. [Minutes, Council, p. 10.]

2. Overture as to Coöperative Work.

Whereas, This Council represents officially the Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian System, in their effort to evince their spiritual unity and promote more effective administrative coöperation in Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Work Among the Colored People, Church Erection, Sabbath-school and Publication Work, and Education; and

Whereas, There is a marked historic harmony between the constituent Churches in their maintenance of the great truths in which they have a common heritage and of which they have a common custodianship, and

Whereas, There is urgent need of prompt and practical coöperation in several lines of Church work above named, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the following recommendation be submitted to the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches: "That where Synods, Presbyteries, and Classes cover the same territory, or where Presbyteries and Classes are contiguous one to another, either Synods, Presbyteries, or Classes, as the case may be, may adopt plans for the conduct of coöperative work, provided that such plans be consulted upon with the general executive Church agencies directly interested."

The Council further submits to the supreme governing bodies the following suggestions as to lines of coöperative work for Synods, Presbyteries, and Classes, in which immediate action is desirable:

1. The establishment and conduct of missions for foreign-speaking people, especially in large cities.
2. The establishment of new churches.
3. The serving of neighboring congregations in two or more of our denominations by a minister of one of our denominations, when advisable.
4. The supply and support of weak rural home mission congregations upon an interdenominational basis.
5. The support of mission work among the colored people on an interdenominational basis.
6. The establishment or support of denominational colleges upon an interdenominational basis.
7. The education of students for the ministry, upon an interdenominational basis, whenever practicable.
8. Coöperative work in cities or other communities by particular churches of our denominations therein located. [Minutes, Council, pp. 8, 9.]

3. Overture as to Home Mission Statistics.

Your Committee, however, feel the necessity of presenting more complete information to the Council, and to all the constituent Churches, concerning the work of Home Missions; and to this end, and that a basis may be found for the making of such report, we would ask that the governing bodies of the constituent Churches authorize their Boards and Committees on Home Missions to answer the following questions:

1. What is the whole amount of contributions to Home Missions during the past year?
2. What is the expense of administration?
3. What is the number of missionaries? Men..... Women.....
4. What is the average salary of missionaries?
5. What is the number of missionaries among the foreign populations?
6. What is the number of additions to the churches through the missionaries?
7. In what States are missions carried on?
8. What is the number of missionaries in each State or Territory?
9. What is the sum annually expended in each State or Territory?

4. Overture as to New Denominational Colleges.

That a recommendation be made to the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches of this Council, that before new denominational colleges are established, a conference of the various college agencies be held to consider the advisability of establishing such colleges, so that overlapping interests and destructive competition may be avoided. [Minutes, Council, p. 8.]

5. Overture as to Conferences of Executive Agencies.

Resolved, That authority be asked from the judicatories of the constituent Churches, to call in connection with the next meeting of this Council a conference of representatives of all the executive agencies of the constituent Churches, the Executive Committee of this Council being empowered to arrange time and place, program—in short, to make all necessary arrangements. [Minutes, Council, p. 11.]

III. HISTORICAL STATEMENT AS TO RELATIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN AND THE REFORMED CHURCH.

The relations between the Presbyterian and German Reformed Churches fall under three heads:

1. Their relations abroad, especially during and after the Reformation.
2. Their relations abroad and in America in the Eighteenth Century.
3. Their relations in this Country in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries.

1. Their Early Relations Abroad.—Scotland and Germany are not near each other geographically, and their distance in Reformation times was made greater by circumstances and the dangers of the sea that intervened. Still, the relations of the Churches of these two countries were early established and cordially maintained. The martyr reformer of Scotland, Patrick Hamilton, studied in Germany, at Marburg University, under Lambert of Avignon. John Knox came into contact with the Swiss Church at Geneva and with the German Church at Frankfort. After the Church of Scotland was reformed and reorganized in 1560, and the German Reformed Church in the Palatinate in 1563, the two Churches looked upon each other as sister Churches of the same Reformed Faith. The Scotch Church, in addition to using Calvin's Catechism, also used the Heidelberg (printed in English in Edinburgh), which was the Catechism of the German Church. At the Synod of Dort, the Swiss and German delegates sat with their fellow-Presbyter Balcanqual, a Scotchman, but sent by England. When Presbyterians settled in Germany they were looked upon as of the Reformed. Thus, John Dury, the apostle of Church union in the seventeenth century, was pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Elbing in Eastern Germany and was looked upon in Germany as Reformed. When either of the Churches suffered from persecution and oppression their sympathy with each other was shown in a tangible way by gifts of money. Thus, the Scotch Church collected money for the suffering Germans during the awful Thirty Years' War (1618–48). And later, in the eighteenth century the General Assembly of Scotland, in 1750, ordered a collection for the Reformed Church and school at Breslau in Germany, which amounted to $4,500, for which that Church returned its thanks. The General Assembly also ordered collections for the church at Saarbrucken in Alsace, Germany, which amounted to $195.58. We also understand that the Swiss Church did something for the Scotch during the persecutions of the Covenanter period. Suffice it to say that the Churches of Switzerland, Germany and Scotland looked upon each other as sister Churches. The ministers of each were eligible to membership in the other; the creed of each was looked upon as the counterpart of the other, whether it was the Second Helvetic Confession of Switzerland, or the Heidelberg Catechism of Germany, or the Westminster Confession. No controversies ever occurred between them or between any of their theological schools or ministers, but there was rather always a complete understanding and a cordial sympathy. In cultus, many of the Swiss and German Churches were as Puritanic as the Scotch. In government, they were all Presbyterian, although with differing emphasis on different phases of it.

2. The Relations of these two Churches in the Eighteenth Century.—When both the Presbyterian and the German Reformed Churches were planted in America, it was inevitable that Churches so closely related should come into fraternal contact with each other. The Presbyterian Church was organized first and as an independent body. Before the German Reformed Church was an organized body, its members looked to the Dutch Reformed and the Presbyterian Churches to have their ministers licensed and ordained. Thus, John Peter Miller, a student of theology from Germany, was ordained by the Presbytery of Philadelphia in 1730, and another student for the ministry, Henry Goetschey, from Switzerland, made application to Presbytery, but was refused. The German people in those early days went to the Presbyterians for Baptism and the Lord's Supper, some traveling from the country into Philadelphia to enjoy these privileges. The Presbyterian minister at Philadelphia, the Rev. Jedediah Andrews, spoke very highly of the scholarship of G. M. Weiss and J. P. Miller, the young Reformed ministers.

In 1744, an effort was made to unite the German Reformed with the Presbyterian Church. This union was suggested by the Reformed Church of the Netherlands, under whose care the German Churches in America then were. It was suggested on account of the difficulty in getting information about the German Churches of Pennsylvania. Mr. Dorsius, a Dutch minister from Bucks County, Pa., was in Holland in 1743, and to him was given, by the deputies of North and South Holland, a letter asking for union. He presented it to the Presbyterian Synod in May, 1744, which appointed a committee to correspond about it, and the Rev. Mr. McHenry wrote two letters to Holland, one to the Church of the Netherlands, the other to the pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Rotterdam. Difficulties, however, began to appear on both sides of the Atlantic. The Hollanders had heard that the Presbyterians in America had been infected with Whitfieldism, which they looked upon as a species of Moravianism, and they had taken strong action against the latter in Holland. On this side of the Atlantic, Boehm, the leading minister among the German Reformed, bitterly opposed the union, evidently under the misconception that in it the Germans would have to give up their Heidelberg Catechism, the Canons of Dort, and their liturgical forms for sacraments. The Presbyterians of Pennsylvania felt themselves aggrieved that they were not considered soundly Calvinistic by the Dutch, and, in 1747, Rev. Mr. Cross wrote to Dominie Kennedy, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Rotterdam, claiming that the Presbyterian Church of America held to the same standards as the Presbyterian Church of Scotland, with whom the Hollanders agreed. So, in 1750, the Hollanders again made overtures to the Presbyterian Church that the Germans might be united with it. However, again suspicion was aroused in Holland against the Presbyterians here, that the latter were tinctured with Arminianism. So that, by 1753, after nearly ten years of negotiations, the efforts at union were dropped. Had this union been accomplished, the Dutch, German and Scotch Churches in this country would have been united from the beginning, and would have exerted a far greater influence on the life of our nation, religiously and politically, than each was able to do alone.

Another movement about this time also brought the Scotch Church into direct contact with the Germans of Pennsylvania. In 1752, Rev. David Thomson, pastor of the English Church at Amsterdam, became interested in the welfare of the Pennsylvania Germans and went to England and Scotland in their behalf. He succeeded in organizing a "Society for the Propagation of the Knowledge of God among the Germans." He brought the matter before the General Assembly at Edinburgh, in May, 1752, which ordered a collection to be taken up for the destitute Germans of Pennsylvania, on December 2, 1752. The amount raised, as reported to the General Assembly in 1754, was $5,702.47. That society continued to aid the Germans till 1753, having for its secretary Rev. Samuel Chandler, one of the prominent Presbyterian pastors of London. This society aided a number of Reformed parochial schools among the Germans, and also paid the expense of several of the German Reformed ministers who came to America. The General Synod of the Presbyterian Church heartily coöperated in this movement, added to the moneys given by the friends in Great Britain, and at its school at Chestnut Level, Pa., educated a number of German students, several of whom entered the ministry.

3. The Relations of the Two Churches in the Nineteenth Century.—Fraternal relations between the two Churches began in 1824. Before this time, the difference of language was the barrier between them, but, as the German Reformed Church was beginning to use the English language, it began to feel the need of closer relations with other Churches. On October 1, 1823, committees from both Churches met in the parsonage of the First Reformed Church at Baltimore, Md., and agreed on the following plan:

1. That each denomination was to remain distinct.

2. That ministers and members of either Church, when under charges or discipline, were not to be received by the other.

3. That correspondence be held by means of delegates.

From that time, up to the division of the Presbyterian Church into Old and

New School, there was regularly an interchange of delegates between the two Churches. When the Presbyterian Church divided in 1838, the German Reformed Synod was very much perplexed to know what to do. This perplexity is revealed at the Reformed Synod of 1838, when Rev. John Grant appeared as the delegate from the New School Body. The Synod finally took action that they could not decide which was the proper General Assembly, but that correspondence should be held with both of them. In 1842, actual correspondence with the Old School Presbyterian General Assembly was had, and was continued until in 1854, when it ceased because of the dissatisfaction of the General Assembly with the Mercersberg Theology in the Reformed Church. Correspondence between the New School General Assembly and the Reformed Church continued from 1842 onward, and was renewed in 1863 at the union of the Eastern and Ohio Synods to form the General Synod of the Reformed Church. The reunion of the two Presbyterian Churches, Old and New School, was effected in 1869, and correspondence of the General Synod with the General Assembly of the United Church began in 1881 and has been unbroken since that year

Another significant sign of their close relations was the election of two professors of Theology from the Presbyterian Church by the German Reformed Synod. The first was Rev. Daniel Young, 1829, and Rev. John W. Nevin, in 1840. On the other hand, the Presbyterian Church approved the creed of the German Reformed Church, the Heidelberg Catechism, in 1870, by the following action of the General Assembly:

"1 Resolved, That this General Assembly recognises, in the Heidelberg Catechism, a valuable Scriptural compendium of Christian doctrine and duty.

"2 Resolved, That if any Churches desire to employ the Heidelberg Catechism in the instruction of their children, they may do so with the approbation of the Assembly.

"3 Resolved, That this Assembly cordially rejoices at the continued and increasing evidences of agreement and union, among those whose symbols maintain in common the faith once delivered to the saints."

In recent years, the conviction has been very clear in all the Churches of the Reformed and Presbyterian family, that arrangements should be effected for closer relations and more complete coöperation in all their work. Several conferences between committees appointed for this purpose were held, beginning with 1903. At a conference held in Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1905, the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was present along with Committees from other Churches, and three members of the Reformed Church in the United States were also present, upon invitation, as advisory members. In March, 1906, a further conference of these Committees was had at Charlotte, N. C., in which a Committee of the General Synod of the Reformed Church, appointed in 1905, took part.

The Committees of the Reformed Church and of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met jointly after the Conference at Charlotte, N. C., March, 1906, and, while the Committee of the Reformed Church had no authority to enter upon negotiations with the Presbyterian Committee, it was thought to be expedient to adopt a joint resolution, expressing the views of the members of both Committees. The following action was, therefore, unanimously taken:

"Believing that the time has come when the Reformed Church in the United States and the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, two great historic Churches of the Reformation, holding in common the Reformed Theology and the Presbyterian Order, should come into closer relations with each other, in order to carry on more effectively the work committed by Christ to His Church, the Committees of the two Churches in this Conference hereby agree to recommend to our respective General Synod and General Assembly, to appoint Committees to consider this whole subject of closer relations, either federal or organic, between the Churches."

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, meeting at Columbus, Ohio, in 1907, adopted the following resolutions:

"Resolved, 1. That the Moderator and the Stated Clerk be authorized to send a fraternal message to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, tendering hearty fraternal greetings, and inviting action with a view to further consideration of the subject of closer relations between the two denominations, in harmony with the resolution adopted at Charlotte, N. C., in 1906, by the joint Committees representing both Churches."

This Assembly also referred this subject of closer relations with the Reformed Church in the United States to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union.

The General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States responded to this action by approving of an overture from its "Committee on Closer Union and Coöperation of the Reformed Family of Churches," recommending the appointment of a Committee of Conference and by electing a Committee on Closer Union with the Presbyterian Church. Of this Committee, Dr. Kieffer, the President of the Synod, is Chairman, and it is by virtue of this latter action that the two Committees now in existence are authorized to proceed with the negotiations which are in hand. The sympathy and prayers of the people of God are requested for divine guidance and blessing upon the whole movement.

IV. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

BRETHREN:—As one of the constituent bodies in the fellowship of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, we send to you our greetings, and herewith submit a brief report in behalf of the Executive Committee entrusted with the conduct of the work of the Council.

We rejoice with you in the achievement of this organized fellowship through which by far the larger part of the Evangelical Church membership of the United States is now manifesting to the world their essential oneness in Jesus Christ as their Divine Lord and Saviour. In the progress of the movements that are drawing believers into closer relations, in the prosecution of work that can be better done in union than in separation, the Federal Council stands in a position of representative leadership.

During the past year substantial progress has been made in strengthening the executive activities of the National Office, in accord with the recommendations approved at the meeting of the Federal Council at Philadelphia. Three District Secretaries have been recently appointed, with office headquarters at Denver, Chicago, and Washington, D. C. All of the men called to fill these important positions come to their work from the ripe experience of successful labors in the pastorate.

This Secretarial force will enable the National Office, under the direction of the Executive Committee, to become a more effective clearing-house of the facts and factors in the great movement which it represents and give increasing aid in the organization of State and Local Federations.

Investigations that have been made of religious conditions in Colorado and other States, have given authoritative assistance to the Committee on Home Missions of the Federal Council in inaugurating plans that promise at an early date to secure, through the coöperation of the various denominational Home Missionary Boards, the adoption of a national policy of comity and conference in the prosecution of work in home mission fields.

The Commission on the Church and Social Service is developing plans of strategic influence. Action has been taken through which it is confidently expected that all of the denominations in the fellowship of the Council will have a share in providing for a fully equipped Bureau of Social Service, the executive leadership of which will be unlimited for good. Testimony comes to us that the appeal in behalf of labor, sent out by the Commission in the name of all the Churches, has been especially fruitful in its influence.

The Federal Council has no authority over the constituent bodies adhering to it. Its mission is that of testimony, guidance, inspiration and the co-ordination of forces in matters of common interest.

With a deep sense of the responsibility resting upon us in connection with the work briefly mentioned in this report, we make grateful acknowledgment of the generous response of your Assembly and other denominational bodies in giving the financial support that has made it possible for us to inaugurate plans of far-reaching influence.

We send this message as sharers with you in the cheer and encouragement which it brings to all, who, amid the recognized evils, perplexities and difficulties of the present time, hold fast their confidence that the Gospel of Christ is the supreme remedy for all evils, and the Church of Christ the great instrumentality by which the world is to be regenerated and saved.

Respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.
E. B. SANFORD, Corresponding Secretary.

V. REPORT OF THE INTER-CHURCH CONFERENCE ON MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce, at its meeting in New York, April 13, 1910, after due consideration, adopted the following Resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the governing or advisory bodies of the constituent Churches be informed that the time has come when it is wise to discontinue the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce, and to concentrate the resources and influence of the Church upon the work of the Federal Council.

Resolved, 2. That a statement be prepared by a Committee of five of the work accomplished by this Inter-Church Conference, the same to be printed for general distribution and submitted to the governing or advisory bodies of the constituent Churches.

The reason why the discontinuance of the Conference is advised is plain. The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, which met in Philadelphia, Pa., December 2–8, 1908, and is representative of thirty-three Christian bodies, having 17,000,000 of communicants, has established a Committee on the Family Life whose field covers all that is included within the sphere of the Inter-Church Conference and more. Of this Committee Bishop Doane is Chairman, and several members of the Conference are on its roll. The watchfulness and faithfulness of the Council are pledged to the support of every lawful and righteous effort to protect and purify the family life, and for the suppression of the evils of divorce. It was felt, therefore, that the work entrusted to the Conference, for the purposes of economy, of power and of efficiency, could wisely be transferred to the body having the larger jurisdiction. It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that such action as may be necessary for discontinuance be taken by the constituent Churches.

The origin of the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce, and the work accomplished by it, is presented concisely in the following statement largely composed of extracts from its papers.

Responding to a communication received from a Commission of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, certain Churches in the years 1902 and 1903 appointed special Committees or empowered special delegates to confer with representatives of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and with each other, regarding matters pertaining to Divorce and Re-marriage. The constituent denominational bodies were, the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S., the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Reformed Church in America, the Baptist Churches, the Congregational Churches, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., the Universalist Churches, the Unitarian Churches, the Reformed Presbyterian Church, the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Church of the New Jerusalem, and the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System.

The first Conference was held in New York City, January 15, 1903, and the officers unanimously chosen were the Rt. Rev. William Croswell Doane, Bishop of Albany, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Chairman; Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., the Presbyterian Church, Secretary, and Francis Lynde Stetson, Esq., Treasurer. A letter to the Churches was prepared, and a Sub-Committee appointed on State and National Legislation, consisting of John E. Parsons, Esq.; Hon. William M. Lanning, and Francis Lynde Stetson, Esq. Conferences were also held at New York City in 1903, 1904, 1906, 1908 and 1909. The business in the intervals between meetings was conducted by an Executive Committee.

The subject of Divorce was brought to the attention of the American Bar Association in 1904 by members of the Conference and others, and the Association and the Conference approved an Act concerning Divorce prepared by the Conference of State Commissions for the Promotion of Uniformity in Legislation in the United States. Both the legal bodies named were and are in full sympathy with the general purposes of the Inter-Church Conference.

At the Conference held in Washington City, Janaury 25–26, 1905, the invitation of the President of the United States to call upon him was accepted. At the interview in the White House, Mr. Roosevelt, with his usual candor, asked if the Conference had any request to present. The answer was that it would be in the interest of good morals, and for the good of the country, to have the facts regarding Divorce and Re-marriage presented to the people by a correct census. Before the members left the Executive Mansion the President submitted the request to Congress. That body ordered the census promptly, and during the past year the results have been published in two large quarto volumes, of great value both to this and to other nations.

This census tells a story that surprises the people and shames a Christian nation; but let us hope that the facts will deepen the conviction and increase the zeal and watchfulness of those who love their country and seek its prosperity, and of those who regard the teachings of Jesus Christ, and work and pray for the coming of His Kingdom.

The story in part is as follows: In 1887 the total number of divorces was 27,918; and in 1906 it was 72,062. The entire number granted during the twenty years covered by the Report was 945,625. Certain of the States granted divorces as follows in the first and last years of the period reported upon:

	1887.	1906.
Illinois	2,663	5,943
Kentucky	949	2,050
Massachusetts	752	1,540
New York	1,042	2,069
North Dakota	57	320
Ohio	2,003	4,781
Pennsylvania	1,097	3,027
Virginia	305	1,074

It is not possible to put before the Churches the full statistics obtained, but the conditions discovered are alarming; and yet the overwhelming influence of our beloved country is Christian—it is for Christ and His teachings; it is pledged for righteousness; it seeks the purity of the family and the prosperity of the State.

One of the most hopeful manifestations of deepening interest, and of a determination in many quarters to put a check upon the sorrowful conditions that have disgraced our Nation and dishonored the Church, was the assembling of the National Divorce Congress, which met in the city of Washington, D.C., February 19–22, 1906. This Congress was the echo of our Inter-Church Conference. The agitation created by this Conference, and the resolute action taken by the Churches which it represents, had not a little to do with arousing the sentiment and power which found expression in the forward movement inaugurated by the representatives of the States who composed the Divorce Congress. Forty-four States and Territories responded to the call of the Hon. S. W. Pennypacker, Governor of Pennsylvania, and their representatives, with remarkable unanimity, resolved to advocate and to do all in their power to accomplish such uniformity of divorce legislation as might be possible to cure existing evils, and to promote the welfare of the State. Governor Pennypacker was chosen President of the Congress and deserved and received the thanks of every good citizen for inaugurating the movement, and for promoting it with wisdom and zeal. Upon the invitation of the Congress, Bishop Doane, the Chairman of this Conference, together with the Secretary and other members, presented the views of the Conference, and were invited to remain through the sessions and to take part in the deliberations. Such a recognition was significant, and this exchange of views between the representatives of the Congress and the Conference awakened deeper interest and produced important results. A second session of this Divorce Congress was held in Philadelphia, November, 1906, to hear and consider the report of the Committee appointed to formulate the action of the previous session.

Among the actions of the Divorce Congress we note that it agreed to name six causes for granting divorce. The Congress did not express an approval of so many causes for the annulment of the marriage contract, but recognized the fact that the six causes agreed upon were included in the divorce legislation of a large number of the States, and the hope was expressed that all the States might be induced to limit the causes of divorce to these six, viz.: adultery, bigamy, conviction of crime, intolerable cruelty, wilful desertion for two years, habitual drunkenness. While expressing the hope that no State would grant divorce for additional causes, the Congress further did not wish to be understood as recommending greater laxity in States whose divorce legislation was already more restricted.

The Congress further advised that all suits of divorce should be brought and prosecuted only in the State where the plaintiff or the defendant had a bona fide residence, and that such residence should not be less than two years.

The Congress also advised that all hearings and trials should be before the Court, and not before any delegated representative of the court, and that a decree dissolving the marriage tie and permitting the re-marriage of either party should not become operative for at least one year.

Finally, each and every State was urged to adopt the statute recently adopted by the State of Massachusetts, viz.:

"If an inhabitant of this Commonwealth goes into another State or country to obtain a divorce for a cause which occurred here, while the parties resided here, or for a cause which would not authorize a divorce by the laws of this Commonwealth, a divorce so obtained shall be of no force or effect in this Commonwealth."

Representatives of the Conference were invited to be present at the Congress, and took part in the deliberations. It was the unanimous opinion of the Congress, that divorce reform should be sought by an endeavor to secure unity and coöperation among the several States, rather than by attempting to obtain the consent of the States to adopt such an amendment to the Federal Constitution as would be necessary to control marriage and divorce by Federal legislation. This opinion widely prevails. The States are very jealous of their rights, and it is very generally believed that the reform sought will be more surely and more satisfactorily accomplished, if it be found possible to bring about an agreement among the Legislatures of the several States. There are favorable indications that the State Legislatures generally are disposed to accept the conclusions and suggestions of the Divorce Congress, and some have already in part acted.

We close this Report with a sense of encouragement. The members of the Conference, while advising the discontinuance of the organization in which they have jointly labored for seven years, will continue their efforts in behalf of the moral welfare of the nation through the Federal Council. We take heart for the future and appeal with the courage and earnestness of strong convictions and better hopes to the Christian people of America to push on the campaign with unabated vigor. The appeal is to the sober second thought of men and women. Once aroused to the horrible consequences of broken homes and blighted lives, the shameful collusion between the parties to divorce, and the sad confusion among their children, there will be an uprising of righteous indignation which will lift society up to the higher standards and holier ideals of marriage. Important as legislation is, and needful as is the earnest and incessant preaching of the truth, the power to purify the atmosphere lies in the correction and uplift of public opinion. To mould this, to give it sound convictions, and the courage of their holding and their expression, should be the aim and object of intelligent and incessant effort on the part of the Churches.

VI. REPORT AS TO THE METRICAL VERSION OF THE PSALMS PREPARED BY THE INTERDENOMINATIONAL COMMITTEE ON THE SUBJECT.

To the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly:

DEAR SIR:—The General Assembly's Special Committee on Uniform Version of the Psalms was discharged one year ago at its own request, "believing that no further work is likely to engage the attention of the Interdenominational Committee."

In this belief we were mistaken. The Interdenominational Committee met in the City of Pittsburgh in September, 1909, and took important action which should be reported to the General Assembly. Therefore, though our section of the Interdenominational Committee has been discharged, we, the undersigned, its former members, respectfully request you to bring this letter to the attention of the General Assembly at its meeting in Atlantic City, May 19, 1910.

The Interdenominational Committee considered carefully and revised the metrical version of the Psalter prepared by the Committee of the United Presbyterian Church, and recommended it to the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the United States and Canada for their adoption as an approved Uniform Version of the Psalms in Metre.

It seems fitting and desirable that our Church should give attention and recognition to this completed work in which it has coöperated through a Special Committee.

For long years several branches of the Presbyterian Church have been kept apart by divergent views regarding the public worship of God in song. May not this uniform version of the Psalms, with God's blessing, become a strong bond of union tending to draw them together?

The United Presbyterian Church, the largest and most influential of the communions that use the Psalms exclusively, has sent this version down to its Presbyteries in overture, and the version has been approved by the constitutional majority. Should not the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the largest and most influential of all Presbyterian communions, take some official action in recognition of this interdenominational Psalter?

Such action might possibly take the form of direction to the Board of Publication to bind with the Hymnal this metrical version of the Psalms, or if that be not feasible, a Committee might be appointed, with the Editor of the Hymnal as chairman, to examine the work, and report on the version to the General Assembly with a view to its use, with other hymnody, in the services of the Church.

We should be glad if one of our number might be accorded the privilege of addressing the General Assembly briefly to present the subject more fully.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN D. DAVIS,
JAMES DALLAS STEELE,
CHARLES E. CRAVEN.

VII. RESOLUTIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF AUSTRALIA.

SOUTH YARRA, MELBOURNE, VICTORIA, December 4, 1909.

To the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

REV AND DEAR SIR:—The following resolutions were passed by the General Assembly of Australia on the 23d day of September, 1909:—

"1. This Assembly resolves to place on record its gratitude to the King and Head of the Church for the spiritual impetus and uplift which has come to many of our congregations through the Chapman-Alexander Mission, and its high appreciation of the work of the Missioners.

"2. The Assembly cordially joins with other religious bodies in extending an invitation to Dr. Chapman and Mr. Charles M. Alexander to return to Australia, for an extended evangelistic campaign, at such time in the near future as may be possible.

"3. That, inasmuch as Dr. Chapman is an honored minister and agent of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, this Assembly sends its cordial greetings to that Church, and earnestly asks that Dr. Chapman be granted the necessary leave of absence to enable him to accept the invitation from Australia.

"4. Appoint a Representative Committee to coöperate with other religious bodies in carrying out the work should the invitation be accepted, and to correspond and coöperate with the committees appointed by other Presbyterian Churches throughout the world to take part in a world-wide evangelistic movement under Presbyterian auspices."

I have pleasure in forwarding these resolutions to the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A. through you.

GEORGE TAIT, Clerk of the General Assembly of Australia.

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

[Auburn, N. Y.]

Annual Report.

The Board of Directors of the Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y., report as follows, for the year ending May 5, 1910, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Prof. Edward Waite Miller, D.D., during the past year, resigned the Chair of Church History, on account of impaired health, and the work of the Department was satisfactorily performed by Dr. Alexander C. Flick, Professor of Church History in Syracuse University.

Rev. Robert Hastings Nichols, Ph.D., pastor of the Trinity Presbyterian Church, South Orange, N. J., has been elected Assistant Professor of Church History and has accepted the election.

There were thirty-three lectures given on various topics, by twenty-seven lecturers. In this number were included six lectures on Church Music, by Prof. George Barlow Penny, of Rochester, N. Y. All of the Professors have carried forward all the work of their respective departments throughout the year.

The health and spiritual life of the Seminary has been excellent, as for many years back, and there are no incidents of special significance to report.

The Rev. D. E. Culley has continued to conduct special classes for foreign-speaking students, in addition to the regular curriculum of the Seminary. In this department of the Seminary we have had thirteen students enrolled, representing the following nationalities: Ruthenian, Bohemian, Slovak, Hungarian, Italian.

The Rev. S. J. Fisher, D.D., has been appointed Instructor of Christian Ethics and Missions, and in addition to a course in Christian Sociology and Ethics conducted by Dr. Fisher, a special elective course on the Social Teachings of the New Testament has been given by Dr. Farmer. That almost every member of the Senior Class elected the latter course is an index of its popularity.

We have enjoyed the following rich and varied course of lectures, given by experts in various departments of Christian activity:

Edgar J. Banks, Ph.D., "The Long Lost Hittites."
Rev. W. H. Clagett, "The Martyr Graves of Scotland."
Rev. R. M. Donaldson, D.D., "Home Missions."
Rev. William H. Jeffers, D.D., LL.D., "Early Irish and Scotch Missionaries."
Rev. W. C. Johnson, "Religious Rites of the Bulu Tribes," Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, D.D., "Worship."
Rev. G. W. Montgomery, D.D., "The Foreign-speaking Man's Claim on the Ministry."
T. H. P. Sailer, Ph. D., "The Education of the Church in Missions."
Rev. Charles Scanlon, "The Temperance Movement."
Rev. James H. Snowden, D.D., LL.D., "The Wonders of Human Speech."
Rev. John L. Tait, "Prisons and Prison Work." (Illustrated.)
Rev. John Thomas, "The Joy of the Ministry."

IV. Finances.

Real Estate, including Seminary Buildings	$250,000 00
General Endowment	568,385 00
Scholarship Fund	125,535 00
Library Fund	31,176 00
Lectureship Fund	3,711 00
	$978,807 00
Total Income	$44,356 00
Total Expenditures	45,858 00

During the year a bequest has been received from the estate of the late Mrs. Joseph Patterson, Philadelphia, Pa., amounting to $6,000, to found three scholarships, to be named the "Rev. Joseph Patterson, Jane Patterson and Rebecca Leech Patterson," the "Jane and Mary Patterson," and the "Joseph Patterson" scholarships respectively. Considerable progress has been made in the plans for securing new buildings and increased endowments.

The canvass for funds for the new buildings has been conducted throughout the past Seminary year. We have $57,000 actually subscribed for the dormitory, while several men of wealth have promised subscriptions which would take the total to about $75,000. Mr. L. H. Severance, of Cleveland, Ohio, has subscribed $5,000 for the establishment of a Missionary Lectureship, making one condition—that the $125,000 needed for the dormitory be raised by January 1, 1911. During the past year Seminary Hall was condemned as an unsafe building, both by a responsible contractor and the Department of Public Safety. Your president immediately applied to a man of wealth who is deeply interested in the Seminary. Last week he called on me and proposed, in conjunction with other members of his family, to erect a building, to contain administrative offices and lecture rooms, on the site of Seminary Hall, as a memorial to his father. As the details are not all worked out, he asked me not to divulge his name until a later time. We can feel assured that a new building will be erected on this site at no distant date. Immediately after the close of the Seminary the canvass for funds to erect the dormitory is to be pushed with vigor.

V. Library.

1. Whole number of books	36,000
2. Number added during the year	445

VI. Curricula.

An enlarged and revised curriculum has been adopted, the nature of which, and the reasons therefor, will be indicated by the following general principles:

1. Changes are necessary (1) because the elective system in the colleges gives students a heterogeneous preparation; (2) because of the broadening of the scope of practical Christian activity, especially in our cities.

2. Students who come to the Seminary with inadequate preparation will be required to take certain elementary courses, e.g., Greek, Hebrew, Philosophy. In some cases this may entail a four years' course in the Seminary. Students are to be encouraged to do all preliminary work in colleges.

3. The required work of the Seminary to be done largely in Junior and Middle years.

4. Students entering the Seminary, having completed some of the courses of the curriculum, shall not be required to take them again, but instead must make selection from the list of electives so as to fill in the full quota of hours. Prospective students to be encouraged to come with advanced preparation, so as to take the B.D. degree in three years.

5. Fifteen hours of recitation and lecture work to be required of Juniors and Middlers, fourteen of Seniors. Elocution and Music not to be counted either in the fifteen or fourteen hours. Students desiring to take more than the required number of hours must make a special application to the Faculty. No student who falls below the grade of "A" in his regular work will be allowed to take additional courses.

6. In the Senior year students must take fourteen hours per week, the only required courses being those in Practical Theology, Old Testament and New Testament Theology; in order to take more than fourteen hours per week, students must secure special permission from Faculty. The election of studies of Senior year must be in the group system. One subject will be regarded as major and another as minor, e.g., a student selecting New Testament as a major must take four hours in Senior year in this department, and take one course in a closely related subject, e.g., Old Testament Theology or Exegesis. In addition, he must write a thesis on some topic connected with the major, of not less than 4,000 words.

7. Candidates for the B.D. degree may elect twelve hours of work or their equivalent, according to rules now laid down in catalogue.

8. Commencing with term opening September, 1911, all applicants for admission will be required to pass an examination in the English Bible, the scope of the examination to embrace such elementary matters as a student ought to know in order to take up the work of the Seminary intelligently.

II. The Faculty.

The Board reports the unanimous election of Prof. Charles R. Hemphill, D.D., LL.D., to the office of President of the Seminary. It also reports the unanimous election of the Rev. Jesse Lee Cotton, D.D., Instructor in Semitic Philology in Princeton Theological Seminary, as Professor in the School of Old Testament Exegesis.

The Board regrets to report that by reason of ill health it was necessary for

Prof. Marquess to give up his work for most of the session. His duties were very acceptably discharged by the Rev. J. Gray McAllister, D.D., recently President of Hampden Sidney College, Va. Further leave of absence has been granted Prof. Marquess, and the services of Dr. McAllister have been engaged for the next session.

Rev. Charles R. Hemphill, D.D., LL.D., President, Professor in the School of New Testament Exegesis and in the School of Practical Theology.
Rev. John M. Worrall, D.D., Professor Emeritus in the School of Practical Theology.
Rev. William Hoge Marquess, D.D., LL.D., L.H.D., Professor in the School of Biblical Introduction and in the Fullerton Alexander School of English Bible and Biblical Theology.

Total cost of property for Seminary purposes	$218,676 06
Funds invested	532,088 00
Income for the year	32,763 82

Building.

The last of the seven structures contemplated in the original design for the Seminary was completed in September last. It was erected by Mr. James Ross Todd and Mrs. Louise Todd Hauge, members of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church, of Louisville, in memory of their father and mother, Mr. James Todd and Mrs. Mary M. Todd, who were members of the same church. The building is a dormitory. It was dedicated October 19, 1909, with fitting ceremonies and an address by Prof. Hemphill.

The buildings of the Seminary constitute the chief architectural ornament of the city of Louisville, and are thoroughly adapted to the work of a Theological Seminary, and provide a physical equipment that leaves nothing to be desired.

V. Library.

William Mather Lewis, M.A., Lecturer on Oratory.

SPECIAL LECTURERS.

As in former years, the Seminary has been indebted to the generosity of the late Mr. John H. Converse for the funds to secure a lecturer on Foreign Missions. This year the incumbent was the Rev. Prof. J. Stewart Crawford, of the Syrian Protestant College, Beirut, Syria, whose subject was "The Missionary Outlook in Turkey."

A lecture was given by the Rev. Prof. Henry E. Dosker, D.D., of Louisville, Ky., on "Jesus in German Theology in the First Decade of the Twentieth Century."

From time to time, alumni, missionaries and prominent men in the ministry and other professions have addressed the faculty and students. Among others, the following have been heard:

Rev. Peter Zwemer, "Unoccupied Fields of the World."
Rev. John Timothy Stone, "Maltby Davenport Babcock."
Rev. F. W. Gunsaulus, "The Minister as a Prophet."
Mr. W. M. R. French, "Literature and Art."
Rev. A. W. Halsey, "A World-wide Vision."
Rev. A. M. Cunningham, "China."
Rev. W. T. Stead, "Persia."
Major Kilby, "Methods of City Evangelization."
Rev. James M. Wilson, "The Type of Minister Needed in the West."
Rev. Paul B. Jenkins, "Efficiency in the Ministry."
Mr. William J. Calhoun, Minister to China, "The Outlook in China."
Dr. Samuel Higginbotham, Allahabad College, "Work Among the Lepers."
Dr. R. M. Donaldson, "Our Home Mission Fields."

III. Students.

Fifty-seven students were matriculated, in the different classes, during the year.

Of these matriculants, forty-five are college graduates, eight had taken a partial college course, and four, who had no college training, were admitted on the recommendation of their Church bodies.

Diplomas were given to the following twenty-seven students:

Martin Robert Ahrens,
Theodore Henry Aszman,
George William Barnum,
Homer Mitchell Campbell,
William Benjamin Cowgill,
William Ora Davis,
James Fisher,

John Nicolas Zydemann.

A certificate of work completed was given to Stanley Kearns Markley.

IV. Finances.

The financial condition of the Seminary, April 1, 1910, was as follows:

Real Estate which includes Seminary Buildings	$415,900 00
General Endowment	1,384,667 45
Scholarship Funds	158,704 65
Library Funds	2,742 72
Fellowship Funds	68,000 00
Special Funds	33,652 21
Total Assets	$2,063,667 03

Expenses for the year	70,807 62

V. Library.

1. Total Number of Volumes in the Library	34,235
2. Number of Volumes added during the year	906

VI. Seminary Life.

Evangelistic work under the direction of Dr. Hill and a committee of the students has been a prominent feature of the Seminary life. The Committee has met regularly throughout the year and planned for special forms of evangelistic service in the city. Full reports have been made, indicating a very careful canvass of needy districts and accomplishment of religious work.

A tabulated report was presented at the annual meeting of the Seminary Y. M. C. A., indicating that 1,343 preaching engagements had been filled; 1,161 Sunday-school engagements; that 56 missionary addresses had been delivered, 143 evangelistic meetings held, 2,510 pastoral visits made, and 715 cases of personal work.

VII. Cyrus H. McCormick Celebration.

The leading public event of the year, which was arranged for at the last meeting of the Board, was the Historical Celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Cyrus H. McCormick, the eightieth year of the founding of the Seminary and the fiftieth year of its establishment in Chicago. The program was successfully carried out in every detail and the addresses were of a high order of excellence. The marked feature of the occasion was the emphasis upon the outlook for Seminary education and the vision of the future with all its possibilities. Without attempting to outline a program for the period upon which the Seminary now enters, the addresses marked the path along which it should move, so that the time was not one of mere congratulation upon the past, but of inspiration for the future.

VIII. Scholarships.

The following Scholarships have been founded by friends of the Seminary and named in accordance with their wishes:

II. THE FACULTY.

Rev. WARREN HALL LANDON, D.D., President, and Ladd Professor of Practical Theology.
Rev. THOMAS FRANKLIN DAY, D.D., Gray Professor of Hebrew Exegesis and Old Testament Literature.
Rev. EDWARD ARTHUR WICHER, D.D., Professor of New Testament Interpretation.
Rev. THOMAS VERNER MOORE, D.D., Stuart Professor of Systematic Theology.
Rev. CHARLES GORDON PATERSON, B.A., California Professor of Church History.
Rev. WILLIAM MARTIN, D.D., Montgomery Professor of Apologetics and Missions.
Prof. CHARLES GURDON BUCK, Severin Instructor in Vocal Culture.
Prof. PATERSON, Clerk.
ALEXANDER BOUICK, Superintendent of Grounds.

The Seminary year opened, September 15, 1909, with every member of the Faculty, including the new President, Rev. Dr. Mackenzie, in his place. All the members of the Faculty and their families have been blessed with good health, and there has been very little interruption of the regular work throughout the year.

President Mackenzie's resignation, early in February, was a great sorrow and disappointment, as the relations existing between President and Professors was most amicable, and all had high hopes of the future under his leadership. His conference addresses and his presence with us were inspiring, and his visits to the Synods and the colleges of the Coast and Middle West had awakened a new interest in the Seminary. His withdrawal, however, caused no interruption in the internal work of the institution, as he had not yet entered upon any regular courses of instruction.

Prof. Paterson was granted a leave of absence by the Board of Directors, and left San Francisco the first week in February, for a trip around the world, intending to return in season for the opening of the next Seminary year. He had completed the work of the Junior year. Profs. Wicher and Day volunteered their services to complete his work with the Middle and Senior Classes.

Prof. Wicher has rendered excellent services to the Pacific Coast public, and especially to many of our churches in and about San Francisco, by delivering his illustrated lectures on Palestine and on recent archæological research in that country.

Profs. Moore and Landon have moved into the new houses provided for them. For the first time in the history of the Seminary all the Faculty now reside on the Seminary grounds. This arrangement, necessary to the greatest efficiency, is very satisfactory to all.

SPECIAL LECTURES AND ADDRESSES.

The following special lectures and addresses have been delivered before the Seminary body during the current year:

"Educational Problems," by Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Education.

"Home Missions and Church Finance," three lectures, by Rev. W. S. Holt, D.D., Field Secretary of the Board of Home Missions.
"The Missionary as a Witness," by Rev. Ernest F. Hall, Field Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions.
"The Men Needed for the Ministry of the Age," by Rev. J. T. Wills, D.D. Moderator of the Synod of California.
"Church Music in Europe," a course of two lectures, by Prof. Charles G. Buck.
"Church Advertising," by Rev. C. S. Tanner.
"Missions in Persia," by Rev. F. M. Stead, Missionary to Persia.
"A Plea for Missionary Service," and "Methods of the Fatehgarh Mission," two addresses, by Rev. Ray C. Smith, Missionary to India.
"Reasons for Prosecuting Mission Work in Persia," by Rev. Charles A. Douglass, Missionary to Persia.
"Mission in the Holy Land" and "Researches in Palestine," a course of five lectures, illustrated with the stereopticon, by Prof. Edward A. Wicher, D.D.
"The Westminster Doctrine of Scripture," by Prof. Thomas F. Day, D.D.
"John Calvin as a Theologian," by Prof. Thomas V. Moore, D.D.

One of the significant gatherings of the year at the Seminary was the Conference of Students on the "Christian Ministry," which convened in January and was in session two days. It was attended by 100 theological and college students. Impressive addresses were made by leading ministers of all denominations. Nothing like this has ever before been attempted in California. It exalted the calling of the ministry as has rarely ever been done before in this region.

VI. Monday Evening Conferences.

The practice of holding a monthly conference on the second Monday evening of each month has been continued another year and found very profitable and enjoyable. Faculty students take dinner together in the students' dining-room. A guest is invited who addresses the gathering after the dinner on some vital topic.

VII. City and Mission Work of Students.

The activities of the student body through the year are worthy of note. Many churches have been regularly supplied by students throughout the year. Churches are visited under direction of a committee of the Faculty, to whom full reports are made. The work of the Christian Endeavor and other Young People's Societies are studied in the same way. Sunday-school methods are studied and reported upon. Much work of an evangelistic and missionary character has been done. Some of the weaker churches of San Francisco have been practically sustained for weeks at a time by the unremunerated services of the students.

VII. Needs.

We need $200,000 additional endowment. More books for the Library.

VIII. General.

The Board of Directors presents to you the Annual Report of this institution. We have made much progress in the development of this school for the immigrant population of our Church. We have every reason to thank God for blessings which we have received. We graduated this year six students, all of them going directly into the ministry of the Church, five of them as ministers of the Gospel, and one as instructor of German and Latin in the institution. There are many difficulties facing us, but we hope that the wisdom gained by experience will enable us to meet the new issues of the year upon which we enter.

We would call the special attention of the General Assembly to the fact that Dubuque Theological School is the only institution west of the Mississippi River that is connected with our Church that attempts to do this special work. In our Report to you you must take into consideration that three-fourths of the equipment and the funds necessary are used to carry on academic and collegiate work for the young men who come to us. They are raw material. Some have not enjoyed public school privileges, either abroad or in this country. Many of these men ultimately prove to be superior students. The Church would lose a very large ministry, worthy for home missionary operations, if we did not take in these men and give them a solid classical literary foundation, so that they can take the regular theological course. It is this branch especially which needs to be strengthened. When it is taken into consideration that with a limited endowment we are able to support academic, collegiate and theological departments, paying for the salaries and the necessary expenditures connected therewith only a little over $25,000 a year, the institution cannot be charged with extravagance. On the other hand, we ought not to pauperize an institution so essentially necessary for the growth of the Church in these Western States. The demand for special workers and ordinary ministers in neglected portions of this Middle West and Northwest is overwhelming, and surely the Church should supply the funds so that the President and the Faculty could devote more of their time to the securing of suitable candidates for the Gospel ministry. The institution ought not to be a competitor with other colleges or theological seminaries, but ought to take these foreign-speaking students under its jurisdiction and give them such an education as will make them useful men to the Church. We are of the opinion that such young men, educated and graduated from the Seminary, will be more useful to the Church than laymen that are too old to take the full course. Laymen will have their place in the development of the Church, but the ordained minister is necessary for the immigrant population. Our study is, therefore, adapted to this special mission. We do not lower the standard of the ministry in this education. Every Presbytery where our students are examined will give creditable testimony to the value of this work. It would be exceedingly gratifying to the institution if the General Assembly would authorize the Board of Education to assist the management of the institution in securing at least $200,000 additional endowment during the coming year. This amount is absolutely necessary if the present force of the school is not to be broken down.

We are indebted to the many loyal Presbyterians that have supported the institution in the past year.

The total number of students in attendance during the current year, in the Theological, Collegiate and Academic Departments, is ninety-one.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM GRAHAM, Secretary.

V. Library.

The Library, as well as a number of other buildings, such as the Chapel and Recitation Hall and others, are not specifically placed in the Seminary account, but their use is shared by the Seminary.

1. Whole number of books	18,000
2. Number added during the year	266

VI. Curricula.

The Catalogue accompanies this Report.

VII. Needs.

We need another Dormitory, and, only less imperatively, a separate Chapel and Recitation Hall.

We also wait and long for the day when, instead of only two Professors working exclusively in the Seminary, the Faculties of the Seminary and of the College may be entirely separated.

VIII. General.

Under the heading of General Remarks we will make two observations:

1. The call to the ministry. Since the days of Emancipation there has been no dearth in the Negro Ministry such as there is now. We have repeated it over and over, that nine-tenths of their ministers are unfitted to be real leaders and guides. They can scarcely read intelligently, and their moral standards are low. The Southern white Baptists have just held their annual meeting in Baltimore, and the Northern Baptists sent a Committee to confer with their Southern brethren especially as to how they can coöperate in the better training of the Negro Baptist ministry, asserting that 9,000 out of the 10,000 Negro Baptist ministers are deplorably unfit to be the religious leaders and teachers. Perhaps no other Theological Seminary has turned a stronger or steadier stream of the best educated and most consecrated men into the ministry than ours. We press for the man that has had the preceding college training, especially with Presbyterians, and the large majority of Presbyterians in the Seminary are college men.

But it will be many years before we can say "no" to those who have been religious workers and are no longer young, but desire to have at least the English branches of the Theological course. In this way, we have sent into the Methodist and Baptist and Presbyterian ministry a considerable number that have been most useful in the world.

There is no door more open than that of the medical profession. There is great need, and the doctor and dentist and druggist can find inviting fields.

Many of our College graduates that have taken medicine have maintained their Christian character and activities, becoming elders and Sabbath-school workers. One doctor, an elder, was recently elected Moderator of his Presbytery.

The ministry never required more self-denial. The salaries, especially in the villages and rural fields in the South, are very meager, and the brave men endure hardness as the apostles of old. We never felt greater respect for any group of men going out into the harvest field than for those going this year, knowing the terms of the call "to free them from worldly cares and avocations."

Every man of them, if they had become a doctor, would have secured a competency of this world's goods. The appeal to-day to the ministry is to the heroic, and they go as their Master before them went, each being the "servant of all."

II. The Faculty.

Rev. H. L. McCrorey, D.D., President, and Professor of Hebrew and Sociology.
Rev. P. W. Russell, D.D., Professor of Greek Exegesis.
Rev. Yorke Jones, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Homiletics, Rev. David Brown, D.D., Professor of Christian Evidences, Biblical History. Systematic and Pastoral Theology.

III. Students.

There have been 13 students in attendance, as follows: Senior Class, 5; Middle Class, 3; Junior Class, 5.

The following have been graduated:

William Lindsay Brean, A.B.	Greensboro, N. C.
Adolphus Foster, A.B.	Jonesville, S. C.
Robert Lee Moore, A.B.	Lancaster, S. C.
John Garnett Porter, A.B.	Matthews, N. C.
John Daniel Stanback, A.B.	High Point, N. C.

IV. Urgent Needs.

The Institution is in urgent need of $6,000, to complete the Library Fund that is being raised to meet the condition of a friend who has promised $12,500 for the erection of a library building, provided $12,500 is secured from other sources as an Endowment Fund. The proposed Library is to be used in common by the Theological and the other departments of the University. There is also a pressing need of $25,000 with which to endow a Chair for instruction in the English Bible. We are praying that some generous hearts may be directed our way, that these needs may be met, thereby making it possible for the Institution to carry on more successfully the work for which it has been established.

V. General Remarks.

The work of the School of Theology of Biddle University, for the present year, has been quite encouraging. Professors have labored vigorously to secure the most favorable results. Students have shown a marked degree of earnestness and devotion in the prosecution of their studies. They have also demonstrated a practical interest in the school, by contributing of their scanty means, to the amount of $75, for permanent improvements in McNamee Theological Dormitory.

The observance of the Day of Prayer for Colleges, by the University, proved a benediction to the Theological Department. A timely address was delivered during the day by the Rev. A. A. McGeachy, D.D., of the Southern Presbyterian Church, on the subject of "Moral Earnestness."

There are 34 candidates for the ministry in the Institution, 13 of whom are in the Theological Department.

The five graduates this year have already been ordained to the full work of the ministry and are expecting to labor in the South, where there is a crying need for their service.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. McCROREY, President.

The following named students were graduated, May 4, 1910:

John Wesley Beard,
Arthur Joseph Dressler,
William Blakeman Lampe,
William Frederick Pottsmith,
Robert Clinton Shupe,
George Solomon Sloan,
William Holland Thompson,
George W. Woodward.

Number of new students enrolled, 15.

IV. Finances.

Property now Owned:
Lands, building and equipment	$74,400 00
General endowment	60,000 00
Professorships' endowments	57,500 00
Social uses	1,110 00
Total Assets	$193,010 00
Income:
From Permanent funds	$6,357 43
From other sources	5,625 15
Total	$11,982 58
Disbursements:
For current expenses	$12,531 70
Additions to Endowment during the Year	$6,996 07

V. General Remarks.

Once more we are able to report the completion of the year with all current expenses paid. A few thousands have also been added to the Endowment Fund. But the Seminary will not have solved its financial problem until there has been added to this fund not less than $75,000.

The addition to the student body both in numbers and in quality was most encouraging, and the demands for our graduates is far beyond the supply, as it is also for the services of our undergraduates during the vacation season.

What seems to us an attractive course of study is now offered to Local Evangelists, Sabbath-school Missionaries, also Teachers and other Lay Workers that desire to take advantage of such facilities. This course will be open to them at the beginning of the next term.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors, the Rev. Matthew B. Lowrie, D.D., asked to be released from the office of President of the Seminary and allowed to devote his whole time to the work of the department in which he is the Professor. His request was granted, and Rev. A. B. Marshall, D.D., Pastor of the First Church of Minneapolis, Minn., was elected his successor. Dr. Marshall has taken the call extended to him under consideration.

The field occupied by the Omaha Seminary is now second to no other in importance. Every year shows the value of the institution, in supplying ministers for the Home Mission field, where more than 50 per cent. of its graduates are now at work, and we would ask the General Assembly to commend the Seminary to churches and individuals, in furtherance of an immediate effort to add $50,000 to the Endowment Fund.

Signed by order of the Board of Directors,
A. B. MARSHALL, President of the Board.

V. General Statement.

The last General Assembly appointed a Board of Trustees, "to maintain and conduct, for the Presbyterian Church, a Theological Seminary in the South," and authorized that Board "to take such steps as may be necessary to conduct the Seminary in the interest of the Presbyterian Church."

Having learned that the Trustees of Cumberland University had, on June 23, 1909, ordered the discontinuance of the Theological Department of Cumberland University, thus leaving the Church without any Theological Seminary in the South, the Board appointed by the last Assembly was called together and organized by the election of B. P. Fullerton, D.D., of St. Louis, Mo., as President; Hon. Foster V. Brown, of Chattanooga, Tenn., as Vice-President, and James E. Clarke, D.D., of Nashville, Tenn., as Secretary and Treasurer. The Board carefully considered the situation, and reached the conclusion, that, in view of all the facts, it was in duty bound to organize and conduct a Theological Seminary, in accordance with the action of the Assembly. Its action and the reasons therefor were formally expressed in the following resolutions, which were made a part of its Minutes:

"Whereas, We were appointed by the General Assembly to take any steps which might be necessary to maintain and conduct a Theological Seminary in the South, and

"Whereas, The Trustees of Cumberland University have decided that they are no longer able successfully to maintain a Theological Department, and have taken formal action closing that Department of the University, and

"Whereas, It is the conviction of Presbyterians of the South and Southwest, and of many more distant leaders of the Church that are familiar with conditions in this section, that a Presbyterian Theological School for this section is imperatively necessary for the progress of our cause herein, and

"Whereas, Such an institution cannot be continued unless its continuance is provided for by this Board, therefore,

"Resolved, That we do hereby establish a Theological Seminary for the training of Presbyterian ministers, and, if deemed desirable, of lay workers also, the school to be known as the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the South and Southwest."

In accordance with these resolutions, a charter was taken out and a Faculty called, consisting of John Vant Stephens, D.D., Chairman; Robert Verrell Foster, D.D., LL.D.; Finis King Farr, D.D.; Robert G. Pearson, D.D.; Claiborne H. Bell, D.D., as full professors; and Rev. S. A. Coile, D.D., as Instructor in Greek and New Testament Exegesis until a professor could be secured, and Rev. F. A. Campbell as Instructor in Expression.

With this Faculty, the work of the Seminary was successfully and efficiently conducted, twenty-four students being enrolled, nine of whom were graduated in the last week of April.

During the year, Dr. Bell, Professor of Missions and Apologetics, passed from his labor to rest, greatly honored by his associates and the student body. The Board desires to record its deep sorrow at his removal, also its high appreciation of his faithful service and his long life of usefulness. The work assigned to him was distributed among the other Professors during the remaining months of the year.

Without a cent of endowment, the funds to carry on the work of the Seminary were raised by private subscription. All bills have been paid up to the present time, and the Board is hopeful that the funds necessary to complete the twelve months ending October 1 without indebtedness will all be secured.

During the year it has developed that there are many that believe that the continuance of a Seminary in the South is unnecessary and unwise, in view of the number of other Seminaries, and it has been suggested that an alliance with some other Seminary would be advisable, rather than to undertake the erection of permanent quarters for the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the South, which, during the past year, has conducted its work in rented apartments, at Lebanon, Tenn. As this Board was appointed for one year, or until its successors are elected, we respectfully refer the whole subject to this Assembly for such instructions as it may give to whatever body may be chosen to succeed the present Board.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board,

B. P. FULLERTON, President.
JAMES E. CLARKE, Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Since our last Report the following missionaries have passed away. A grateful Church will not fail to hold them in tender remembrance:

Rev. C. C. Armstrong.....St. Joseph, Missouri.
Rev. W. H. Carr.....Algood, Tennessee.
Rev. H. A. Gibson.....Denver, Colorado.
Rev. J. V. N. Hartness.....Westville, Oklahoma.
Rev. T. C. Kirkwood, D.D.....Colorado Springs, Colorado.
Rev. Albert Reid.....Temple, Oklahoma.
Rev. James Thomson.....South Bellingham, Washington.

FINANCES.—The most signal event of the year is the munificent legacy of Mr. John Stewart Kennedy. The will of this single-hearted servant of the Master marks a new era in Christian stewardship.

Mr. Kennedy was for ten years a member of this Board, and as Chairman of its Finance Committee was chiefly instrumental in securing for the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions the building which has now become the home of four of our Boards, and the centre of Presbyterian activity in the city.

The total receipts of the year were $1,108,343.65. The churches' offerings to the Home Board advanced $16,707.13.

The General Assembly, through the Executive Commission, asked for an increase of 5 per cent. in church offerings. The increase has been about 6 per cent. In view of that fact that the budget plan had practically only about one-half the year for its operations, this is a gratifying testimonial to the efficiency of this plan, and inspires the hope that the new year will witness a much larger advance.

While the living sources of income have thus made progress, there has been a most unusual falling off in general legacies, our income from that source being $54,280.95 below the average. This fact would have created a deficit but for the kindness of the executors of the Kennedy estate in advancing enough to bring the legacy account up to its normal standard, and so preventing a deficiency.

A year ago we made heavy cuts in the estimates of need from all our departments. This year we have made only slight reductions from what was asked. No request for new work has been declined. We do this in the confidence that the Church realizes that a great missionary occasion has come, and that all the organizations within the Church are arising to meet the occasion with faith and courage and consecration. The hour has struck for larger things for missions in every scope of that word, and we believe we are honoring our Church in the faith that the salvation of America is having its proper perspective in the great enterprise of the world's redemption. In that faith we have dared to take a long step forward. We are sure the Church will follow.

HOME MISSIONS COUNCIL.—In our last Report we referred to the organization of the Home Missions Council. It has been increased by the addition of more home mission societies until now there are twenty-three organizations, representing fifteen denominations.

Perhaps the most important line of its activity during the year has been the work of its Indian Committee, which has given much time to the study of the Indian problem. Valuable statistics have been gathered giving the number of pagan Indians and the number and religious affiliations of those partly reached by Christian influences. The Committee has also in contemplation a plan by which the unevangelized tribes shall be assigned to the various denominations, that by proximity of other work, or for some other reason, may be able most readily to assume responsibility for their evangelization. If the home mission societies that may thus be appealed to shall faithfully undertake the work, it is fair to assume that the Indian problem on its religious side will soon be solved.

The comity question is also receiving earnest consideration, and it is hoped a basis of coöperation may soon be reached which will reduce to a minimum unseemly rivalry, and will reveal an increasing spirit not only of comity, but of actual federation.

THE ADVISORY COUNCIL AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE.—Pursuant to order of the General Assembly of 1909, there was convened at New York, in the Presbyterian Building, on November 17–19, 1909, the Advisory Council on Church Extension. This body was instituted by the Assembly in succession of the Advisory Council of Home Missions which had held two earlier meetings. The enlargement of the Council and the broadening of its scope was recognized as a distinct advance.

Reference to the Council will be found in the Reports of the other Boards concerned.

The home mission cause has already profited greatly by the move; there is promise of incalculable profit in the future. Notation is made, in the full Report of the Board, of the gratifying results accruing, and yet to accrue, from this Council.

ORGANIZATION OF FINANCES.—Throughout the Church the need of more thorough organization of finances in the local congregation has long been recognized. The Home Board has been in a position greatly to assist in the movement during the past year. For a considerable period the problems involved have been under searching study. When the Executive Commission entered upon its campaign in this interest it found in the Rev. A. F. McGarrah an exponent of the thorough and comprehensive plans adapted to the needs of the hour. For several years he has been under the commission of the Board, and during the past few months has been laboring under the joint direction of the Commission and the Board. Conferences have been held in great city centres, in Presbyteries and in prescribed districts to the marked advancement of the cause served. All the financial interests of the Church, local concerns and the organized enterprises of the denomination, are certain to feel the good effects of the movement. Numberless instances might be cited of the results already apparent in large churches and small.

Valuable literature has been issued, giving full explanation of the budget system as applied both to local demands and benevolences. Many thousands of copies have already been distributed, and the demand from all over the Church increases constantly.

THE FIELD SECRETARIES AND THEIR FIELDS.—There are in the District of the South and Southwest eight Synods, embracing all or parts of the following States: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas. In these eight Synods are sixty Presbyteries. During the past year there have been at work three synodical superintendents and twenty-two pastor-evangelists who have served a Presbytery or a group of Presbyteries.

The importance of these fields is enhanced by the permanent industrial development now in progress in the South and Southwest. Kansas is entitled to special mention, as this last year it has taken care of its own home mission work.

The other Synods in the district may be grouped as follows: Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi in one group; Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri in another; and Texas and Oklahoma in a third. In all of these groups litigation arising out of the union between the Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian Churches has greatly crippled the work, and money that should have gone to the extension of the Kingdom of God has gone to pay attorneys' and court fees. The litigation has terminated favorably to the union in Texas, Kentucky and Georgia; while in Tennessee and Missouri the decision has been unfavorable. Our Theological Seminary and Publishing House being located in Tennessee, we were crippled not only by the loss practically of all our church buildings and manses, but by the loss of the Theological Seminary and the Publishing House. The hurt of all this was felt most seriously in middle and west Tennessee. Churches were evicted from their buildings and have been worshiping in groves, tents, halls and private homes. In some cases Sabbath-school classes met at the homes of the teachers, not having any common meeting place; and yet it is gratifying to know that in most cases, even with the added burden of church building upon them, there has been a substantial gain. Now that the Board of Church Erection has granted the amount of money imperatively needed to assist these churches in rebuilding and the uncertainty has been removed, we are hopeful of a marked improvement in the work in the year to come.

Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi, the first group, are numerically weak Synods and will require the faithful watch-care of the Board and its representatives for years to come.

The second group, Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri, are alike in this that they are practically able to take charge of the administration of the work within their bounds. The development in these three Synods will not be rapid but steady and permanent.

In Kentucky we have had an Executive Committee on Synodical Missions, the design of which was to supplement salaries when what the Board appropriated was inadequate to meet the demands. The organization was almost ideal and illustrated what may be accomplished by a compact synodical organization. As it was organized it became necessary to multiply offerings for home missions, one offering for the work of this committee and one for the Home Board. At a recent meeting of the committee with representatives of the Board, its objects and relations to the work were so changed that it now coöperates with the Board in the administration and development of the work in that Synod.

In Tennessee the conditions have been exceedingly hostile to large growth. The eastern part of the Synod is mountainous and preëminently home mission territory. It has not been disturbed by litigation and has made good progress. In the middle and western part of the State the disturbance has been great. Most of our churches in this section of the State have been dispossessed of their church buildings by the decision of the Supreme Court of the State but have gone bravely forward, maintaining their organization and making slight gains and planning to build as soon as the definite amount of aid they might expect from outside sources was known. The Board of Church Erection having definitely settled this uncertainty, they are erecting neat and comfortable houses to take the places of those lost.

Conditions similar to those in Tennessee exist in Missouri, with this difference: both the parties to the union being about of equal strength in the State, the result of the adverse Supreme Court decision is not so hurtful to the work. We have strong churches and the effect of the decision upon the work is not so damaging.

Texas and Oklahoma constitute the third group. In Texas we have had eight pastor-evangelists at work in a single Presbytery or a group of Presbyteries. In this rapidly developing territory it is difficult to keep up with our opportunities. Pasture lands have been converted into productive farms. Towns and cities are springing up. Railways are being built from north to south, as well as east to west, and it becomes necessary to employ a large force of men each year to meet our obligation to the tide of immigration that comes from almost all sections of the country. A good many mission churches in this Synod have become self-supporting but as many and more new stations have been opened or are waiting to be opened.

Oklahoma presents practically all the problems that are found in Texas. Five pastor-evangelists have been at work in this field during the year. The fact that the territory is new and the population shifting must be taken into account to estimate fairly the work in this field. In the beginning of our Church in Oklahoma we occupied, first of all, the towns and cities and have not as yet a large constituency in the country districts. The Sabbath-school missionaries and the pastor-evangelists, therefore, have a large place in planting our work here.

From the District of the Northwest the Rev. Robert N. Adams, D.D., field secretary, reports that although expectations have not been fully realized, yet conditions for the most part are encouraging and the outlook hopeful. There is evidently an increased interest on the part of ministers in home missions, and a growing appreciation by the people of the value of home evangelism, especially in its relation to worldwide missions.

In the Evangelistic Department, counting synodical superintendents and evangelists, twenty men—nineteen commissioned by the Home Board and one supported on the field—have been employed in this work. Diligent and efficient for the most part, these twenty have served on an average salary of a thousand dollars, securing part of their expenses on the field. Results of their work are hinted by the special services held in 125 churches and new points. Other work done is suggested as follows: (a) bringing about general efficiency in the work of their respective Presbyteries; (b) securing better organization in the churches; (c) securing larger giving to local self-support, thus reducing the draft upon the Board; (d) supplying and securing supplies for vacant churches otherwise uncared for.

In the Logging Camp Work, undertaken two years ago by the Home Board, the Rev. Frank E. Higgins, of Duluth Presbytery, has been the superintendent. He has enlisted with him seven men—three of whom are converted "lumber jacks," three are Presbyterian ministers and one a Methodist minister, whose fields of labor are in the vicinity of the camps. With the help of these workers Mr. Higgins reports about 9,000 men reached in a hundred camps, seventy of them regularly. From these are reported seventy-six definite conversions and many others have expressed a desire to lead a better life. Reading matter has been distributed among the lumber men, who are growing more and more eager to receive such church papers, magazines and tracts as are provided.

In helping the work of temperance in the camps our missionaries have been efficient, and were instrumental in creating sentiment against "blind pigs" to the extent of putting three men out of the business.

All the territory now occupied by the lumber interests within a very brief period will be permanently settled, and the churches organized along the line of these lumber roads promise to be permanent.

From the Rocky Mountain District, the Rev. Robert M. Donaldson, D.D., field secretary, reports:

There are in the Rocky Mountain District the following Synods: Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, and New Mexico. Mines and camps, cattle and sheep ranges, wilderness, desert and mountain, this section to the majority of our people is involved in uncertainty as to its future value to the nation and the Church. With a great output of gold, silver, copper and coal, whose hidden sources have hardly been touched in several mountain States, the products of the field exceed those of the mine. In Colorado both agriculture and manufacturing are ahead of mining interests. Montana and Wyoming stand second to nothing in the world in their annual production of sheep and wool. Although not a region of great cities and congested populations, yet Denver and Salt Lake are larger to-day than was Chicago at the time of the great fire in 1871, and they are growing more rapidly than at any other period of their history.

The mountain States are receiving closest attention from the national Government, from educators and from investors of capital. There is no more imperative duty upon the Church than to make the forces and resources of these States tributary to the Kingdom of God.

By a wise provision of the last General Assembly the new Synod of Idaho was erected. Preliminary steps called for a new Presbytery in Idaho and for the division of the churches in Utah into three Presbyteries. Sheridan Presbytery in Wyoming, and Yellowstone in Montana were created for the sake of closer oversight of the new fields and economy of administration. The first meeting of the new Synod of Idaho was held in the little city of Twin Falls.

Yellowstone Presbytery was set off from the Presbytery of Helena, whose area was more than 64,000 square miles, or a half larger than Ohio. The new Presbytery covers a region that had but one Presbyterian organization previous to 1894, and few of any other denomination. With two exceptions, each church we have organized within this territory was the only Protestant organization in that community.

Sheridan Presbytery is new in every sense of the word. Wyoming is called the newest State in the Union by reason of its vast resources and areas that are undeveloped. Only recently has it shared the growth in population that has marked other mountain States.

Within two years the district has grown from four Synods to five, and from sixteen Presbyteries to twenty-one. A number of new churches have been organized, a few transferred to better points, while an encouraging number are reaching self-support.

Developed land areas mean more people. Larger populations call for improved methods of farming in which the national Government has interested itself financially and technically. The millions it is investing for the sake of the larger future in this field make the investment of religious bodies, generous as they may be, look insignificant and mean. Ample provision must be made for the spiritual as well as for the material and intellectual training of our citizenship.

The reduction of cattle on the northern Montana ranges by 500,000 within a single year does not mean freezing or starving, as in pioneer days; it means that cattle are yielding their place to people. It is clear that the responsibility of the Church is greater when people cover the plains than when the cattle are upon a thousand hills. Fully one-third of our churches in the mountain States are in towns or communities owing their existence to the forward movement caused by irrigation and dry farming. Nearly all our new organizations are in these regions. Every mountain State has within it one or more centres upon which the Government is expending so many millions.

The problem of Mormonism abides and has lost none of its perplexities. Projected railroads and irrigation systems are opening new regions to settlement, a large part of which are being occupied by men and women of the Protestant faith. This is one of the signs of promise for both Church and State. Prohibition has a large and zealous following in the rank and file of the Mormon Church, but they find themselves opposed to their own leaders who have large investments with liquor interests. It is doubtful if one can invest his life and influence in any field for Christian service for the next decade, where it will accomplish more than in Utah. Heretofore we have had but two self-supporting churches in the State. We are about to double this number.

Work among the Mexican people must always be slow, but it is fundamental for American Christianity and as fruitful as the average American church.

In several Presbyteries the larger part of our churches are where no other Protestant church is at work. We have a comity agreement with the Congregationalists that has scarcely—if ever—been broken in a quarter century. A Western Branch of the Federal Council of Churches has been established at Denver, covering all the Western States, which promises to render valuable assistance in the solution of the comity problem, as well as to furnish us with valuable information concerning needy fields. Altogether the year has been one in which we find many hopeful signs of progress.

In the Pacific Coast District, the Rev. William Sylvester Holt, D.D., is field secretary. He reports:

This district includes the territory of Alaska and the coast States, Washington, Oregon and California, with northern Idaho and Nevada. This district is organized into three Synods with twenty-five Presbyteries, of which five are self-supporting and twenty home mission. It includes a population of about 3,000,000, in which we have 708 churches (thirty-three of these organized during the year) with about 70,000 members.

Aside from the many private irrigation plans, the Government has taken hold of one project in California, one in Nevada, two in Oregon and two in Washington involving an estimated cost of more than twenty-four millions and a half of money. The lumber interests of the Pacific Coast include the largest standing bodies of timber now in the United States. Into these vast forests have gone thousands of men for the spiritual care of most of whom nothing is done. In the lumber camps of California and Nevada there are not less than 7,000 men; in Oregon 4,800; more than 18,000 in Washington, and 1,100 in Idaho. Careful correspondence reveals the fact that very little is done by any Church in the interests of these men. Mining camps are scattered throughout the Coast District. Nevada is largely a mining camp. The East has sent its young men to the gold fields of the West and poured treasure into them as into no other enterprise. For lumber and mining camps alike the home missionary is sought.

Steady progress has marked the year. New communities have been entered and new churches organized,—in California, twelve; in Oregon, five; in Washington, sixteen. The results of the self-support movement, while not all that had been hoped, are good. The two Presbyteries doing home mission work independently of the Board would not willingly go back to dependence. Santa Barbara Presbytery adopted the plan of self-support under the Board, and Oakland has voted to try for self-support on a basis of 50 cents a member. California has taken definite steps looking toward a self-supporting Synod by allotting to each Presbytery a given sum per member, which, if attained, will go far toward the goal.

In Oregon the first steps in this direction have been taken, and in Washington the Synod's committee is planning for the same result.

The budget plan, which has never failed in this district, is receiving more attention than ever. When definitely laid before a Presbytery or a church it has proved one of the helps to the solution of financial questions.

Department of Church and Labor.—Recently The Outlook said, editorially: "The Department of Church and Labor of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions has, it is fair to say, virtually revolutionized, within a few years, the attitude of the trades unions toward the Church." This comment is indicative of a phase of the department's work which is worthy of consideration. The department has consistently sought relationships with all classes of working-people, but it has availed itself of the splendid machinery offered to it by organized labor in its labor press, its national conventions and local meetings. Without, at any time, committing itself to organized labor, the responses to our appeal to the trades unions of the United States have attracted wide attention.

All the methods of work which have been tested and proven effective in the seven years of the history of the department, have been continued during the past year,—the popular mass meetings for workingmen on Sunday afternoons, the sending of fraternal delegates to central labor unions, the furnishing of a weekly article to the labor press of America, the shop-meeting campaigns, the observance of Labor Sunday, conferences between employers and employés, and the correspondence course in Applied Christianity for ministers and Christian workers being among the most prominent.

The past year has been an unusual one in our approach to the colleges and universities of the country. Not only have the representatives of the department served as college preachers, but numerous conferences have been held for the students and, in many cases, with the faculty. That the Department of Church and Labor has been organized on fundamental principles has been shown by its relation to the country church. Within the past year, the department has undertaken the investigation of the country church through a series of "One Day Conferences on the Country Church," under the immediate direction of the assistant superintendent. These have been held in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and Illinois, and requests have come for conferences from New Jersey, Delaware, Tennessee, Indiana, Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri, in addition to further requests from the States first named. The department is furnishing, regularly, a series of syndicated articles for the agricultural press of the United States, in which are advocated the principles with regard to the country church for which the department stands.

An important event in the year's work was the sociological conference conducted by the department in New York City on December first, second and third, at which twenty of the leading authorities on social problems in their various aspects gave addresses. The conference attracted wide attention among the leaders in sociological thought. It is the purpose of the department to conduct such a conference annually in some American city.

Department of Immigration.—In harmony with the recommendation of the last General Assembly that the Department of Immigration, at the request of Presbyteries, make special surveys of their fields, we have performed such service for Newark, New Jersey, Lockport, New York, and the entire Presbytery of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania—a district about as large as the State of New Jersey. In connection with each of these surveys, charts and diagrams were prepared, valuable statistics were gathered, a complete report of the conditions among foreign-speaking people being made, in each case, to the committees having the work in charge.

Reference was made in the last Annual Report to the organization of work among the Ruthenians. This movement has steadily grown, and in Newark, New Jersey, the First Ruthenian Presbyterian Church has been organized, six elders ordained, nine trustees and the church incorporated. This development is the direct result of the efforts of the Rev. John Bodrug, the Board's general missionary among the Ruthenians. The Church Extension Committee of Newark Presbytery recently purchased a plot of ground for $12,200 upon which a church will be erected, costing about $20,000, the plan being to have the Ruthenians themselves assist in the building and to finally become the purchasers of the property. Ruthenian services are being regularly conducted also in the new enterprise of the Home Board in lower New York, known for many years as Hope Chapel. Mr. Bodrug has translated Pilgrim's Progress into Ruthenian and it will shortly be published.

The Board, through its Department of Immigration, has taken immediate charge of Hope Chapel in the midst of what is probably the most densely populated part of the world, and has there organized a polyglot work in which it is planned to reach the people of many nations, principally the Jews, who are thickly settled in the great tenement houses of this district. Open air meetings are conducted, conferences are held in the chapel, literature is being distributed, and a special worker is about to be installed.

The Board has called the Rev. William P. Shriver to become assistant superintendent in the Department of Immigration, but he is giving much of his time to the direction of the work among foreign-speaking people in New York City. Plans are being matured in coöperation with the Home Mission Committee of Presbytery, which will result in a forward movement that will, it is hoped, adequately meet the situation.

The Rev. Louis Meyer, the Board's representative in the Jewish work, which was taken up at the request of the General Assembly, has devoted the year to holding conferences at various points in the United States on invitation of Presbyteries and local committees interested in the organization effort among the Jews. The policy of the department has been not the inauguration of Jewish missions, but the encouraging of churches situated in Jewish communities to themselves engage in such work.

Missionary enterprises have been conducted among the following nationalities: Ruthenian, German, Italian, Magyar, Bohemian, Greek and Syrian.

Department of Indian Missions.—The first full year's work of this department has been blessed with a quickened interest on the part of the Church in its Indian missions and an advance on the Indian fields. The more systematic, comprehensive plan for carrying forward the enterprise of Christian missions to this race has unified and stimulated the work. With only 300,545 Indians in the United States, exclusive of Alaska, there is a larger percentage of heathen unenlightened by the Gospel among this people than among any other element of American population.

The Indians are not a decadent or vanishing race, but are in a transitional period and a stage of re-adaptation to changed conditions. Admixture with the white race, wide scattering of the population, and the rapid breaking up of tribal and reservation life, disguise the increase in population. The new governmental policies of abolishing Indian agencies, allotting land in severalty, removing restrictions on allotted lands to a considerable extent, and breaking up of tribal relations and heathen customs, are making a new epoch for this race, and requiring readjustments to which the slow moving red men painfully adapt themselves.

Our missions are located in nineteen States among fifty distinct tribes. There are 108 organized churches and 57 additional mission stations. These are supplied by 71 ordained ministers, of whom more than half are natives, and by 57 assistants under commission of the Board, or paid by the local congregations. The total number of communicants is 6,754 and in 104 Sabbath-schools there is an enrollment of 5,924. The Woman's Board maintains 11 mission schools with 55 instructors and 620 pupils. The estimated adherents of the Presbyterian Church are 18,000, to which over 2,000 must be added of native Alaskans for the total Indian constituency in our Church of the United States. There is probably not a people in the world more devout and attentive to the obligations of their faith than these Christian Indians.

Five months of the year were spent by the superintendent visiting the fields in eleven States. Conferences were held in Oklahoma, Mount Hermon, California, and Flagstaff, Arizona.

There are now provided as special gifts for the salaries of Indian missionaries and native helpers, $10,356.00 annually contributed by individual friends and churches.

The statistics of the unevangelized Indians of the United States have been collated, and these uncared-for heathen of Christian America total over 50,000 to whom no herald of the Gospel has come, and who are without Christian instruction or the ordinances of the Church. Some fifty tribal divisions are in need of missionaries.

The salvation of these people is a work peculiarly committed to American Christians.

Alaska.—In Alaska are two Presbyteries—the Presbytery of Alaska and the Presbytery of the Yukon.

Alaska Presbytery embraces the entire country from Dixon entrance on the south to Mount Saint Elias on the north. It includes sixteen churches, of which all but four are native, nine ordained ministers, of whom one is a native Alaskan, two candidates for the ministry, and six native helpers working under the direction of the ordained missionaries. The native communicants number approximately 900. As the result of forty years of mission effort in southeastern Alaska, most of which has been carried on by the Presbyterian Church, it may be said, as of the United States in general, that the population is nominally Christian.

Porto Rico.—After ten years in Porto Rico under American occupation, Protestant interests have steadily advanced. Our work has fallen no whit behind, each year making definite advance. A year ago in various fields under our Board special efforts were made to increase the contributions of the people for local church work. In a Roman Catholic country, where grasping greed has characterized the established Church, the securing of volunteer offerings for the support of the Gospel, and of growth in the spirit of Christian liberality, has been no easy task.

The estimates received for the new fiscal year indicate encouraging progress in this direction. The raising of funds to meet incidental expenses is noted on nearly all of the fields. Contributions toward building much needed houses of worship have been marked features in no less than four instances. At one of these, at Cangrejo Arriba, an out-station from the capital, the members of the native church who were mechanics, as they had little money, gave of their time and skill, thus making the building a memorial to their Christian and missionary spirit. The offering of a fine site and property for a merely nominal sum for the establishing of a Protestant college is a new and signal token of the impression which the Gospel in its simplicity has made upon the Island.

In addition to the evangelistic work carried on under the Board's missionaries, mention should be made of three other forms of service.

One is the publication weekly of La Voz Evangelica, the little organ of Protestant truth published in Mayagüez under the direction of the mission force there.

Another is the medical service, which finds appreciative response in the midst of great need, centering in San Juan and Mayagüez. At San Juan the Woman's Board hospital continues its efficiency and increases its enviable reputation. At Mayagüez, with our single physician and his native assistant, daily clinics are held reaching as high as a hundred and fifty patients cordially received and treated in body and soul.

The last and by no means the least important arm of the service is the educational. This includes the various schools in carefully chosen sites under the direction of the Woman's Board and the Theological Training School.

The chief centres of our work in Porto Rico are at San Juan, Isabela, Aguadilla, Añasco, Mayagüez and San German. Residing in ten stations, in connection with which eighty-two out-stations are carried on, eleven ordained American missionaries are serving a church membership of more than 2,500, in twenty-nine churches. Two other American missionaries are physicians—one in charge of the Woman's Board Hospital at San Juan, the other in charge of the dispensary work centering at Mayagüez. Under their direction about 24,000 patients have been treated during the past year. With more than 900 pupils in the day-schools of the Woman's Board, and twenty-four students in the Theological Training School, the record of ten years shows that the work has been well worth while.

CUBA.—Briefly summarized, so far as figures tell the story, the facts of Presbyterian mission work in Cuba are suggested in the following statements:

The properties owned by the Board are as follows: Central Church, Havana, $50,000; Nueva Paz, $2,500; Cabaiguan, $1,000; and Sancti Spiritus (a lot), $1,500. The average weekly attendance upon our services, including Sabbath-schools, is 2,623. We have added during the year, by confession, 140, by letter, 10. Total membership, 1,350. Our young people's societies number ten and are all in a flourishing condition. At a recent convention held in Cienfuegos we headed the list in the number of our delegates.

The chief centres are Havana, with three organized churches, eight regular places of preaching including out-stations, Güines, Matanzas, Cienfuegos with three out-stations, Sancti Spiritus with three out-stations. Smaller towns occupied are Güira, Güanajay, San Cristobal and Puerto Esperanza.

The spiritual tone of our churches is relatively high. The reverence which marks our services and the hunger for spiritual truth, as seen in our gatherings, are noteworthy, but of course there is much to rectify in the traditional ideas and customs of this people. Of day schools we now have five with thirteen teachers and an enrollment of 400.

In the matter of self-support our Cuban field is confronted not with a theory but a condition. Nine-tenths of our people are of the humbler class and count their earnings rather by cents than by dollars. They are by nature generous, and no doubt give with more real sacrifice than the average Christian at home. But by teaching them to distinguish between wants and necessities, by appealing to their self-respect and above all by urging upon them love and gratitude as motives, we are advancing slowly on this line. During the last year, in addition to paying for lights, janitor's services, Sabbath-school literature and giving generously to the poor and for their Christmas festivals, we have contributed $1,000 toward the salaries of our ministers.

At the end of eight years of organized work in Cuba we have fifteen churches, representing an enrollment of about 1,300; twelve out-stations and twenty-five Sabbath-schools, attended by 1,500 children. In our five day-schools we have an enrollment of 400, a large proportion of whom pay something for tuition. Of ordained ministers in active service we have ten, only four of whom are missionaries.

Literature Department.—The past year has been one of steady progress. The annual receipts from the sales of leaflets, text-books for study, and Prayer Calendars reached $8,313.63. During the year twenty-four new leaflets have been issued, of which 1,082,400 copies, containing 4,589,000 pages, have been printed and distributed with 204,300 collection envelopes. The joint publications of the Board and the Woman's Board, prepared chiefly for use in the young people's societies, are not included in these figures. These represent 51,350 copies, 2,293,800 pages of leaflets, 11,808 copies, 1,097,781 pages of books, and 31,625 collection envelopes.

The Prayer Calendar, published jointly, this year reached its largest circulation.

The stereopticon lecture department, under the auspices of the two Boards, reports more exhibitions of slides, larger rental receipts, more testimonials of appreciation than have ever before been recorded. Arrangement has been made whereby western churches may enjoy the use of the slides without having to pay the transportation charges of long distances, by placing one set illustrating each field for which we have lectures in the offices of our field secretaries, from whom they may be procured at the regular rates.

Young People's Department.—Probably the clearest evidence of growth in this department is in mission study in young people's societies and Sunday-schools. The text-book selected by the Young People's Missionary Movement and the Interdenominational Committee for last year was The Upward Path—a book on the Negro problem. The study of The Challenge of the City has been revived, perhaps because of the special problems in our larger cities and the great influx of foreigners. Our "helps" for this study course are limited, and the leaflets of the Church and Labor Department have therefore been especially acceptable.

An ever widening interest is manifested in our printed field letters, programs and helps for missionary meetings.

In The Westminster Teacher home mission illustrations have been furnished by this department for the International monthly mission lesson. With the Sunday-school departments of the Foreign Board and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, our Young People's Department has joined in issuing, under the title Kingdom Comments, a leaflet giving missionary illustrations for each Sunday-school lesson.

The summer missionary conferences, institutes, rallies, and so forth, are of increasing value. The Presbyterian delegations afford opportunity for personal acquaintance and correspondence during the rest of the year, so that the young people are not allowed to forget home missions and the services our Young People's Department can render their local missionary committees.

Special mention is made of personal presentation of home mission interests at the Sunday-school gatherings, young people's meeting and conferences, during the last Assembly; and also at the National Christian Endeavor convention in Saint Paul.

Our Young People's Department has coöperated heartily with the corresponding departments in the Foreign Board, Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work in various ways, none more practical perhaps than the special effort to secure systematic study of missions in the Sabbath-schools.

An unusual number of changes in presbyterial and synodical secretaries has somewhat complicated the correspondence of the year.

The Woman's Board.—The thirty-first Annual Report of the Woman's Board shows many changes in the personnel of its leaders.

Mrs. Darwin R. James, who had already withdrawn from active leadership, was made honorary president, and Mrs. Fred Smith Bennett, who had been acting president, was made president of the Board at its annual meeting.

The Rev. Robert M. Craig, on account of ill health, retired from the superintendency of the school work, and his place was filled by David R. Boyd, Ph.D., the organizer of the State University of Oklahoma, and for sixteen years its successful president.

Mrs. Ella Alexander Boole, for six years the secretary of the Woman's Board, resigned to accept work in connection with the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and Miss Julia Fraser was elected her successor.

Miss S. F. Lincoln, twenty years the beloved treasurer, resigned from official service, and Miss V. May White was elected acting treasurer.

Three of the most honored and efficient members of the Woman's Board died during the year—Mrs. W. P. Allen, of New York; Mrs. William S. Ladd, of Oregon; and Mrs. A. H. Vedder, of Wisconsin.

Changes in synodical presidents are as follows: Illinois synodical, Mrs. Charles W. Robinson is succeeded by Mrs. A. G. Beebe; Indiana, Mrs. F. F. McCrea, by Mrs. Herbert Campbell; Utah, Mrs. R. G. McNiece, by Mrs. A. G. Gillilan; Oregon, Washington and Idaho (which administer both home and foreign missions under one Board organization), Mrs. W. S. Ladd, succeeded by Mrs. E. P. Mossman.

A new synodical society, organized during the year, was that of New Mexico; president, Miss C. A. Gilchrist.

Changes in the personnel of the field secretaries have also taken place—Miss Fraser from the Pacific Coast coming to the secretaryship of the Woman's Board and Miss Edith Hughes, accepting an important position in Park College, retiring as field secretary for the Southwest. The new field secretaries are Miss Lydia A. Hays, Miss Abby H. Upham and Miss Helen Keil.

The organization of the Woman's Board is completed through thirty-three synods and in many presbyteries.

The box work has been continued—two hundred sixty-eight societies having prepared boxes for schools, and three hundred fifty-six boxes having gone to ministers' families.

The Home Mission Monthly closes the most successful year in its history, which means the more as each year has chronicled advance.

Over Sea and Land, the little home and foreign mission magazine for children, has been compelled to part with its editor, Mrs. A. W. Dimock, who has had charge of it for six years. Its office has been transferred from Philadelphia to 156 Fifth Avenue, New York.

The Interdenominational Council of Women for Home Missions held its first annual meeting in New York last December. It is composed of nine representative women from each of the affiliated national Women's Boards of Home Missions. The members from our Church are Mesdames F. S. Bennett, D. E. Waid, H. Lindemann and the Misses V. M. White and Julia Fraser, New York; Mesdames M. V. Richards, Synod of Baltimore; Herbert Campbell, Synod of Indiana; Paul Raymond, Synod of Colorado; R. B. Goddard, Synod of California.

Money for the Woman's Department of the Freedmen's Board since 1884 has been received through the regular channels of our Woman's Board, and transmitted to the treasury in Pittsburg. The Freedmen are also given one entire issue of The Home Mission Monthly.

The field work of our Woman's Board comprises 161 schools and twenty-one evangelistic stations, extending from Point Barrow on the north, and Saint Lawrence Island on the west, to San Juan, Porto Rico, on the south, among different races with different languages and divers customs.

Conclusion.—Closing this review of the year, the following facts may be noted:

1. During the past year our receipts from churches have been about 6 per cent. advance over those of last year.

2. The demands from the field and from our various departments have called for an advance in appropriations of $175,000. The Board has voted this advance in the expectation that the General Assembly would, through the budget, call for a proportionate increase in gifts.

3. The Board calls the attention of the General Assembly to the need of some unification of appeals from Boards to Sabbath-schools. The number of such appeals is confusing, and the proximity of appeals for different Boards results in an interfering of dates that is undesirable. In our judgment, it were desirable that there should be but one appeal each year to the Sabbath-schools from each Board now seeking special gifts from Sabbath-schools.

4. Until or unless such unification of appeals to Sabbath-schools shall take place, the Home Board asks that on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day an offering be taken in the Sabbath-schools for mission school work; on the Sabbath nearest Washington's birthday, for the work of evangelization.

5. With thankful recognition of the value which has come to home missions by the action of the Advisory Council already taken, we ask that further steps be taken to unify and simplify our home mission interests, and to make a program for a national home mission policy in which all home mission agencies of the country may heartily and effectively coöperate.

6. We respectfully ask the General Assembly to reaffirm the percentages of undesignated gifts by the churches to the various causes of benevolence.

7. The Board begs leave to ask the General Assembly to consider the advisability of an approach to other leading denominations on the question of unifying our interest and influence in the matter of chaplaincies in the army and navy.

The Rev. William Adams Brown, D.D., Mr. Theodore W. Morris and the Hon. William S. Bennet have been elected to fill vacancies in the membership of the Board.

The term of service of the following members expires with this meeting of the Assembly:

Ministers.	Laymen.
Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D.,	Walter M. Aikman,
Rev. Joseph Dunn Burrell, D.D.,	William H. Corbin,
Rev. Albert Edwin Keigwin, D.D.,	Robert C. Ogden,
Rev. Edgar Whitaker Work, D.D.	Henry W. Jessup,
	Fleming H. Revell.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Board,

ABSTRACT OF THE SEVENTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

This Report covers a period of only eleven months, the Assembly having instructed the Board to change the date of its fiscal year from April 30 to March 31. This change has necessarily interfered somewhat with a comparison of receipts with previous years. The Board has urged its contributors to send their offerings before April 1. It may take some time for the churches to adapt themselves to the new order. The receipts for the eleven months are as follows, as compared with the full period last year: from May 1, 1909, to March 31, 1910, $1,457,660.80. From May 1, 1908, to May 1, 1909, $1,526,859.37.

The Board has received notification from the executors of the Estate of the late John Stewart Kennedy, of the large legacy left by him to the Board. Mr. Kennedy was a liberal contributor to the Board during his life-time. The amount of this legacy far exceeds that of any other legacy received by this Board, or by any other Board of Foreign Missions.

Death has made great breaches in the ranks of the Board's workers at home and abroad.

On January 17, 1910, the Rev. William Rogers Richards, D.D., pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church, of New York City, suddenly passed away. Dr. Richards was elected a member of the Board in 1890, and during the entire twenty years which have since elapsed served with conspicuous fidelity and efficiency. His attendance at meetings of the Board and its sub-committees was most regular; his wide outlook, long experience and wise counsel were of incalculable value to the Board. His marked intellectual qualities which distinguished him as a preacher were evident in his grasp of the many important and often perplexing problems of the Board, and were most graciously and generously extended. His interest in the work of the Board was manifested in many ways, and it was quickened by an extended trip to the Syrian Mission and to the mission carried on in Mexico.

October 31, at Portland, Oregon, Mrs. William S. Ladd, President of the Woman's North Pacific Board of Missions, entered into rest. Mrs. Ladd had been the President of the Board of the North Pacific since its beginning in 1888, and presided over its meetings with firmness, kindness and charity in all that the word implies. She loved our missionaries at home and abroad, and all felt that they had a warm personal friend in Mrs. Ladd. Her love for the Kingdom was world-wide.

March 19, 1910, Mrs. Charles N. Thorpe, President of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, with headquarters in Philadelphia, passed on to her reward after fighting bravely against an incurable disease. The last act of Mrs. Thorpe before going to the hospital was thoroughly characteristic. She presided at a meeting of the Woman's Board of Philadelphia and went in a few hours to the hospital, knowing full well the probability of the fatal issue of her malady.

The following missionaries died during the year:

The Rev. George Cornwell, of Chefoo, China. Appointed March 16, 1901; died August 26, 1909.

Mrs. Mary Mead Cornwell, wife of the Rev. George Cornwell, Chefoo, China. Appointed March 16, 1891; died August 30, 1909.

Mrs. Nellie Dick Adams, wife of the Rev. James E. Adams of Taiku, Korea. Appointed March 5, 1894; died October 31, 1909.

The Rev. Chase Cranford Sawtell, of Taiku, Korea. Appointed June 3, 1907; died November 16, 1909.

Mrs. Maude E. Saxe Greenfield, wife of the Rev. M. Willis Greenfield, of Seoul, Korea. Appointed March 18, 1907; died January 29, 1910.

Mrs. Emma R. Locke, wife of the Rev. W. T. Locke, of Chenchow, Hunan, China. Appointed March 2, 1903; died February 6, 1910.

The case of Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell was peculiarly sad—both died of cholera within a few days of each other, leaving a family of seven children. Kind relatives are caring for these orphans.

The losses on the field by death and resignation are 26. The number of new missionaries sent out is 59, making a net gain of 33, or a total enrollment of 979 missionaries.

In the home field the most significant event is the development of Foreign Mission interest as crystallized in the Laymen's Missionary Movement. This organization, after consultation with all the leading Boards, including our own, and with the cordial coöperation of these Boards, instituted a series of missionary campaigns in 75 of the leading cities of the country. Members and officers of the Board, missionaries on furlough, together with prominent Presbyterian laymen in different parts of the country, have loyally and enthusiastically coöperated with the Laymen's Missionary Movement in its efforts to awaken in men a greater sense of obligation for world-wide evangelization. The series of campaigns will culminate in a Missionary Congress in the City of Chicago in May. It is too early to tabulate the results, either financial or spiritual, of this great movement, but no one can question that thousands of men in our own and other Churches have had a new vision of their duty and privilege, a new conception of the missionary obligation; and have formed a new purpose to have part in this blessed service. The interdenominational character of these gatherings, the wise methods advocated, the amount of valuable information imparted, and the spiritual enthusiasm awakened, marks this as a distinct era in the history of Foreign Missions.

In addition to extensive work in connection with the Laymen's Campaigns, a special and unique campaign was carried on in the State of Illinois, under the name of "The Every Member Campaign." This campaign was conceived by a prominent layman of Chicago, Mr. H. P. Crowell, who has generously financed the undertaking and has taken a great interest in the prosecution of the work. The results of the first year have been most gratifying, and Mr. Crowell has signified his willingness to continue the work for another year.

Coincident with these campaigns has been the very extensive preparatory work carried on during the year by the officers and members of our own and other Boards for the coming World Missionary Conference to be held in Edinburgh, June 14–23, 1910. Some of the officers of the Board have given much time to the arrangements and preparation of material for this gathering, which promises to be the most important of all the great missionary gatherings of the last hundred years. It would seem fitting that the General Assembly should by a resolution express its approval of this Conference and devote a few moments of its session to prayer for God's blessing upon those who shall assemble in this World Conference, that they may plan great things for the Kingdom.

During the year two of the Board's Secretaries visited the Mission field—Secretary Robert E. Speer visiting all the Missions in South America, and Secretary Arthur J. Brown visiting the Missions in Japan, Korea and Central and Northern China. Reports of these visits have been published. The necessity of such visitation becomes more evident with the advancement of the work and the complex problems arising out of missionary administration.

There has been no change in the personnel of the Home Department, save that in the place of the late Rev. Dwight E. Potter, the Board elected the Rev. Ernest F. Hall to be District Secretary for the Pacific Coast. Mr. Hall was formerly a missionary of the Board in Korea, and had proved his fitness for the present position not only by his missionary knowledge, but by the work which he accomplished among the churches in connection with the Korea Propaganda.

In the Eastern District, plans for work have been adjusted to the special conditions incident to the Laymen's Missionary Campaign which was in progress in this District from early in October until the end of January. In most of the eighteen centres where Laymen's Conventions were held, the Presbyterial Committee either enlarged its membership by the appointment of laymen who had caught fire from this Movement or else appointed a special Campaign Committee of laymen to which was entrusted the responsibility of working out the sequel to the convention with the active coöperation of the Presbyterial Committee. Efforts have been made to secure in every church a wide-awake man to serve as a "connecting link" between the Campaign Committee and his own church until a permanent Missionary Committee is constituted by the Session. Then, wherever the way opened, a canvass has been conducted with a view of enlisting every one in the church to contribute systematically for the support of Missions, both at home and abroad. In this way, a large number of churches have already been brought to a stable basis of individual systematic contribution for benevolent and missionary work.

The Central District has continued the Missionary Evangelistic Campaign Method, which has produced excellent results:

1. In deepening Foreign Missionary conviction on the part of both men and women. The uprising of the men is marvelous, but the deepening of Foreign Missionary conviction is not confined to the men. All classes and ages are manifesting an interest in the world's evangelization as never before, due in large measure to the Missionary Evangelistic Campaign conducted by our Board agencies during the past five years.

2. In increasing spiritual life, as well as of Home and Foreign Missionary contributions in churches where such campaigns have been conducted. Many scores of churches have been revived by our Missionary Evangelistic Campaigns.

3. In organizing men into clubs and bands for the attainment of a higher standard in giving. A list of sixty churches shows an increase in gifts from $25,056 to $57,774 after the adoption of the Omaha Standard.

The Omaha Standard Club of the State of Kansas has been organized with a view to placing every Presbyterian Church in Kansas on the Omaha Standard basis.

In the Southern District the work has been almost entirely confined to coöperating in the Laymen's Missionary Campaigns. The results have been most satisfactory, and at the present time it seems as though the churches in this District would increase their offerings at least 25 per cent. over that of any previous year.

In the Western District the work has been largely that of organization and participation in the Laymen's Movement Campaigns.

The Sunday-school Department reports that during the year many schools have adopted the "Station Plan" of giving, which in most cases means a substantial increase of gifts over former years, and has the added advantage of securing to the Board annually pledged amounts rather than spasmodic offerings. The increased demand for the special services of the Board issued at Christmas and Easter is peculiarly gratifying, indicating that the type of program issued by the Board is appealing to an enlarging constituency. The unsolicited expressions of satisfaction concerning the last Christmas service from all parts of the country were very encouraging, and the consequent demand for the Easter service this year has been unprecedented.

In accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly, the Sunday-school Department has been coöperating with the Board of Home Missions and with the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work in the common interest of missionary education in the Sunday-schools. In the early fall the three Boards sent out a joint letter to all the Presbyteries, presenting a plan of unified missionary effort and asking action by the Presbyteries looking toward closer coöperation by the three committees of Presbytery representing the three Boards. Several of the Presbyteries are working effectively along the lines of the proposed recommendations, and have either held or are arranging to hold at the meeting of Presbytery a conference on Missions in the Sunday-school under the auspices of the three Presbyterial Committees representing the Boards named.

Arrangements are being perfected with many of the Sabbath-school missionaries to present in their field not merely the work of Sabbath-school Missions, but of Home and Foreign Missions as well. The Secretary of the Sunday-school Department met in conference at some of the Synods, and later in Detroit a number of Sabbath-school missionaries, and outlined plans of general missionary education in which they could coöperate.

A significant event is the World's Sunday-school Convention convening in Washington, May 19 to 24 of this year. This is to be preëminently a missionary convention, the purpose being to give to the Sunday-school world a missionary vision, and to the missionary world a Sunday-school vision.

The Educational Department reports that never before has there been such widespread interest in the systematic study of Foreign Missions. Leaders of 1,067 classes in 545 cities and towns of 41 States have filled out our formal report blank, and in addition our correspondence shows that a large number of other groups, large and small, are studying more or less systematically, using lecture courses and other series of meetings leading up to the class ideal.

The work of the Laymen's Missionary Movement has led to correspondence with a number of classes of men, and we expect this special type of work to grow during 1910–11.

In addition to handling a very large correspondence, the Secretaries of the Department have been on the teaching force of five Summer Conferences, ten Institutes and eleven Normal classes designed to fit leaders for work in their local churches. By special invitation the Secretary also took charge of Mission Study in four Conferences in England and Scotland.

The work of the Library has not differed from that of former years. We have added to our collection of books 267 volumes, and we have loaned out 1,034 volumes. In addition to cataloguing and caring for the books, we have, by correspondence, supplied information on a variety of topics, have loaned photographs, curios and costumes, sold literature, cared for cuts and illustrations, and carried on a large business in slides for stereopticon lectures.

The Literature Department has sent out since the beginning of the fiscal year, May 1, 1909, 379,000 Bulletins, and published a number of leaflets, aggregating 65,000 copies. An Educational Booklet of 104 pages has also been issued, setting forth at length the educational work carried on by the Board in its 1,775 locations on the Mission field.

The Women's Boards and Societies have shown even more than their ordinary zeal and efficiency in the work entrusted to their hands. In accordance with the request of the General Assembly they urged upon all their auxiliary societies the necessity of sending in their contributions a month earlier than usual. The excellence of their organization and the efficiency of administration was again manifest, since the entire contribution for the year was in the Treasurer's hands before April 1. It is gratifying also to report that their offerings for 1909–10 exceeded those for the same period of 1908–9 by $140,070.60.

THE MISSIONS.—The year 1909 was the fiftieth anniversary of the beginning of Christian work in Japan. The Church of Christ in Japan celebrated this event by undertaking a year of special evangelization, which has produced marked results. At the anniversary celebration, Count Okuma, Japan's greatest living statesman, said:

"Only by the coming of the West in its missionary representatives, and by the spirit of the Gospel, did the nation enter upon world-wide thoughts and world-wide work. This is undoubtedly the fruit of the Christian religion."

Of the 80,000 members of the Protestant Church in Japan, at least 20,000 can be justly claimed as the result of Presbyterian work. Japan starts on the second half century well equipped for aggressive evangelization.

The year 1909 also marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Korea Mission. No more wondrous story has ever been told. The Mission reports 965 congregations with 25,053 members, and 23,885 catechumens, while the adherents number 96,443. The communicants added during the year numbered 6,532. Contributions for the year, $94,896.49. Eight hundred Bible Classes were conducted at different Stations, with an attendance of more than 50,000 men and women. Is it any wonder that this year the watchword of the Church is "a million souls for Christ in Korea"?

Many Stations in China report wonderful works of grace. The most significant, possibly, was the revival in Wei-hsien College of the Shantung Christian University, where more than 100 students confessed Christ and expressed their determination to enter the Gospel ministry. Even as this report is being written, news comes of a great awakening at Ichow-fu in Shantung, where more than 1,900 persons have signified their desire to study the Gospels. The leader in this revival, as well as at Wei-hsien, is one of the graduates of the Shantung University, a native pastor, the Rev. Ding Li Mei.

The first General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil held its sessions in the City of Rio, January 7–14, 1910. The Commissioners visited the fort of Villegaignon, in the Bay of Rio, heard anew the story of the French missionaries sent out by John Calvin in 1557, and their martyrdom for the truth in January, 1558; sang together the Fifth Psalm, which they had sung in their first public worship on the island, and, standing on the rock where they were strangled and thrown into the sea, they all prayed aloud: "O God, give us Brazil for Christ. To this end bring together in thy peace all Christians in the land. Unite their hearts and lives as in one Church for the evangelization of Brazil. For Christ's sake. Amen."

The Assembly resolved to establish a Presbyterian Orphanage in Lavras, and to open foreign mission work in Portugal, lest the Church forget that its mission is missions.

The missionaries in the Turkish empire and in Persia have been subjected during the year to a severe strain, due to peculiar political conditions. The courage, tact, sympathy and steadfastness which one and all have shown reveals the splendid character of these representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the far East.

In India, in addition to the movement among the Sweepers, which in past years has attained large proportions, a similar work has commenced among the Chamar caste. This caste comprises one-eighth of the total population in the territory of the North India Mission. But one in a thousand of these people can read. Here is a large open door for the Church to enter in and possess the land.

In the four Stations of the Kamerun, West Africa Mission, at a single Communion Sunday in July, 1909, there were present between seven and eight thousand persons. During the year more than 2,500 persons were enrolled as catechumens in these Stations, indicating how deep and far reaching is this work of grace. The contributions of the churches advanced from $5,889 to $10,217.

The disturbed political conditions in many places, such as Colombia, Venezuela, Guatemala, Persia, and to a certain extent in India, have to a greater or less degree interfered with certain phases of missionary work, albeit the regular work of the Missions has been carried on with only occasional interruptions.

The Board has nine printing presses, whose output in pages for the year amounted to 232,380,655. Under care of the Board are 147 hospitals and dispensaries, in which were treated 519,697 patients.

The total membership in the churches connected with our Missions is 101,044. There were added to the membership during the year 15,400. The native force numbers 4,382, while the native contributions on the field amount to $416,293.43. These figures for contributions are not quite complete. With a full statement of receipts the total amount would probably not be far from $450,000, a vast sum when the average wage in non-Christian lands is taken into consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE ALEXANDER, President.

Report of the Treasurer.

The fiscal year 1909–10 of the Board of Foreign Missions comprised eleven months only, having closed on March 31, instead of on April 30, as it formerly has done. This change, which was ordered by the General Assembly, made necessary the reduction of the original appropriations, although it was not possible to reduce them by the exact proportion of one-twelfth. Many items had necessarily to be included in toto, thus making the obligations for eleven months approach more nearly to those of a full year.

The total appropriations for the shortened fiscal year amounted to $1,393,396.92, as against $1,483,729.68 for the preceding twelve months.

The total receipts, representing donations and legacies, amounted to $1,393,402.59, as against $1,487,160.77 for the preceding year. Subtracting appropriations from receipts we have a surplus of $4,005.67 on the year's account, as against a $3,000 surplus for the preceding year.

If we add to the year's surplus items representing income from property, gains in exchange and other credits, aggregating $42,041.79, we have a total surplus for the year of $46,047.32. Applying this surplus to the deficit carried over from former years, which amounted on March 31, 1910, to $104,713.39, we have a net deficit standing on the books of the Board of $58,665.93.

We are not able to compare satisfactorily the receipts from the various sources for the year with the receipts from these sources for the preceding year, for the reason that eleven months would need to be compared with twelve, and it could scarcely be expected that the shorter period would show as great amounts. However, the Women's Boards, which always seem to attain to ideal standards, have sent in more money by $7,000 for the eleven months of the shortened fiscal year than for the twelve months of the preceding year.

There is no doubt whatever that hundreds of laymen throughout the country have been greatly stimulated in the matter of support for Foreign Missions, and that they will increase their gifts. But the increase resulting from the movement will be felt during the coming year to a much greater extent than it has been during the past. The real work of conserving the interest aroused and making practical use of the information concerning Foreign Missions which the Laymen's Campaigns spread abroad, has only begun, and at this writing there still remain a large number of campaigns to be held in the middle and far West. When the fruit of all these begins to be gathered, we trust that the treasury will reflect the good work done among the laymen of the country.

No payments have been received on account of the bequest of the late John S. Kennedy, and the Board has not yet framed a policy for the use of this noble gift, but it is hoped that something from the legacy may be set aside during the coming year for the purpose of providing the facilities needed for the most adequate and efficient prosecution of the work. It is clear, however, that, in any case, the expenditure of this bequest will render necessary larger and not smaller gifts from the Church.

‡ Statistics are given for East and West Japan together. The Missions of the Board in Japan carry on all their work in coöperation with the Church of Christ in Japan and in the interest of that Church. All converts resulting from the work of the Mission are related to the Church of Christ. Instead of any separate Mission statistics, accordingly, the statistics of the Church of Christ are presented. These represent, however, the results of the work both of the self-supporting churches and of the Board of Home Missions of the Church of Christ, and of the Missions of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches.

Abstract of Ninety-first Annual Report.

We report, with gratification, the receipt of $58,587 from churches, young people's societies, and Sunday-schools, the 5 per cent. increase recommended by the Executive Commission having nearly been met. The sum of $35,781 has been received in the form of legacies, and $3,025 from individual donors. The amount from churches is larger than the receipts from this source in any one year for the past eighteen years.

The growing needs of our work require an increased expenditure from year to year, $97,265 having been actually expended in 1908–'09, $105,366 in 1909–'10. Meagre receipts from living sources necessitated the use of the remaining $13,000 of the Reserve Fund, and $12,000 from legacies.

Supply of Candidates.—The Board has taken under its care 843 candidates the past year, 43 more than the year previous, 18 of these being "new men." Six hundred and six of the approved applications were "Renewals," an increase of 25 over last year, the remaining 237 being "new men." This is the first time in five years the Board has been able to report an actual increase of "new men."

The Board believes it sees in present conditions a return to a more normal supply of candidates. The sum of $81,415 was appropriated for scholarships, an average of $96 per candidate. There have been 102 men pursuing academic courses, in 42 institutions; 353 in collegiate courses, in 78 institutions; and 388 taking theological courses, in 17 institutions. Nineteen applications were regretfully declined, after painstaking inquiry, as against 37 declined last year.

Foreign-speaking Candidates.—The Board, according to direction of the last Assembly, entered into special relations with the German Theological School of the Northwest and the German Theological School of Newark. Special committees of the Board visited both institutions, and conferred with their official representatives relative to special scholarships, changes in curricula, and other matters in which the Board could act in an advisory relation. Special scholarships were granted to 39 foreign-speaking candidates, an addition, in each instance, of $25 to the maximum scholarship ordinarily granted to a candidate. This extra amount was used by the students in helping defray the extra cost of tuition, in special departments, for the training of Italians, Bohemians and Hungarians, in their native tongues. The Board herewith, according to Assembly direction, reports that Dubuque Seminary received $31,947 from churches and individuals during the past year, and Bloomfield received $11,673.

There are at present under the care of the Board 133 foreign-speaking candidates, grouped according to nationalities as follows: 50 Germans, 20 Spanish, 16 Bohemians, 13 Hungarians, 12 Italians, 10 Hebrews, 4 Ruthenians, 3 Mexicans, 2 Japanese, 1 Armenian, 1 Syrian, 1 Chinese. The Board also aids 73 colored candidates.

Prize Scholarships.—The Newberry Scholarship has been held the past year by Mr. E. C. Hamilton, a graduate of McCormick Seminary. He has been pursuing his post-graduate year of study at the United Free Church College, in Glasgow, Scotland. This scholarship is now open for competition, and will be offered to one of the seminaries of our Church during the year 1910–'11.

The Secretary's Scholarship is held by Mr. William Harberts, who next fall enters the senior theological class at the German Presbyterian School of the Northwest. He will have one more year of post-graduate study after graduating from the Dubuque School.

By action of the Board, the income from the Mutchmore Scholarship was allowed to accumulate for three years, so as to provide a sufficient sum for a post-graduate year of study in this country and abroad. This period has now expired, and the scholarship is available, and will be offered to a candidate under the care of the Board, in accordance with the terms of the foundation.

Field Work.—The Secretaries of the Board have spent an unusual amount of their time in visitation of the field during the past year. They have reached eighteen Synods, thirteen Presbyteries, and forty-eight churches, and have delivered addresses on the claims of the ministry before Christian Associations, Conferences, Brotherhood Conventions, Ministerial gatherings, Sunday-schools and Presbyterian Social Unions.

Addresses to students have been given and personal conferences held at twenty-two Colleges, in twenty-four State Universities, six Academies, and nine Theological Seminaries. Through its Secretaries, the Board has reached with appropriate messages not less than 17,000 students during the year. A card catalogue has been prepared from data received from pastors and college authorities, consisting of the names of likely candidates, with such other information as would guide the Board in entering upon profitable correspondence with these young men. It is proposed to increase this list to several thousand in the near future.

The Printed Page.—The Board has given considerable attention to the distribution of printed matter, aside from that sent to churches for use in connection with offerings. The "Special Prize Offer" which the Board made, through the kindness of friends, has attracted considerable attention. For the best sermon or address on "The Claims and Attractions of the Gospel Ministry Upon Young Men of Strength, with Special Reference to the Need of our Particular Times," the Board will award $100 in books, to be selected by the winner, from the stock of the Board of Publication. Seventy-five dollars are to be awarded in like manner for the second best sermon or address; fifty dollars for the third, and twenty-five dollars for the fourth.

Work for Presbyterian Students in State Universities.—The Board is giving financial assistance to eight Synods in the development of this work: Illinois, Michigan, Kansas, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Iowa, Colorado and Arkansas, the last four having applied for aid during the year just closing. Not only have twenty-four State universities been visited by the Secretaries during the year, but repeated visits have been made to certain university centres where the progress of the work required special attention. The conviction has been pressed home upon the Board that the time has come for the creation of a separate department of University Work, and the placing of a Secretary in charge, whose special duty should be to coöperate with Synods in raising funds for the securing of adequate religious privileges for the thousands of Presbyterian students in State Universities. Accordingly, the Board, at its March meeting, elected the Rev. Dr. Richard C. Hughes, of Madison, Wis., to this office, under the title of Secretary for University Work. He entered immediately upon the work of assisting the Committee on Education of the Synod of Illinois in the raising of a $60,000 endowment.

The Work in the South and Southwest.—Inasmuch as the terms of Reunion with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church provided that the respective Educational Boards of the two Churches should consolidate and readjust their work "so as to represent, without partiality, the views and wishes of the two bodies, constituting the reunited Church," the Board of Education has endeavored to give proper attention to the peculiar responsibilities that have arisen out of this Reunion. These responsibilities have been varied and important, and, as the Board comes to see them more clearly, and understand them more perfectly, it is convinced that there is a large work in the furtherance of Christian education to be done in the needy field of the South and Southwest. Among the responsibilities and opportunities that present themselves, may be mentioned the enterprise of establishing and maintaining a Theological Seminary for that territory, as ordered by the last General Assembly, this Board being required by said action "to take steps for such aid as may be needed, in connection with the Board of the Theological Seminary." The Board recognizes the obligation thus placed upon it, and by correspondence and personal visitation has sought, and will continue to seek, to discharge its duty in this respect.

The Board has authorized its Assistant Secretary, who has been charged particularly with the duty of caring for the work in the South and Southwest, to devote so much of his time as might seem necessary to the interest of the colored brethren of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored.

Coöperation with the Evangelistic Committee.—The Board has appointed a Special Committee on Coöperation with the Evangelistic Committee, by which suitable men shall be secured to give addresses to student bodies of Presbyterian colleges and universities, for the purpose of presenting Christian truth in such a way as to interest students in the work of the Christian Church, and show them that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is alike the basis and crown of all true education, culture and service.

Schools for Training of Lay Workers.—The General Assembly has endorsed and encouraged the establishing of such schools, and last year directed that this Board "tender its services to churches and individuals, in the receiving and forwarding of designated offerings for such institutions, or departments of institutions, for the training of lay workers, and that said institutions report to the Board, annually, offerings received directly for their work, which report shall be incorporated in the Annual Report of the Board of Education to the General Assembly." A Deaconess House and Training School for Christian Workers of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches was established in September, 1909, in Philadelphia. The Presbyterian Training School of Chicago is under the direction of the Church Extension Committee of the Chicago Presbytery, and has the brightest promise of a successful work. The Presbyterian Deaconess Home and Training School of Baltimore is the pioneer in this form of Christian service. The Training School for Workers among Foreigners at Coraopolis, Pa., under the care of the Presbytery of Pittsburg, is engaged in training Christian young women of foreign birth or parentage for religious work among their own people. The St. Louis School for Christian Workers is under the joint control of several branches of the Presbyterian Church. A governing Board has been elected, and about $4,000 subscribed. The Board desires to become something more to these schools than a mere reporting agency, and earnestly solicits from generous givers specially designated offerings for these worthy schools.

Enlargement of the Board.—Realizing that much of its work lies at a distance from the home office, and believing that the addition to its membership of representatives on the field would add largely to its efficiency, the Board respectfully requests the General Assembly to authorize it to increase its membership by six, making a Board of twenty-four instead of eighteen, if the way be clear.

Day of Prayer.—The Thursday immediately preceding the second Sunday of February, 1911, the 9th, will be observed by the Church as a Day of Prayer for Colleges and Universities.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH W. COCHRAN, Corresponding Secretary.

TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In addition to fulfilling its province as a "holding corporation," the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church has continued to serve the General Assembly, during the past year, in the matter of assisting in the educational work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored. Moneys have been received for this purpose from the Board of Missions for Freedmen, and the same have been disbursed in behalf of the educational interests centreing at Bowling Green, Ky., Newbern, Tenn., and Huntsville, Ala.

Young men in the Bible School at Bowling Green, Ky., who are preparing for the ministry, have received special assistance.

The permanent fund of about $5,000, mentioned in previous Annual Reports, is still in possession of the undersigned, and he would be pleased to receive orders from the General Assembly as to the disposition of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

Abstract of the Seventy-second Annual Report.

April 1, 1909, to March 31, 1910.

I. GENERAL.

Development of the Board's Work.—The Assembly of 1909 adopted several resolutions relating to the work of the Board. Three of these resolutions refer to Educational Sunday-school Work:

1. "That the Assembly unify its educational work among the children and youth by committing it for general supervision to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work."

* Died June 10, 1910. † Died May 3, 1910.

2. "That the said Board shall have and is hereby given the supervision of all the Sunday-school work of the Church, shall promote the efficiency of existing schools, and shall organize new Sunday-schools in the interest of the nurture of the young."

3. "That the Board enlarge and extend the educational features of its work as rapidly as its funds admit, looking to the perfecting of the work done in all the schools, and advises the appointment of educational Superintendents who shall be Sabbath-school experts."

Acting upon these resolutions, the Board has, during the past year, given prominence to its educational Sunday-school work. Literature of different kinds has been prepared and sent to our pastors and superintendents; Sunday-school Committees of Synods and Presbyteries have been encouraged and assisted in holding conferences and institutes, and our missionaries have given particular attention to this subject.

Two other resolutions adopted by the last Assembly require the coöperation of this Board with the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions in educational work among the youth of the Presbyterian Church.

In pursuance of these resolutions, two conferences were held with the officers of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions, at which plans were adopted looking to united work in missionary education and training in our Sunday-schools and young people's societies.

The Board has been hampered in its activities for the young people by the illness of the Rev. W. L. Gelston, our Superintendent of Young People's Work. Mr. Gelston has been unable to be in his office, or to attend conferences on the field, but he has continued to plan for the duties of his department, and has done a large amount of literary and executive work. We are glad to report that he is improving in health. He will resume his full duties as soon as possible.

USE OF THE REVISED VERSION.—The Assembly of 1909 adopted a resolution recommending the Board "carefully to consider whether it would not be advisable to adopt the American Standard Edition of the Revised Version as the text of its lesson helps." The text of this Version is already used in all of our lesson helps, except the Lesson Leaf, where it is impossible to print both versions. The exposition is based on the American Version in the Uniform Lessons and in New Graded Lessons, which have been in use since October 1, 1909. In our lesson helps for teachers and advanced classes, in the Uniform Course, we print both the Common Version and the American Revision, in parallel columns. It is probable that it is to the texts printed in these helps that the recommendation of the General Assembly specifically refers. It seems to us that, for the present, it will be wise to continue to print both versions where any Scripture text is printed. (We print no text in our Primary Quarterly, Uniform Course, or in the new Graded Lesson Helps.)

One objection to printing only the American Revision is, the difficulty of reading it in alternate verses, according to the common practice in Sabbath-schools where Bibles are used in responsive reading, as this Revision is printed in solid paragraphs. Another objection is, that while many persons express a decided preference for the Revision, there are many good people who continue the exclusive use of the Common Version in their homes and in their private reading. The fact is, that the Bible of the people still is the version of 1611. The Revision is used by many as a commentary, which throws light on the Scriptures, but not for personal and devotional reading. Another objection to the exclusive use of the American Revision, which is heard with increasing emphasis, is, that it is a copyrighted publication, and that no lesson taken out of it can be printed without the permission of the owners of the copyright, notice of which must be printed in every case. This looks so much like commercialism that it seriously prejudices public sentiment against the exclusive use of the American Revision. It is, therefore, the judgment of this Board that it is expedient to continue to print both versions side by side.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—The year has been marked by the number of new publications issued by the Board. Chief among these were the new Graded Lessons. These lessons appeared on October 1, 1909, and at once were cordially welcomed by our Sabbath-schools. On October 1, 1909, the Board began the publication of its Adult Bible Class Monthly. This was an entirely new enterprise, but the reception given the new magazine showed that there was a place for it in our Sunday-school world. Beginning October 1, 1909, the Board ceased to publish the Sabbath-school Visitor, and issued in its place a new paper known as The Comrade. This paper is intended for our boys and girls of the Junior and Intermediate Departments. Another new publication of the Board during the past year was a weekly illustrated Italian paper, L'Araldo.

Revision of the Hymnal.—By reason of previous reports of the Board, as well as of action taken by the General Assembly, it is known that the matter of revising The Hymnal has been under consideration for several years past. Published in 1895, the book has had a conspicuous success during its trial of about fifteen years. It must be said, however, that many reasons now seem to make it desirable that The Hymnal should be revised in important particulars. The book has been in progress for a considerable time, and is well advanced toward completion. It is expected that the revised material will be ready for stereotyping early in the coming fall. It may also be said that The Hymnal in its present form will continue to be published after the revision, for the benefit of such churches as may desire to make no change of hymnals at the present time. The Board would also report that, in accordance with the instructions received from the last Assembly, a hymn book is being prepared which, it is thought, will meet not only the suggestions made by the Presbytery of Flint, but, in addition, the demands from other quarters, for a book that can be used in all services, where it is not found practicable or desirable to use the Board's standard Hymnals. Material is likewise being gathered for a new Sunday-school Hymnal, under the supervision of an editor that has had large experience in that line of work.

The Debt on the Witherspoon Building.—When the Witherspoon Building was erected, in 1897, it cost, together with the land, $1,080,000. The Board was able to pay $480,000 of the total cost, leaving $600,000 to be provided for by a mortgage placed upon the building. During twelve years, from the time of the erection of the building until 1909, $300,000 had been paid upon the mortgage, leaving $300,000 then to be paid. Last year the Board, with the approval of the General Assembly, inaugurated a plan whereby this remaining indebtedness could be speedily removed, and thus permit of the use of the net income from the building in the extension of the Board's missionary work. Annuity bonds are issued in denominations of $500, $1,000 and $5,000, paying interest at the rates of from 5 to 10 per cent., according to the age of the annuitant. It is understood that immediately upon receipt of subscriptions for these Bonds, the principal is applied to the reduction of the Witherspoon Building mortgage, and so successful has been the sale of these bonds (more than $50,000 of them having been taken during the past year), that from their proceeds, together with other available funds, the mortgage indebtedness will be reduced to $175,000 before May 1.

Temperance Literature.—During the year the Board has printed, for the Permanent Committee on Temperance, literature to the value of $1,000, for free distribution among our churches and Sunday-schools. In view of the importance of this subject, the Board proposes, with the approval of the General Assembly, to publish, in conjunction with the Permanent Committee on Temperance, an equal amount of temperance literature during the coming year for the same purpose.

II. DEPARTMENT OF SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY WORK.

The Field and the Workers.—Every State in the Union has witnessed the labors of our Sabbath-school missionaries and colporteurs during the past year. In these States the Board has had at work 126 Sabbath-school missionaries and 22 colporteurs, thus covering the thirty-five Synods of our Church in America, and 150 Presbyteries. Of these missionaries, 14 were Synodical and District Superintendents and 134 Presbyterial workers, making a total of 148. They organize new Sabbath-schools; encourage and develop schools by frequent visitation, and by training the officers and teachers for more efficient service; visit families in rural districts not reached by home mission pastors; hold evangelistic services; and make distribution by sale and gift of evangelical literature. During the past year 100 churches have been organized as the natural outgrowth of mission Sabbath-schools under the care of our missionaries. Of these churches, 85 are Presbyterian and 15 are of other denominations. Our missionaries report the erection of 60 Presbyterian chapel buildings in their fields, during the year, by mission Sabbath-schools and congregations under their care. The value of the property thus returned to the Presbyterian Church, during the past year, through the labors of these missionaries, represents 85 per cent. of the entire cost of this work.

REVIEW OF TWENTY-THREE YEARS' WORK.—The permanent results of the labors of these years are most gratifying, for 1,902 churches have grown from the mission Sabbath-schools organized by our Sabbath-school missionaries, an average of 82 new churches every year since the beginning of this work. The catholicity of our spirit is shown by the fact that 578 of these churches have become identified with other denominations. Of the entire number, 1,324 have become Presbyterian Churches, making an average of 57 each year.

CHILDREN'S DAY AND RALLY DAY.—There was a very substantial increase, last year, in the number of Sabbath-schools using our Children's Day and Rally Day supplies. More than half a million Children's Day programs and 300,000 Rally Day programs were distributed. The total amount of the offerings received from Sabbath-schools, during the year, was $86,847.86, an increase of $7,133.41 over the previous year. This is the largest amount that our Board has ever received in a single year from Sabbath-school offerings.

FOREIGN COLPORTEUR WORK.—The importance of this work is becoming increasingly evident, in view of the rising tide of immigration that sweeps toward our shores. During the past year, 22 colporteurs have been at work, for periods of from three to twelve months, among Italians, Hungarians (Magyars), Bohemians, Ruthenians, Russians, Poles, Slovaks, Roumanians, and others of foreign speech in the following States: Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Texas.

SHORTER CATECHISM.—According to our Board's offer of a Bible to every Sabbath-school pupil who recites the Shorter Catechism from memory, 611 such rewards were presented last year. A special edition of the American Revised Bible has been published for these who prefer it, so that either Version is now available as a reward for this work.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—We record with gratitude the courteous and generous coöperation of the Pennsylvania Bible Society, during the year, in assisting in the support of three of our colporteurs, and in donating all copies of the Scriptures in foreign languages used by our colporteurs in Pennsylvania. Our thanks are extended also to the American Bible Society for its prompt response to our requests for cheap editions of the Bible and New Testament, for distribution by our Sabbath-school missionaries in destitute localities.

FINANCIAL.—We rejoice in the fact that the contributions to our Board during the past year exceeded the highest amount received in any previous year by $9,104.00. Our resources were strengthened also by an increase of $9,527.36 in the proportion of profit appropriated by the Business Department. These additions to our income enabled us to cover the deficit of $9,638.58 which was carried over from last year, closing the year with a balance of $2,600.38 to our credit. The cost of administration last year was reduced to $8,397.92, or 4.48 per cent. This was provided for by the proportion of profit received from the Business Department ($23,523.30), leaving a substantial balance to be used in our general work.

EDUCATIONAL SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.—Special attention has been given to educational Sabbath-school work during the past year. This has been due, in part, to the increasing interest of the Church in the work of the Sabbath-school; and, in part, to the action of the last General Assembly giving to this Board the supervision of religious education among the youth of our Church.

Coöperation of the Sabbath-school Committees of Synod and Presbytery.—The Sabbath-school Committee is no longer a Committee whose chief duty is to secure statistics and plead for contributions. This part of its duties is now subordinate to the effort to promote the work of Christian education in the Sabbath-schools under its care. The last General Assembly called attention to this fact, as follows:

"Recognizing the opportunity afforded the Sabbath-school Committees of Synod and Presbytery for rendering helpful service to Sabbath-schools under their care, the General Assembly recommends that an effort be made to place upon these Committees men who are known as efficient Sabbath-school workers, and that these Committees be encouraged to plan and work for the improvement of the Sabbath-schools of the Church."

Enlisting the Aid of the Sabbath-school Missionaries.—For twenty-three years our missionaries have been successfully engaged in the work of Sabbath-school extension. During this time, more than 18,000 Sabbath-schools have been organized, bringing the opportunity for religious instruction to not less than a million boys and girls. The last General Assembly gave to this Board "the supervision of all the Sabbath-school work of the Church, to promote the efficiency of existing schools and organize new Sabbath-schools in the interest of the nurture of the young." This can only be done through the agency of missionaries trained for such service. The Board, recognizing this fact, elected the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, a well-known Sabbath-school expert, as its Educational Superintendent of Sabbath-school Missions, and gave him, as his first duty, the guiding and promoting of the educational work of our 126 Sabbath-school missionaries, and the developing of the work of Christian education in our 2,500 mission Sabbath-schools.

III. DEPARTMENT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Articles have appeared in approximately 15,000,000 copies of the various religious papers of our denomination. For the purpose of interesting and assisting pastors, 25,000 circular letters and 36,000 leaflets have been issued at various times. By means of committees existing in all of our Presbyteries, many popular meetings and conventions have been held for young people, in addition to much quiet effort put forth along other lines.

By means of similar committees in the Synods, more good work has been accomplished. Through two Synodical Chairmen campaigns have been completed covering two States. To assist in one of these a special field worker was engaged by the Department.

Three Summer Conferences were held for young people. Two of these were entirely under the care of the Department of Young People's Work. In the third the Department coöperated. All were successful, even beyond expectation. Three similar conferences have been planned for the coming season. Institutes and services of one kind or another were held by the Superintendent in nine different States. Owing to his sickness, this part of the work had to be discontinued during the last half of the year. The Department coöperated with the Young People's Secretaries of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and with the Assembly's Committee on Temperance in bringing the literature of these agencies to public notice.

Owing to the constantly increasing demands now being made on the Departments arrangements have been completed to secure an Assistant Superintendent for this coming year.

IV. EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

During the year the following new publications have been issued: Preparation for Teaching, The Brotherhood and the Church, A Study of the Lord's Prayer, College Sermons, Over Against the Treasury, The Riches of Grace Organization for Boys, Helps for Leaders of Teacher Training Classes, Catechetical Bible Lessons, Presbyterian Handbook for 1910, The Westminster Adult Bible Class Records, Rally Day Invitation. In wireless telegram form: The Westminster Home Department Portfolio, The Westminster Ideal Record, Temperance Pledge Cards, Temperance Banner, Illustrated Rally Day Invitation Post Cards, Baptismal Card, Christmas Greeting, Adult Bible Class Enrollment Card, Adult Bible Class Invitation Post Card, Adult Bible Class Invitation Card, Confession of Faith (German), Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, Manual for Ruling Elders and Other Church Officers, Revised, Rally Day Exercise, 1909, Children's Day Exercise, 1910, Children's Day Supplement.

PERIODICALS.—The following periodicals, not including those in foreign languages, have been published during the year: The Westminster Teacher, The Westminster Adult Bible Class, The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition, The Westminster Senior Quarterly, The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly, The Westminster Junior Quarterly, The Westminster Primary Quarterly, The Westminster Home Department Quarterly, The Westminster Normal Quarterly, The Westminster Lesson Leaf, The Westminster Lesson Card, The Westminster Bible Roll, The Westminster Beginners' Graded Series, The Westminster Primary Graded Series, The Westminster Junior Graded Series, Forward, The Comrade, The Morning Star, The Sunbeam.

THE LESSON HELPS.—The following is a brief description of the character and purpose of the periodicals published by the Board:

The Westminster Teacher, a monthly magazine, especially for teachers and officers of Sunday-schools and for use in adult classes.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition, exclusively for teachers.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly, used in Senior and adult classes.

The Westminster Adult Bible Class, a monthly magazine for use in Adult Bible Classes.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly, designed for pupils of the intermediate grade.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly, designed for younger children in the Junior Department.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, for the little folks of the Primary Grade.

The Westminster Home Department Quarterly, for the use of home students who, while unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath-school, yet desire to study the lesson, week by week.

The Westminster Normal Quarterly, to cover a two years' course of lessons for use in advanced and normal classes.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf, for intermediate and younger scholars, but may be used in any grade.

The Westminster Lesson Card, adapted in grade to younger children and to primary classes.

The Bible Roll. Lesson pictures.

The Westminster Beginners' Graded Series, new Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age.

THE WESTMINSTER GRADED SABBATH-SCHOOL LESSONS.—INTERNATIONAL COURSE.—The first of the Courses for the Elementary Grades began with October, 1909.

The Primary Graded Series (course complete in three years). Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year. School subscriptions, 20 cents a year, 5 cents a quarter.

The Junior Graded Series (course complete in four years).

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.—Forward continues to grow in interest. Its circulation increases every year, now exceeding three hundred thousand. It is freely conceded that no paper in the country for young people surpasses Forward in interest and popularity.

The Comrade, taking the place of the Sabbath School Visitor, and adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward.

The Morning Star, issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost.

The Sunbeam, a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people.

V. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

According to the statement of the Report, there have been published during the year 3,406,720 copies of books and tracts, and 57,305,779 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8,000 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March 31, 1909, make an aggregate of 60,720,499 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco and Nashville, and six other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

The Depositories conducted by the Board are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES.

New York, N. Y., G. W. Brazer, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 328 Wabash Avenue.
St. Louis, Mo., J. H. Springer, Manager, 505 North Seventh Street.
San Francisco, Cal., W. H. Webster, Manager, 400 Sutter Street.
Nashville, Tenn., W. E. Ward, Manager, 413–415 Church Street.

The other houses referred to are:

Pittsburgh, Pa., Board of Colportage, Sixth Street and Duquesne Way.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
Richmond, Va., The Presbyterian Committee of Publication, 212–214 North Sixth Street.
Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell, Lang & Co., 504 Main Street.
Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 21 Warwick Lane, London, E. C.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

Sales.—The sales of books and Sunday-school and church supplies for the year amount to $303,447.05. These include not only the publications of the Board, but those of other publishers as well. The sales of Periodical Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers amount to $481,636.92, making aggregate sales for the year of $785,083.97. These amounts do not coincide with the Treasurer's account, as they include credit sales, whereas the latter takes cognizance only of cash receipts.

The above figures of sales include not only those of the main house at Philadelphia and Depositories throughout the country, but also those made by the Sabbath-school missionaries. These are charged to the Missionary Department at "the best rate of discount allowed on the same class of publications to the most favored branch houses in the country." The missionaries are required to sell for cash only.

Capital and Net Profits.—The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $308,962.37. The net profits of the year were $37,701.97. Of this sum two-thirds, or $25,134.64, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, and will be paid in quarterly installments during the next fiscal year. The remaining third, or $12,567.33, has been added to the capital, making the amount as now reported $321,529.70.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEXANDER HENRY, Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT.

By decree of the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee, rendered in February, 1910, it was ordered that the members and directors of this corporation who had hitherto held office and controlled the Nashville Publishing House, should be ousted from office, and the complainants, nine in number, representing that element of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church which was opposed to the union with the Presbyterian Church, were declared to be installed in their room and stead. It was also ordered that we surrender possession of the Publishing House to the complainants, and accordingly, on February 23, 1910, this surrender was made. The Nashville Publishing House is, therefore, now in charge of those who were our opponents in that litigation. They took charge of all the assets of this corporation and have operated the Publishing House since that time in the interest of their denomination, and yet the corporation is liable for all debts which were outstanding at the time when said surrender was made.

It is practically impossible for us to render the usual financial statement, on account of these abnormal conditions, but we take pleasure in reporting that, although the litigation had been pending, and ever since the adverse decision of the Tennessee Supreme Court, on April 3, 1909, in the case of Landrith vs. Hudgins, it was apparent that this end would be reached in the suit over the Publishing House, the affairs of the Publishing House were conducted in such a manner that the business was well kept up, current expenses reasonably met, and when the property was surrendered it was done, we think, with a clean record in all respects.

This disappointing termination of this litigation would have had a very disastrous effect upon our people in the South and Southwest, had it not been for the prompt and vigorous efforts successfully made, by private initiative, to establish and maintain a religious newspaper in the interest of our Church. The result is, that from the very week when the property was surrendered, a paper called The Presbyterian Advance has been published at Nashville by "The Advance Publishing Company," with Rev. James E. Clarke, D.D., as editor and manager. This has had the effect of maintaining the courage and interest of our people and making them feel that they were still in touch with the Church and our cause in the South and Southwest. We also desire to express our deep appreciation of the loyal and substantial interest shown by the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, not only in coöperating generously with our Board, but also in the great Sabbath-school Missionary Work which it is causing to be done through this territory.

In April, 1909, a bill was filed in the United States Circuit Court at Nashville, Tenn., by a number of members of the Presbyterian Church who were non-residents of the State of Tennessee, which had for its ultimate object the establishment of the title of the Reunited Church to said property. While the Circuit Judge held, upon one point alone, that the Court did not have jurisdiction of this case, an appeal has been taken and perfected to the Supreme Court of the United States, upon the question of jurisdiction, and in due course this case will there be heard and decided. None of the members of this Board are parties to said suit, nor do they know what will be their ultimate duty if said suit is finally sustained in all respects and the property is awarded to the Reunited Church. Although the members of this Board have been ousted from office by the Supreme Court of Tennessee, we deem it best to ask the General Assembly to nominate three men to succeed those whose terms are now expiring. These men are as follows: Rev. J. M. Johnston, Petersburg, Ill.; W. T. Hardison, Nashville, Tenn.; and L. M. Rice, Louisville, Ky.

Respectfully,

JOHN H. DEWITT,
W. T. HARDISON, T. A. WIGGINTON,
W. A. PROVINE, L. M. RICE,
J. M. JOHNSTON, J. H. REYNOLDS,
M. G. WOOD, HAMILTON PARKS.

ABSTRACT OF THE FORTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

APPLICATIONS.—The year has been marked by an advance, beyond all precedent, in the demands made by the Church upon its resources. These have been so great in every branch of its work as not only to strain its ability to the utmost, but, in several departments, to compel it to postpone final action upon applications that commended themselves as worthy of immediate response.

This marked increase is partly owing to the reunion accomplished, three years ago, with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which has resulted in a quickened activity, especially through the rapidly growing Southwest; but is probably, in still larger degree, due to the reviving prosperity of the country, which has not only stimulated church-building, but has also largely enhanced the cost of materials and labor.

Thus, not only have the applications to the General Fund been larger in number, but they have averaged much more in amounts asked; for, whereas, ten years ago, the average was $600, this year it is $868. Such being the case, even if the number had not increased, they would have called for an amount nearly 45 per cent. larger than a decade ago; but, as a matter of fact, they are in number 197, as against 149—an increase of nearly 33 per cent. As there has been no corresponding increase in the income of the General Fund, the dilemma of the Board in attempting to make both ends meet can be readily appreciated.

The increase in demand is equally great in nearly all departments, as will be seen from the following comparative table:

Appropriations.—The two small funds, the Buell and the Van Meter, which were derived from legacies, are limited in their sphere to churches respectively west of the Mississippi and within the bounds of West Jersey Presbytery, otherwise to be used under the same conditions as the General Fund. The interest from the Gilchrist Fund, to be used only for churches within the bounds of Boston Presbytery, may, with this restriction, properly be considered as part of the General Fund. With this explanation we give the appropriations as follows:

1. The General Fund.—From this fund there have been 140 grants, aggregating $102,935, and 20 loans without interest, to the amount of $12,000, a total of 160 appropriations aggregating $114,935; but as two churches received both grant and loan, the actual number of churches benefited was 159.

2. The Buell Fund.—From this fund 11 churches received $5,800.

3. The Gilchrist Fund.—From this fund were voted 2 appropriations to the amount of $1,475.

4. The Stuart Fund.—From this fund 2 grants to the amount of $325 were made.

To note what has been done within the sphere originally assigned the Board and exclusive of loans from permanent funds, we may unite the outcome of the above four funds. So doing, we find that the total in the way of grants and loans, without interest, for church buildings, as distinguished from loans with interest from the Loan Fund, and loans from the Manse Fund, was 175, and the amount $122,535, and, deducting repetitions, 173 churches aided.

5. The Loan Fund.—This fund is due to the fact that the Assembly has authorized the Board to make loans at a low rate of interest from funds that, from bequests and other gifts, are in its hands for investment. These loans may be made to churches, which from their strength and the character of their buildings are not to be considered as missionary churches to be aided by grants, but which, owing to the high rates of interest, especially in our Western States, are substantially aided by borrowing from the Board.

In giving this permission, however, the Assembly expressed its judgment that such loans should be ordinarily confined to churches expending not more than $10,000, and should not exceed $5,000. This limit is also rendered necessary by the limited amount of the Fund. Yet frequently applications come in when an expenditure of from $20,000 to $30,000 is proposed. In such case, it is manifestly impossible for the Board to respond.

From this fund there have been promised 33 loans, aggregating $76,500; and there are also on file, awaiting the coming in of funds, 8 more, asking $24,000.

The financial history of this fund, indicating its investment in such loans and the annual returns therefrom for the eighteen years of its existence, is given in detail.

6. The Manse Fund.—From this fund, from which appropriations are made to provide homes for pastors and missionaries, loans without interest and occasionally grants are made. The loans, which seldom exceed $600, are repaid in annual installments, running from three to five years.

From this source there were 56 loans, aggregating $26,195, and averaging in amount $467.76.

There were also five grants amounting to $2,900; three of these being to Indian churches, and one for a missionary home among the mountains of East Kentucky.

7. The Raynolds Fund.—From this fund, administered under the conditions prescribed in the terms of the bequest which established it, there have been 17 loans, aggregating $19,700, to be repaid usually in ten annual installments with interest at four per cent. The average loan was $1,158.82.

8. The Hoyt Fund.—From this fund, derived from a bequest from the late Dr. Ezra P. Hoyt, to be used under terms similar to those of the Raynolds Fund, one loan of $750 was made.

9. The Barber Fund.—From this fund, exclusively for colored churches not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, there were five appropriations; three of these, aggregating $4,800, being grants for church buildings; one of $800, a loan for a church building, and one of $1,500, a grant for a manse —a total from this fund of $7,100.

SUMMARY.—The following table sums up the appropriations for the year, placing them side by side with those of the year before, thus showing the increase rendered necessary by the advance of the Church and the consequent larger demand.

APPROPRIATIONS 1908–09 AND 1909–10.

The number of churches aided is in both years slightly less than the number of appropriations, as in several instances both loan and grant have been made to the same church; in the former year in 17 cases and in the latter 15. Adding, however, in each case specially designated gifts, viz., in the year 1908–09, 15 to the amount of $2,226.72, and in the year 1909–10, 12 to the amount of $1,465.23, we have the following result—subtracting duplicates and adding specials: 1908–09, 271 churches, aided to amount $250,864.82; 1909–10, 292 churches, aided to amount $257,145.23. These figures make it clear that the year was the most fruitful of any in the history of the Board and indicate the value and importance of the work committed to it by the General Assembly.

As manifesting the breadth of the fields over which its activity extends, it presents the following picture.

The 293 appropriations have been distributed among 39 States and Territories, reaching also Cuba and Porto Rico, and among 149 different Presbyteries. As last year, so this, the young State of Oklahoma, growing with marvelous rapidity, has received the largest number of appropriations, viz., 25, and to the amount of $16,300; while California, with appropriations two less in number, viz., 23, has received, largely owing to ravages of fire and earthquake, the larger amount of $20,965. Washington comes next with 20 appropriations, aggregating $24,950. Then Nebraska, with 18 appropriations, aggregating $16,200. Texas follows with the same number of appropriations (18), but to the smaller sum of $11,725. Then, in the following order, but with smaller numbers and amounts, Missouri, Oregon and the Dakotas. It will be noticed that all of these are west of the Mississippi and three of them the great Pacific empires.

During the year the payments indicate that 235 church buildings and manses of an aggregate value of $798,840 have been completed and entirely paid for.

The total receipts in all departments have been $240,410.16 and the disbursements $243,702.24.

The Tennessee Special Fund.—The Assembly of 1909 directed the Boards of Home Missions and of Church Erection to endeavor to raise a special fund of $100,000 to aid the evicted churches of Tennessee in securing new houses of worship. Despite every effort, the result was not so successful as the Assembly and the Committee had hoped. As a matter of fact, at the close of the fiscal year the amount received, including interest, was only $23,337.84; whereas a careful canvass of the Synod by its Executive Commission found that there were at least 58 churches that would be obliged to provide new buildings at an expense of not less than $300,000. Of these 48 would certainly need aid from the special fund to an amount not less than $76,000, with more or less probability that the remaining 10 or more would need similar aid to the extent of $24,000.

It is evident, therefore, that this important matter of aiding our evicted brethren in Tennessee should be still kept before our churches and every effort made to increase the special fund.

The Board of Church Erection, in view of the appealing need, has expressed to the Synodical Commission of Tennessee its readiness and its intention to supplement this special fund to such extent as may be necessary to provide these evicted churches with houses of worship, with the understanding, however, that it cannot, in view of other claims upon it, do so until its income is increased by the revenue from the bequest from the estate of the late John S. Kennedy, of which it has received notice. It is also understood that in the meantime the Board of Home Missions, which is equally interested, will extend such temporary aid as may enable the churches to provide by borrowing elsewhere for the immediate emergency.

The Kennedy Bequest.—In view of the increased responsibility which will come to the Board from the accession of the large bequest made by the late Mr. John S. Kennedy, the Board has adopted careful resolutions in regard to the investment and use of the funds to be received through this generous gift.

1. That the entire amount received from the Kennedy bequest be invested as a principal to be known as "the Kennedy Fund," and only the interest thereon be used by the Board.

2. That all investments made of this fund be made in accordance with the laws of the State of New York concerning the investment of the funds of Saving Banks in said State.

3. That the Board take action, from time to time, upon the distribution of the interest of this bequest, among such of the departments of the work of this Board as may seem to be wise.

4. The loans by way of mortgage already referred to should be without the payment by the Board of any commissions for obtaining the loan or examining the title.

5. That the arrangements for caring for this fund should be such as to preclude the incurring of any special expense or charge for the maintenance and care of the fund.

It is hoped that the above plan for safeguarding and using the expected Fund will be approved by the Assembly.

The Work to be Done.—As has been clearly indicated in the preceding report, the work committed to this Board has been constantly growing, and the imperative need of its existence and coöperation in the forward movement of our Church has never been more clear and eloquent.

But to meet the growing demand, it is evident that a large and more liberal support must come from the churches. All of its funds were exhausted before the close of the year and its General Fund, from which grants are made to the feeble churches, was during the latter six months constantly over-appropriated. Its Loan Fund was, for the first time since its inauguration, not only all in use, distributed in almost all of the States, but at the close of the year there remained, as has been said, eight applications, asking for $24,000, which had been approved, but must necessarily be placed on file awaiting, before confirmation, the coming in of installments from loans previously made.

There is every reason to suppose that during the coming year the demand will be still greater.

In addition to the responsibilities entailed by this increase in our ranks from former Cumberland churches, there can be no doubt that there has been a large forward movement resulting in the organization, in our newer States, of many congregations which need immediate aid in building. To this may be added a quickened sense of responsibility, especially in our more Eastern States, for the ever-growing foreign-speaking populations now employed in our coal mines, in railroad building, and in our factories.

The country is prospering and population in our younger States is growing rapidly. The cost of building, too, has everywhere largely increased, making it necessary for churches, when facing the building problem, to ask for larger grants and loans from the Board. As has been already said, whereas ten years ago the average application to our General Fund was for a grant of $600, this year it has been $868, which means, even if the number of applications were no larger, an advance in appropriations of nearly 45 per cent., while as a matter of fact the number is also 33 per cent. larger. Combining the two percentages of advance the result is a total demand 60 per cent. greater than ten years ago.

May we not, then, appeal to our brethren throughout the Church to take heed of the progress that is being made and of the ever-growing demand upon this Board for funds to provide the needed church homes, and then ask them to respond with a corresponding percentage of advance in their offerings for the work committed to us?

Abstract of the Fifty-fifth Annual Report.

The Roll.—The Board had upon its rolls, for the year ending March 31, 1910, 1,143 names: 472 ministers, 593 widows, 35 orphan families, 13 women missionaries, 19 guests in The Merriam Home, at Newton, N. J., and 13 guests at The Thornton Home, under the care of the Board, at Evansville, Ind. Two of these guests spent part of the year at The Merriam Home, and part of the year at The Thornton Home. This is the largest number the Board has ever had upon its rolls.

During the year 130 new names were added to the roll. These comprised 64 ministers, 58 widows, 2 orphans, 2 women missionaries, and 4 guests at The Merriam Home.

Roll of Honor.—There have been 228 ministers on the Roll of Honor, during the past year, the largest number the Board has ever reported; their average age is over 77 years, and the average time they have been in the ministry has been 48 years; 25 of these have been added during the year just closed, and 23 of these venerable men have died. Since the Rule of 1889 was adopted, 498 ministers have availed themselves of its privileges. The amount granted to men on the Roll of Honor, during the year, was $66,125, being an average of $290, as all of the Honorably Retired ministers did not ask for the maximum amount of $300. There are more than four times as many ministers in our Church not on the Roll of Honor as there are upon that roll, who have been in active service for more than 30 years, and who are over 70 years of age, but most of these are able to support their families. It is not expected that these brethren will ask for the Honorarium paid to men on the Roll of Honor, and they do not ask for it, generously preferring to have the limited amount of money given to the Board distributed among the families of their brethren who are not as highly favored, financially, as they have been.

Deaths.—Seventy-two of those upon the roll passed away during the year: 45 ministers, 24 widows, and 2 orphans. One minister died at The Merriam Home. This is the largest number of deaths of those on the roll that has occurred in any year in the Board's history.

Average Payments.—The average amount granted to widows during the year was $170. The average amount paid to disabled ministers not Honorably Retired was $250. The average amount paid to ministers on the Roll of Honor was $290.

Current Fund Receipts for the Years 1908–1909 and 1909–1910.—

Your Board of Relief is greatly encouraged in the blessed work committed to it by the General Assembly.

ENCOURAGEMENTS.—There were 5,551 churches which contributed to the work of the Board the past year. This is 193 more than the Board has ever reported for any year heretofore.

INCREASE TO THE HONOR ROLL MEN.—The following advanced step was taken by the Board, and was heartily approved by the Assembly: At a meeting of the Board held April 21, 1910, it was

"Resolved, That the General Assembly be requested to authorize the Board to increase the amount to which the honorably retired ministers on the roll of the Board are entitled, under the Act of 1889, from $300 to $350 per annum."

In accordance with the above, the Board hereby makes such request of this Assembly.

The Board appeals to the Church at large, and to its many friends, for a large increase of its Endowment, in order to be able adequately to meet all proper demands upon its treasury.

THE TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Ministerial Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Annual Report for the year, from April 1, 1909, to April 1, 1910. (This Board is incorporated under the laws of Indiana by the above name; this in explanation of the retention of the corporate name of the Board.)

Pending the legal questions growing out of the union, it was agreed between this Board and the Philadelphia Board that all of the affairs and functions of this Board should be carried on by its corporate officers. Under this arrangement, the Thornton Home has been maintained, and the Board has also performed such other duties as to it seemed proper in the management of its affairs.

THORNTON PLACE.—The guests of the home have during the year been much pleased with their surroundings, contented and happy in the generous provisions made by the Church for their care and comfort. The guests consist of five widows, one orphan girl, three ministers, each with his wife, and one minister unmarried; a total of thirteen.

INSURANCE ON THE OLD HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE.—It was explained in the Annual Report for 1909, that the Insurance Company had paid into court the amount of insurance as adjusted, for the loss by fire of the old home, pending the litigation between this Board and those who claim to be its trustees under appointment of the General Assembly of the old Cumberland Presbyterian Church. This suit is still pending. The federal judge declined to decide the case in advance of a decision by the State Supreme Court—this as a matter of courtesy between the courts. The Supreme Court of Indiana, on the 31st day of March, 1910, decided the case of Ramsey vs. Hicks, sustaining the legality of the union in all respects. This decision, so far as Indiana is concerned, conclusively settles every question involved in the union of the two Churches.

The full scope of the decision is of great importance to all Churches in the proper administration of their own laws. It reaffirms the rule laid down by the Supreme Court of the United States in Watson vs. Jones, where it was declared that—"In this class of cases we think the rule of action which should govern the civil courts, founded in a broad and sound view of the relations of Church and State under our system of laws, and supported by a preponderating weight of judicial authority is, that, whenever the questions of discipline, or of faith, or ecclesiastical rule, custom, or law have been decided by the highest of these Church judicatories to which the matter has been carried, the legal tribunals must accept such decisions as final, and as binding on them, in their application to the case before them." The Indiana Court further affirmed the doctrine laid down in its former decisions that "Civil Courts in this country have no ecclesiastical jurisdiction. They cannot revise or question ordinary acts of church discipline." This Court further held: "It is the exclusive prerogative of religious tribunals when considering only ecclesiastical interests and questions, to construe their own statutes and ordinances, and to determine for themselves the regularity and validity of their proceedings." As long as the governing principle laid down in this case is adhered to, the complete separation of Church and State is assured.

The General Assembly is now at liberty to deal with the property, in the hands of this Board, as it may deem proper, and the Board stands ready to obey its orders; of course, within its corporate powers. In this connection, however, we call attention to the understanding between the two Boards, that Thornton Home shall be maintained upon some plan satisfactory to the General Assembly.

The terms of the following members of the Board expire this year: Rev. James H. Miller, Robert Smith, Esq., Travis D. Mundy, Esq. The General Assembly is asked to nominate their successors to be elected for a term of three years at the annual meeting of the Board in June, 1910, as provided by the terms of its charter.

Abstract of the Forty-fifth Annual Report.

The Board was gratified to be able to close its fiscal year without debt although this condition is largely the result of the amount of legacies received. It regards it as undesirable to place too great a reliance upon an income from this source, and desires to utilize some portion of these bequests in such a form as may become permanent improvements or enlarged endowments.

The decrease in the collections from churches has been offset. The change of the closing of the fiscal year shortened the periods of receipts, but it is hoped that the new arrangement may ultimately equalize the deficiency.

Pursuing the policy of increased deficiency of the ministry, it was found necessary to give up five parochial schools, as teachers could not be provided, unless the pastor took charge.

During the last year the churches, through their annual collections, gave $2,639.52 less than the year before. The Sunday-schools gave $167.36 less. The Young People's Societies show a decrease of $1,685.45. The Woman's Societies made a gain of $780.15.

The receipts from miscellaneous sources show an increase of $6,285.25. Those from invested funds a decrease of $1,873.49. There was an increase from legacies of $21,586.27.

The number of churches that helped us in any one way this year was 5,673, a loss of 80.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections was 4,721, a loss of 54.

The number of Sunday-schools that contributed to the Board directly was 363, and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 469, making a total of 832, a gain of 11.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing to the Board directly was 45, and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 918, making a total of 963, a loss of 98.

The total receipts from all sources were $207,797.43, being an increase over last year of $22,285.85.

The largest amount of increase this year was from legacies.

The amount that came in to us this year from former Cumberland Presbyterian churches, for the benefit of colored Cumberland Presbyterians, amounted to $1,261.80.

The amount of money given us, by colored people on the field, for church work, as reported to us by the ministers, was $63,459. This included expenses for church buildings, repairs, contingent expenses, and ministerial support.

The amount given by patrons and friends of our school, as reported from the field was $72,023.13. None of this money went through our treasury, or is in any way included in our statement of receipts and expenditures for the year.

The colored people gave to the work for the Freedmen's Board $657.54. They gave to the other Boards of the Church $1,924.78.

The Boggs Memorial Building has been erected near Keyesville, Ga., at a cost of $5,000. It is the gift of a large number of the loving friends of the late General Secretary of our Woman's Department. Mr. David E. Elliott, of Lafayette, Ind., has given $5,000 for a building at Valliant, Okla., to form a memorial of his wife, and the name Alice Lee Elliott Memorial has been given to the school.

The burning of the main building of Harbison College, at Abbeville, S. C., and the Boys' Dormitory at Valliant, Okla., are the most distressing circumstances of the year. The catastrophe at Abbeville, S. C., may induce the Board to the removal of the Institution to a more favorable field.

The Board, in the light of greater experience, is more firmly convinced than ever that its policy of evangelization, and thorough mental and industrial education, is the wisest and most beneficial for the colored race. Its work is not only an assistance to the Negro, but of the largest blessing to the white communities. These races must dwell together, and the Christianization and elevation of the Negro cannot fail to be of the strongest advantage to the whites, among whom they reside. Life, morals and property are more perfectly protected when the Negro is properly taught and civilized, and the greatest reliance for much progress must be placed upon a true ministry, worthy schools, and well-selected teachers, who shall create the ideal aspirations for a pure life, Christian homes and a useful citizenship.

If there are any persons who magnify the difficulties and express discouragement, surely they forget the power of God and the example of Jesus Christ.

On behalf of the Board,

EDWARD P. COWAN,
Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer.

Abstract of the Twenty-seventh Annual Report.

John H. MacCracken, Ph.D., Syndic of the New York University, was elected President of the Board on June 8, 1909. He has been a member of the Board for six years, and president of Westminster College, Mo., before that.

The Board has been without a Secretary to take the place of Dr. Dickson, deceased, until the close of our fiscal year. On February 1, the Board, on the urgent demand of our college presidents and others vitally interested in our college work, elected the Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., as Secretary. As he had been President of the Board for five years and had a leading part in the formation of its purpose and its policies, it was felt by all that he could best carry these into execution.

The Constitution of the Board.—The Assembly of 1909 amended the 5th and 6th sections of the Constitution to read as follows:

"5. The College Board shall be the agency of the Church for the following purposes:

"(a) To secure and receive moneys and other property for the benefit of any needy college or university which is (1) organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or (2) required by its charter to have at least two-thirds of its Board of Control members of said Church, or (3) actually under Presbyterian approval at the time of receiving assistance.

"(b) To coöperate with such institutions as it is authorized to assist, as promote and maintain high educational standards, spiritual culture and thorough Bible teaching, to the end that persons contributing funds for such institutions may be assured that their students will be under positive Christian influence.

"(c) To awaken interest, diffuse information, and stimulate prayer in behalf of the institutions which it is authorized to assist.

"(d) To coöperate with the institutions which it is authorized to aid, and assist in securing endowments for them.

"(e) To coöperate with local agencies in determining sites for such new institutions as it is authorized to assist, and in consolidating weak institutions.

"(f) To decide for which of the institutions it is authorized to assist it will seek endowments, and to which of them it will make grants for current expenses; and, for this purpose,

"(g) Secure an annual offering from the churches.

"6. The Board shall call an Annual Conference of its representatives with representatives of the institutions which it is authorized to aid, to advise the Board and to coöperate in securing the desired results."

The Board interprets the words "Presbyterian approval" in the above sub-division (a) (3), to mean that a Synod or Presbytery may send a committee of visitation to any such college to learn the quality of the work done by it, and to report thereon; or it may receive a written or an oral report by the president or other appointed officer of the college, on the quality of the work done, and express its approval or disapproval accordingly, and transmit its findings to this Board for the adjustment of our relations to said college.

ACADEMIES.—The Assembly of 1909 approved the following recommendations of the Board:

"First: That the Board recognize that changed educational conditions render impossible the effective maintenance, with the resources at the command of the Board, of Presbyterian academies not immediately connected with colleges. Second: That the Board adopt the policy of withdrawing from academic work in such a way as promises to cause the least possible injury to the academies."

RELATION OF COLLEGES TO THE CHURCH AND TO GIVERS.—The Board is in constant communication with the large giving agencies and with individual givers inquiring as to the position, needs and qualifications of our colleges, especially as to the changes some of them are making in their charters and methods of governmental control. So far the Board sees no immediate danger of such colleges as have changed their charters losing their Christian character, or of their being less loyal to the standard of education and of positive Christian influence expected by the Church. The Board desires to coöperate with and render all possible assistance to such colleges, and expects their loyal and hearty coöperation with the Board in carrying out the educational policy of the Church.

Our Presbyterian colleges are not and never have been sectarian; they are broadly Christian in spirit and purpose. When the Presbyterian Church desires a school for the teaching of its distinctive doctrines and government it establishes a theological seminary. When it desires to do its part in the general work of broadly Christian education, it establishes a college where the distinctive doctrines and polity of the Church are not a necessary part of the curriculum, but where the Bible is regularly taught and where the professors may be and generally are members of different Christian Churches. Some of our colleges are denominational only in the sense that the Presbyterian denomination is back of them in securing students and financial assistance, and in encouraging the cultivation of Christian character and preparation for Christian service in all the walks of life.

The Board can intelligently say that the large giving agencies have no desire to withhold their gifts from a college simply because it is denominational in this sense of the word, nor to cut off any college they have assisted from its benevolent affiliation with its denomination, and that they would deprecate its severance from its denomination, which they recognize as a permanent and powerful factor in its continued existence. Mr. Carnegie has contributed in the past six years over one million dollars to colleges under our care. The General Education Board "has repeatedly made gifts to colleges that are under denominational control, and has no disposition to discontinue gifts because institutions are under denominational control. In its general statement of policy, announced a few years ago, it said, among other things, that it was 'to coöperate sympathetically and helpfully with the religious denominations, to choose the centres of wealth and population as the permanent pivots of an educational system, to mass its funds on endowment, securing in this work the largest possible local coöperation.' It has contributed to 31 colleges that are under denominational control and to 32 colleges that are not under denominational control." These gifts appear to be conditioned, not so much on the control of denominational colleges, as on their strategic positions and on the quality of the work they are doing.

DEED OF GIFT.—It becomes more and more necessary, in view of the changes some of our colleges are making in their charters, that some uniform method for all colleges be adopted by the Board for adequate safeguarding of the moneys already given and yet to be given through the churches and individual givers for Christian education. To this end, the Assembly has instructed the Board that all gifts of over $1,000 shall be made upon a Deed of Gift between the donors and the college, in which the gift is made to the college upon the express conditions:

"1. That the party of the second part (the college) causes the Bible to be systematically taught to every regularly enrolled student attending such institution, as a part of the regular curriculum required for graduation, one hundred and forty-four (144) hours being the minimum time for required Bible study in the college course, or thirty-six (36) hours at least in each year thereof, the faculty of the party of the second part to be at liberty, however, to arrange the said thirty-six (36) hours according to their best judgment.

"2. That the party of the second part (the college), shall at all times after the date of the execution of this Deed of Gift, engage and retain upon its teaching staff only professors for whose positive Christian influence the president of the party of the second part can vouch; and that upon failure thereof," the gift "shall forthwith revert and . . . . be paid by the party of the second part to The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America . . . . and shall become and be a part of the General Fund of said The College Board."

The Board believes that the purposes of such a Deed of Gift are exactly those that are now operating in our colleges and also in many old and influential colleges not under our Board. It feels that such a method of securing funds would commit our colleges for all future time to the purpose for which these moneys were solicited and given. The Board is particularly anxious that moneys given for a definite Christian purpose shall be perpetually held to that purpose. It can think of no better way than this Deed of Gift to secure the wishes of the givers and the ample liberty of the colleges. Many of our colleges and givers have already heartily accepted this plan.

Charter Changes.—The Assembly of 1909 sent to the different Boards the following resolution:

"Each of the Boards of our Church is instructed to obtain, without unnecessary delay, the advice of competent counsel on the question of the enlargement of its chartered and legal powers, and, if possible, to secure for it such powers, in addition to those now possessed, as shall enable the General Assembly, from time to time, as it may deem expedient, to perfect plans for a more thorough harmonization and unification of the work of the Church carried on through its several Boards and agencies."

As this Board has no charter, but is incorporated under the general, and liberal, statutes of the State of Illinois, there is no hindrance to any change or expansion of our work which the Assembly may direct.

Legacies secured by Institutions	8,665 25	95,250 00
	$1,143,181 80	$1,358,801 30

The Board is happy to report that it has received contributions, directly or indirectly, from 4,274 churches this year. This is a larger number of contributing churches than in any past year. It gives the Board hope that the fundamental work of the Church done by our colleges in the preparation of an educated body of young men and women for leadership in the home ministry, in the foreign missionary work, and in the social service of the Church is taken more seriously by the churches. How can they serve most intelligently except they be educated? And where can they be better educated than in our Christian colleges? The high rate of 92 per cent. of our home and foreign missionaries coming from our denominational colleges still continues. It becomes more and more evident that the Christian college is the main source of supply. To neglect it is to invite a general decline in the efficiency of our whole Church work. The Board has received contributions from only 31 Women's Societies, 180 Sunday-schools, and 27 Young People's Societies. The members of our Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies should be trained to consider not only the men and women now nobly at work in the home and foreign fields, but also the sources of supply from which, mainly, their successors must come. The time has surely come when earnest young men and women seeking to fit themselves for the best service are turning to the small college because of the thoroughness of the work it does. And thoughtful men and women are turning to the small colleges with their benevolence, because they have become convinced that it is in these the best results are secured for their money. These confirmed tendencies of our day should be made known to the young people of the Church more largely than it would appear to be from this financial report.

Legacies.—The Board would report that it has been notified that the late Mr. John Stewart Kennedy, of New York, has bequeathed to it an amount which is conservatively estimated at $750,000. We have received a legacy of $27,716.80 from the late Charles L. Palmer, of Albany, N. Y., specifically designated for our Permanent Endowment. These legacies strengthen the Board at what is one of its weakest points—its inability to meet the pressing emergency needs arising here and there among our colleges, and which could not be met from the yearly contributions from the churches. The Board has particularly felt its inability this year. Several cases of extreme need, in current expenses, of some of our colleges arose for which no provision could be made, a few of which, however, we were enabled to relieve partially by the end of the college year. The Board would call the attention of its generous friends to the need of increasing its endowment and the wisdom of remembering it in their wills for that purpose. It is the one thing now most needed to make its work more powerful and more permanent.

SIXTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board has elected, subject to your approval, Thomas H. Perrin, John C. Cobb and Isaac H. Orr to succeed themselves in office as corporate members until 1913.

The Board has confined its efforts to collecting the outstanding loans due The Church Erection Fund, and to disposing of some real estate properties. Only one claim has been settled in full, that of Blackburn, Okla. In the claims against San Antonio, Texas, and Marlow, Okla., foreclosure proceedings have been instituted, and the property ordered sold in order to satisfy the claims. There remain uncollected at this time loans as follows:

We have transferred $3,500 of the Church Erection Fund to the Board of Church Erection of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., 156 Fifth Avenue, New York.

DENVER, COLORADO.—The Peoples' Presbyterian Church (Colored) has been allowed to occupy the property, and has made some small payments, but not sufficient to cover the expense of keeping up the property. At the earnest solicitations of some of the brethren at Denver, who seem confident that under the new management these people will make an earnest effort to meet their obligations, an extension of time has been granted them.

The following statement of resources and liabilities is submitted:

Resources.

Denver property	$3,000 00
Neosho, Mo.	1,000 00
Office furniture and fixtures	100 00
Cash balance	842 14
		$4,942 14

Liabilities.

Bills payable, balance on Denver property	$2,000 00
Bowling Green Colored School Fund	984 68
Church Erection Fund	484 50
		$3,469 18
Resources above liabilities		$1,472 96

Mr. J. M. Patterson, of St. Louis, Mo., has been continued in office as Corresponding Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS H. PERRIN, President.

J. M. PATTERSON, Corresponding Secretary.

First Annual Report.

The Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund respectfully submits its first Annual Report to the General Assembly:

Since the Fund has become a legally established agency of the Church, operating under a charter granted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, substantial and encouraging progress has been made in acquainting the membership of many of our churches with its object and provisions, and enlisting their interest and financial support in its behalf.

The reports of those employed as field representatives show conclusively that this plan to provide for the needs of our aged and disabled ministers and those dependent upon them for support, meets with the approval of the membership of our churches, with but occasional exceptions, when once its object and provisions are fully explained and clearly understood.

It is true that the work of the Fund has been somewhat hampered during the year, and the results in a measure curtailed by the unfortunate impression which gained currency throughout the Church as to the attitude toward it of the last General Assembly. This impression arose from the fact that, while the Assembly approved the work of the Administrative Committee appointed to put the Fund into operation, and commended the cause to the liberal givers of the Church, it refused to recommend the churches to put the Fund on their schedules of benevolence. This prevented some ministers, who had intended uniting with the Fund, from doing so.

The occasion of this refusal on the part of the Assembly was a statement by one of the Commissioners that the "promoters" (referring to the Special Committee that formulated the Plan and submitted it to the Assembly of 1906, which unanimously adopted it), stated that appeals in its behalf would only be made to individuals. But as a matter of fact no such statement was made by any one of those who advocated the adoption of the Plan as submitted. In confirmation of this it is sufficient to say that one of the provisions of the Plan, as submitted by the Committee and adopted by the Assembly, was that the proportion of the annual rates to be secured from the Church at large should be raised "by congregational contributions, donations, devises and bequests." The Commissioner referred to doubtless believed that he was stating a fact when he made his statement. The failure of the Assembly to recommend the churches to put the Fund on their schedules of benevolence, necessitated the employment of additional field representatives, thus necessarily increasing the cost of administration.

The Fund was unanimously endorsed by the Assembly of 1907, and also by the Assembly of 1908, which recommended the churches to put it on their schedules of benevolence.

While the Board of Directors, in view of the action of the last Assembly, has refrained from issuing a general appeal to the churches for an annual collection in behalf of the Fund, upwards of 250 churches have made offerings to this Fund.

A number of bequests have been promised by persons who have in the meantime made liberal contributions towards the current expenses of the Fund, and one generous friend willed to the Fund one-fourth of his estate.

Many of the 2,500 liberal contributors to this Fund have never heretofore given of their means for the support of our aged and disabled ministers. One of the provisions that appeals strongly to business men is the fact that the ministers themselves, during their years of active service, are required to contribute a definite proportion of the cost.

The widows of ten (10) members who have died, eight (8) of whom died during the experimental stage of the Fund, and three (3) disabled members are now receiving their annuities.

There is now in the treasury $66,181.89 in cash and securities, and a balance, not yet due, on time subscriptions, of $59,563.00, payable in one, two, three and four years. Only about 2½ per cent. of the pledges were not paid when due, which is a remarkable and certainly a gratifying showing, and is indicative of the reliability of the men and women who have subscribed to this Fund. The statement of account is appended to this Report as a supplement.

It is especially to be emphasized in connection with the finances of the Fund, that all the expenses of administration have been met out of subscriptions voluntarily made. Every dollar contributed as dues by the members of the Fund is either on deposit in bank or invested in first-class bonds.

It is a source of congratulation to the Board of Directors that it has among its members insurance men of such high standing and long experience as Mr. Levi G. Fouse and Mr. I. Layton Register. These gentlemen have kept in close touch with the operations of the Fund and have been of invaluable aid to the administrative officers.

Further, it is to be noted that the directors have adopted, as a rule for investments, the regulations for investments by savings banks, of force both in Pennsylvania and New York.

A large proportion of the 576 ministers who have so far connected themselves with the Fund are ministers laboring in our mission fields, both home and foreign, and ministers in self-supporting churches, who are receiving relatively small salaries. Many of these ministers, in the event of disability, would be forced to apply to the Board of Relief for aid, as would also their widows in the event of their death. This fact is noted, in view of the statement made at the meeting of the last General Assembly, that the object and provisions of the Sustentation Fund were calculated to meet the needs only of ministers well able, by reason of their larger salaries, to make provision for themselves and those dependent upon them, without such aid from the Church as this Fund contemplates.

The fact that the Fund, through its printed and distributed literature and through the work of its field representatives, has forcibly brought to the attention of the Church the inadequate provision made for the needs of its ministry has also been to the advantage of the Board of Relief. Thus these two agencies may be and ought to be mutually helpful in providing for the needs of our aged and disabled ministers and their dependent loved ones.

The Fund has been paying to the annuitants ⅕ of 20 per cent. of the contemplated benefits. At a special meeting of the Board held May 4, 1910, the amount was increased to 25 per cent., and a further increase will be made as soon as the cash receipts in the Treasury towards the 80 per cent. of the rates, over and above the 20 per cent. paid by the ministers, will justify it. But even ⅕ of the benefits is a larger return for the amounts paid by the ministers than they could get by the investment of like sums in any ordinary Life Insurance or Annuity Company.

The Sustentation Fund is as yet in its infancy, but the progress it has made during the brief time since the work of putting it into effect was begun, is a surprise to those who know somewhat of the difficulties and obstacles which a new Church agency of this nature has to encounter and overcome.

With the continued coöperation of the ministers of our Church, in whose interest and for whose benefit this Fund was instituted, and with the endorsement of this Assembly, to which as a legally established agency of the Church the Fund is entitled, its ultimate and complete success is absolutely assured.

In behalf of the Board,

ROBERT HUNTER, President.

J. R. SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

The Amethyst. Published monthly.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

With gratitude to God for his manifest blessing upon the work, the Permanent Committee on Temperance respectfully presents its Twenty-ninth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

FINANCES.—By strict economy and careful business management, notwithstanding some adverse circumstances, we are able to report all financial obligations met and a small balance in the treasury.

OFFICE WORK.—The very large regular correspondence, the increased demand for information on specific subjects, the call for literature, programs and pledge-cards, the preparation of articles for the secular and religious press, the revision and issuance of new tracts, have placed a heavy pressure upon our office force; but this is an evidence of growing interest and a recognition of the need of such a department of Church work.

FIELD WORK.—Dr. Fulton, Miss Brehm, and Mr. Scanlon, who have been with us for several years, are more in demand as lecturers than ever. Rev. H. M. Perkins began his duties as representative in the Southwest in September. He has labored mainly in Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. For some months past we have also had the service of a worker among the Spanish-speaking people of New Mexico.

THE AMETHYST.—The Amethyst, which was started a year and a half ago, has a circulation of more than 40,000, which is an evidence that it supplies a need. Pastors, clerks of session, Sunday-school teachers, Endeavor workers, Secretaries in missionary societies and people holding no official position, all find in it a store of up-to-date reliable information. It should be understood that The Amethyst is not a commercial enterprise, but belongs to the Church and is published only for the good of the cause.

THE CHURCH TEMPERANCE FEDERATION.—An actual and active Church Temperance Federation is at last an accomplished fact, for the first time, so far as we are aware, in the history of this country. The third meeting of this organization was held at Indianapolis, Ind., November 9 and 10, 1909, at which the following denominations were officially represented: Baptist, Disciples of Christ, Lutheran, Methodist Episcopal, Presbyterian, United Presbyterian, Reformed Presbyterian and Unitarian, while several other denominations were unofficially represented.

THE WORLD'S CONGRESS ON ALCOHOLISM.—The most notable event in the temperance world, during the past year, was the Congress on Alcoholism, which met in London, England, July 18 to 24, in response to an invitation from the British Government to other nations. Twenty-six foreign governments and British colonies were represented by 1,200 delegates. The Duke of Connaught, brother of King Edward VII, was honorary president. The British Government itself sent four representatives from its State Departments, and the official reception is said to have been the first ever given by the British Government at which intoxicants were not served. Two representatives of the Assembly's Committee, Prof. Scanlon and Miss Brehm, were among the official representatives appointed by the United States Government, both of whom attended the Congress.

THE REFORMERS' CONCLAVE.—One of the significant indications of the growing spirit of fraternity and coöperation, was seen in the gathering held in Washington, D.C., last December, at which more than twenty State, national and international temperance and reform organizations were represented. This conference was called by the International Reform Bureau, of which Dr. W. F. Crafts is the distinguished head. The meeting was highly successful and fruitful of good results in a better understanding of the plans and purposes of the several organizations represented.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS.—Solid progress has been made during the past year, though not so much territory was gained for prohibition as in the preceding year. State-wide prohibition went into effect in Tennessee, July 1; Nebraska passed a law limiting the hours during which saloons might be open, from 7 in the morning until 8 at night; Arizona enacted a county option law; Wyoming abolished saloons outside of incorporated towns; the provisions of the Knox Bill regulating the interstate shipment of liquor went into effect January 1; twelve additional counties in Michigan excluded saloons; additional no-license territory has been gained in Indiana, Idaho, Oregon, Colorado and other States.

THE NEXT STEP.—One of the most serious difficulties with which prohibition States have to deal is the shipment into them of liquor under the guise of Inter-State Commerce. The subject has often been referred to in our Annual Reports, but the interests involved are so great, and the wrong and injustice so palpable, that the people must apply themselves with mighty earnestness to its correction.

THE FEDERAL TAX RECEIPT.—The practice on the part of the National Government, in issuing tax receipts, in prohibition territory, to men who hold no local license for the sale of liquor, tends to encourage lawlessness and engenders contempt for local government. The offense, grave in itself, is further aggravated by the refusal of the Government to permit its officials to give information concerning those who hold such receipts or to testify in court against them, except as they may be given permission to do so in each particular case by the Revenue Department. Some way must be found or made to provide adequate protection for prohibition territory or we may lose much already gained.

LARGE FUNDS NEEDED.—When so much is being done for the education of both sexes and all races; when such generous and ample provision is made for the unfortunate and the erring; when science is utilizing the forces of nature and setting the hands and minds of men free to develop their nobler possibilities; when missions are receiving millions for the propagation of the Gospel; when munificent benefactions are made for the investigation and arrest of disease, may we not hope that, in the providence of God, some one to whom has been intrusted large means will have the vision and the faith to bequeath at least a reasonable amount for the promotion of a cause so great, so needy and so worthy as the temperance reform, the success or advancement of which means untold blessing to uncounted millions.

CHARLES SCANLON, Acting Secretary.

The undersigned, certified public accountants in the City of Philadelphia, hereby certify that they have examined the accounts of William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and after careful vouching as to items of charge and discharge, do approve of the same as correct in all particulars; and that they found that there was at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1910, the cash balance as shown by said account, to wit: the sum of nine thousand sixty-three $\frac{60}{100}$ dollars ($9,063.60), duly deposited to the credit of the said William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk, in the following banking institutions; in the Real Estate Trust Company, four thousand six hundred forty $\frac{39}{100}$ dollars, and in the Third National Bank, four thousand four hundred twenty-three $\frac{21}{100}$ dollars.

VOLLUM, FERNLEY, VOLLUM & RORER,
Certified Public Accountants.

The undersigned, in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly of 1908, have caused the cash account of William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk, to be examined and vouched by Messrs. Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants, and their certificate shows that the same is correct, there being in the hands of said William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk, on the 31st of March, 1910, a balance of $9,063.60, duly deposited in bank. We also certify that the accounts of the said William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk, in compliance with the directions of the General Assembly, were examined by us and found correct.

The above statement shows, in general, the financial condition of the General Assembly from year to year for twenty-seven Assemblies. The management which began with 1884 resulted in such economies that a surplus was accumulated, which enabled the Assembly to meet in Portland, Ore., in 1892, and Los Angeles, Cal., without calling for additional funds from the Presbyteries, and also to reduce the apportionments from 1896 to 1905. The interest earned during the period amounted to $34,038.16.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

† The Assembly year is in each case that of the year first given, i.e., the Assembly year 1902–1903 is the year including the expenses of the Assembly meeting in 1902. The Assembly year ended about April 30 until 1909, and now ends March 31.

THE PHILADELPHIA TRUST COMPANY, Treasurer.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in accordance with the requirements of the Charter, respectfully report to the General Assembly the state of the accounts of the Corporation.

The Treasurer's account for the year, accompanied by the Reports of the Committee on Finance and the Committee on Accounts, and certified to by Messrs. Vollum, Fernley, Vollum & Rorer, certified public accountants of the State of Pennsylvania, are attached hereto and made a part of this Report.

The principal of the funds now in the hands of the Trustees amounts to $1,031,544.47, and the income for the year 1909–1910 was $48,611.02. The certified public accountants who audited the books of the Treasurer report that all of these securities are registered in the name of the Corporation, with the exception of $10,000 Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chicago R. R. Co. General Mortgage 4% Bonds, and $20,000 Chicago & Eastern Illinois R. R. Co. General Consolidated and First Mortgage 5% Bonds, and that the real estate mortgages are accompanied by insurance policies.

After many years of litigation, the Trustees, through the efforts of their Solicitor and of the Chairman of their Finance Committee, have secured an adjudication from the Courts of the State of Illinois, whereby the Trustees take title under the will of Meade Holmes, deceased, to certain property in the City of Rockford, Ill., which has been appraised at from $35,000 to $40,000. The property is at present mostly unimproved and yields little, if any, income. The bequest to the Trustees is charged with the payment of $1,000 to "The Theological Seminary of the Northwest, situated at Dubuque, Iowa, a German Institution," and there will be some considerable expenses to pay. The Trustees will use their best endeavors to dispose of the property so that the amount of the bequest may become productive "for scholarships and teachers' salaries in the Mary Holmes Seminary, in Mississippi, through the Board of Missions for Freedmen."

The Trustees wish to call the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that there not being in Philadelphia any one known as a public auditor, it is impossible for them to comply with the directions of the General Assembly as to having their accounts audited by a public auditor. There are in Pennsylvania what are known as certified public accountants who receive their certificates from the Governor of the State on the recommendation of Public Examiners appointed under an Act of the Legislature. It is suggested that the General Assembly so amend its instructions in this respect that the Trustees may be able to comply with them.

Under Section 10 of its Charter, the Board of Trustees are limited to $50,000 as the amount of income they may annually receive. The income for the past year, as shown by the report of the Treasurer, was $48,611.02. By direction of the Board, the Solicitor has prepared an application to the Courts of the County of Philadelphia, asking that this limit be increased to the amount of $250,000. and the General Assembly is requested to approve of the application which is attached hereto and made part of this Report.

The Trustees report, with great sorrow, the death of John H. Converse, LL.D., a member of the Board since May 31, 1892, and its President since May 11, 1908. It will be necessary for the General Assembly to fill the vacancy in the Board caused by the death of Mr. Converse. The undersigned has been chosen his successor as President.

Respectfully submitted for the Corporation by

GEORGE STEVENSON, President,

JACOB WILSON, Recording Secretary.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chapter xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly.*

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage. N.B.—It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that Commissioners asking compensation for sleeping car fare attach receipts to their claims for Mileage for all sleeping car fares. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

* See also Sec. 8, p. 448[11].

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every Minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to three and three-quarters cents for Mileage, and three and three-quarter cents (of which one cent is for expenses of litigation, etc., and three-quarters of one cent for the expenses of the Executive Commission) for Contingent Expenses, or in all seven and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cent per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage and Contingent Funds, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee composed of the Clerks of the Assembly.

☞See, also, Minutes of 1910, p. 252.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1910 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly) to every ordained Minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 448[15] of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of Christian Life and Work within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending March 31st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1906 (Minutes, p. 223), and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Standing Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Church. The blanks for the Congregational Narratives are also furnished by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

3. A Tabulated Statement. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, together with the Narrative, at least ten days before the meeting of that body.

A statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations; organizations and dissolutions of churches; receptions and dismissions of Ministers and churches; together with the number of deaths of Ministers since the last Annual Report, are to be inserted in the proper places in the Tabulated Statement.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 448[15], Minutes, 1910, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record Ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and put their P. O. address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) Report as in transitu the name of each "dismissed" Minister, of whose reception by another Presbytery you have not been officially informed.

(4) ☞ Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other Minister. If the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll and give its P.O. address. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words, such as German, Welsh, Spanish, etc. ☜

(5) Place after the name of every Minister an abbreviation, denoting his occupation: e.g., P., for a Pastor; P.E., for a Pastor Elect; P.Em., for a Pastor Emeritus; C.P., for a Colleague Pastor; A.P., for an Associate Pastor; S.S., for a Stated Supply; H.M., for a Home Missionary; D.M., for a District Missionary; C.M., for a City Missionary; T.M., for a Tract Missionary; S.M., for a Synodical Missionary; S.S.M., for a Sabbath-school Missionary; P.M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; P.Ev., for Pastor-Evangelist; F.M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D.Sec., for a District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Agt., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H.R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and for other Ministers without pastoral charges, no designation whatsoever.

(6) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P.E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S.S., for one that has a Stated Supply, and V., for one that is vacant.

(7) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(8) Additions.—In the additions to church membership, distinguish between those by Examination, those by Certificate, and those by Restoration. The column headed "Restored" is to include all those who have been reinstated, whether from the Suspended Roll or on restoration after full judicial process.

(9) Losses.—In the losses, distinguish between those dismissed, those placed upon the Suspended Roll, and those deceased. The column headed "Dismissed, etc.," is to include the members dismissed to other churches, also those erased from the roll under Section 52, Book of Discipline, and also those excommunicated. The column headed "Suspended Roll" is to include the number of non-resident members whose cases were acted upon during the year by the Session under Sections 49 and 50, Book of Discipline; also those suspended after full judicial process.

(10) Baptisms.—In the baptisms, distinguish between the persons baptized upon confession and those baptized as infants.

(11) Balancing of Returns.—Compare your report of communicants with that of the previous year and adjust the return so that it will balance. For example: Total members previous year, 205. Additions, "Examination" 22, "Certificate" 16, "Restored" 5, total 43. Losses, "Dismissed," etc., 12, "Suspended Roll" 18, "Deceased" 6, total 36. Gain, 7. Net total this year, 212.

(12) Sabbath-school Membership.—To include officers, teachers and scholars in all Sabbath-schools connected with the congregation, not including the "Cradle Roll" nor the "Home Department." [Note.—A separate statement of the details of Sabbath-school work is to be made, on its special blank, for the use of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.]

Funds.—The columns for the Funds Contributed are to be filled as follows:

1. Home Missions.—To include all moneys paid to the Board, all moneys paid for Presbyterial and Synodical Home Missions and Sustentation, also all moneys paid to any general Home Mission object; including contributions of societies, value of boxes, etc.

2. Foreign Missions.—To include all moneys paid for the spread of the Gospel in foreign fields, whether given to the Board or other agencies; including contributions of societies, etc., and gifts to institutions connected with the Board.

3. Education.—To include all moneys paid for the education of candidates for the ministry, whether to the Board or other agencies, and also gifts to Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work.—To include all moneys paid to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for its missionary operations, and to other Sabbath-school organizations. The contributions for the support of the Home Sabbath-school are to be placed in the column headed "Congregational."

5. Church Erection.—To include all moneys paid for church erection outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund.—To include all moneys paid for the support of disabled ministers and missionaries, and in aid of their families, whether to the Board or otherwise; including contributions of societies, etc.

7. Freedmen.—To include all moneys paid for the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise; including contributions of societies, etc., and gifts to institutions connected with the Board.

8. Colleges.—To include all moneys paid to Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether to the Board or otherwise. Contributions to the institutions connected with Foreign Missions and Freedmen are to be placed under those heads.

9. Temperance.—To include all moneys given to the Permanent Committees on Temperance or to other Temperance agencies.

10. General Assembly, etc.—To include all moneys given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether for Presbytery, Synod or General Assembly. Give both dollars and cents in this column.

11. Congregational.—To include all moneys collected in or by the congregation for expenses—the salary of the minister, the support of the church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor, building and repairing edifices, the liquidation of debts and other purposes. Moneys received from any other church or Board for the salary of the minister or other expenses should not be included.

12. Miscellaneous.—To include all moneys paid to Bible Agencies, Tract Societies, Christian Endeavor, Young Men's Christian Associations, Hospitals, and general benevolence.

Bible Society.—To include all moneys paid to the American Bible Society, or to other Bible agencies. A blank is sent for these contributions, which are reported separately (see p. 429), in addition to being included in the "Miscellaneous" column.

Individual Gifts.—If the donors do not object, the direct gifts of individuals to any of the Boards, or to the causes they represent, should be reported with other gifts under the proper head. Individual gifts for religious and charitable causes not included in the regular schedule should be placed under the head "Miscellaneous."

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(13) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Addresses in the next column; next give the Names and Addresses of the Local Evangelists; these are not ordained ministers. Of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the churches of the Presbytery—the Number only is to be given.

(14) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(15) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(16) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian names of every Minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible and arranged in strict accordance with the established form.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 25, but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the office of the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly shall meet annually, on the third Thursday of May, beginning at 10.30 A.M.; the afternoon session shall be held at 2.30 P.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of Saturday, the third day, to the Presbyterian Brotherhood and to the Board of Education.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening to the College Board.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

5. The whole territory of the Church shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Districts, composed of Presbyteries, so arranged, by combining the smaller Synods, and dividing the larger by Presbyteries, as to make nearly equal delegations, as follows, e.g.: (see p 173).

6. (a) The General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections, composed of Commissioners, so arranged as to make the Sections of nearly equal delegations. The Electing Sections shall be numbered the same as the Electing Districts.

(b) The members of each Electing Section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly, each Commissioner shall be assigned to his seat in advance of the meeting of the Assembly, by the Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew or seat from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day.

(c) The organization of the Electing Sections shall be effected in the following manner, to wit:

Immediately after the roll call, and before the nominating and seconding speeches for Moderator shall be made, the Stated Clerk shall announce one Commissioner in each Electing Section as the Convener thereof, and the receiver of any necessary papers for the section. Under the supervision of such Convener, each Electing Section shall then elect a Chairman and a Secretary. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be a majority of its members.

7. (a) The roll shall be called immediately after the opening prayer at the afternoon session of the first day, in the following manner, unless there be a motion to the contrary, to wit: only the names of absentees as they appear on the roll of the Permanent Committee on Commissions shall be called, at which time any needed corrections may be made.

(b) After the election of the Moderator, the Permanent Clerk shall report absentees from the first roll-call. Vacancies in the Electing Sections may then be filled by the Assembly. Whenever additional members take their seats, the Permanent Clerk shall add their names to the roll.

(c) No Commissioner failing to enroll shall be allowed to vote in his Electing Section.

8. The election of the Moderator shall be effected immediately after the roll-call and the organization of the Electing Sections, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) Only one speech nominating a candidate for Moderator shall be made, limited to ten minutes; and only one speech, and that not to exceed five minutes, shall be made in seconding the nomination of a candidate.

(b) Where there is only one nominee for Moderator the Election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more than one, the election may be made by ballot in the following manner, to wit:

After the nominations are made (the organization of the Electing Sections having been effected (see Rule 6, (c)), the Chairman of each Electing Section shall appoint two tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a blank, to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The tellers shall collect the ballots and count them, under the supervision of the Chairman. The result shall be recorded by the Secretary on blanks in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereupon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

(c) When the reports of the ballots have been handed in from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator shall then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one shall have received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result, and declare him to be elected.

9. The election of the Standing Committees, by the Electing Sections, shall be effected immediately after the election of the Moderator, in the following manner, to wit:

(a) The Electing Sections shall meet, at the places assigned them, for the purpose of electing the Standing Committees, toward the close of the second session of the first day; but if not at that time, then at 9.30 A.M. of the second day.

(b) The Standing Committees, except those on Mileage and on Finance, shall be numbered consecutively, and shall each consist of twenty-three members, including the Chairman, with eleven ministers and eleven elders, except the Committees on Mileage and on Finance, which shall each consist of twelve elders. Eleven members of the Committees on Mileage and on Finance and eleven ministers and eleven elders of the other Committees shall be chosen from the Electing Sections as herein provided. The quorum shall be a majority of the members. Each Presbytery shall be represented on some Standing Committee.

(c) On odd-numbered years, each odd-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Mileage Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered Section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Finance Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

(d) The Stated Clerk shall furnish to each Electing Section properly printed Election Return Blanks, for the election of the Standing Committees, which shall be filled in by the Secretary of the Electing Section, and returned forthwith to the Stated Clerk, and the Stated Clerk shall, if possible, furnish to each Chairman, before the close of the first day, a list of the members of his Committee, and shall also announce, at the close of the evening session, the names of the Committees on Bills and Overtures and on Judicial Business.

(e) The Moderator shall, as soon as possible after his election, appoint an additional member of each Standing Committee, who shall be the Chairman thereof, provided that he shall not appoint more than one member as Chairman from the same Electing Section, except in the case of the Committees on Mileage and on Finance.

If the Moderator shall appoint as a member and Chairman of any Standing Committee any one chosen by any Electing Section as a member of that or any other Standing Committee, the appointment of the Moderator shall take precedence, and the Electing Section shall choose another member to fill the vacancy on the Committee, caused by the Moderator's appointment.

10. The Stated Clerk shall give notices to the Commissioners as to their places in the Electing Sections and as to the Committeemen to be chosen. He shall also assign their places, in the Electing Districts, to new Presbyteries that may be erected during the intervals of the meetings of the Assembly, and he shall attend to other details connected with the operation of the Plan.

11. The Reports of the Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Christian Life and Work, first Friday, 2.30 P.M.

Sabbath Observance, first Saturday, 11 A.M.

Ministerial Relief, first Monday, 10 A.M.
Education, Monday, 3 P.M.
Freedmen, Tuesday, 10 A.M.
Colleges, Tuesday, 2.30 P.M.
Temperance, Tuesday, 4 P.M.
Home Missions, Wednesday, 10 A.M.
Publication and S. S. Work, Wednesday, 2.30 P.M.
Synodical Home Missions, Wednesday, 4 P.M.
Foreign Missions, Thursday, 10 A.M.
Church Erection, Thursday, 2.30 P.M.
Correspondence, Thursday, 4 P.M.
Benevolence, second Friday, 10 A.M.

12. That the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions have each two hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Colleges have each one and a half hours; that the Chairmen of the Standing Committees be allowed two-thirds of the time allotted to their Committees, which may be divided as the several Committees may elect; the remaining one-third of the time shall be given to the Commissioners, no Commissioner being allowed to speak more than five minutes, until all other Commissioners have been heard who desire to speak on the pending question. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to communicate these rules to the Chairmen of the Standing Committees upon their appointment.

13. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

14. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session. (See Rule 27.)

15. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Standing Committees.

16. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

17. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

18. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly, on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

19. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

20. In all regions, where through the organization of Union Presbyteries or the existence of Missions without Presbyterial organization, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each Mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly, and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247]. This rule shall also apply to Home Mission Presbyteries whose members are so located as to prevent regular meetings, and in the discretion of the Assembly. The names of the Advisory members shall be called at the first Roll-Call and seats shall be assigned them by the Stated Clerk. [1907, p. 88; 1908, p. 130.]

21. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108; 1898, p. 132].

22. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies may be filled, until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

23. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

24. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

25. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination, by the General Assembly, is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41].

26. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [1896, p. 130].

27. All reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk forty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, shall be printed by him, and copies shall be sent in bound form to Commissioners, so far as practicable, immediately upon notification of their election; and copies shall also be delivered to the Assembly on the second day of the sessions.

28. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly [1898, p. 132].

29. The Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, should an emergency requiring action at any time arise, are authorized to provide a new place of meeting for the General Assembly.

30. Hereafter all Overtures from Presbyteries and Synods which are to come before the General Assembly shall be, so far as practicable, in the hands of the Stated Clerk at least two weeks before the meeting of the Assembly, and by him shall be printed in convenient form for distribution on the floor of the Assembly, such distribution to be made not later than the second day of the Assembly.

31. All Overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers, connected with the business of the Assembly, must be presented to the Assembly not later than the close of the second day of its session.

32. The election of members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly shall take place on the morning of Tuesday, the fifth day, as the first Order of the Day, in the following manner:

It shall be the duty of the Judicial Committee of the General Assembly to report to the Assembly, on Tuesday, the fifth day, suitable nominations to fill the vacancies on the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly, from which nominations, together with any others regularly made by the Commissioners at the same time as those made by the Judicial Committee, the necessary number of persons shall be elected, on Thursday, the seventh day, as the first Order of the Day.

33. The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly shall have authority to adopt rules pertaining to its own method of procedure, and shall report the same to the General Assembly; provided, that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Church or the rules adopted by the General Assembly.*

34. The Standing Orders and Rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the Assembly, upon motion duly made.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. Subsequent Assemblies have modified them from time to time.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present being a Commissioner, or, if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the Standing Committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members: but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the Clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the Clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper endorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment to report its recommendations as to orders of business or reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its sessions, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate, but it shall not be in order for any one debating another motion to propose the motion to lay on the table or the previous question, at the close of his remarks, unless he shall obtain the floor again for that purpose. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, viz.: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded, by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order, or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. It is expedient that Judicatories appoint a Standing Committee, to be known as the "Judicial Committee," to whom shall be referred all papers and questions of a judicial nature, and whose duty it shall be to recommend to the judicatory answers to judicial questions and orders of procedure in all judicial cases.

In the General Assembly, the province of the Judicial Committee shall be to pass upon the question of the regularity of the papers and the record in all cases referred to it by the Assembly; to determine, upon the face of the papers, whether questions of doctrine or Constitution are raised, and if, prima facie, there is a case, to recommend the same to the Assembly for reference to Judicial Commissions. The members of the Judicial Committee are not debarred by their appointment from sitting and voting as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.

XLIV. Whenever a case is to be taken from an inferior judicatory to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of such inferior judicatory shall, at least twenty days before the meeting of the General Assembly, send a notice concerning such case to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, who shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission, unless the General Assembly shall have ordered otherwise, that the services of the Commission will be needed at the approaching Assembly; but if no such notice shall be received by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, he shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the services of the Commission will not be needed at the approaching Assembly.

XLV. These rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the judicatory, upon motion duly made.

RULES OF THE PERMANENT JUDICIAL COMMISSION.

In accordance with the requirements of the Constitution, the Permanent Judicial Commission respectfully reports to the General Assembly the following rules of procedure:

1. The General Rules for Judicatories, as far as applicable.

2. Vice-Moderator.—In addition to a Moderator and Clerk, the Commission shall elect, annually, a Vice-Moderator, who shall act as Moderator in the event of the death, disability, resignation or absence of the Moderator, or of the termination of his commissionership; and he shall hold office until the election of his successor.

The Vice-Moderator shall be a member of the Commission, whose term expires at a period not less than two years from the date of his election.

3. Clerk.—In the event of the death, disability, resignation or absence of the Clerk, or the termination of his commissionership, the Moderator shall appoint a Clerk pro tem., to serve in the interim of the meetings of the Commission.

4. When the Moderator receives notice from the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly that the services of the Commission will be needed at any time or place, he shall forthwith notify each member of the Commission that the services of the Commission will be required at such meeting.

5. The Commission, when so ordered, shall meet at the same time and place with the General Assembly, and shall convene for organization at 5 o'clock P.M of the first day of the meeting of the General Assembly. The time and place of all other meetings shall be determined by the Moderator and the Clerk of the Commission, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission or the General Assembly.

6. Immediately after the organization of the Commission, at any meeting of the General Assembly, the fact shall be reported to the General Assembly, and at the same time a report shall be made as to vacancies existing or about to occur, caused either by the expiration of the term for which members were elected or by death or resignation, for reference to the Judicial Committee, according to the Constitution.

7. The officers of this Commission shall be elected, annually, on Tuesday, the fifth day of the meeting of the General Assembly, at 3 o'clock P.M., and such officers shall assume the duties of their several offices upon the final adjournment of the General Assembly, serving in the interim between meetings of the General Assembly and until final adjournment of the next succeeding General Assembly.

8. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, or some one designated by him, to appear before the General Assembly to present the findings of the Commission in cases referred to it by the General Assembly.

9. The Commission shall designate a member or members to represent it in the General Assembly to defend any action or finding of the Commission.

10. The Commission shall set a time limit for arguments of such litigants and their counsel as may appear before the Commission in any case, and shall so notify them prior to the hearing of the same.

Attest: ROBERT HUNTER, Clerk.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk

Philadelphia, Pa., July 27, 1910.

†† Includes all churches received by the Reunion of 1906.

* Includes in part Synodical and Presbyterial expenses.

† Does not include interest on Permanent Funds of the Boards, about $160,000, or income of the Theological Seminaries, about $480,000, or many of the legacies and individual gifts to the Boards to the amount of $1,000,000. With these included the total for 1909 would amount to at least $24,598,968.

‡ Included in Miscellaneous. See, also, p. 428.
